

PEP RALLY TONIGHT
8:00 O'CLOCK
SOUTH BUILDING

The Daily Tar Heel

PEP RALLY TONIGHT
8:00 O'CLOCK
SOUTH BUILDING

VOLUME XLII

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 1933

NUMBER 7

UNIVERSITY CLUB TO BE HOSTS TO DAVIDSON SQUAD

Plans Made to Entertain Members of the Team While On Campus.

Meeting at 7:30 last night in Graham Memorial the University club made plans for the meeting and entertainment of the 35 men comprising the Davidson team.

There are five deputations appointed to meet the team and see that the men are comfortably situated. The deputations will meet the team at approximately 4:30 at the field house and be with them until after the game Saturday.

At 6:30 Bill Blood will take the team to Swain hall for supper. Afterwards the team will go to the Carolina theatre. The members of the team will be identified by buttons containing the words "U. N. C. Monogram club."

That night six cars will be provided to take the members of the team wherever they wish to go.

At the meeting the plans for the rally Friday night were also discussed. Many plans were made to get plenty of boys to the rally and to get plenty of pep into it.

Plans were also made to see that the freshman were seated properly at the game Saturday and that no outsiders try to sit in that section. It was understood that the freshmen would enter through gate five.

FRESHMEN HEAR DI, PHI SPEAKERS

Presidents Introduce Societies; Request New Members at Assembly Thursday.

Assembly exercises in Memorial Hall yesterday morning were conducted by the Di and Phi literary societies, each sending its president as representative speaker.

Mr. Harry Comer of the University Y. M. C. A. first presented Speaker L. H. Fountain of the Phi. "I extend this invitation because you need this society as well as we need you," Fountain said in inviting new members. "Come out for the society and don't be afraid," he remarked.

Bill Eddleman, president of the Dialectic Senate was the next speaker. He explained the literary societies in detail, showing their purposes and the advantages of membership in them. "In either the Di or the Phi one can develop his power of public speech better perhaps than in any other way at Carolina. There is discussion of a wide variety of subjects. Thus, besides the value received in speaking and mind training, there is much that one can learn about current topics by becoming a member. Also there is the constant practice of parliamentary order which is most worthwhile," declared Eddleman.

Social Postponed

The annual freshman meeting of the young people of the Presbyterian church, scheduled for tonight, has been postponed because of its conflicting with the pep meeting.

GREEN RECALLED TO FILM COLONY

University Professor Goes to Hollywood to Assist Filming Of "House of Connelly."

Paul Green, formerly of the Carolina Playmakers, left last night for Hollywood, where he will assist in the filming of his play "The House of Connelly" which is being produced by the Fox Films corporation with Janet Gaynor playing the leading role.

Before leaving yesterday he made a short trip to Raleigh to view his movie of "Doctor Bull," in order to get some technical ideas for his "David Harum," the film version of which he is writing for Will Rogers, and which is now nearing completion. He will be in Hollywood for two or three weeks, at the end of which time he will return to Chapel Hill to continue his writing.

Soon after returning he will give a reading of one from his cinema scripts at one of the regular Sunday evening readings at the Playmakers Theatre. The reading will be of one of his recent movie productions, probably either "Voltaire," which he wrote for George Arliss, or "David Harum," written for Will Rogers.

Unshaven Carolina Tourists Visit Ambassador Daniels In Mexico City

BARNES APPOINTS KEENEY TO OFFICE

Because of the failure of many sophomore officers to return to the University this fall, many new appointments have been necessitated. Harper Barnes has appointed Barney Keeney, who was chairman of the executive committee, vice-president of the class to fill the vacancy left by Morty Ellisburg. Ellisburg, elected vice-president last spring, has automatically become president, filling the office left vacant when Russell Mickel failed to return.

On the recommendation of the incumbent officers Barnes will also appoint a secretary to replace Vance Young, who failed to return. Ellisburg will name the person to succeed Keeney as chairman of the executive committee and may appoint new members to fill vacancies.

Berryhill To Speak At Assembly Today

Dr. W. R. Berryhill, the new head of the infirmary will speak to the freshman class at the regular chapel period this morning on the infirmary and its work for the year.

A noticeable improvement has been made in the service of the infirmary since Dr. Berryhill has taken charge. Among other things is the new custom of giving the test for the tuberculosis to all incoming freshman and all upper class men who wish to be tested.

Infirmary List

The following students were confined to the infirmary yesterday: Thomas Walker, J. D. Winslow, C. W. Collins, J. S. Best, William Dalton, Carl Francis, T. W. Hicks, Dan Lacy, Simpson Parker, and W. L. McKeithan.

