LES BROWN WILL PLAY

Sophomore President Ramsay Potts last night announced that everything would be in readiness for the annual Sophomore Hop to be held in the Tin Can from 9 until 1 o'clock tonight.

Second year men will dance to the music of Les Brown and his Duke Blue Devils. Dance committee chairman Billy Seawell has promised a gaily decorated dance floor.

Dance Leaders

Sophomores and their dates who will participate in the figure, which will be presented at 11:30 p. m. are: Ramsay Potts with Miss Mary Elizabeth Barge of Atlanta, Ga., David Meroney with Miss Jean Bush of Chapel Hill, John Ramsay with Miss Corinna Gant of Raleigh, Billy Seawell with Miss Bessie Strowd of Chapel Hill, Joe Patterson with Miss Alma Hall of New Bern, Clyde Mullis with Miss Caroline Rivers of Charlotte, Earl Ruth with Miss Jean Wiley of Charlotte, Warren Haddaway with Miss Berkely Saul of Greensboro, Haughton Ehringhaus with Miss Esther Mebane of Chapel Hill, Bill Jordan with Miss Sally Page of Chapel Hill, Bob Ellison with Miss Beverley Bailey of Atlanta, Ga., Gene Simmons with Miss Margaret Jamieson of Oxford, David Allen with Connie Burwell of Charlotte, Jack Tate with Clara Roberson of Durham, and Newton Craig with Hester Campbell of Covington, Ga.

The above figure participants and their dates are asked to meet at the Tin Can at 5 o'clock this afternoon for a rehearsal.

Dance Chaperones

Chaperones for the dance are Dr. and Mrs. English Bagby, Dr. and Mrs. W. M. Dey, and Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Wiley.

Those sophomores who have not secured their bids may get them from 2 to 5 o'clock this afternoon in the Y. M. C. A. lobby. This will be the only chance to get the invitations. The dance will be formal.

SOUTHERN ECONOMIC HEADS

Freshman Elections

Student President Jack Pool announces that nominations for freshman class officers will be made next Tuesday with Wednesday set aside for campaign speeches and Thursday as election day.

UNIVERSITY CLUB PLANS BIG RALLY FOR V. M. I. GAME

Pep Meeting to be Held in Memorial Hall Tonight at 8

The University Club completed details last night to counteract V. M. I.'s Saturday invasion with a huge pep rally which will be held tonight at 8 o'clock in Memorial hall.

Chief among the speakers at the rally will be Jack Pool, president of the student body, who is also noted for his ability to lead and compose cheers.

Trip Rand, baseball star and president of the senior class, will also be on hand to offer ways and means of defeating the Virginia Militarists.

Other speakers will be Julien Warren, University Club president, and Phil Hammer, editor of the DAILY TAR HEEL.

Lester Ostrow, under whose energetic efforts every rally of the year has been held, will preside and lead cheers and yells.

Members of the football team also will appear on the rally program, according to Ostrow. Music will be furnished by the University band.

ECONOMIC GROUP WILL MEET HERE FOR FIRST TIME

Graham to Preside Over Opening Session of Southern Economic Association

MET AT DUKE YESTERDAY

For the first time in its history the Southern Economic Association is meeting in North Carolina. The eighth annual conference of the Association opened at Duke University yesterday and will move to Carolina tonight. Many leading figures in the nation are taking part on the two-day program this year.

President Frank Graham will preside over the program tonight at Hill Music hall when the delegates assemble at 8:15. Albert S. Keister of the Womans College of the University will deliver the presidential address, speaking on the subject "Are Government and Business Separate Entities?" Following this address will be Calvin Hoover of the United States Department of Agriculture and Duke University. Mr. Hoover will speak on "The Consumer and Agricultural Adjustment."

