Band to Play

The University band will present its first summer concert Sunday afternoon at 4:30 near the Davie poplar. Under Allen W. Garrett, summer director, the band will offer a program of well-known popular and semiclassical selections.

To be presented are such compositions as Erik Leidzen's "Debonnaire Overture", Gershwin's "The Man I Love", and selections from Sigmund Romberg's "The Student Prince."

The concert is free, open to the public, and the band invites all to attend. One more concert will be given toward the end of the second session of the summer school term.

President John Schnorrenberg president over the explosive session and found it necessary to pound-hard-for order on several occasions. The meeting was saddened to learn that Senator Banks Talley's father had died, and in Executive Session the Senate voted than an appropriate expression of its sorrow and regret be communicated to the family.

At its last meeting of the session the Phi Assembly Tuesday night passed resolutions on both campus and international issues.

The first of these, a bill to equalize the coed and male student populations of the University, pointed to the present reduced enrollment as an excellent opportunity to revise admissions policy to a more satisfactory viewpoint and more realistic one. The bill was opposed on the ground that it would deplete the population of the Woman's Colby a large margin.

The second, a bill to provide for the setting up of an international language, was finally passed in an amended form which proposed a language similar in its conception to Esperanto and activity of the French House, a including the advantages of the International Phonetic Alphabet.
