

DRAMA FESTIVAL
PLAYMAKERS THEATRE
2:30-8:00 O'CLOCK

The Daily Tar Heel

EDITORIAL STAFF MEETS
FOR NOMINATIONS
3:00 O'CLOCK

VOLUME XLI

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., THURSDAY, MARCH 30, 1933

NUMBER 137

DRAMA FESTIVAL GETS UNDER WAY HERE LAST NIGHT

Four High Schools and Three Colleges Begin Tenth Annual Dramatic Contests.

Preliminary contests by four high schools and three colleges initiated the program of the tenth Dramatic Festival here last night. The program will be continued with the junior high school finals this afternoon at 2:00 o'clock.

Among the high schools contesting last night were Hugh Morson of Raleigh, Southern Pines high school, Broughton of Raleigh and Coon high school of Wilson. In the college division plays were presented by Duke University, Elon College, and the Woman's College. The winner of this competition will meet the winner of the Catawba-Lenoir-Rhynch contest on Saturday night.

Junior Contests Tomorrow

The junior high school contest opens this afternoon with North junior high school of Winston presenting Thompkin's Sham in competition with South junior high school presenting Tilden's Enter Dora, Exit Dad.
At 3:00 o'clock county high school finals begin with Garner offering Jerome's Barbara, Hallsboro playing Tarkington's
The Ghost Story and Paw Creek presenting Giorloff's Jazz and Minuet. Following these the Durham Y. W. C. A. dramatic club will present Wilbur Stout's Dogwood Bushes.

Final contests in Little Theatre and Community Organization productions are scheduled for 8:00 o'clock tonight. Contestants will be the Durham community players with Toherro's In The Darkness, Lenoir Little Theatre with Thrut's
(Continued on last page)

COMMITTEE WILL PRESENT CONCERT TO RAISE FUNDS

Directors of Dogwood Festival Will Offer Second Concert April 10 to Raise Money.

The Dogwood Festival committee will present a concert by Lamar Stringfield, flutist, Adeline McCall, pianist, and Ralph Weatherford, cellist, Monday evening, April 10, at 8:30 o'clock in Hill Music hall. The concert has been arranged in order to raise funds for the staging of the Dogwood Festival here this spring.

The program will consist of flute and cello solos in addition to a group of trios. Compositions played will represent composers from Bach to the modern French and American writers.
A trio by Eugene Gossens, prominent living conductor and composer, will be featured.

The festival is being arranged as a celebration of the blooming of the dogwood. It will continue an entire day in which music, dancing, and athletic events will be featured. The committee in charge of arrangements for the festival recently sponsored Helen McGraw here.

Year Book Staff to Meet

Members of the business staff of the Yachety-Yack will meet this afternoon at 2:00 o'clock at Graham Memorial.

Student Opinion Varies Regarding Negroes' Attendance At Carolina

Co-eds Plan Varsity Show For April 26

The varsity show which the woman's association is planning to present April 26 at Memorial hall is creating much interest among women students on the campus. According to the co-eds, the purpose of the show is to raise money for a loan fund.
A definite program has not yet been arranged, but it is planned to have a one-act play and a number of stunts by groups of women students. Miss Josephine Orendorff, chairman of the woman's dramatic association, and a committee of co-eds majoring in dramatics are in charge.

TENTATIVE CAST PICKED FOR PLAY

Junior Playmakers to Present "Ali Baba and the Forty Thieves" April 21-22.

The probable cast for the Junior Playmakers production of the season, Ali Baba and the Forty Thieves, which will be presented April 21-22, was announced yesterday by Mrs.
Harry Davis.
Several fascinating Oriental dances in the production, executed by alluring young slave-girls from the community, are being directed by Phoebe Barr.
Three elaborate sets of scenery are nearing completion in the Playmakers scene shop under the direction of Foster Fitz-Simons. The sets are Ali Baba's hovel, a robbers' cave glittering with gold and diamonds, and the sumptuous mansion of wealthy About Cassim.

