

Whitaker Faces Shore And Abels Meets Minor In Net Semi-Finals

Abels Downs Sobol, 7-5, 6-2, and Whitaker Wins over McGlenn, 8-6, 3-6, 12-10.

Semi-Final Matches of Tennis Tournament Will Be Played Monday Afternoon.

QUARTER-FINALS PLAYED

Four seeded stars went into action against each other yesterday in the quarter-final bracket of Carolina's annual fall tennis tournament, and two of them, Bryon Abels and Johnny Whitaker emerged the victors, Abels downing Sobol, 7-5; 6-2 and Whitaker triumphing over John McGlenn, 8-6; 3-6; 12-10.

Whitaker will face Frank Shore and Abels will compete against Bill Minor in the semi-final bracket Monday.

Sobol, number three ranking player on last year's freshman contingent, was rather disappointing in his encounter with Abels, the State champion of two years ago. Usually a fine defensive and steady player, the diminutive Sobol was rather erratic on the courts yesterday, failing many a time with his forehand drives. Abels on the other hand, once he found his terrific service, took Sobol's best drives with ease and forced his opponent into errors.

The match between John Whitaker and John McGlenn was the most hectic contest yet witnessed on Carolina's clay courts since the tourney began. From all appearances, each day brings a more thrilling match than the previous day. The Whitaker-

GRID BULL-ETINS

By MORRIE LONG

Last Saturday's predictions were about as bad as a boarding house steak... and the writer was fortunate to break even what with the score of upsets that were recorded... this football session so far has proved to be one of the most startling in grid history... and the prophecies of the scribes are worse than ever, as a result... so don't bet any potatoes on my picks... as if anyone would...

Carolina-Ga. Tech

Amid all the colorful decorations... pretty co-eds... and bedroom alumni football players who are gathering here today for Homecoming... Chuck Collins' club should snap out of her lethargy and win a ball game... now is the time... and regardless if Tech is most formidable... she isn't unbeatable... witness last Saturday's debacle with Tulane... we'll take Carolina today...

Duke-Kentucky

Duke has that Rose Bowl gleam in her eyes... and looms over the football horizon as the most promising southern eleven this year... while Kentucky apparently let down long enough to find herself on the short end of the score with W. & L. last Saturday... Duke seems to be on the bandwagon this Saturday.

BOWLING FINALS WILL BE PLAYED AT 11:00 O'CLOCK

Scarboro and Tucker Meet for Graham Memorial Duck Pin Title This Morning.

Scarboro and Tucker are scheduled to battle in the finals of the Graham Memorial bowling tournament this morning at 11:00 o'clock. Because of conflicts in the schedule the quarter-finals have not been completed in the pool and ping-pong tourneys.

Scarboro reached the finals as a result of a bye in the semi-finals. Lucas and Hudson were to play the quarter-finals to see which would meet Scarboro, but both forfeited. Tucker downed Shore in a close 435-431 match to reach the final bracket. Also yesterday Shore downed London, 398 to 387 to get to the semi-finals.

The results yesterday in the ping-pong tourney were Heidrick downed Jones; Jimison beat Fletcher; Levitan was victor over Singer; Tobey lost to Kalb; Lefkowitz was defeated by Grier; Odum downed Frazier. Willick and Eagles advanced as a result of forfeits by Hudson and Lytle.

In the pool tournament Dupree beat Pruden; Wright was victor over Mosier; Page downed Scarboro; Butler lost to Jimison; Peterson defeated Mears; Trubnick was downed by Lefkowitz; and Carroway won over Willick.

HARRIERS LABOR FOR STATE MEET

Cross-Country Team to Have Time Trials This Morning On Emerson at 11:00.

Attempting to continue along the lines they set for themselves in defeating Florida, the Carolina harriers have been working faithfully for the meet against N. C. State, November 4, between the halves of the State-Carolina football tussle at Raleigh.

Ranson's men made an excellent showing against the 'Gators, finishing eight men in the first eleven, and making the low team score of 16 to 47. The lowest possible score in a cross-country run is 15.

In this meet the two Sullivans showed why they were elected co-captains by finishing in a tie for first along with Curlee, their team-mate. Donnell and Haywood were the other Tar Heels who figured in the scoring, crossing the line in fourth and sixth positions respectively.

In order to prove their right to places on the team and to give any men on the squad a chance to win positions among the chosen eight, coach Ranson's men will run time trials at 11:00 o'clock this morning at Emerson field.

