

Regulars Rally In Ninth To Shade Yannigans In Fast Game

Matheson Scores Powell With Single in Final Inning to Give Regulars 6-5 Win.

GRIFFITH PITCHES WELL

Big Hurler Shows Improvement In Workout; Croom, Peacock And Phipps Hit Homers.

Carolina's regulars scored twice in the ninth inning to down the Yannigans 6 to 5 in a closely played practice baseball game held on Emerson field yesterday afternoon. The regulars collected fourteen hits to ten for the Yannigans.

Trailing two runs in the last of the ninth the regulars garnered two singles and a double to count twice and take the contest. Dixon led off with a single and was forced at second by Croom, the latter being safe. Captain Powell then came through, doubling to center field and bringing in the tying run. The Carolina captain scored a moment later with the winning marker on Matheson's one-timer.

Peacock and Croom, regular outfielders, and Phipps, shortstop for the Yannigans, tied for hitting honors, each getting a home run and a single out of five times up. Hornaday, Yannigan outfielder, connected for three singles out of four times up while Captain Powell, third baseman, and Crouch, pitcher for the Yannigans, each got a double and a single.

Griffith Fans Eight

Griffith, twirling six frames for the regulars looked in his best form. The big pitcher was touched for six hits but struck out eight men. Crouch, who pitched six innings for the Yannigans, although giving up ten hits, had lots of stuff and ought to win some games for Carolina this spring.

Both teams crossed the plate three times in the third inning. The rookies scored on two hits and a walk. Barham first up walked, and after Temple fanned, Brandt doubled driving in Barham. Phipps then got his four-bagger to left-center bringing in Brandt before him. The first string made their runs on a single, an error, and Croom's home run. Weathers and Peacock got on base as results of an error and a hit respectively. Dixon forced Peacock at second, Weathers stopping on third. Croom then got his long homer over the left fielders' head and three runs crossed the plate.

Peacock's home run to deep centerfield in the fifth inning accounted for the other regular marker. The last two Yannigan runs came in the seventh frame. Vick walked, and both runners were safe at second and first on an attempted double play of Phipps' grounder. Singles by Hornaday and Harrell, and McCaskill's fly ball brought in the two runs.

Shortstop Position Uncertain

Coach Bunn Hearn seems to have found his right infield unless it is the shortstop position. Captain Powell, Vergil Weathers, and Bill Dixon look like fixtures at third, second, and first bases. All are good fielders and capable hitters. The shortstop job is still a toss-up between Dutch Leonard and Johnny Phipps and both are making a strong bid for the post. Bill Croom and Johnny Peacock are almost fixtures in left and centerfield, while the other fielder will probably be picked from Brandt, Hornaday, Vick, and Zaiser.

Call for Managers

All students wishing to try out for manager of the baseball team are requested to report at Emerson stadium this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

I ONLY HEARD

By MORRIE LONG

Atonement for some of the defeats suffered at the hands of Duke's Blue Devils seems to be in the mind of all aspirants for spring athletics . . . and by the pre-season form shown by the majority of the Carolina squads, Duke is slated to be on the receiving end of several drubbings.

Though Bitsy Grant is not returning to aid Coach Kenfield's tennis team, the common consensus of opinion is that the Tar Heel racquet wielders are every bit as formidable as last year when they swept to their second consecutive national title. Undeclared in four years of competition, the Carolina court coterie holds the collegiate record for straight victories, having 58 to their credit. Harvard with 39 straight wins had the most impressive college mark . . . but Kenfield's team erased that two years ago . . . With Hines as number one, the rest of the team is to be chosen from Wright, Morgan, shuford, Dillard, Harris, Willis, Levitan, and Minor.

From Emerson field come enthusiastic reports about Carolina's ball team . . . if the antics of the mound performers are any criterion on which to base championship hopes then Coach Bunn Hearn should be anything but optimistic. Smoky Joe Griffith of last year's club, Freddie Crouch, and Whitley, are all looking better every day . . . Captain Powell is still up to his throwing form while Weathers is hitting the old American rock as well as ever. Dixon at first, Phipps or Leonard at short, form a reliable infield while the catching assignments are to be dished out to McCaskill and Strayhorn. Zaiser in the outfield looks good as does Croom, Brandt, Hornaday, and old reliable Peacock.

Three of the four lettermen are back this year on Carolina's Southern conference golf champions. Captain Billy O'Brien, Joe Adams, and Alan Smith, who won a flock of golf tournaments during the summer, are the veterans, Erwin Laxton and Carl Cramer are exceptionally outstanding candidates while Gwyn Harper, Fred Laxton, Pete Tyreem, Will Sadler, and Ed Michales are also to be highly considered.

McQUAGE ELECTED HEAD OF STATE COLLEGE QUINT

Bob McQuage, three letter man, was elected captain of State's 1934 basketball team at a meeting of the squad Wednesday night.

McQuage, who is from Salisbury, has been a star for the past two years in football, basketball, and baseball. He plays quarterback on the grid team, guard on the quint team, and outfield and first base on the diamond team.

Gilbert Clark was captain of the season that just closed. The 1933 team followed the custom of electing a captain before each contest.

Seventeen in Infirmary

Seventeen persons were confined to the infirmary yesterday. They were: E. H. Jones, Ralph B. Cheek, G. L. Tillery, P. W. Markley, Mary Waldo, J. C. Parker, C. C. Glover, L. L. White, Jisaku Fukusato, L. A. Dalton, G. C. Kyker, C. C. Hartman, Jr., R. W. Baker, Jimmy Craig, H. S. Sullivan, and L. C. Ashcraft, Jr.

