

Coach "Chuck" Collins Polishes Tar Heels' Offense 'Til Dusk

Still Some Question Concerning Whether McCachren and Burnett Will Play.

OFFENSE SEEMS IMPROVED

N. C. State Is Also Hard Hit by Injuries from Last Week's Game with Davidson.

Headcoach "Chuck" Collins continued to work on the Carolina offense, drilling his charges until dusk.

The Tar Heels, who have been polishing their attack which they will use against N. C. State Saturday, showed continued improvement in yesterday's practice session. Their running attack perked up to a new high while their aerial game looked much better.

Although Jim McCachren and Henry Burnett, flashy backs, were taking heavy work yesterday afternoon, it is still doubtful whether these two ball-carriers will be able to show their wares against the powerful Wolfpack contingent.

Collins Definitely Out

Bill Collins, fine tackle, who cracked a small bone in his arm in the Georgia Tech contest, is definitely out for the State game. He will probably be back in the lineup by the Wake Forest fracas if his arm continues to improve.

Still experimenting and trying to find a working combination in the backfield, Coach Collins presented another quartet in his first string yesterday. The new assortment finds Martin, quarter, Captain Croom, Snyder, and Jackson, backs.

Techs Have Injuries Too

The Techs have not gone without their share of cripples. Clifton Daughtery, fine guard, is out with injuries while Farrar, tackle, has been nursing some hurts culminated in the Davidson contest. Barnes Worth, Raleigh boy and guard, has been shifted to tackle to fill this gap in the forward wall while Isaacs and Stanko have been running at guard.

Wilson to Start

Coach "Clipper" Smith, the Wolfpack mentor, has already indicated that he will start Don Wilson, hefty quarterback, at the field general position against the Tar Heels Saturday. With this innovation, the Techs will be doped to start their pile-driving quartet, Rex, Bohannon, McQuage, and Wilson.

Cumiskey Not to Start

This will leave Captain "Mope" Cumiskey, star fullback on the bench in readiness along with Roscoe Roy and Cliff Croom, all speed merchants.

The Carolina team will leave here Saturday morning about 12:30 o'clock for their invasion of Raleigh. The Tar Heels, 46 stalwarts, will be divided into a one bus load and a handful of men on the special train.

Today's workout should be a light one with the final touches on the offense being topped off. Some kickoffs and placement tries will finish off the order of the day.

Fast But Late

This year's cross country team has a pair of captains who weigh only 120 pounds each. Both Massa Henry and Massa Louis from the Iodine state have a bad habit which they just cannot outlive, it seems. They are late for everything—late for meals, late for work-outs, late for trips, late for going to bed, and late for getting up. In fact they are late for nearly everything except when it comes to the finish of a race and they're right there in the lead, as they should be.

I Only Heard

By Morrie Long

Featured by fisticuffs, drastic upsets, feminine onlookers, and questionable referring, the fourth week of the intramural football league gained momentum in popularity and is rapidly rounding out into the most successful fall season of non-varsity athletics ever enjoyed at Carolina.

Because of the increasing popularity of intramural sports here, Herman Schnell decided that there be a fee of fifty cents assessed each organization entering the play with the idea that this money be used to buy intramural cups to be presented winners of the fraternity and dormitory loops. Intramural managers can pay Herman anytime . . .

All those interested in the fine art of grappling should report to Jim Bernard in the Tin Can at once in order to be eligible for the intramural wrestling tournament slated to be run off November 22 and 23.

Only two teams remain undefeated in the fraternity loop, Sigma Nu and Beta, while three teams, Mangum, Carr, and Best House, head the dormitory league. S. A. E. eliminated K. A. from her elite position while Lambda Chi Alpha set the St. Anthony boys back in second place with a close win. Best House with Kane scintillating with punches and Steele with Norris tossing his dukes in Dempsey style offered the best excitement of the week. Best House won the contest 12 to 0. Coach Snyder's boys from Carr licked Aycock in the outstanding dormitory game of the week while Mangum kept in the running with a win over the eating club boys from Swain Hall.

BOXERS WORKING DAILY IN TIN CAN

Freshman Squad Hit by Gym Attendance; Nat Lumpkin in Form; Williams Returns.

Although many of the freshmen boxing aspirants have been compelled to discontinue their workouts in the Tin Can due to the ruling which requires them to attend gym classes late in the afternoons, the varsity ringmen are training persistently to get in the best of condition for the coming glove season.

Lumpkin in Form

Nat Lumpkin seems to be hitting his stride for the first time since the training campaign opened. Excessive weight had been slowing up the varsity middleweight, but heavy workouts and ring practice has brought back some of his old time speed and power.

In the bantam weight class Eutsler reigns as the outstanding candidate. The 115-pounder has been displaying plenty of speed and ring generalship while boxing with sparring partners.

Glover Not Out

"Cliff" Glover, fine 115-pound letter man of last year's ringsters, has not as yet reported for the early boxing workouts. It is not at all certain that Glover will come out this year.

Jimmy Williams has returned to practice now to settle down to hard work. The 125-pound varsity prospect was recently incapacitated by a deep cut over his right eye received while sparring with Marty Levinson, who is at present assisting Coach Rowe in rounding up his freshman material. Williams

WOLFPACK LEADER

This gentleman charging so fiercely right into your face is "Mope" Cumiskey, captain of N. C. State's Wolfpack. If you recall last year's Tech-Carolina game, you will remember his hard-charging line drives and stellar defensive play.

