

Richmond Twirler Superb As Spiders Score 7-0 Win

Only Thirty Batters
Face Ace Slab Artist

Hurler Allows But Two Hits as Mates Garner Six from Vetereran Freddy Crouch.

IRWIN PLAYS BRILLIANTLY

Richmond, Va., May 22.—Allowing only two hits and striking out 10 batters, Wash, University of Richmond slab artist, shut out the Tar Heels today by a 7-0 score.

Bunching four of their six hits, the Richmond Spiders pushed across six runs in the fourth inning, the only bad inning of the game for Crouch.

They tallied the seventh and final run of the contest in the eighth, when with a thunder-shower threatening, Voliva lost Lacy's hit because of the dark clouds and let it go for a double.

The majority of the hits were either Texas leaguers which fell safe, or short infield hits down the base lines.

Irwin Brilliant

It remained for Tommy Irwin to provide the fielding gem of the afternoon. With Morris on first by virtue of his second hit of the day, the flashy Carolina shortstop made a falling stab at Campbell's hot liner, and on a quick throw to McCarn he doubled the Spiders' rightfielder off first.

Only 30 men faced Pitcher Wash in this fast game. The Richmond infield played error-less ball, and only two Carolina batters reached first on passes.

Morris Stars

Morris collected a double and a single in three trips to the plate to annex the batting honors for the afternoon. Groome and Crouch were the only Tar Heels to dent the offerings of Wash, with the latter collecting a double.

Tomorrow the Carolina club journeys to Ashland where they will meet the Randolph-Macon College nine in the second of their four-game tour.

Relations Committee

to whom the Monogram Club may send felicitations and greetings to attend the University next year. This is the first time this has been attempted, and from all appearances will be successful.

All Monogram Club members, freshman numeral men, participants in spring sports, managers, and the entire coaching staff are invited. Other guests will include Fletcher Ferguson, 1936 Yackety Yack sports editor, James Morris, ex-sports editor of the DAILY TAR HEEL, and Ira Sarasohn and Lester Ostrow, new sports co-editors of the DAILY TAR HEEL.

Other retiring officers of the club include Don Fletcher Jackson, vice-president; Charles Hubbard, secretary; Ben Blood, treasurer; Frank Abernethy, athletic association councilman, and Charles Shaffer, chairman of the executive committee.

YACKETY YACK PICTURES

"Hamlet" Props

But if the DAILY TAR HEEL hadn't told you all this, you would never have known it by seeing the play this week-end, because wonderfully realistic effects have been secured by these makeshift methods, which, after all, are the methods of theatre people everywhere.

Much Color

The costumes are rich and warm in color, even the grave-diggers wearing cloths of bright reds and yellows wound around their legs.

Hamlet will be clad in black velvet with a brilliant scarlet-lined cloak, and the regal robes of Claudius and Gertrude will be elaborate and colorful.

Almost the only somberlydressed figure will be the ghost, who will wear grey sateen, and the black-cassocked priest.

The Playmakers whose costumes are to be made of upholstery are praying for cool weather for the nights of the performance, while the lightly-clad maidens in Ophelia's funeral train hope for a mid-summer night.

Last Notice

The Yackety Yack is announcing for the last time that all students who want their copies of the yearbook mailed to them must mail their summer address on a postcard to the Yackety Yack office in Graham Memorial immediately.

The continued trouble at the Queen City Printing Company has prevented the annual from coming out until some time during the summer.

A fee of $1.35 for each quarter's absence will be charged all students wanting a book who have been out of school part of the year.

Intramural Leaders Advance in Net Play

Kappa Alpha, Z. B. T. No. 1, and Alpha Epsilon No. 2 teams all advanced in yesterday's intramural tennis competition, each winning by 2-0 scores.

Lewis completed its unfinished match with Old West, adding another win to its undefeated list by a 2-1 count. The Betas forfeited to Sigma Nu, and the Law School eliminated itself from the unbeaten ranks when it failed to show up for its match with Ruffin.

The Zebes experienced plenty of opposition in their two matches, the No. 1 team winning by a 2-0 count over Sigma Chi, and dropping the No. 3's match to Alpha Epsilon No. 2 by a like count.

Kalmanoff's win over Barney, and Stein's drawn out match with Neal resulted in the Z. B.
T. triumph, while Sims went down before Mort Singer, and Strauss lost a hard match to Gordon for the A. E. win.

Bluestone and L. Weisbrod of T. E. P. were no match for the strong undefeated pair of Lovell and Everett of Kappa Alpha and were beaten in straight sets.

Since the final examinations get underway at Duke next week the Duke-Carolina baseball game has been definitely cancelled.
The game was not played last week due to inclement weather conditions.

Successful Mentor

With the unparalleled record of winning 112 tennis matches while tying one, and losing only four, John F. Kenfield, above, North Carolina tennis coach, finishes his eighth season of work with Tar Heel teams.
Coach Kenfield this week will enter his 16th summer as pro at the exclusive Lake Shore Club at Glencoe, Ill.

Over a four-year period ending in 1934, Coach Kenfield's teams won 74 straight matches.
For three consecutive years, 1931-1934, they established best claims to the mythical national team tennis championship. This year his team has won both singles and doubles in both state and Southern Conference tournaments.

PHI DELTA THETA DEFEATS CHI PSI

S. A. E. and Zeta Psi Also Score Wins in Mural Baseball to Remain Undefeated.

After the Delta Tau Delta's had held a lead for the first four innings, the Zeta Psi's put on a four-run rally in the fifth inning to win the first contest yesterday, 4-1.

With the bases loaded Satterfield knocked a home run for the winners in the fifth inning to score the four winning runs.
He also collected a single to lead his team at the bat. Currie led the losers with his excellent pitching by striking out four men and allowing but three hits.

The Phi Delta Theta's bunched their hits and put on rallies in the first, third, and fourth innings to defeat the Chi Phi's, 12-2.

Wolslagel collected a triple and two singles to gain batting honors for the winners. Miller also stood out at the bat for the winners with a double and a single. Mosier held the losers to three hits and struck out four men.

The S. A. E.'s heavy artillery bunched their hits and put on rallies in the initial, third, and fourth innings to defeat the T.
E. P.'s, 13-3.

Cope and Freeman led the winners at the bat with two hits
