

Waugus; Mountaineers Vie For Title

Phi Kap Sig Awarded Booby Prize

The Waugus, Mural softball league 1 champions, last Tuesday defeated the league 2 Champion Mountaineers, 9-5, in the first of a three game series for the campus championship.

The Waugus scored in all but the fifth inning in the championship battle, while allowing the Mountaineers to score only in the first and sixth.

The Mountaineers got the game underway with a four run lead, but were unable to do anything else for the rest of the game.

In the race for the Booby prize, the PiKAs edged out the Phi Kap Sigs, 16-15. The Kap Sigs were awarded an appropriate prize signifying their position at the bottom of the campus title race.

Like the Mountaineers, the Kap Sigs blew a four point lead that they accumulated in the first inning. The Kap Sigs scored eight runs in the first, five in the fourth, and one each in the fifth and seventh.

The PiKAs managed to get four runs in the first, but were held scoreless in the second. They collected seven tallies in the third and five in the fourth to end their scoring at 16 runs, and the honor of escaping the Booby prize.

Nynmicz, former Tar Heel golf and basketball star, will take over as head basketball coach at Mercer in the fall.

Moody, who holds the Southern Conference Outdoor, Carolina Relay, and National Intercollegiate record in the high jump, will take over as track coach at Riverside, also in the fall.

Golfing Ace Turns Pro

Roy McKenzie of Winston-Salem, an ex-Tar Heel golfing ace, has turned pro. The Twin Citian joined the ranks of the professionals a few weeks ago and entered the playoffs for a berth in the U. S. Open.

McKenzie's score wasn't quite good enough to put him in the big tourney being played at Birmingham, Mich.

Ted Schroeder who has been a mainstay on the team since the war was not considered this year at his own request because he didn't feel that he would have the time due to business interests.
