

DEBATING TEAMS AT UNIVERSITY HAVE FAIR YEAR

Engage In Fourteen Debates,
Two Oratorical Contests; Win
Three, Lose Five.

(By Alan Lowenstein)

With the Carolina-University of the South debate a week ago yesterday, the University debating organization completed its activities for the year. From the point of view of debates won and lost, one might consider the year as being less successful than former years, but from the caliber of the debates our teams have held, and from the excellent teams they have met, one might say that the year was worthwhile for the teams. Fourteen debates were held during the year, two oratorical contests, and a Di-Phi debate.

North Carolina teams debated Wake Forest, North Carolina State, South Carolina, Emory, Georgia Tech, George Washington University, Maryland, Northwestern, Boston University, Virginia, and Sewanee. Two of these colleges, George Washington University and Boston University, were debated twice by our teams. During the season North Carolina won three debates, lost five and had four no-decision contests.

Two oratorical contests and one Di-Phi debate were held during the year. H. H. Hobgood represented the University in the American Legion Oratorical Contest last February and was awarded second place. In the intercollegiate oratorical contest on the Constitution held two weeks ago, he was awarded third place. This was the state elimination contest. However, due to some irregularities, this contest was recently held over, Hobgood not taking part. The Mary D. Wright Memorial Debate between the Dialectic Senate and the Philanthropic Assembly was won by the Di. J. C. Williams was awarded the Wright medal for the best speaker on the winning team. The Di was represented by Williams and C. Shreve, and the Phi by R. E. Stanton and J. C. Harris.

Twelve students took part in the debates for the University this year. John Wilkinson and C. P. Carr participated in five debates each, J. M. Baley and W. W. Speight were entered in four, McB. Fleming-Jones and H. H. Hobgood represented the University in three contests, while J. C. Williams and C. W. Meares took part in two debates. T. E. Denton, T. M. Mashburn, W. Uzzell and A. V. Lowenstein took part in one debate each for the University. The debate squad during the year was made up of about 25 members.

Four subjects were debated during the year. The question "Resolved, That the nations of the world adopt a plan of complete disarmament with the exception of such forces as are necessary for police purposes" was debated eight times by University teams, the chain store question, worded "Resolved, That the principle of the chain store system is detrimental to (Continued on page two)

Senior "O. K.'s"

All seniors in the college of liberal arts who have not brought to the dean's office an "O. K." from their major head are requested to do so at once.

A Correction

The Daily Tar Heel regrets to state that, owing to a reporter's error, the term "local chapter of Sigma Zeta fraternity" was misprinted as "Sigma Zeta local fraternity."

ALLERTON HOUSE TO FEATURE U.N.C. BY RADIO MONDAY

Six-Thirty Program From K. Y. W. Dedicated To Carolina-Virginia-Maryland.

On Monday night at 6:30 eastern standard time over radio station KYW at Chicago there will be a special program dedicated to the Universities of North Carolina, Virginia and Maryland.

The Allerton House, as the official intercollegiate alumni residence of Chicago, broadcasts a musical program, the collegiate hour, from the Allerton House dining room over the Chicago station every Monday night.

The hour this coming week will be dedicated to the three southern universities mentioned above. The Allerton glee club, one of the finest in the country, will sing three songs of each university represented. This will be supplemented by solo numbers and a short word of greeting to alumni by J. G. Williams, president of the North Carolina Club of Chicago; Nelson Levings, secretary of the University of Virginia Club; and George B. Morse, president of the University of Maryland Club of Chicago.

Station KYW is a 50,000 watt station and is one of the three strongest stations in the country.

Y HILLSIDE MEET WILL BE SUNDAY

The three cabinets of the Y. M. C. A. will meet Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Forest theatre for their annual hillside meeting. The hillside meeting is the final meeting of the year, and it is at this meeting that there are made the reports of all officers, all chairmen, and the general secretary. Besides these there is always a fellowship gathering at which also the retiring and incoming presidents make short talks of accomplishments and aims for the coming year.

