DAILY PUBLISHES ANNUAL REPORT OF AUDIT BOARD

Financial Reports of 14 Organizations Are Submitted by Robert H. Sherrill.

At a meeting of the Student Audit board Thursday afternoon, the financial reports of student organizations were submitted by Robert H. Sherrill and approved by the board. The committee report is printed elsewhere in this issue of the paper.

The following letter was submitted by Sherrill:
Mr. Haywood Weeks, Chairman
The Student Audit Board.

Dear Sir:

I submit herewith statements showing the results of operation for the year ended April 30, 1933, and financial condition as of that date for the following organizations: senior class, junior class, sophomore class, freshman class, Law association, Woman's association, Pharmacy association, Civil Engineering society, Chemical Engineering society, Mechanical Engineering society, Electrical Engineering society, Medical society, Debating council, and student government.

Organizations with fiscal years ending during the summer will receive their reports next fall.

Although the reports presented cover the fiscal year ended April 30, 1932, the new accounting system was not installed until October 15, 1932. This made it necessary to analyze expenditures for the first part of the year from the old systems, where full detail was not always available. As a result, the item "other expense" is larger than usual on some of the statements.

At the time of the preparation of the statements auditing cost had not been passed by the

GROUP SELECTED TO ASSIST PAPER

Committee Will Meet Today to Start Work on Agenda for Improvement of Paper.

In order to study the college newspaper field from every angle, to discover ways in which the DAILY TAR HEEL can be improved, a committee consisting mainly of newspaper men has been formed this year and will work during next year. The committee will meet for the first time 2:00 o'clock tomorrow, when an agenda for next year will be prepared. The individual committee members will carry on investigations in different parts of the country throughout the summer, and will be ready to report next fall.

The committee, as tentatively selected, consists of Harper Barnes, president of the student body; Claiborn M. Carr, editor of the DAILY TAR HEEL; Marcus Feinstein, TAR HEEL business manager; Joe Sugarman, chairman of the feature board of this paper, and Don Becker, member of the feature board.

That such a committee should be formed was first proposed in the general staff meeting of this newspaper following the past campus elections. The staff as a whole voted that the idea be followed through.

Events Of State And National Prominence Fill Past Months

Vice-President

George Barclay of Natrona, Pa., succeeds Stuart Chandler as vice-president of the Monogram club. Barclay has been active in the reorganization of the lettermen.

APPROVED HOMES FOR VISITORS TO FINALS SELECTED

Other Names May Be Added to List Being Prepared by Mrs. M. H. Stacy.

In conjunction with work begun to enforce the rules of the dance committee concerning the general conduct after dances, Mrs. M. H. Stacy, who was appointed as co-chairman with Dean Francis F. Bradshaw by President Frank Graham to look into the situation, announced last night the following townspeople have applied, and have been approved as homes suitable for entertaining young ladies visiting Chapel Hill for the final dances: Mrs. A. A. Klutz, Mrs. E. C. Branson, Mrs. John Lasley, Mrs. Wallace Patterson, Mrs. Bruce Strowd, Mrs. J. P. Harland, Mrs. Merritt Lear, Mrs. Calvert Peebles, and Mrs. V. A. Hill.

Other names may be added to the list, and the final approved list may be obtained from Mrs. Stacy at her office.

Check to Be Made

It is the plan of the committee to have the feminine visitors to the Hill stay in approved houses, and the owners of the houses will check on the conduct after the dances in accordance with the dance committee regulations.

Infraction of the rules on the part of the girls will be reported to Mrs. Stacy, and these girls will be placed on a blacklist; infraction of the rules on the part of the houses will result in the suspension of the house from the approved house list.

SENIORS MAY OBTAIN ALUMNI MEMBERSHIP

Seniors are again reminded by Francis Anderson, permanent president of the class of 1933, that they may obtain junior membership in the Alumni association for a fee of one dollar. Junior members are entitled to all the privileges of full membership, including a subscription to the Alumni Review.

Those students wishing to join the organization may pay the fee at the Alumni office or at the time they pay the diploma fee.

Enthusiastic Campaign of Two Campus Political Parties Features Spring Affairs.

With but five short months past, the year 1933 looms as one of the most eventful in the history of the University. As the school year terminates, ten events of more than passing importance stand out in the files of the DAILY TAR HEEL. No less than four of these had a profound effect on the state, while two may be accounted as nationally significant.

In summary the ten major news events of 1933 are: the University appropriation and budget struggle, the strange case of Jiasku Fukusato, the postponement of the holidays, the suicide of Dr. Eric A. Abernethy, the campus and class elections, the achievement of its third national championship by the tennis team, the battle between the junior and senior classes over Bert Lown, the Golden Fleece tapping, the death of Bill Roberts, and the founding of the University club.

Events of secondary importance, of which lack of space prevents development, include: the founding of the Student Open Forum, the promulgation of the "Buccaneer" proposal for staff election of editors, the founding of the national honorary commerce fraternity, Beta Gamma Sigma, the acquisition of the state and conference titles by the track team, and the rejection of the first Negro to apply to the University for admittance.