Montgomery To Play

Harry Montgomery, Carolina's sophomore quarterback and brother of Cliff Montgomery, the Columbia captain, may see a lot more service in the Tech game here today and in the hard battles to follow.

Tar Babies Win

Carolina's Tar Babies made their first bid for the freshman Big Five honors by downing State's yearling team 9 to 7 in Memorial stadium at Greensboro last night. Carolina also led in first downs 11-9. Cooner, halfback counted the touchdown for the Tar Babies on a five-yard drive through the State line. Pendergraft, Carolina frosh center, blocked a State kick to count a safety and give Carolina the other two points.

Chapel Hill High Wins

Chapel Hill high school continued its march toward a class "B" championship by trouncing Hillsboro high 21 to 0 on Emerson field yesterday. The winning team showed a fine driving and passing attack in downing its smaller but hard-fighting opponent.

This morning at 12:00 o'clock Oxford Orphanage will meet Barium Springs, also on Emerson field.

Line Looks Stronger

The several shifts in the Carolina line were tested to Coach Collins' satisfaction in the Florida game. The Tar Heel defense looked much stronger holding the 'Gators to five first downs.

Ben Franklin Refuted

Early to bed, early to rise doesn't even make the students around here healthy. That may be, of course, because they haven't given it a fair trial.—Blue Stocking, Presbyterian College, S. C.

BETAS AND T. E. P. SCORE VICTORIES OVER OPPONENTS

Old West, Best House, Ranson House, and Phi Alpha Also Win Intramural Tilts.

Beta Theta Pi counted its third victory in as many starts by decisively beating Chi Psi 19-0. The Betas now lead the fraternity league along with St. Anthony Hall who has chalked up a like number of wins.

The winners counted their first touchdown on a lateral pass from Anderson to McCachren. Anderson crossed the goal line on a 20-yard pass from Rose and Rand scored on a 30-yard heave from Anderson for the final two six pointers. Abernathy, Rose, Rand and Anderson were the Beta stars while Wilday and Reynolds featured for Chi Psi.

T. E. P. Wins

Tau Epsilon Phi conquered Zeta Beta Tau 12-6 in an interesting intramural grid contest. Lessem received a short toss from Schapiro for the T. E. P.'s first tally. Zeta Beta Tau tied the score when Brown received a 50-yard pass from Sims in the second period.

However the winners were not to be denied their victory as Schapiro raced 20 yards for the final tally in the fourth quarter. Lessem, Schapiro, and Sovitsky were the shining lights for Tau Epsilon Phi while Brown and Alexander were the leaders for Zeta Beta Tau.

nounced last night that the entire squad was in perfect condition with the exception of Henry Burnett, fleet-footed halfback, who was still nursing a bad spinal injury sustained ten days ago. It is still possible that the blond flash from Macon may see action against the Yellow Jackets.

Frankel Back

Jule Frankel, fine left end, who has not played since the Vandy game, is back in the line-up, and is ready to make things hot for the Tech forwards. Frankel's return to action gives Carolina its regular line-up for the first time since the game with the Commodores.

Woollen to Start

"Chuck" Woollen, heady quarterback, will not only general the team but will run in trail-back position. In the recent work-outs this week, Woollen has proved himself to be a find as a fast ball-carrier.

Tech's Last Year's Stars

The invaders from Atlanta will bring back a strong galaxy of stars who provided for their victory last fall. In today's starting line, they have Slocum, end; Tharpe and Williams, tackles; and D. Wilcox, guard. They also have a strong group of fleet backs who will be used in reserve. These men who did so well last year are "Chick" Galloway, who ran 41 yards for the final tally; and "Wink" Davis, who sprinted 68 yards for

I keep coming back to that word "balanced" on the back of the Chesterfield package

YOU often hear the word balance—something is out of balance—top-heavy, not on an "even keel."

What you read, "Chesterfield Cigarettes are a balanced blend," means that the right amounts of the right kinds of tobacco are welded together; that is, home-grown tobaccos, the right kind, the right quantity—are blended and cross-blended with tobaccos from Turkey and Greece.

When these tobaccos are balanced one against the other, then you have a mild cigarette.

When they are in balance, then you have a better-tasting cigarette.

May we ask you to read again the statement on the back of the Chesterfield package?
May we ask you to try Chesterfield?