Local Session

Continuing the meet in Chapel Hill tomorrow, Albert Keister will lead the business meeting to be held at the Carolina Inn beginning at 9 a. m. John B. Woosley, of the University economics department, will preside at the morning session opens at 10 a. m. in 103 Bingham hall. At this

Duke's Dr. Vollmer To Talk On Germany

"Germany in the Summer of 1935" Is Subject of Professor

Dr. C. Vollmer, head of the German department at Duke, will speak on "Germany in the Summer of 1935," Monday night at 8 o'clock, in the banquet room of Graham Memorial.

A keen analyst of German affairs, Dr. Vollmer has spent a great deal of time in Germany during the past 10 years. His talk will be a discussion of the political, social, and economic conditions as he saw them there this past summer.

This talk is being sponsored by the "Deutscher Verein," a club organized by the German department for the purpose of giving the students an opportunity to speak and to sing in German, and to obtain a knowledge of Germany as a whole. All those interested in Germany are urged to be present.

Sophomore Bids

Sophomores who haven't already received their bids to the class dance tonight may get them in the Y. M. C. A. lobby this morning during chapel period. Those who have been unavoidably prevented from getting their bids may see Ramsey Potts at the Phi Delta Theta house.

SUMMER SESSION FACULTY CHOSEN BY EDGAR KNIGHT

List Includes Outstanding Teachers from National Universities to Teach in 1936

LAW COURSES STRESSED

Dr. E. W. Knight, director of the University summer session, announced yesterday that the visiting and resident faculty for that session has been chosen for 1936. The list includes Thomas R. Powell, Harvard University; Walter W. Cook, Northwestern University; Douglass B. Maggs, Duke University; and Arthur H. Kent, assistant general counsel, U. S. Bureau of Internal Revenue.

During the session Professors Powell, Cook, and Maggs will teach courses in constitutional law, conflict of laws, and torts, respectively, during the first term. Mr. Kent will teach the course in taxation during the second term.

Law Authority

As the guest of the North Carolina bar association on its convention cruise last summer, where Professor Powell delivered an address on "The Significance of the Supreme Court's Decision Holding NRA Unconstitutional," he made many friends among the lawyers and judges of North Carolina. Professor Powell is recognized as America's leading authority in the field of constitutional law. He was trained at the University of Vermont, at Columbia, and at Harvard; taught at the Universities of Illinois, California and Columbia, and since 1925 at Harvard.

Taxation Head

Arthur H. Kent, the second in command of the legal division of the United State's government taxation agency, was trained at the University of Southern California and at Stanford. He has taught at the Universities of Oregon, Cincinnati and Chicago. It was his work in the field of taxation at Chicago which attracted the attention of the treasury.

Walter W. Cook, who taught

Mass-Meeting To Be Held In Memorial Hall Today

Yackety-Bucs Get Ivey By Over-Bid In Financial Deal

By United we Press

A definite threat was handed the fourth estate of the Tar-Mags yesterday when the crooked Yackety-Bucs went the better team one better by subsidizing Pete "Poison" Ivey, terrible end.

Ivey, according to the Tar-Mag brain trusters, was first subsidized by the Yackety-Bucs, but as turn about is fair play, the scribes bought him back, Yesterday's developments will probably be conclusive according to Claude "Rank" Rankin, annual half-wit.

Unwanted

"We didn't want him anyway," said co-generals Bob "Front" Page and Phil "Tack" Hammer. "Neither do we," it was rumored echoed from the practice field.

Another purchase was also announced yesterday by Rankin. "We have just closed the deal with Alex "All-America" Andrews who was stellar backfield man for the "Lying Lawyers."

Jake "Bump" Snyder will prove utterly useless in the line for the Yackety-Bucs. He was included in the law school deal of yesterday, according to Mr. Rank. Jack "High" Lowe, of last year's annual staff, has signed a contract to play full-back."

This completes a full house," said Coach Bill "Hunky" Anderson.

"Despite the unorthodox, dishonest carryings on of the Yackety-Bucs, our team will be the acme of honest and integrity. Our motto: 'Don't pay for the best,'" misquoted Tar-Mag Page.

Pi Phi Dance

Pi Beta Phi pledges will be introduced at the Pi Phi pledge dance in the Carolina Inn this evening.