S. A. E. Ousts Kappa Alpha 6-0

Phantom Leader

Dave McCachren, pictured above, who will captain the Tar Heel quintet team this winter. Dave, who is from Charlotte, is an all-state man. This will be his final year, as he has already served two as a regular and star guard on the Carolina basketball team.

Net Match Postponed

The inability of Walter Leavitan and "Ike" Minor to appear on the tennis courts yesterday caused the postponement of their scheduled match against "Ricky" Willis and Syd Sobol until this afternoon. Not one match in any of the brackets was staged yesterday in Carolina's doubles tourney.

Most of the varsity men with the exception of the two aforementioned put in good work yesterday. John McGlenn played a few sets with Archie Henderson while Harvey Harris, "Ricky" Willis, and Harley Shuford also practiced diligently.

and Max Frucht are the outstanding contenders for the 125 pound class.

K. A.'s Drop from Undefeated Teams; Ruffin, Lambda Chi, And New Dorms Win.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon ousted Kappa Alpha from the list of undefeated fraternity grid teams by eking out a 6-0 decision. The winners also led in first downs 5-1.

The lone score of the contest came in the final minutes of play on a 25 yard pass from Joyner to Rankin. Simonds, Patterson, Harris, and Rankin were outstanding for S. A. E. while Binder, Broadhurst and Phipps shone for the losers.

Ruffin Wins

Ruffin conquered Grimes 19-0. Ruffin counted a touchdown in the first quarter on a 40 yard heave from Leight to McKinnon. The victors tallied in the second period on a 20 yard toss from Leight to Sawyer. Shuford caught a pass from Leight for the extra point.

Shuford received a 15 yard pass from Leight for the final marker. Leight, McKinnon and Snyder starred in the play of Ruffin while Teal and Van Horn stood out for Grimes.

Delta Psi Beaten

Lambda Chi Alpha provided another big upset by marring the unbeaten record of St. Anthony Hall 5-1 in first downs. The Lambda Chi's showed a complete reversal of form to their play of previous skirmishes. Lothian, Dalzell and Liepfried featured for Lambda Chi Alpha while Jeans and Jennings were the stars for St. Anthony Hall.

New Dorms Wins

New Dorms conquered Aycock 9-0. Martin tagged an Aycock back behind the end zone to give his team a 2-0 lead at the intermission. A long pass from Hinson to Turner added a touchdown in the fourth quarter. Hinson tossed a short pass to Yandell for point after touchdown. Hinson and Turner were the leaders in the New Dorms attack while Trubnich and McPhee shared the spotlight for Aycock.

By mutual agreement the

FROSH HARRIERS MEET IMPS TODAY

Eight Tar Babies to Run Against Duke Yearlings Today on Duke 3-Mile Course.

This afternoon at 4:30 o'clock eight freshmen cross country runners will have their first chance to run under the Blue and White. The dual meet with the Blue Imps is to be run over the three mile course at Duke.

The following men will make the trip: Allen, Gardiner, Gammon, Stoney, Daniel, Hamilton, and Fink, and one from the group of Bower, Hairston, Howell, Southerland, Freeman, and Aderholt.

All the men appear to be in very good condition, with the exception of Allen, who has had a bad cold, and Gammon, who has been having some leg trouble. Both men are expected to be in condition to do some nice running.

Coach Dale Ranson also announced that numerals in freshmen cross country are to be given to any man who can run a 2½ or 3 mile course in a certain time to be decided, regardless of whether the man is in the eight men who do the competitive running. More will be told about this later.

Game Results

Results of last night's play in the Graham Memorial play room were as follows:

Pool: B. Kalb defeated Peterson to take second place in the tourney, Peterson capturing third.

Ping pong: Odum downed Walner, 6-1, 6-1, 6-4 only to lose to Cartland, 0-6, 1-6, 5-7, in the finals.

Gabori will oppose Woerner today at 1:15 o'clock for third place.

scheduled game between Phi Delta Theta and Beta Theta Pi was postponed until a later date. S. P. E. forfeited to Phi Alpha. There will be no intramural games today on account of the Carolina Freshmen-Oak Ridge tilt.

CONVOCATION AT CHAPEL PERIOD TODAY

FROSH GRIDSTERS MEET OAK RIDGE TODAY IN KENAN

Visiting Cadet Aggregation to Present Formidable Fore for Tar Baby Gridsters.

For the third time this season the Tar Babies will enter the football arena. This time against Oak Ridge Military Institute today in Kenan Stadium at 3:00 o'clock.

Two victories in two starts is the freshmen's record so far. The Yearling eleven took their opener from Louisburg College by a 12-0 score.

In their next contest, the frosh gridsters managed to gain a close win over the State Wolflets. This was their first Big Five game, and ended with 9-7 count, for the Carolina freshmen.

Oak Ridge has a strong and heavy team, and although they got off to a bad start the cadets have been steadily improving.

Cadets Lost to Duke

Duke's Blue Imps took the measure of the Ridgesters, 34-6 in a harder game than the score indicates. Wake Forest's freshmen aggregation barely won over the Cadets; the Baby Deacons gaining but six points for the margin.

Cadets Tied Louisburg

In their last game the Oak Ridge boys gave the best account yet of themselves. A much improved Louisburg eleven was only able to net a tie from the Cadets.

Coach Bill Cerney, when questioned yesterday concerning today's game said, "We are meeting a strong and fighting team tomorrow, and I hope it