The program for the meeting includes choral songs by the Y quartet, reports and the feature will be the talk to be delivered by Frank Graham. The president of the Y, Ed Hamer, invites all students who would like to visit and hear of the work done the past year and those who would like to join in a meeting of good fellowship in the Forest theatre.

Two Dances Conclude Program for Week-end

The second set of dances of the week-end's social program will be staged tonight, one at the Carolina Inn and the other at the Bynum gymnasium. The first dance will be a tea dance from 6 to 9 at the Carolina Inn given in Bynum gymnasium from 9 to 12.

Russ Bolin and his Ohio Cotton Pickers, who played for the two dances last night will render the music for both of tonight's affairs.

GLEE CLUB ENDS SUCCESSFUL YEAR

Wins South Atlantic Title;
Gives 14 Performances In
This and Other States.

Winner of the South Atlantic intercollegiate contest and of the acclaim of discriminating audiences in this and other states, the University glee club has just closed one of the most successful seasons in the history of musical organizations at this institution.

The club gave concerts in 14 different towns. One of the performances was in New York City, where the club appeared in the National Contest as the representative of the South Atlantic states, and another was in Washington, D. C., the latter being sponsored by Carolina alumni of that city.

Concerts were also given in Charlotte, Monroe, Concord, Durham, Raleigh, Wilmington, New Bern, Murfreesboro, Spartanburg, S. C., Norfolk, Va., and in Chapel Hill. The last appearance was before the homefolks in a concert in the Playmaker theatre here last week.

Professor Harold S. Dyer, head of the department of music, directed the club throughout the past year, with Professor Nelson O. Kennedy as accompanist and piano soloist. Officers of the club were J. Paul Scurlock, Greensboro, president; Troxell Reynolds, Chapel Hill, vice-president; Stephen A. Lynch, Jr., Miami, Fla., secretary; W. Gillis Brown, Flushing, N. Y., librarian; Homer L. Lyon, Jr., Whiteville, business manager; C. B. Overman, Washington, D. C., assistant business manager.

Ewan S. Clark of Halifax, Nova Scotia, was student director. Clark was voted a special award by the club at its last executive meeting. Glee club keys were earned and voted to 11 men, which is the largest number to gain this distinction in a single year in the history of the club.

BOOK OF POEMS IS ISSUED HERE

Author of Volume Is Member
Of Writers' Club Of Columbia University.

The latest offering of the University of North Carolina Press is a volume of verse by Anne Blackwell Payne, a native Tar Heel now residing in New York.

The title of the volume is Released. It consists of light lyrics and sonnets and poems for children. Her verse has appeared in leading magazines.

Miss Payne was born in Concord. Her family moved to Washington when she was young girl and she grew up there. She attended Flora MacDonald College and then taught school for six years.

Stories and verse for children comprised Miss Payne's first efforts at writing. Many of her poems were published in Child Life, Youth's Companion and elsewhere. One of her children's poems was set to music and published in Primary Education and another was used in the Elson Fifth Reader. Her first serious poem appeared in Good Housekeeping in 1922.

Miss Payne has been living in New York for six years, during which she has been intermittently studying English and poetry at Columbia University with John Erskine, Carl Van Doren, Joseph Auslander and others; writing short stories, helping to run a house, and occasionally teaching kindergarten.

She is a charter member of the Writers' Club of Columbia University; has had poems in four of their yearly anthologies which are published under the name of Copy; and won the prize for the best poem one year. She is also a member of the Poetry Society of America.

Miss Payne's father was Dr. Charles Montgomery Payne, originally of Lexington, a physician and later a Presbyterian minister. Her mother was Margaret Justice Sparrow of New Bern and Washington, N. C. Her grandfather was Thomas Sparrow, a lawyer of Washington, N. C., and a major in the Civil War.

Room Notice

Rooms for the fall quarter are open for reservations for the students now occupying the rooms. Those who expect to remain in the same room next fall must make a deposit of $5.00 by May 31st. After that date all rooms on which no deposit has been made will be assigned to other applicants.

All applications will be filed in the order in which they are received, and will be assigned in the same manner on June 1st. A $5.00 deposit must be made with each application.

