

Hines And McCachren Placed On "Tar Heel's" All-Southern Team

South Carolina Gamecocks Also Put the Tompkins Brothers On Mythical Quint.

Two White Phantoms and two Gamecocks won positions on the DAILY TAR HEEL'S all-southern team. The team was picked for the most part on the play at the tournament.

The most significant point of this team is the fact that Freddie Tompkins, regularly a forward, appears above at center. The reason for this shift is the fact that Freddie appeared the best pivot man in the tourney. On offense the Gamecocks had the eighteen-year-old Texan rotating with Henderson, their regular center, between the foul line and a forward position, when he was "in the hole," Fred was much more deadly and dangerous with overhead shots and one-handed tosses. Besides he is about as tall as Henderson and much more alert on the floor.

Dave McCachren certainly deserves a position on the all-southern team. Anyone with the poise Dave had on the floor, his speed while dribbling, and his accuracy with passes, can hardly be kept off any all-star team. Ben Tompkins and Dave should make a sweet pair of guards. Ben was one of the steadiest players of the tourney, besides being a good shot.

Bus Hall and Wilmer Hines are the two forwards picked. Hall, though playing with a mediocre team, was picked unanimously on the coaches' and officials' team. He is a dead shot, a good ball handler, and a tireless player. Hines, by virtue of his fine showing against South Carolina, is placed at the other forward. Four members of the South Carolina club declared that Wilmer was the best forward they had played against.

HIGH WILL MEET IN TITLE CONTEST

Charlotte Will Play Durham in Tin Can Tonight for State High School Crown.

Charlotte and Durham high schools are scheduled to hook-up tonight in the Tin Can in a basketball game to decide the high school championship of North Carolina. The teams will start play at 8:00 o'clock.

Charlotte will be after its third straight title in as many years. The Charlotte team defeated Raleigh high in 1931 and 1932 in the finals. This year the western conference team has another strong club with Peabody, Bell, Brady, Ruth, and Mullis probably getting the starting call. Bill McCachren, a brother to Dave and Jim of the varsity and freshman Carolina teams, is likely to see action before the battle ends.

Durham, winner of the eastern conference has a strong team that will be out to take its first victory over Charlotte since 1930, when Durham won the state high school title.

Both teams have had Carolina cage stars on past championship teams. Jim and Dave McCachren and Snook Aitken starred on Charlotte teams in the past, while Chesty Chandler and Bill Markham were both outstanding on Durham teams.

The Can Opener

by CLAIBORN M. CARR

"IF I HAD A DIAMOND ON this here thing it'd shine like a buckeye," shouted Ben Tompkins, South Carolina guard, Monday night after the Duke game. The "thing" was the tiny gold basketball he had just been given by the tourney officials. "I'm telling you now," said Ben, "since you asked me, that Wilmer Hines was the best forward I've seen at the tournament." Which team did you like the best, Carolina or Duke? "I'm telling you again, I believe Duke has the best team, they play cleaner ball," he said. "Those Carolina boys were dirty Saturday night, hacking a lot under the basket, while Duke played us clean both at Columbia and here tonight." Tompkins' reaction can be explained by the fact that the Tar Heels had the Gamecocks' water on and they not only began crabbing themselves but trying their best to find anything wrong with Carolina's play.

"Chesterfields Satisfy"

WHEN smokers keep buying the same cigarette day after day... it's a pretty good sign that they're getting what they want... mildness, better taste—a smoke that's always the same.

So we're going right on making Chesterfields just as we always have... selecting choice, ripe tobaccos... ageing them... blending and cross-blending them... making them into cigarettes in the most scientific ways that are known.

As long as we do these things we know that smokers will continue to say, "They Satisfy". For that's what people are saying about Chesterfields.

If you smoke, why not find out about them? A package or two will tell you the whole story.