Freddy Johnson will furnish the music for the dance, which will follow a banquet given by the pledges in honor of the old sorority members.

Students will Have Full Hour Meeting In Cause of Peace

Joe Barnett Elected Student Representative to Go to Washington November 11

JACK POOL WILL PRESIDE

A late news flash from the special meeting of the campus peace committee which convened last night at a last minute call from chairman Bob Russell revealed that Joe Barnett was elected student representative to go to Washington, November 11, and join with other representatives from Colleges all over America meeting with various national officials to express to them student views on the prevention of war. Mac Smith was elected as an alternate delegate.

At 10:15 this morning all classes will end for a full hour period to make way for the mighty student mobilization in the cause of peace—a mass-meeting in Memorial hall presided over by Jack Pool, president of the student body and addressed by two students, Bill Carter and Harper Barnes.

The assembly will be opened by a two minute period of silence in memory of the men who were killed in the World War. Bill Carter, graduate student who holds a fellowship in social research here, will be the principal speaker. After his graduation from Harvard in 1931, Carter was connected for two years with the League of Nations in Geneva where he studied international relations.

Carter to Speak

Carter will speak on "Citizenship and the War System." He stated that he will not offer solutions to the problem of war, due to the limited time, but will confine himself to presenting the problem and its dangers to the student, who, tucked away in quiet, peaceful college environment, may find himself suddenly

NOTICE!

Below is a ballot which every thinking student at the University should fill out, that his opinion may be recorded in the history of youth's fight against war.

THIS BALLOT DOES NOT PURPORT TO FORCE STUDENTS TO ANSWER "YES" TO EACH QUESTION. IT IS DRAWN UP TO ASCERTAIN HOW STUDENTS FEEL ABOUT THE QUESTION, NOT HOW THEY WERE ASKED TO FEEL.

Ballot boxes will be placed in the Y. M. C. A. lobby and the lobby of Memorial Hall this morning, the former to be open for voting all day. The Memorial Hall ballot box will be set up only for the peace program which begins this morning at 10:15 o'clock.

STUDENT BALLOT

1. Do you favor genuine neutrality legislation to prevent entanglement of the United States in war—no loan, credits, munitions or secondary war materials to belligerents? Yes— No—
2. Do you favor the demilitarization of our colleges and schools especially by assuring the passage of the Nye-Kvale Bill to make the R. O. T. C. optional instead of compulsory? Yes— No—
3. Would you refuse to support the government of the United States in any war it may undertake? Yes— No—

CAMPUS KEYBOARD

The volumes that have been written on war and peace leave little for us, mere youths, to say about the matter. But an uncontrollable urge to add our juvenile views impels a somewhat different sort of viewpoint on this day of protest against war. For the thinking youth, there has never been written a more gripping, a more realistic presentation than that of William Lyon Phelps several years ago. "Christ or Caesar?" asks Dr. Phelps, and in those three interrogative words youth finds the real essence of his problem today.

Whether we live by our consciences, whether we will strive as Christians to a better life, whether we will always keep in mind our goal of happiness which only peace can bring—those are youth's questions. When politicians and moneyed interests and despotic dictators throw their tremendous and insidious forces in an effort to make nations fight for the dollar or for silly ideals or for lying catch-words, youth must never fail to put ahead of all the Christian motto, the Christian method, before the coarse and destructive ideal of nationalism.

Never must we lose sight of the reason for our coming Armistice Day memorial services. It is not to commemorate the glories of the bloody and ravenous destruction, it is not to eulogize the noble statesmen who slashed us into armed conflict. No, it is to pay our respects to the poor tricked humans who sacrificed their lives that un-Christian men might put to test their tenets that man is greater than his Creator.

We do not know whether we will be able to repel the "patriotic" spirit of war times or not. The choice between 10 years in prison for "un-patriotic" protest against war and fighting for the "glory of our nation" is a difficult one to make. Our only prayer is that America will educate its people to the Christian conception that peace on earth should be the most precious dictate of our collective and individual conscience.—P. G. H.