FETZER PLEASED WITH TRACKMEN

Willingness of Green Material to Work Bolsters Coach's Hopes For Good Season.

Coach Bob Fetzer, dean of southern track coaches and head track mentor at Carolina, is facing another track season with only a handful of last year's veterans on hand to bolster this year's willing but green material. The Tar Heels' mentor is not pessimistic concerning Carolina's showing in the indoor carnival; in fact, he is optimistic concerning the coming season.

Fetzer is optimistic because his proteges have shown a wonderful spirit for work and with this morale to build on, Carolina fans should not be disheartened concerning the coming season's results. It is true that this year's track team will have to live up to a great dual meet record of some eleven years. During this interim Carolina has lost only two dual meets. Both losses came at the hands of crack eastern clubs, first by Princeton and then Penn State.

The Tar Heels have lost three of the six record-holders of last year's good aggregation. The men who graduated were Brown, discuss; Marland, quarter mile; and Farmer, sprints. The greatest problem will be to fill their shoes, but the large contingent of fine looking sophomores should inflate the Carolina hopes some.

Some of the men who are sophomores and have been impressing coaches Fetzer and Ranson are: Abernethy, Childers, Williamson, Gunner, Pruden, Hawthorne, Marsden, Waldrop, Bost, and Jackson. It will be their job to help fill the gaps in the sprints and the 440.

Field Events Good

The best potentialities that the Tar Heels will have to place their money should come in the field events, notably the javelin and broad jump. Leading the javelin tossers are LeGore and Chandler while the broad jumpers have a trio of outstanding men, Higby, Childers, and Hubbard.

Although the Tar Heels will have to rebuild the team in several events in order to make an impressive showing against such big rivals as Navy and Duke, the Carolina tracksters should show improved form from that displayed in the Southern conference indoor games.

NEWS REEL ADDS TO MINNESOTA COURSES

(By College News Service) Minneapolis, March 15.—A weekly talking news reel, minus bathing beauties, marathon dances, horse races and similar events, but featuring significant happenings in the day-to-day history of the world hereafter will supplement general information courses in the University of Minnesota junior college, it was announced this week.

Beginning a new experiment in education, the "news reel theatre" is planned primarily for junior college students in journalism, history, and political science; but all students of the university may attend, according to Robert A. Kissack, Jr., head of the department of visual education.

Three 45-minute programs will be presented each Friday throughout the college year, according to present plans.

KENFIELD CALLS TEAM MEMBERS

Golf Squad Meeting in Emerson Stadium at 10:30 This Morning for Eligible Men Is Important.

Coach J. F. Kenfield has called a meeting of the varsity golf candidates for this morning at 10:30 o'clock in Emerson stadium. This meeting will be very important and all those eligible are urged to attend. Coach Kenfield will discuss the schedule, prospects, and the program for daily practice.

So far several men have reported for practice and if daily scores mean anything, this spring's team should be one of the best in Carolina's fairway history. At present the Tar Heels are Southern conference champions. This year's squad should be composed of such stars as Captain Billy O'Brien, Joe Adams, if he decides to play, Erwin Laxton, Will Sader, Carl Cramer, Alan Smith, Henry Bridges, Fred Laxton, and others.

VIRGINIA AWARDS LETTER TO BOXER WHO NEVER BOXED

Seddon C. Nelson Commended for Sportsmanship in Continuing As Sparring Partner.

University, Va., March 16.—Seddon C. Nelson of Winchester, Va., has been awarded the Virginia major sport "V" in boxing although he has never competed in an intercollegiate bout during the four seasons he has been out for the team.

"We are recognizing Seddon Nelson as an ideal sportsman," reads the award of the athletic board signed by Fenton A. Gentry of Chattanooga, Tenn., president, and by Frank Sippley of Princeton, N. J., secretary.

"While circumstances forbid entering him in competition, he continued to box for four years because of his love of the sport, benefiting not only himself but all his fellows. We should like to encourage such spirit as it is worthy of emulation."

LaRowe Intervenes

John S. LaRowe, coach of boxing, made a special plea to the athletic association board in recommending that the "V" be awarded to Nelson. He pointed out that in any other form of athletic competition it would have been possible to have used Nelson as a substitute enough for him to have earned a letter.

In boxing this was not possible. Nelson weighs about 150 pounds. He could have entered either as welterweight or as junior-middleweight. But he'd have had to replace either Tom Fishburne, who won the Southern Conference welterweight title, or Hal Stuart, who was runner-up in the junior-middleweight class.

Coach LaRowe did not think it wise to replace either of these veterans with a man of less actual experience. And Nelson continued uncomplainingly to act as sparring partner for both these men and for others, just as he had done in seasons past.

Records do not show that the major sport "V" has ever been given to any other man who did not engage in competition.

GENERAL REUNION PLANS CONSIDERED

Tentative Plans for 138th Commencement Will Follow Usual Program of Activities.

Plans are being considered by J. Maryon Saunders, alumni secretary, and other alumni officials, for a general re-union of alumni in classes to take place during the 1933 commencement week. In addition to the mass gathering, there will be the regular class re-unions that will bring together three college generations besides the feature re-unions of the 50-year class, the 25-year class, and the class of 1932.

Classes scheduled for re-union here are, inclusively, 1883-86, 1902-05, 1908, 1921-24, and 1932. Although only tentative plans for commencement, which will be the University's 138th, are arranged it is considered likely that the usual program will be followed, which will include various campus entertainments, meetings, and social activities. The practice of performing the graduation exercises in Kenan stadium which was inaugurated last year, will probably be followed again this year.

Practice will be held for the next three weeks with intrasquad games set for each Saturday. The annual monogram-rookie battle will close the session, April 8.