From the standpoint of universal campus interest, the recent election was far and away the most important event of the year. Not in years had two parties so evenly matched waged such a hectic campaign for the 29 campus and class offices. The culmination of this terrific outburst of political interest and energy came on April 6 when over 1,800 students set a new high water-mark for ballots cast in a University election.

Spring Elections

Harper Barnes was swept into the presidency of the student body two days later in a run-off over Lindy Cate, All-Campus party candidate, by a 250-vote majority. The University party gained eight out of the 14 campus offices, including the editorships of the three campus publications. The rival factions

YEARBOOK STYLE CHOICE POSSIBLE

Juniors and Seniors May Choose Exclusive Cover Available For Them Today.

The 1933 "Yackety Yack" will be unusual in permitting students to have a voice in the style of their annual's cover. All covers are alike in design, but a number of them, sufficient to supply juniors and seniors, have been secured in the popular padded style, newly adapted to annual trade. Those who desire the padded style will be assessed a fee of ten cents which is the exact cost of the attractive feature.

This innovation has been carried out at the behest of the yearbook editor who is of the opinion that the dual style cover will solve many of the difficulties of personal taste in bindings. When it was found that the extra cost of padding would exceed the yearbook budget, it was decided that the students should have the option of obtaining these covers.

Class Distinction

It is thought by the staff that the plan would make possible a distinction between upper and lower class annual covers which is a custom at many of the larger colleges.

Juniors and seniors are to be given their choice of covers today which is set aside for the exclusive delivery to upper classmen. Those interested in the style recommended for their class are asked to bring ten cents in change when calling for the books.

At 2:00 o'clock this afternoon, the 1933 "Yackety Yacks" will be issued from the north campus window of the office of the Women's Association on the first floor of Graham Memorial. Since only a limited number of copies will arrive today, distribution will be limited to juniors and seniors, according to announcement by Marcus Feinstein, business manager of the annual. Further distribution will take place tomorrow, Monday, and Tuesday.

Distribution

According to P. U. Board rulings, announced by the business manager yesterday, members of certain organizations and various individuals will not receive copies of the book until full payments of money owed the "Yackety Yack" are made.

Members of the glee club must pay 50 cents before they

CAPERS TONIGHT TO END SEASON OF PLAYMAKERS

Awarding of Playmaker Masks Closes Most Successful Season in Years.

The annual Caper of the Carolina Playmakers will mark the completion of their fifteenth season tonight at 8:00 o'clock in the Playmakers theatre, with skits, impromptu "mellowdrammer," dancing, and presentation of mask awards.

All those who have at any time been connected with the Playmakers as actors, authors, house assistants, or members of stage crews are invited to the festivities. The program has been prepared by a committee of Wilbur Dorsett, Ellen Stewart, and James McConnaughey, with Dougald MacMillan as master of ceremonies for the evening. Stage managers are Harry Davis, George Pearson, Rene Prud'Hommeaux, and Louis Hagood.

Featured on the program is a "totally original, spontaneous and picturesque drama," with the necessary tender heroine, true-blue hero, entitled "Bitter Reckoning" with various subtitles, and smirking villain. The cast is billed as Little Eva Rawls, Incorruptible Fitz-Simons, Scarlet Sister Stewart, and Efficiency Davis, who plays the villain. Well-seasoned Tatum and Our Will Dorsett play the aged mother and stern father of the heroine, while Eagle-eye Bonyun and Speed King take roles as the dauntless detective and the faithful messenger.

Special items on the program are "Harmony At Eight," "Meno The Magnetic" with Dr. Meno Spann, "A South-West Exposure" with Betty Barnett as South and Jo Orendorf as West, a "Nautchey Dance" by Phoebe Barr, "She Done It For Poland", and an Academic Bond Dance by R. B. House.

While the evening's program will conclude with the presentation of mask awards to Playmakers for commendable work in the various divisions of dramatic endeavor, the audience is requested to remain for cakes and ale in the Green room.

BARCLAY NAMED VICE-PRESIDENT

Frank Abernethy and Dave McCachren Picked as Secretary, Treasurer Respectively.

George Brandt was elected president of the Monogram club for the coming year at a meeting in Graham Memorial yesterday afternoon. Some eighty members of the club attended the last meeting of the year.

George Barclay was named vice-president, Dave McCachren, treasurer, and Frank Abernethy, secretary. John Phipps, retiring president, was named to represent the club on the athletic council, Dale Ranson was named to sit on the council as a representative from the coaching staff. Dr. Charley Mangum was elected to serve as representative from the faculty. Both Ranson and Mangum served in their respective positions during the past year.

The meeting opened with the induction of the new members of the club, those who have won their insignias this spring. Then monogram certificates were distributed to the football, cross-country, boxing, wrestling, basketball, golf, baseball, track, and tennis lettermen and each man was given the Monogram club's code.

The club discussed the plan of encouraging high and prep school students to come to the University next fall and fell in accord with the movement already begun towards this end. Stuart Chandler, retiring vice-president, presided over the meeting in the absence of John Phipps, who was out of town.