LIBRARY EXHIBITS VALUABLE BIBLES IN LOBBY CASES

Volumes Range from King James V Version to Various Obscure Indian Dialects.

The library Bible exhibit, which is on the first floor lobby of the building occupies three large cases and contains 36 volumes.

These volumes range from the authorized King James V version to various obscure Indian dialects. In this exhibit are represented Bibles in such modern tongues as French, German, Spanish, and Italian, and such strange languages as Mongolian, Icelandic, Welsh, Malay, Hindustanic, and Old Irish, or, more properly, Gaelic. There is a Bible in one of the cases which is printed in the language of the Assyrian court, which language is different from ordinary Assyrian.

"For variety," said R. B. Downs, assistant librarian, "the Hexapla edition easily outstrips all others. This Bible contains the original Greek version with English translations of it ranging from the translation by Wycliffe in 1380 to that of the King James Version in 1611, and which is now used altogether, there are six translations of the Greek in the Hexapla.

"In the collection are two

(Continued on page two)

McClure and Moore Are Cordially Received by Illustrious Alumnus of University.

"I'll write Bob House, and tell him to have a lawn mower waiting to cut your beards when you get to Chapel Hill," joked Ambassador Josephus Daniels; and the bull-session was over.

Not every university student has the chance to be verbally spanked by American royalty, but this summer that was the good fortune of "Spec" McClure and R. P. Moore, formerly students of the University of North Carolina. The boys, Fording it across-Mexico in native costume of sombreros, blankets, and beards, unknowingly stopped in Mexico City directly across from the American Embassy. The secretary of the legation, seeing the parked Ford with its "University of North Carolina" plate, called Daniels, who immediately sent the boys a summons to appear before him.

Wanted a Barber
The sombreros and blankets were quickly replaced by more conventional attire, but there was no time to divest their chins of the five-weeks growth of whiskers. Shortly after, when the butler opened the portals of the elaborate Embassy building, he beheld two young men who resembled Communists more than they did two old line Democrats.

After convincing him of their allegiance to the United States, the dubious pair was admitted; and during the next four or five hours they enjoyed a splendid dinner, an interesting chat with the Ambassador and his wife, and obtained a letter from Daniels which was used by them as a "pull" during the remainder of their stay in Mexico.

The imitation Mexicans explained that the American art of "bumming" does not exist in Mexico due to the fact that prac-

(Continued on page two)

ALUMNI OFFICERS TO CONVENE HERE

Large Attendance Indicated for Meeting of Heads of State Clubs Saturday.

A large attendance at the conference of officers of University alumni clubs to convene here tomorrow was indicated by returns to invitations sent out from the alumni office through J. Maryon Saunders, secretary of the University alumni association. The presidents and secretaries of alumni clubs throughout the state were invited to attend this meeting.

The members will meet in Graham Memorial at noon, lunch together, and later attend the Davidson game. R. B. House and Robert Madry are on the program to discuss plans for observance of Founders' Day. Reports on methods and plans of promoting local alumni clubs are also scheduled to be given by representatives of several local clubs.

GRAIL TO ALLOW FROSH AT DANCE

Archie Davis Will Furnish Music For First Dance Instead Of Nick Laney.

The series of dances to be sponsored by the Grail this year will be inaugurated tomorrow night at 9:00 o'clock in Bynum gymnasium with Archie Davis and his orchestra furnishing the music for the first dance. Contrary to the policy of former years, freshmen will be allowed to attend.

It had been announced that Nick Laney and his Duke university orchestra would play but Davis has been engaged in his place. During the summer Davis and his boys filled engagements in various cities. They played for the summer school dances here in June and July and also for dances in Raleigh, Durham, Roxboro, Mt. Airy, and Reidsville.

They were engaged at the Atlantic Beach hotel in Morehead City for the entire month of August and it is reported that they drew the largest crowds of the season there. After Morehead City they also filled an engagement in Henderson.

Engineering Society Holds First Meeting

The local branch of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers conducted its initial meeting of the year Wednesday night in Phillips hall.

President Paul Hayes explained the aims and purposes of the society to the prospective members. The need for all students of the mechanical engineering school to join the society was further emphasized by Professor N. P. Bailey.

The new officers for the coming school year, who were formally inducted at the meeting, were: honorary chairman, Professor N. P. Bailey; chairman, Paul R. Hayes; vice-president, Calder Atkinson; secretary, E. L. Kendrick.