COLLECT $648 IN DRIVE FOR FUNDS

Lawrence Makes Statement On Results Of Campaign For Relief of Poor.

George H. Lawrence, superintendent of public welfare stationed at Chapel Hill, in an interview with a Daily Tar Heel reporter stated that $649.11 raised through emergency funds for the poor of Orange county has been carefully expended during the recent period of hard times.

The Campus Relief Fund, sponsored by the Daily Tar Heel, contributed $202.73, and outside contributions amounted to $227.51, which consisted of gifts from members of the faculty, students and residents of Chapel Hill, was used to relieve some 53 needy families in the county.

The present period of hard times and poverty throughout the county, according to Mr. Lawrence, are caused principally by unemployment and poor crops throughout the section. Now that warm weather seems to have set in conditions should improve, according to Lawrence, since the majority of the country families will be able to grow foodstuffs in small quantities, at least.

So far conditions in Carrboro have been very good, but with the partial closing down of the larger of the two factories there, approximately 100 people, both men and women, will be out of work.

Mr. Lawrence has $21.94 left in the emergency funds, and states that approximately 18 of the 43 families aided will require additional assistance.

BANK ASSOCIATION GIVES UNIVERSITY SCHOLARSHIP GIFT

The American Bankers Association Foundation has informed Dean F. F. Bradshaw that the University has been allotted one loan scholarship of $250 for the school year beginning 1930.

This scholarship loan is to be awarded to a junior or senior studying foreign trade, banking, or similar subjects.

The committee upon whose recommendation the award is made consists of R. B. House, T. W. Sprinkle, Grady Leonard, Miss Mabel Mallett, John W. Simpson, president of the North Carolina Bankers Association, and Dean Bradshaw, who will serve as chairman of the committee.

Any students who are interested in applying for this loan scholarship should secure blanks at once from the dean of students' office, 205 South building.

RUSHING RULES ARE ANNOUNCED FOR NEXT YEAR

Provisions Are Practically Same
As Those Of Last Year Except For Date Restrictions.

Jack Ward, the new president of the interfraternity council, announces the following rushing rules for next year. They will be the same as those for this year with only a few changes.

The new rules read as follows: Rushing—The rushing season begins one week after the first day of classes which is preceded by what is known in fraternity circles as the first period of silence in which there shall be no rushing of any kind. This period of silence includes what is commonly known as freshman week in addition to the first week of classes. For the twenty days following this date each fraternity will entertain freshmen to whom it is considering extending bids. All fraternity rushing-entertainment is restricted to the fraternity houses and shall be limited to the hours of two to nine o'clock p. m., except on the last night (October 18) of the period of rushing, when the time shall be extended to midnight. The second period of silence shall extend from midnight of October 18 to six p. m. of October 20. Periods of silence are periods in which freshmen consider the merits of the various fraternities by whom they have been rushed. No freshmen are permitted to be rushed or talked to by any fraternity man or his associates during the periods of silence. During the entire rushing season no freshman will be permitted under any circumstances to spend time at fraternities outside of the above mentioned hours (two to nine p. m.)

No fraternity man will be allowed to room with a freshman during rushing season, or even allowed to visit him at his rooms outside of the regular hours.

Dates—Appointments between fraternity men and freshmen can only be made once a week in advance, the first ones having to be recorded in the Dean of Students' office. No freshman shall be permitted to break any first date with a fraternity under penalty of being barred from fraternity membership. No freshman can make more than two dates with a fraternity for the first two days.

Pledging—After the rushing season fraternity bids are given out by the dean of students, after each student has recorded his preferences providing he were to receive a bid or bids. Each freshman names his first, second and third choices and more if he had them. No freshman, under any circumstances will be permitted to be pledged before pledge day.

Initiating—Fraternity pledges may be initiated at the end of the winter quarter provided they have passed five courses, making at least two C's (85). Any pledge not satisfying scholastic requirements to be initiated must wait over until the following year to be initiated.

Catholic Mass

Catholic Mass will be held in Gerrard hall tomorrow morning at 8:30 o'clock.

During the school year 1891-1892 no student was allowed to leave "the Hill" without the permission of the president.