Selections for Cast

The tentative cast for Ali Baba includes the following Junior Playmakers: Ned Hamilton, Ali Baba; Harry Brooks, Ali's son Ishak; Virginia Clark, Ali's wife Zuleika; Julia Peebles, Fatimah; Lindon Correll, About Cassim; Jean Breckinridge, Morgiana; Kimball Dyer, Kojo Hassan; H. Hobbs, Abdallah; the robbers, Lauren McKinney, Cameron Murchison, Junior Whitfield, George Hogan, Sunny Kenfield; hand-maids to Morgiana, Carolina House, Eleanor Carroll, Edith Crockford, Jewel Hogan; dancing-girls, Jean Hogan, Phyllis Bradshaw, Lila Marie Wright; black slaves, Billy Koch, Sandy McClamroch, Richard Bradshaw; attendants to Zuleika, Mollie Holmes, Jane Knight.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF PHI BETA KAPPA MEETS

The executive committee of Phi Beta Kappa met last night to consider possible candidates for membership. The election will probably take place April 10.
To be eligible for membership, a student must have averaged the grade of 92.5 for eight consecutive quarters and have never failed a course.

Fifteen in Infirmary

Fifteen students were confined to the infirmary yesterday.
They were: J. U. Woodard, L. C.
Lee, R. L. Connelly, H. R. Barn-hardt, J. N. LeConte, R. H. Proctor, Jr., H. S. Rubin, Frank Causey, J. M. Glace, Jr., W. C.
Pitt, Virginia Hendricks, E. M.
Spruill, C. L. Royster, Ralph B.
Cheek, and Katherin Jamison.

Daily Tar Heel Survey Reveals That Feeling Is Definitely Opposed to Race Equality.

That, on a whole, campus opinion here is hostile to the entrance of Negroes into the University of North Carolina, became apparent from the result of a symposium of student opinion recently conducted by the DAILY TAR HEEL feature staff member. Such hostility runs all the way from a mild distaste for such social and racial equality up to wild emotional talk of lynching, tarring and feathering, and the like. In between are those who feel that, if the colored applicants did gain admission to the college, life would be made so unpleasant for him by the student body that he would soon leave.

"I just don't believe in that much equality," replied one student after being asked for his reaction to Thomas R. Hocutt's application. Numerous replies opposing his entrance were put in the sort of language which, while far from being uncertain, could not be printed here.

"Tickled"

One self-professed "Yankee" from Maryland declared that the whole thing "tickled" him, and that in the north people have forgotten that there ever was a Civil War and a Negro question. Some of the Northerners interrogated seemed to take the passive attitude of "let 'em in," while others manifested as much social and racial
(Continued on last page)

World Cruise Brings Playwright To United States For First Time

George Bernard Shaw Stops in Los Angeles and Will Spend Twenty-Four Hours in New York on First Trip to Country Whose Acclaim Has Made Him World Famous.

George Bernard Shaw first set foot on the soil of America, to which he owes so much, March 24 of this month. After two days in San Francisco, where he landed from the Empress of Britain, he went to Los Angeles, leaving there March 27 for the remainder of the world cruise which will take him through the Panama Canal, and land him in New York April 11, here he will spend twenty-four hours, and, as his present plans are constructed, according to Dr. Archibald Henderson, after addressing the Academy of Political Science at the Metropolitan Opera house, he is scheduled to return to England the following day.

Although this is the first time Shaw has ever visited America his connection with this country covers a period of nearly half a century.

Wrote for American Magazines

As early as 1887 he began contributing to the magazine Liberty, a publication long since defunct, and not to be confused with the present-day popular magazine, on Socialist subjects.
The most important of his articles which appeared in this magazine was a slashing criticism and review of Max Nordau's "Entartung," translated "Degeneration." Shaw defended many modern writers, including Ibsen and Tolstoi, from Nordau's charges that many modern artists were degenerate in their writings. Shaw ranks himself as an artist on the side

TAR HEEL EDITOR TO BE NOMINATED BY STAFF TODAY

Eligible Members of Editorial Staff to Meet at 3:00 O'clock To Nominate Candidate.

Annual nominations for the editorship of the DAILY TAR HEEL for next year will be made today at a meeting of the editorial and reportorial staffs at 3:00 o'clock in Graham Memorial.

All members of the staff in good standing will be able to make nominations and cast their votes for the official nominee at this meeting. Work on the staff of the paper for the past quarter constitutes good-standing at the meeting.

Every member of the staff is expected to attend the meeting and previous excusal by the editor will be required in case a man finds himself unable to attend. A member of the staff may leave a written nomination, vote, or proxy in case he cannot be present at the meeting this afternoon.

Although editorship of the DAILY TAR HEEL will be decided by the student body in the general elections next week, nominations by the staff today will be considered official. According to a ruling of the student's activities committee, all nominations for editors of publications will be made by active members of the staff of which the candidate is a part.

Other items of business have been slated for consideration at the meeting this afternoon.

