

Cabinet Meeting

The Freshman Friendship council will assemble at 7:15 tomorrow night in the Y building for its first meeting of the term, Bob Carroll, newly elected president of the freshman group, will preside.

The highlight of the evening will be Mac Smith's report on his stay at Geneva during the past summer.

Students may get stickers for their automobiles from the office of the Dean of Students.

Old Copy of the Times

Tom Van Alstyne, who is employed at the broadcasting station in Durham, recently gave us a copy of the July 27, 1861, issue of the New York Times. He found it at his home in upstate New York when he was there on a vacation.

In 1861 the Times was published in three forms, as a daily, a semi-weekly, and a weekly. Ours is a copy of the weekly issue. It has eight pages printed in very small though very clear type. Most of the stories are about the Civil War, and the only display advertisement in the entire paper extolls the virtues of Spalding's Throat Confections, Cephalic Pills, and Prepared Glue.

A column-long front-page article entitled "The Pirates" begins like this: "Jeff, Davis' seapirates are having harder luck, if possible, than his land pirates." It goes on to tell of various naval operations, most of which were taking place near Cape Hatteras.

"The Rebellion" is the headline of the leading story on the war. It includes six columns and tells in detail of the movements of the armies, of actual combat on many fronts, and the activities of the United States Congress. Other pages are filled with eye-witness' accounts of the first battle of Bull Run. Lists of those killed and wounded in the battle fill four columns.

The entire second page is taken up with an installment of a continued novel, "The Silver Cord," by Shirley Brooks. Here are the first two sentences of chapter LXXI:

"Aventayle hurried back to the hotel in quest of Hawkesley. The anger and excitement which had been caused by what the honest-hearted manager regarded as the cold blooded and calculating villainy of Adair had operated to dispel the slight fumes of the dinner, and when he reached the court-yard he felt in a strangely uncomfortable condition."

An article headlined "Spain" begins by saying, "The insurrection in Spain was confined to Loja, and on the 4th inst. the town was entirely surrounded by troops. The insurgents were shouting, 'The Republic forever!' 'Death to the Pope!'"

State Defeats Davidson

(Continued from page three) a five-yard penalty, Rooney whipped a forward pass to Tatum who crossed the line standing up. The Wildcats' safety came soon after the touchdown by State. With the ball on their own 13-yard line, a bad pass sent Rooney into the end zone for the safety.

Midway in the third period, State drove hard down the field to Davidson's 11-yard line only to lose the ball on downs. Laferty then launched a determined offense into State territory which was stopped at its peak by an interception on the part of Rooney.

The final period of play saw Davidson hold State to four downs on the Wildcats' two-yard line.

Council Meeting

The Junior-Senior cabinet will convene at 7:15 tomorrow evening in the regular meeting place. Various plans for the coming year's program will be discussed and committees will be appointed.

Plans of the upper cabinet which are already under way are those concerning the Sunday night open air concerts and the Thursday night "Town Hall" radio forum.

Woman's "Y"

Y. W. C. A.—First meeting will take place at the Presbyterian church tomorrow night at 7:00 o'clock. The Rev. Donald Stewart will deliver the welcome address.

Varsity Gridders Keep Training

(Continued from page three) the first White offensive play and, outracing Coughenour, flashed down the sideline for 95 yards and the second White touchdown.

Blues Score

After the Blue team had scored on two successive rushes by Little following Coughenour's interception of a White pass, Coaches Wolf and Erickson called a halt to any more proceedings.

Bryant and Horace Palmer, ends; Desich and Hubbard, tackles; Ed Palmer and Abernethy, guards; Avery, center; and Winborne, Cooner, Coughenour and Kraynick in the backfield formed the Blue team.

Football Teams To Meet

Don McAllister has a large group of lettermen back from the 1936 team that held the Tar Heels to a two-touchdown margin and gave the latter probably their worst physical beating of the season. The Gamecock group is the same that started off two years ago under the new regime at Columbia.

Duke-V. P. I.

Greensboro's floodlights will be taxed that night when Wallace Wade's mighty Blue Devils trot out to do battle with Virginia Tech. As usual Duke will probably not show this time out for last year the Gobblers were the conference door-mat.

Even with "Foots" Dickerson and George Sodaro working full time, the Blue Devils should coast to victory on straight football. They aren't anxious to put on any previews for the Tennessee, Georgia Tech, North Carolina and Pitt scouts. But then can you blame them?

Clemson vs. Tulane

Two engagements between Southern and Southeastern opponents will rate watching. Clemson's powerful Tigers journey to New Orleans in an attempt to surf-board Tulane's Green Wave while Wake Forest's new handlers will hope to cope with Major Bob Weyland's Tennessee outfit at Knoxville. A successful Deacon start would be too optimistic to prognosticate for the Vols are rated high for '37.

In Virginia, the W. & L. Generals play host to Wofford while the Cavaliers, the voluntary exiles under new coaching, meet Hampden Sidney at Charlottesville, Maryland is home to St. Johns and William and Mary plays Navy at Annapolis.

Friday night the revamped Flying Cadets of V. M. I. tangle with Pop Warner's Temple Owls at Philadelphia and The Citadel entertains Newberry at Charleston.

Band Will Open Year Tomorrow

Slocum Plans To Complete Try-outs At Meeting

The first meeting of the University band will be held in Hill Music hall tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock.

Earl Slocum, band director, urges all freshmen who are interested in playing for the band to be present at the practice session. Mr. Slocum has held try-outs for several freshmen already. The try-out program will be completed at tomorrow's meeting.

Several new instruments have been purchased for band use and 12 new uniforms have been acquired. This will raise the equipped strength of the band to 84 members.

New Physical Education

(Continued from page three) infirmity this year at the start of his physical examination. In this pamphlet was listed all the material pertinent to the student taking the physical education course.

Registration

Registration this past Wednesday in which the freshman received his day and hour of his class, and activity assignments tomorrow and Tuesday will complete physical education registration. Wednesday and Thursday, freshmen are required to report fully dressed, ready to start work.

This fall, of the six sports offered in the physical education classes, the largest will be touch football. This sport will be divided into two sections, one for those under 145 pounds and one for those over that weight. It will be taught in four divisions in every class. Tennis will be the next largest and will be offered in two divisions in every class.

New Sports

Among the introductory sports this fall is "track skills" which will bring out the skills in track replacing the usual track course. Individual physical education or corrective classes will be run twice a week for those who received a medical rating below par.

A complete list of the sports offered in the physical education classes and the instructors follows:

Individual physical education—Siewert, Allan; handball—Fletcher; touch football—(over 145 pounds) Morriss, Dunham, (under 145 pounds) Ronman, Robinson, Mullis; tennis—Schnell, Fletcher, Fuller; track skills—Ranson; soccer—Siewert, Allan.

Freshman Sports

Five freshman sports will be open to the physical education students. Contrary to the current rumor, fencing with Coach Coffin will be included. The others are: cross country with Coach Dale Ranson; tennis with Coach John Kenfield (which will start later on in the quarter); gymnastics and tumbling with Doc Lawson, and football by the entire staff.

Bigger Staff

With the entire personnel back and a few new additions made of assistants, a good year of physical education is facing the freshman class.

"Tomorrow and Tuesday when the freshmen pick their activity, I would like everyone of them to pick a sport to his liking so that he will enjoy his physical education classes and we can teach the sport to him. This training is not only for this year, but for many years to come. In fact, as long as the student participates in the sport," said Siewert.