Pharmacy Enrollment

Enrollment in the school of pharmacy is approximately the same as that of former years. The total enrollment of 76 includes 3 co-eds.

Publications Union Board Votes To Pay Salaries To City Editors

Identification Pictures

All co-eds, regardless of class year, and all first year and transfer men students who have not previously done so, are requested by Dean Bradshaw to come to room 215 Graham Memorial between 2:00 and 5:00 o'clock this afternoon or between 9:00 and 1:00 tomorrow to have their identification pictures taken for the permanent school records. If possible, those with names beginning with A through M are asked to come this afternoon, and those with N through Z tomorrow. There is no cost attached.

GRADUATES ELECT 1933-1934 OFFICERS

The graduate club in its first meeting held Tuesday night in Smith building elected new officers and planned for a rather active social program for the coming year.

Those coming into office were Dr. A. H. Shields, vice-president; D. K. Spelt, secretary; C. G. Taylor, treasurer; E. C. Hunter, German club representative; W. T. Logan, chairman of entertainment committee. The other positions were filled last May by Henry Farr, president; H. B. Whitmore and G. W. Blackwell, members of the governing board; "Mitch" Wells, University representative.

As a part of their social curriculum plans are being made for a bridge tournament to be conducted for the members.

NEW PSYCHOLOGY TEACHERS NAMED

The psychology department has added four new members to its faculty. S. W. J. Welch, a graduate of Mass. Institute of Technology, D. D. Wickens, A. M., from Carolina, and D. K. Spelt, A. M., from Brown University, are the new instructors, and H. V. Bice is a teaching Fellow. These men are in charge of the General Psychology Laboratory.

Three former instructors have succeeded in getting positions elsewhere. Dr. DeWick who took his Ph.D. last spring, is now at the University of Rochester, G. G. Killinger, who received his Ph.D. at the same time is personnel officer with the Mathieson Alkali Works of Va., while W. M. Treverton, a former teaching Fellow is an instructor at N. Y. University.

A general examination for the make-up placement test will probably be given some time early next week. The date and particulars will be announced by Dean Bradshaw's office.

Philpott Is Elected Alumni Club Officer

Cabot Philpott, former University football star, was elected president of the Davidson county Alumni club at its last meeting. Sara Walser, elected most beautiful co-ed last year, was secretary. Jim Adderton was chosen vice-president, and Clyde Hunt treasurer.

Philpott is now working with a furniture company in Lexington, but found time to play football with the Charlotte Bantams against Winston-Salem, although he has not practiced since he left school.

Managing Editor of Yackety Yack Also Will Be Compensated to Amount of $50.

City editors of The Daily Tar Heel will be paid salaries by issues, it was voted yesterday by the Publications Union Board. They will receive $1.50 per issue.

Adopting a recommendation by Alex Andrews, editor of the Yackety-Yack, the board decided to give an annual salary of $50 to the managing editor of that publication. No compensation has been received heretofore.

In addition, the board decided to give the editor of the TAR HEEL a maximum sum of $200 this year for mat service and use in staff photographic work. Carr plans an extensive use of pictures.

Office additions to each publication were acted upon and will be installed within a few days. A recommendation for several new typewriters for use in the newspaper office was postponed.

Ralto Farlow, circulation manager of the paper, was reimbursed for several expense items incurred in his work.

A photograph budget was passed for Yackety-Yack work following Andrews recommendation, which called for a sum of $40 to be used in photography this fall and winter. The special camera belonging to the board was turned over to him for staff use.

N. C. CLUB DECIDES YEAR'S PROGRAM

Central Theme for Year's Work Will Be "What Next in North Carolina."

At the first meeting of the North Carolina club Tuesday evening, it was definitely decided that the central theme for the year would be: "What Next in North Carolina." The activities of the organization are being directed jointly by the department of rural and social economics, and the department of public administration.

The club, organized in the fall of 1914, convenes every second Monday, and is open to anyone in Chapel Hill. Their programs cover the economic, social, and civil problems in North Carolina.

Although the entire program for the year has not been completed, it will be built around state, county and municipal governments. Governor J. C. B. Ehringhaus will be asked to discuss "What Next in North Carolina." Other subjects of discussion will be: "Governmental changes in North Carolina." "Forms of County Government"; "City Manager Forms of Government"; "County Consolidation Movement"; "Financial problems Involved in County Consolidation"; and "Tax Delinquents in State, Counties, and Municipalities."

A study will also be made of the government in specific cities.

Choral Club Meets

The Chapel Hill Choral club will meet at 8:00 o'clock Monday evening, October 2, in the Hill Music hall.