

FOREIGN POLICY LEAGUE TO HEAR ORGANIZING PLAN

Purpose Is to Express Student Opinion on Issues of Foreign Policy to Authorities.

WILL CONVENE TONIGHT

The newly formed Student Foreign Policy league will meet tonight at 9:00 o'clock in 209 Graham Memorial. Organization plans which have been drawn up by a central committee appointed at the last meeting for this purpose will be presented to the group for approval.

The plan which will be considered is divided into two sections, one devoted to the purposes and aims of the league and the other to organization.

The purpose as stated in this document is to organize and make articulate student opinion on issues and problems of foreign policy. In the meetings of the league students will be afforded an opportunity for discussion of and definite expression of opinion upon current questions involving the international relations of the United States.

To Pursue Decisions

Leaders of the group want it made clear that the league will not stop at discussion, but that after a matter has been debated in the group a decision will be made as to whether further action will be taken toward pressing the views thus definitely expressed upon the authorities charged with the responsibility of conducting the international relations of the United States.

The league will also attempt through discussion and publication to combat the propaganda of interested groups by bringing to light the factual basis of the situation or problem under discussion.

The plan of organization for the league is drawn up in anticipation of expanding to include branches in other universities and colleges throughout the state. This plan calls for organization under what shall be called

(Continued on page two)

DUKE LAW DEAN WILL TALK HERE

Dean Justin Miller Will Be Principal Speaker at Law School Banquet May 4.

Dean Justin Miller of the Duke law school will be the principal speaker at the banquet which the Carolina law school will give in the Carolina Inn at 7:00 o'clock on the evening of May 4, according to an announcement yesterday.

In addition to the principal speech by Miller, there will be other talks, including one by Bill Anglin of the student body, and a musical program prepared by several students.

To Make Awards

Another feature for the evening will be the giving of the awards which have been won during the year by outstanding law students.

In addition to the members of the faculty and their wives, the law school has invited as guests, President Graham, Messrs. House and Woolen, and A. A. F. Seawell, assistant attorney-general for North Carolina.

Educational Conference Plans To Discuss Individual Analysis

Playmaker Try-outs Scheduled for Today

The members of English 66, Professor Selden's class in play directing, announce that try-outs for studio productions will be held this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in the Playmakers theatre.

Twelve plays directed by members of the class will be produced on May 10, 11, and 12, as the next public production of the Playmaker season. Some of the parts have already been cast, but several places are still open.

MAY FROLIC SET TO OPEN FRIDAY

Annual Fraternity Dances Will Begin in Afternoon at 4:30 O'clock in Tin Can.

The fourth annual May Frolic dance series will open Friday afternoon with a tea dance. The set this year will include a total of five dances, closing Saturday night at 12:00 o'clock.

Noble Sissle and his orchestra, one of the leading colored bands of the country, has been signed to furnish the music. Sissle, who has played in several New York night clubs including the Park Central roof, is at present on a tour of the south.

The dances will be held in the Tin Can. Besides the opening tea dance which will last from 4:30 to 6:30 o'clock, the set will include a night dance Friday, 9:00 to 1:00 o'clock, a luncheon dance Saturday at the Washington Duke hotel from 12:30 to 6:30 o'clock; and the concluding event Saturday night, 9:00 to 12:00 o'clock.

Dance in Durham

The luncheon dance at the Washington Duke hotel in Durham, will cost the members of those fraternities in the May Frolic group $2.00 extra per couple.

Bob Reynolds, Beta Theta Pi, is president of the Frolic organization this year; and Bobby Carmichael, D. K. E., is vice-president; Pete Tyree, Kappa Sigma is secretary-treasurer; and Agnew Bahnsen, S. A. E. is assistant secretary-treasurer.

DR. SHEPARD ADVOCATES RACIAL UNDERSTANDING

Dr. James E. Shepard, president of the North Carolina State College for Negroes, addressed a joint meeting of the Y. M. C. A. cabinets Sunday evening at 7:15 o'clock in Gerrard hall.

He spoke on the infinite possibilities of America, and particularly on the need of promoting racial understanding in order to pave the way for the development of these possibilities.

Infirmiry List

The following students were confined to the University infirmary yesterday: Michael Erlanger, T. B. French, T. U. Johnson, M. E. Lang, R. J. Somers, L. D. Turner, Betsy Wright, J. R. Wright, and Edith Wladkowski.

Co-ed Tea Today

The usual co-ed tea will be held this afternoon in Spencer hall from 4:30 to 6:00 o'clock. Everybody is invited around for a cup of tea and some nice juicy cakes of gossip.

Patterson, Viteles, Harriet Herring, Bingham, Gooch Feature in Meeting Yesterday.

