Varied Sports On Winter Schedule

Monday night from 7 till 8 o'clock in Bynum gym.

Following golf practice at 8 o'clock, coeds will play volley ball in Bynum gym until 9 o'clock. The manager for this sport has not been chosen.

Others

Bowling and ping pong will be continued this quarter on Tuesday night from 8 until 10 o'clock, beginning tonight. The ping pong tournament will begin next Tuesday night, with Ruth Duffee as manager. Alice Cheshire, manager of bowling, asks that all women who plan to join the group sign on the list in Spencer hall before Friday noon.

The basketball group will meet in Bynum gym for practice two nights a week. Manager Jean Bush states that these practice periods will be on Wednesday and Thursday nights from 7 until 9 o'clock.

Riding

Riding will begin Thursday at 1:30 o'clock. Manager Vivian Schildwachter requests coeds who plan to ride to sign up in Spencer hall the day before. The other riding hour is Sunday morning from 8:30 until 10:00 o'clock. Miss Schildwachter states that another hour during the week could be arranged if as many as four women requested it.

All sports will be under way this week at their scheduled hour. Mrs. Gladys A. Beard, director of women's athletics, and Miss Barker, president of the Athletic council, express enthusiasm over the outlook in coed sports for the winter quarter.

The dormitory 1936 champs will face B-V-P's number two squad and the strong Grimes number one five in the prelims while Zeta Psi opposes a reputed well rounded Phi Kappa Sigma team and also Beta Theta Pi.

There will be no limit to outsiders on dormitory quints.

Carolina Magazine Copy Due On Monday

New Talent Needed In Field Of Creative Work, Says Editor

Copy for the January issue of the Carolina Magazine is due next Monday, Editor Bill Hudson announced yesterday. Prospective contributors who have not already conferred with him should do so immediately, he said. Hudson will be in his office in Graham Memorial tonight and Thursday night from 7 until 8:30.

The magazine editor called for new talent, "new story-tellers and versifiers," to bolster thin ranks in the fight to keep the magazine from "falling completely into the hands of the article-writers." The author of "Sweepings" was asked to call at Hudson's office.

Student Charges Invitations Graft

(Continued from first page) the invitations for the seniors." Under the present system the president of the senior class selects the company from which the invitations shall be bought. He appoints a committee to sell the invitations at retail to the students.

Harrison said that if 3,000 plain invitations were purchased, the bill would amount to $1,200. The bill to the purchaser would come to about $600, he said. Concerning cost of distribution, Harrison declared NYA students could ably do the work at a cost "which makes the $600 unbelievably expensive."

He also revealed that the company securing an invitation order from Carolina issues an extra number of invitations, amounting to 10 per cent of the order, free of charge. If the number of invitations is 3,000, a profit of $120 could be added, Harrison said.

Niles Bond, president of last year's senior class, admitted in a letter to the DAILY TAR HEEL a margin of profit and justified it by pointing out the trouble of handling invitations.

In order to remove such an open opportunity for graft, Harrison suggested that the senior class appoint a committee to select designs and that the actual purchasing of the invitations be turned over to the Uni-

YMCA Cabinets Meet Together; Discuss Conference Plans

"Religion-In-Life" Subject Of Convention To Be Held Here January 23 Through 28

Junior-Senior and sophomore YMCA cabinets met together last night to discuss plans for "Religion-in-Life" conference to be held here January 23 to 28.

Scott Hunter, president of the YMCA, who presided, urged those attending the meeting to make every effort to insure the success of the conference. He asked everyone to issue 10 personal invitations to students so that the attendance would be large.

Questions

Rev. Donald Stewart, Presbyterian minister of Chapel Hill, led a discussion of a few of 44 suggested questions to be discussed at the conference.

A definite list of speakers for the conference has not yet been decided upon but will be available within the next few days.

Final plans were announced for a joint meeting of the Sophomore YMCA cabinet and the YWCA of the Woman's College at Greensboro. The meeting is to be held Saturday night, January 15.

it by pointing out the trouble in handling the invitations.

"In any case," he said, "the bids should be published and an audit should be kept."

slipping when the center-jump was eliminated. This made Spessard less of a threat. Then Borries went out for the season. But these bad breaks shouldn't keep the Generals from being on edge for the Phantom battle Saturday night.

Duke's win over Wake Forest has been the only highlight in so far as drab Devil season. The Devils, before beating Wake Forest last week, lost to Mississippi State and Davidson. State spent the week-end in Georgia, beating Georgia and losing to Georgia Tech. Until beaten by Carolina, Davidson was riding high in the conference race with its win over Duke.

The Citadel was the actual leader of the conference chase after the first week of activity. The Bulldogs from Charleston have won both of their conference games. Other clubs who have fared in conference play are Carolina, Washington and Lee, and Richmond, with one win each.

The loudest "I do" a bride ever spoke!

Even after such throat-taxing scenes, ANN SOTHERN finds Luckies gentle on her throat..

1. "IN 'SHE'S GOT EVERYTHING', my new RKO-Radio picture," says Ann Sothern, "there's a scene where the girl gets married on a jolting truck, and it turned out to be a knockout! ... But for me, as an actress ...

2. "IT WAS A KNOCKOUT in a different sense! Imagine shouting your 'I do's' above the noise of a truck... and imagine doing it 30 times! Yet, even after this throat strain, I still enjoyed Luckies! They're always ...

3. "GENTLE ON MY THROAT. Others at the RKO-Radio studios agree with me—Barbara Stanwyck and Herbert Marshall, for instance." (Reason: the "Toasting" process expels certain throat irritants found in all tobacco.)

4. "NOW AS REGARDS TOBACCO... Luckies' flavor has always appealed to me very much. So I was interested to read recently that Luckies are the favorite cigarette among the tobacco experts themselves."

WITH MEN WHO KNOW TOBACCO BEST It's Luckies 2 to 1

5. AUCTIONEERS, BUYERS AND WAREHOUSEMEN must be able to judge tobacco at a glance. Sworn records show that among independent experts, Luckies have twice as many exclusive smokers as all other brands combined. With men who know tobacco best...it's Luckies 2 to 1.
