

Chancellor's assistants named

John P. Evans, a specialist in management systems and Susan E. McDonald, an attorney, have been named assistants to UNC Chancellor Ferebee Taylor. The appointments were effective yesterday.

"A large volume and variety of matters arise which require attention in the Chancellor's office and must be dealt with promptly and responsibly," Taylor said. "I have selected two persons who, in my judgment, and in the judgment of my principal administrative colleagues, possess the qualities and dedication required to render the professional kind of assistance needed by the Chancellor."

Evans will work primarily with programs initiated by the Chancellor to improve the University's overall operations.

McDonald will deal primarily with matters initiated by others, such as members of the University community, parents, alumni, citizens and government agencies.

Evans joined the UNC School of Business Administration faculty in 1970. He was named Chairman of the University's Curriculum in Operations Research and Systems Analysis in July 1973.

He received his B.M.E., B.S., M.S. and Ph. D. degrees from Cornell University. He has taught at Cornell, George Washington University and the University of Chicago. He will continue as professor in the School of Business Administration.

McDonald has served since August, 1973, as assistant to Douglass Hunt, UNC Vice-Chancellor for Administration. She graduated from the UNC law school in 1968 and was on the law faculty for three years. She has also practiced law in Raleigh and Washington D.C. Her undergraduate degree was earned at UNC.

Susan Ehringhaus McDonald

John P. Evans

Death penalty rally

At least 5,000 people from around North Carolina and the nation are expected to attend Thursday's anti-capital punishment rally in Raleigh. The rally is sponsored by the National Alliance Against Racism and Repression.

The rally will begin at 9 a.m. in Raleigh's Memorial Coliseum where various national figures, including Stevie Wonder, Rev. Ralph Abernathy, Donald Byrd and Congressman John Conyers (D-Mich.) will speak.

The rally is to protest North Carolina's capital punishment law, state hospital behavioral modification programs and state political repression in general. After the speeches, rally participants will march from the coliseum, around Central Prison, which houses the state's Death Row, to the State Capitol.

The local chapter of the alliance is offering rides to Raleigh Thursday morning leaving 207 Wilson Court between nine and 10 a.m.

Woodfields Riding Stable
 OPEN SEVEN DAYS—ALL DAY.
 Hunt-Seat • Equitation • Renting
 Trail Rides Daily
 Very Reasonable Rates. Please Make Appointment In Advance.
 Call: 493-1842
 George King Rd., Durham, 3 Miles From Eastgate Shopping Center

WELCOME!
to Chapel Hill & to The Shrunken Head
 PRESENT THIS AD
 and receive 10% discount on any item (except sale merchandise)
 We carry these fine labels:
 • Young Edwardian • Young & Innocent
 • Jody • Sweet Baby Jane
 • Plain Jane • Joe Matthews
 • Landlubber • Levi Strauss
 • H.I.S. & H.E.R.
 PLUS a great variety of things for your room!
THE SHRUNKEN HEAD INC.
 Franklin St. • Downtown

Campus Calendar

Items of Interest

The July 4th celebration at Kenan Stadium will also include a children dinner from 6 to 8 p.m. Adult dinners are $2.50 and children through 12 are $1.25. All proceeds go to the American Field Service International Scholarship. Tickets may be bought from WCHL, "The Village Advocate," The Golden West, Billy Arthur's, Eastgate Hardware, Huggins Hardware, Andrew's-Heninger and the Glenn Lennox Pharmacy.

The Course-Teacher Evaluation Commission needs several volunteers to assist in preparing the evaluation for publication. Any interested students should call Ken Herman at 939-6304 after 6 p.m.

"Women in Prison" - Discussion led by Ann Sheppard, who spent nine months in the Women's Prison in Raleigh. Friday night, June 28 at 8 p.m. at the Presbyterian Student Center on Hargett Street. Sponsored by Women's International League for Peace and Freedom and the Chapel Hill Peace Center.

The Carolina Bridge Club will meet at 7:30 p.m. on Monday nights in the Carolina Union beginning July 8. The club is open to students, faculty, staff and laypeople. There is a charge of 50 cents for UNC students and 75 cents for others.

Student Consumer Action Union: interested in working on complaint lines, publications, etc.? Volunteers are badly needed. Come to a meeting Thursday at 8 in the SCUA office, Suite 8, Union; or come by and leave your name.

Lost and Found

Found: A ladies wrist watch - gold with initials on the back. Found on a sidewalk in front of Zoom-Zoom. Call 633-6041.

Lost: Ladies yellow gold Bulova wrist watch, somewhere between Whitehead Dorm and Pepp's Pizza Den. Engraved initials: J.A.S., on back. If found, call 633-6484 anytime. Reward.

Lost: A gold watch, engraved JGM on the back. Of sentimental value. Call 633-6175. Reward offered.

Lost: Yellow cat with beads and bell, on Hillsborough Street. Please call 942-6418.

Announcing Neal's
SUMMER SHOE SALE
 including Sandals, Wedgies, Platforms, Dressy & Casual

WOMEN'S
Reg. to $30	NOW $19.90	Reg. to $18	NOW $13.90
Reg. to $24	NOW $15.90	Reg. to $15	NOW $10.90
Special Group... now $5.90

MEN'S
 Selected Styles by Florsheim & Jarman 30% off

neal's SHOES & potpourri
 OPEN DAILY 10-6 FRIDAY 10-8:30
 UNIVERSITY SQUARE DOWNTOWN CHAPEL HILL

Textbooks? Textbooks?

Ask a friend — you'll find you can SAVE at the INTIMATE

- Save money
- Save time
- Save temper

Used books cost you less, and the Intimate often drops the prices even lower when the supply is too big. Some new book prices have been cut, too! Shop the Intimate first!

Our folks run and find your books for you, to help you get the books you need and get rolling in a hurry. (We pick the best used book we can find, or new ones if the used are gone.)

We do our best to keep bureaucracy at a minimum and provide the quickest, most cheerful service to our customers.

We don't have them all, but we do have a big stock of used and new books, including a number of exclusive course listings!

The Intimate Bookshop

Text Shopping? Save Time and money and avoid long lines!
 Get 'em at

Open Seven Days A Week 'Til 10 O'clock

119 E. Franklin Street, Chapel Hill