TRABUE TO SPEAK TODAY

Bradshaw, Patterson, Allen Also on Schedule Today; Automobile Trip Is Planned.

Featuring addresses by Donald G. Patterson, Morris S. Viteles, Harriet Herring, Walter V. Bingham, and Walter I. Gooch, the second day's session of the Southern Regional conference on Vocational Guidance and Education continued here yesterday.

"Individual Analysis" will be the general topic for today's sessions.

Discussing investigations recently completed by Kefauver, Lincoln, Thorndike and others, Donald G. Patterson at 8:30 o'clock addressed a group, presided over by Franklin J. Keller, interested in the evaluation of vocational guidance. Morris S. Viteles of the University of Pennsylvania also spoke at this session, evaluating the clinical methods in the United States and Great Britain.

At 10:30 o'clock the delegates at the conference met in groups to discuss vocational guidance evaluation, dividing themselves into different sections for special investigations on the subject.

M. R. Trabue of the University acted as chairman of a session in the afternoon to discuss "Group Testing."

Royal J. Davis conducted a meeting at 7:30 o'clock last night on social and economic trends. Speakers at this convocation were Harriet Herring of the University, who spoke on "Social Trends in the South;" Walter V. Bingham, director of the Personnel Research federation, speaking on "Occupational

(Continued on page two)

REUNION PLANNED FOR CLASS OF '33

Permanent President Francis Anderson Announces Committee on Preparations.

Francis Anderson, permanent president of the class of 1933, yesterday announced the names of the committeemen who will have charge of the preparations for the baby reunion which the class will hold here this spring during the week following commencement.

The reunion, which will be held in conjunction with the gatherings of other former classes, but which will have its own banquet, is designed to bring the class of 1933 together for the first time since its graduation last spring.

On the committee which was chosen by the president from the members of last year's graduating group are the following: John T. Manning, Chapel Hill; Cabell Philpott, Lexington, N. C.; C. Ashby Penn, Chapel Hill; Benton Bray, Louisburg, N. C.; C. C. Hamlet, Durham; A. S. Cate, Greensboro.

Mary Frances Parker, Goldsboro; E. C. Daniel, Raleigh; C. Percy Idol, High Point; R. H. Mason, Sanford; Erwin Walker, Charlotte; Jane Purington, Scotland Neck; George C. S. Adams, Columbia, S. C.; James E. Steere, Jr., Charlotte; Belmont Freeman, Ellerbe, N. C.

STUDENTS DECIDE COUNCIL'S POWER AT POLLS TODAY

Campus to Vote on Issue in Graham Memorial from 9:00 to 5:00 O'clock.

NO ENTERTAINMENT VOTE

Voting for or against proposals to give the Student council power to make rulings over all student campus committees, subject to referendum of the student body, students in all University schools will cast their ballots in Graham Memorial today.

The polls will be open from 9:00 until 5:00 o'clock, and the balloting will be under the supervision of the Student council.

The proposal for unifying student government reads as follows, as announced by Harper Barnes, president of the student body: in case of dispute as to the action of any student officer or the governing board of any student activity committee the Student council shall make definite rulings subject to referendum of the student body.

Contrary to former announcements, there will be no voting on the plan to revise the Student Entertainment committee.

No Vote on Activity Group

Agreements already reached for reorganizing the Student Activity committee have made a vote on the proposal unnecessary. Officials have agreed to have the commerce and liberal arts school representatives, who were formerly appointed by the deans, elected by the student body.

However, no decision has as yet been made concerning the program submitted by the Student council for rotating the faculty members on the board. The director of Graham Memorial will in the future serve on the committee, but will not necessarily act as chairman.

LIBRARY FRIENDS PLANNING DINNER

Notables Scheduled to Attend Banquet in Graham Memorial Saturday Night at 7:30.

The Friends of the Library of the University are planning a dinner in Graham Memorial Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Between 75 and 100 guests from various parts of the state are expected to attend.

The purpose of the society is to bring together, in an informal group, a number of friends of the library who are interested in its growth and development. The society was organized in 1932 and its membership consists of anyone interested in the objects of the association.

The speakers at the dinner of the society are scheduled to be: Governor J. C. B. Ehringhaus; John Sprunt Hill, president of the society; President Frank P. Graham; R. B. Downs, librarian of the University; Dr. J. G. de R. Hamilton, director of the Southern Historical collection; and Mrs. Lyman Cotten, secretary of the society.

Carroll Calls Assembly

All freshmen in the school of commerce will meet with Dean D. D. Carroll today at chapel period in the auditorium of Bingham hall.

Program For Commencement Exercises Released By House

Co-eds Vote Today In Run-off Ballot

Co-eds will vote today in run-off elections for the offices of house president of Spencer hall and secretary of the Woman's association.

