Carolina, Deacons Clash Here Tonight

Fencing Schedule Released For '38

Swordsmen Return To Fore After Three Year Lapse

List Nine Meets

Returning to the intercollegiate mart after a three-year lay-off, the North Carolina fencing team will face at least nine opponents for the 1938 season and possibly two more.

The majority of the contests will be held on the Chapel Hill strips while the team will travel for at least five contests.

Tour

Opening the schedule will be Virginia Polytechnic Institute here at Chapel Hill. The southern tour will be taken during the spring vacation down to Presbyterian college at Clinton, S. C., and then to Georgia Tech at Atlanta. The vacation trip will be culminated by a home meet with Maryland March 19. Georgia Tech, former traditional rival, will close the schedule.

Only one possible intersectional meet has been planned and that has yet to be confirmed. The University of Cincinnati may possibly travel to the Hill for a meet in early April.

The complete schedule of the fencing team follows:

Feb. 19—V. P. I. at Chapel Hill.
Feb. 26—Maryland at College

Opening Week In Conference Is Interesting

Carolina Win Over Davidson, Elon's Defeat Of W. & L. Are Highlights Of '38 Openers

Carolina's two-point overtime win over Davidson Saturday night at Charlotte and Elon's four-point triumph over Washington and Lee Wednesday were the outstanding features of the first week of 1938 Southern conference basketball play.

Whether Carolina can capture the conference crown, lost last year in the tournament finals to Washington and Lee, will be decided in a large measure by what the Skidmore outfit can do in two big battles this week. The first test is set for tonight in the Tin Can with Wake Forest as foe; the second for Saturday night with Washington and Lee.

Passbooks

It will be necessary to have passbooks for tonight's basketball game. Students are asked to present their passbooks at the west end of the Tin Can for admission to the game. Books may be gotten at the cashier's office upon presentation of this quarter's bill or receipt.

Little Ghosts Ready For Home Stand; Game At 7

Wake Forest's freshman basketballers will invade the Tin Can tonight at 7 o'clock to challenge the court supremacy of Carolina's Little Ghosts who upset the Davidson Kittens 45-25 Saturday night in their season's opener.

The same squad which took the trip to Charlotte, consisting of Branson, Watson, Severin, Messina, Cooper, Ralph, Harnden, Brown, Holland, Glamack, Pulanski, and Lindsay, will make their first appearance on the home court tonight in the first of the seven scheduled home tilts.

Tough Stuff

In preparation for what Coach Bo Shepard has pronounced as one of the toughest games of the early season, the frosh indulged in a snappy workout in the Tin Can last night.

The starting combination of the recent Davidson tilt of Glamack, Ralph, Harnden, Watson, and Branson practiced a series of offensive guard-plays, designed to penetrate the highly-reputed Wake Forest defensive system.

MURAL FIVES TO GET UNDER WAY TOMORROW AT 4

Hilton, Hoyle, Macphee, Hurst And Howard Are Officials

What is expected to be one of, if not the, hottest intramural basketball race in many years starts flaming tomorrow afternoon at 4 in the Tin Can.

Forty-six preliminary contests are to be run off within the next three weeks to rate the teams before the straight elimination tournament begins. The following preliminary games are scheduled:

Wrestlers Prime For VPI Meet; Ringmen To Open Against Cadets

Citadel Comes To Hill With Champ Rogers

Whether or not Orville Rogers, The Citadel's Southern conference heavyweight boxing champion, will be in the ring or not Saturday night when the cadets meet the debuting Tar Heel ring team has not as yet been determined but it is a definite fact that the South Carolinians will have a strong team.

Rogers lost four fingers of one hand this past summer when a buzz saw mistook his hand for a log and, although the big fellow played football, it is possible that he will be unable to put on the gloves.

The Citadel will have another potent boxer in the 155-lb. Lempis, runner-up to Dorn of Maryland in the conference tourney at College Park, Md., last winter.

Mural Officials

The following boys are asked to report to the intramural office this afternoon at 4 o'clock: Joe Hilton, Jimmie Howard, John Hoyle, Charlie Hurst, and John Macphee. They are the intramural basketball officials for this season.

Mat Team Looks Good But Incomplete

With only a few days before the initial meet with V. P. I., Coach Chuck Quinlan showed no enthusiasm as his varsity wrestlers worked out with the freshmen worked out with the freshman squad in Bynum gym yesterday afternoon.

"The boys we have out are looking fine," said Coach Quinlan, "but the 155 and 165 classes are yet unfilled on the varsity. The heavyweight division is also doubtful."

Bob Crystal

Bob Crystal, who was expected to hold down the 165 berth, will more than likely be forced to grapple in the 175 class. Crystal has worked hard in trying to lose weight but so far he is still above the limit.

The freshman outlook is much brighter, and the coach has several good men competing for each weight. Both squads are taking two-hour workouts each day, mainly consisting of conditioning and exercise drills. Illustrated charts are used to assist in the instruction of the first year men, fundamental offensive and defensive tactics especially stressed.

Manager Peterson

A list of those on the varsity and freshman teams who will make the trip to Blacksburg will be announced by Friday, and a captain for each squad will probably be elected by then. E. L. "Pete" Peterson is entering his third year as manager and has Charles Sunstein and Joe Norwood as assistants.

Several new men reported for practice yesterday, and there is still time for candidates to sign up for the sport.

All-Southern Jim Waller Will Return To Fast Action

Jim Waller, the man with the 20-point per game scoring average of last year, leads the Wake Forest Deacons into the Tin Can tonight for a game of basketball with Carolina's White Phantom five at 8:30. The battle is the first big home game for the Spooks. In their only two home games of the season, they have beaten Atlantic Christian and Guilford. In their only other game, the Phantoms downed Davidson at Charlotte.

Waller has missed every one of the Wake Forest battles except the Duke tussle. And so the Deacons have lost most of their early season tilts. Waller hopped back into court togs Friday against Duke, but he scored only five points and the Deacs lost.

All-Southern

But Waller should find his eye tonight, and if he does he will give the Phantoms and their followers an interesting night. Last year, Waller scored 275 points and was the first sophomore to make All-Southern in years.

Earl Ruth, Carolina captain and All-Southern last year, will probably guard Waller tonight. He will have a big job if Jim has his scoring eye. Last year in the two regular season games against the White Phantoms, Waller hit the double figure marks in scoring.

Line-up

Tonight's Blue and White line-up will be the same as the one that started against Davidson. Andy Bershak will not start tonight, but he will see some action. Bershak played about ten minutes against the Wildcats. Tonight's Carolina's starting line-up will be Mullis and Stirnweis at forwards, Dilworth at center, and Ruth and Grubb at guards.

In addition to Waller, Captain Turk Apple, Al Carter, Fuller, and Sweel will start for the Demon Deacs. The game will follow the freshman battle.
