Men's Dorms Fete Coeds With Picnics This Week

Several male dormitories have been holding picnics for coed residence halls.

Last night Spencer Dormitory was entertained by the boys from Winston Dormitory with a weenie roast at Hogan's Lake. Softball preceded the picnic part of it. Working on the project were Dot Curran, Max Ballinger, Howard Tickle, Harold Remond, Tommy Hopkins, LaRue Smith, Jack Parks, Ann Parsons, Dot Smothers and Scottie Dickinson. The picnic lasted from 6 to 11 p.m.

Some 75 people attended another outdoor gathering held this week when Old East and West invited the ladies from Smith Dormitory.

affair, Madry led two panel discussions and was chairman of the nominating committee for new officers.

He has headed UNC's publicity outlet since 1923.

Room Reservations

Those who have not reserved rooms for the second Summer Session should do so immediately by contacting the Housing Office in New East Annex.

Housing Administrator James Wadsworth yesterday reminded Summer School students that it is necessary to make a separate $6 deposit to reserve a room for the Fall. Most of the rooms for the Fall already are taken, he said.
