WIDE SEARCH LAUNCHED FOR MISSING BOMBER

San Pedro, Calif., Jan. 7.—A giant naval service patrol bomber, missing in the Pacific since Wednesday with seven men aboard, brought out three hundred navy planes and 24 warships on a search to cover the seas between Santa Barbara and San Diego today.

Capt. Alva D. Bernhard, chief of staff to Rear Admiral Ernest J. King, commander of the aircraft scouting force, expressed confidence that the missing aircraft would be found.

Capt. Bernhard stated, "We believe the plane will be found. It is a flying boat, capable of landing in any kind of sea."

According to naval officials, the 33,000 pound, twin engined bomber carried emergency rations and a small still for converting ocean water into drinking water.

The search by battleships, cruisers, destroyers, and two coast guard cutters last night was hampered by fog; and cloudy weather was forecast for today.

The aircraft carriers Lexington and Saratoga sailed from Long Beach late yesterday, each with 72 planes ready to take to the air at dawn today and join other fleet planes.

All activities of the missing plane, which was a member of the VP-7 squadron of patrol Wing One, were covered by secrecy. It was reported, however, that the plane was engaged in bombing practice off Santa Barbara.

GLENN FRANK ACCEPTS REPUBLICAN HELM

Washington, Jan. 7.—Taking over the chairmanship of the Republican party's program committee, Glenn Frank asked today that every group in the nation, "regardless of party lines or of sectional interest," offer their assistance.

In a telegram to John Hamilton, chairman of the Republican national committee, the 50-year-old editor, lecturer, and former President of the University of Wisconsin accepted the assignment last night.

"As I sense the spirit of the members who have already written to me," Frank said, "this commission will not be an agency of petty faultfinding or vindictive attack.

It will seek to play its full part in a sincere open-minded responsible search for the principles and lines of national action that will make America a going concern."

Frank's committee will be made up of more than 150 men and women. The chairmanship was tendered him by the party's executive committee at St. Louis last month.

German Club Limits Sale Of Dance Bids

Mid-Winters To Be Held In Bynum Instead Of Tin Can

200 Bids Issued

Only 200 bids will be issued to Mid-Winter German dances February 11 and 12, it was learned yesterday.

Because of a basketball game here on February 12 with Duke, the Tin Can will not be available for the set of four dances, at which Will Osborne and his 13-piece orchestra will play; and the size of Bynum gymnasium, where German club officials announced Thursday the dances will be held, made necessary the restriction to 200 bids.

Ticket Value

In about two weeks, when the bids are placed on sale, the tickets, valued at $8 for undergraduates and $7 for graduate students, may be obtained from any of the following:

Dance Set

The set of four dances will include two tea dances on Friday and Saturday afternoons, the Junior prom on Friday night, and the main event Saturday night. The Junior figure and the German club figure will be held on Friday and Saturday nights, respectively.

Osborne's band is widely known for its renditions of popular dance music and especially for the sliding trombone effect in introducing numbers.

PLAYMAKERS TO PRESENT REVELS AT 8 TONIGHT

Nachtmann-Leach Play Combination To Be Featured

"Our sole purpose in presenting the Twelfth Night revels tonight, is to give both the actors and the audience an hour or so of fun, foolishness, and frivolity," said Bob "Dixie Dazzle" duFour in a secrecy shrouded, exclusive interview yesterday afternoon.

"Bob 'Sepia Fillum' Nachtmann, his brother Dan, and Burr 'Proff Koch' Leach have written what I consider to be the finest, silliest, saddest, and bestest play of the year," continued duFour, who is playing his second year as a revels star.

Hit Songs

"But the remarkable part of the play," duFour said, "is not the play itself, or even those three hit songs that the Nachtmann's wrote, but rather the remarkable characterization of 'Proff Koch' as done by author-actor Burr Leach."

In his praise of Leach's impersonation duFour used such fine descriptive adjectives as delightful, delirious, delovely, stupendous, fascinating, and one other that we couldn't spell.

DuFour also said the services of Ivanitch Scratchenitch alias Sam Hirsch, all-Russian end on last falls' mythical eleven, and J. Lester Mogul, Hollywood's worst producer, whose real name

Students To Decide Future Of Project

Milton Hogan, Miss Nancy Smith Plan To Use Graham Memorial Rooms Now Occupied By Athletic Association

With the signature of President Graham added to those of Deans R. B. House and F. F. Bradshaw, administration officials yesterday sanctioned the plan enabling the students to own and operate the proposed campus radio station as a fifth publication.

Stuart Rabb, chairman of the Publications Union board, announced that the union will set a date for a campus vote at the next meeting.

BARNETT HEADS YMCA RELIGION IN LIFE COMMITTEE

Personnel Of Six Other Campus Groups Also Selected

DeWitt Barnett, junior, will be chairman for the Religion in Life conference committee of the YMCA, Executive Secretary Harry Comer announced yesterday.

Eleven speakers of national and international importance will be brought to the University free of charge by the Federal Council of Churches from January 23 to 28. All arrangements as to program and other details will be handled by the local committee.

Best Work

Barnett has been a valuable member of the YMCA staff for several years. This year his best work was as chairman of the committee responsible for the drive for aid to war-stricken Chinese refugees.

Other committees, as announced by Comer, are as follows:

Platform meetings committee—A. S. Lawrence, Gene Brickley, H. F. Comer, Howard Covington.

Classroom seminars—Bob McGill, Margaret Evans, O. T. Binkley, R. B. House, E. J. Woodhouse, George Thomas.

Interviews and personal work—Jim Joyner, DeWitt Barnett, Bill Dees, Lib Keeler, Don Stewart, Phil Shore, E. L. Mackie, Polly Pollock, Louise Donehoo.

Fraternities and other social groups—Bill Jordan, J. M. Saunders, Brooks Patten, Bill

Rabb stated that, although the board has no authority to make recommendations or give opinions in such matters, it is the constitutional right of the student body to vote upon the inclusion of a new publication or activity under jurisdiction of Publications Union.

Thus the campus will soon be called to vote upon a project which has been planned since last October by Milton Hogan, a junior, and Miss Nancy Smith, a senior. Their intention is to have a student radio station installed in the rooms now occupied by the athletic offices. Leased telephone wires will connect this studio with other stations, which will broadcast our programs. There is the possibility that these programs may be extended to the Dixie network—if they possess a sufficiently high quality.

Stations Secured

Those stations which have already agreed to pick up our releases are WBIG, in Greensboro, and WDNC, in Durham. Hogan at the present time is attempting to gain a similar agreement with station WPTF in Raleigh. Hogan, Miss Smith and their colleagues do not know how much time will be allotted this studio. It will probably be dependent upon the programs.

Plans for educational programs by members of the faculty and student body are already in process. There also will