The polls are in Graham Memorial and will be open from 9:00 to 5:00 o'clock. The candidates to be voted on are: Isabel Henderson and Lois Byrd for house president, and Nancy Gordon and Harriet Taylor for secretary of the Woman's association.

BOARD DISCUSSES PUBLICATION AIDS

Dill and Page Ask for Office Improvements; Circulation Manager's Salary to Be Raised.

Plans for the publications were discussed and the suggestions by Lonnie Dill and Bob Page, new editor and managing editor of the DAILY TAR HEEL, were considered at the meeting of the Publications Union board yesterday.

The photography contracts for the Yackety Yack were discussed, and provisions were made for the securing of engraving contracts for the publications. No definite conclusions were reached and final disposition of the contracts will await a later meeting.

The board made provisions for putting in order typewriters in the DAILY TAR HEEL office. One new typewriter is to be bought for the office and the machine which it replaces will be moved to the printshop for the use of the staff working there at night.

New Dictionary

J. M. Lear was appointed to investigate the proposed remodeling of the office. The board voted for the purchase of a new dictionary for the DAILY TAR HEEL, provided it be fastened securely in the office.

The board agreed to modify the method of paying staff officers of various publications, agreeing to increase the circulation manager's salary for the extra time spent in mailing out copies of the DAILY TAR HEEL to the various high schools and preparatory schools.

BRIDGE TEA SATURDAY WILL HELP LOAN FUND

The American Association of University Women will have a bridge tea Saturday afternoon at the President's house for the benefit of the graduate women's loan fund.

The bridge will start at 3:00 o'clock, and the tea will be from 4:30 to 6:00 o'clock. Admission to the bridge will be 50 cents and to the tea 25 cents. All reservations for tables should be made through Mrs. Hanft, whose telephone number is 6516.

"Y" Delegates to Make Trip

Official delegates to the annual meeting of all student Y. M. C. A.'s and Y. W. C. A.'s in North Carolina to be held in Raleigh this week-end are as follows: J. D. Winslow, John Acee, Jack Pool, Tom Nesbitt, B. S. Smith, J. C. Greer, Phil Hammer, Frank MacIntosh, and Harry F. Comer, general secretary of the local Y. M. C. A.

Graduation Schedule Runs from June 10 to 12 Inclusive; First Exercises at Old Well.

MANY EVENTS PLANNED

Baccalaureate Sermon, Musical Program, Alumni Day, Class Reunions on Program.

Announcements concerning commencement exercises for this spring, which will run from Sunday, June 10 to Tuesday, June 12, came from the office of R. B. House, executive secretary of the University, yesterday.

The program will get under way at 10:45 o'clock Sunday morning with the gathering of members of the senior class at the Old Well in caps and gowns. From there they will march into Memorial hall under the leadership of marshals to hear the baccalaureate sermon, which will be delivered at 11:00 o'clock.

Later on Sunday afternoon several other features will be conducted. At 5:00 o'clock there will be an organ concert, at 6:00 o'clock a bell concert, at 7:00 o'clock vesper services under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., and at 8:30 o'clock a musical program, perhaps an Oratorio.

Alumni Day

Monday, June 11, will be alumni day. House in his announcement stated that he wanted to emphasize that the seniors are just as much entitled to all alumni privileges as any other class and that they are not only invited but urged to attend all exercises.

The day will begin with a meeting of reunion classes in Gerrard hall at 10:30 o'clock in the morning. There will be three attractions on the afternoon's program, an alumni luncheon in Swain hall at 1:00 o'clock, either a baseball game or a band concert at 4:00 o'clock, and President Graham's reception at his home at 5:30 o'clock. That evening at 7:00 o'clock there will be suppers for the various reunion classes. At 9:00 o'clock there will be an alumni reception and dance in the Tin Can to which seniors

(Continued on last page)

DAVIS ANNOUNCES 'HAY FEVER' CAST

Playmakers to Produce Noel Coward's Comedy in Memorial Hall May 25 and 26.

A tentative cast for Noel Coward's "Hay Fever," which will be produced by the Carolina Playmakers May 25 and 26 in Memorial Hall, was announced yesterday, by Harry Davis, director.

The cast follows: the Bliss family: Judith, Marion Tatum or Eileen Ewart; David, Douglas Hume; Simon, Alfred Barrett; Sorel, Christine Maynard. Others are Richard, Foster Fitz-Simons; Jackie, Joyce Killinsworth; Sandy, Fletcher; Clara, Patsy McMullan. The part of Myra has not been cast.

"Hay Fever" has been called Coward's most sophisticated and hilarious comedy. It has been considered for production by the Playmakers for some time.

This play will replace the Forest theatre production of "Hamlet" which was scheduled to be presented this spring, and which was dropped because of lack of time to produce it.