State Senate Increases University Allotments By $72,000 To $832,240

Julian S. Miller Will Address Assembly

Julian S. Miller, associate editor of the Charlotte Observer, will speak tomorrow morning in Memorial hall at 10:30 o'clock.
Freshman attendance will be checked.

Miller is a well-known newspaperman in the state. His column, "Events and Comment," appears daily in his paper. Miller was formerly editor of the Charlotte News, which position he left to fill the role of relief director under Governor O. Max Gardner.

GIRLS IN DEBATES OUTNUMBER BOYS

Team Elimination by Triangular Debating in High Schools Begins Tomorrow.

Girls will outnumber boys in the triangular debates March 31 of the high school debating union of North Carolina, it was announced yesterday by Secretary E. R. Rankin.

Statistics which have been compiled show that 208 high schools, out of the total 215 participating schools, will be represented by 468 girls and 364 boys.

The query which will be discussed in all of the debates, in high schools scattered from Murphy to Beaufort, is: Resolved, That North Carolina should adopt the sales tax as a feature of its state system of revenue.

The schools which win both debates in the triangular contest Friday will send their teams to Chapel Hill to enter the competition April 13 and 14 for the Aycock Cup, the trophy which has been donated by the intercollegiate debaters of the University.

Complete Teams of Girls

Thirty-three high schools will be represented by four girls each in the debating contest.
This list is as follows:

Almond, Arthur, Banoak, Beaufort, Burlington, Conetoe, Edward Best, Engelhard, Fairfield, Farmville, Four Oaks, Franklinton, High Point, Jasper, Kings Mountain, Lilesville, Lin-colton, Morven, Mt. Vernon, New London, Newport, Paw Creek, Pine Level, Rockingham, Rowland, Roseboro, Sand Hill, Selma, Southport, Sumner, Troy, Whiteville, and Union.

CONSTRUCTION OF WALKS IS PROGRESSING STEADILY

Construction on the new walks in front of Graham Memorial is progressing steadily and is expected to be completed some time next week, pending favorable weather. The walk immediately before Graham Memorial must yet be graded and laid with gravel. Another section to New Dorms has been begun.

Groves' Book Recommended

The Catholic magazine America has recommended Dr. E. R.
Groves' book Sex in Marriage to Catholic Confessors. The magazine states that priests "may find certain materials in the book helpful in counseling the maladjusted." Groves wrote the volume in co-operation with Gladys Hoagland Groves.

Upper House Settles Down to Business and Pushes Appropriation Amendment.

BILL IS OPPOSED BY MOORE

Senators Sign Amendment to Appropriate $16,000,000 for Eight Months School.

The North Carolina Senate, meeting yesterday as a committee of the whole, laid aside the tea-party quibbling of Tuesday's session to get down to business and allot the greater University $832,240 as it continued in its policy of restoring the joint committee figures to the biennial appropriations bill.

Senator Larry Moore came to the fore again, however, and waged a stubborn though hopeless fight against the amendment calling for the raised University allotment. The New-bernite's defeat on this proposal which was offered by Senator John Sprunt Hill gives him a clean sheet to date for having consistently failed to receive the senate's support on any of the items of the appropriation bill.
It was Senator Moore who threw the monkey wrench into Tuesday's session and refused to take the tea cakes offered by Senator Clement, chairman of the investigating committee.

Amendment Adopted

The Moore-Hill fight, which seemed like a continuation of their battle of the previous day waxed furious as the Gentleman from Craven stubbornly refused to weaken after an hour's debate. The whole controversy, however, seemed to be superfluous as the Senate adopted Senator Hill's amendment without a record vote.

This action of the Senate as
(Continued on last page)

DR. BROOKS GIVEN PLACE ON TEXTILE SURVEYING GROUP

Head of State College Placed on Committee to Determine Extent of Textile Education.

Dr. E. C. Brooks, vice-president of the Raleigh unit of the Greater University of North Carolina, has been selected by the Textile Foundation as one of a committee of three to make a survey of textile education in the United States, with a view to broadening and raising the standard of such education in the nation.

The other two educators to be associated with Dr. Brooks are Dr. Karl T. Compton, president of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and Dean Robert E. Dohery of the Yale engineering school.

Authorized by Congress

The Textile Foundation is an incorporated organization created by Congress to conduct scientific and economic research for the development of the nation's textile industry. The advisory committee to which Dr. Brooks has been named will meet at an early date, probably in New Haven or Boston, to formulate plans for the survey.

It is felt that recognition of State College in the personnel of this committee is due to progress made by the school in broadening textile education.

(Continued on last page)