RONMAN TO HOLD FINAL TRYOUTS THIS AFTERNOON

Murnick, Bass Decide On Starter Against The Citadel

Stealing an idea from Hollywood, Coach Mike Ronman will give a preview showing of his varsity boxers this afternoon at 4 o'clock when the candidates for the different weight berths meet to decide who will step out under the lights against Citadel Saturday night.

Spectators are invited to watch the tryouts but are warned that they do so at their own risk. Yesterday, Pete McConeughy, one of the half-dozen assistant managers who hang out in the three-ring Tin Can, went home with a nose a little the worse for wear after accidental contact with trackman Harry March.

Tryouts

Although the two bantam-weight candidates, Winstead and McFalls, are rather evenly matched, the latter will probably throw the first punch of the season in intercollegiate competition. That's only an opinion, however, and the final decision will be made late this afternoon.

Cy Jones, barring acts of God, will box Saturday night in the 125-lb. division and will work out in preparation today against Freshman Gwyn Edwards. Joe Murnick and Tom Bass will meet this afternoon although Captain Murnick is the likely starter in the 135-lb. division.

Fisher

Joe Fisher and Ed Dickerson will decide in the ring this afternoon who will meet the Citadel 145-pounder and Crowell Little will work out against Eddie O'Herron, ineligible this year, in preparation for his intercollegiate boxing debut in the 155-lb. class.

Two tennis-playing newcomers, Johnny Foreman and Jack Pustilnik, will decide who is to put on the short pants in the 165-class Saturday night with the former the more likely candidate.

MURAL QUINTS BEGIN SEASON

Good Playing Scattered Among Contestants

Chi Phi, Beta Theta Pi, Ranson House, and Kappa Sigma's number two team all successfully hurdled the first obstacle in the preliminary basketball intramural race yesterday afternoon, the opening day of competition.

Intercollegiate athletes penetrated intramurals yesterday afternoon making up the Ranson House five. Brawn and speed showed the way for a 25-15 shellacking of Lewis' weaker team, the number two outfit. The point scoring of the players in the Lewis No. 2-Ranson House tilt follows:

Lewis No. 2 (15); Ranson House (25)
Cloninger—7;	Bass—4
C. Laney—0;	Radman—12
Johnson—0;	McCarn—3
D. Parker—4;	Strayhorn—6
Cavanaugh—0;	Robinson—0
Sensenbach—4;	Wrenn—0

Close Lambda Win

Both teams unable to click satisfactorily or to acquire any degree of accuracy, the Lambda Chi Alpha-Kappa Sigma No. 2 mural contest turned out to be a dreary battle with the former bringing in a 16-11 decision.

Terhune's scattered 10 points led the field. The box score is: Lambda Chi A. (16); K. A. No. 2 (11)

Terhune—10;	Gunter—11
Hamden—0;	Woodhouse—0
Walter—0;	Beasley—2
Geer—0;	Sumner—0
Thompson—6;	Wallace—2
Pike—0;	Fletcher—6

Easy For Chi Phis

Paced by hard-driving and high-shooting center Art Ditt, Chi Phi fraternity racked up tallies at its leisure, quickly humbling T. E. P. 39-11. Ditt, always managing to work loose from the one, or occasionally, two men assigned to him, posted himself under the basket and waited. Sooner or later, he got the ball and sunk it. Ditt was very much afire in the second half with his seven field goals. Carol Oglesby gave valuable support on both the offense and defense. The lineup follows:

T. E. P. (11);	Chi Phi (39)
Bernert—2;	Oglesby—5
Kaufman—0;	Cooper—0
Kamins—3;	Drye—6
Rosenberg—0;	Ditt—22

Asch—4;	Myers—2

HUGH ROGERS

ORVILLE ROGERS

Word has been received that Hugh Rogers, The Citadel's light heavyweight, has failed to bring down his weight and will not start against the Tar Heels. Co-Captains Orville Rogers and Pete Lempesis will be right there, however. Orville, Southern Conference heavyweight champion, is scheduled to box in that weight against Carolina's Bill Moore in spite of the loss of three fingers on his right hand.

Hugh Rogers Not To Start For The Citadel Saturday

Brother Of Co-Captain Unable To Qualify As Light-Heavy

Holds Long Record

The Citadel boxing team was dealt a blow to the midriff yesterday when it was found that 175-pounder Hugh Rogers is unable to take off enough poundage to qualify for the light heavyweight division.

Hugh, brother of Co-Captain Orville Rogers, Southern conference heavyweight champion, has a record as long as Primo Carnera's arm. He was twice Florida State light-heavyweight champion, twice Atlantic Seaboard light-heavyweight champion and this year was ranked fourth amateur light heavy in the country. In 1934 he went to the semi-finals of the National A. A. U. bouts but his scheduled meeting with another rising light heavy, one Joe Louis, was called off by the doctors.

Last year, his first intercollegiate competition, he won five out of five bouts.

Lempesis

In the 155-lb. division, Pete Lempesis takes good care of things for the cadets. He boxed at Charleston high school for four years and, in his senior year there, he won the North and South Carolina Middleweight championship. He is a ketball team which snappily and easily turned away Kappa Alpha 43-17.

There was no scoring splurges nor slumps on the part of the victors, totaling 23 and 20 points per half respectively. A. C. Hall, tall and sharp-shooting Beta center, put through eight field goals and two foul shots for 18 points. Jimmy Richards, outstanding cog in the clicking Beta Theta Pi machine, was second highest scorer. The box score is:

Kappa Alpha (17); Beta Theta Pi (43)
Patterson—4;	Gans, G.—11
Griffin—0;	Richards—12
Huntley—4;	Hall—18
Reich—6;	Van Hecke—2
Yeomans—0;	Butler—0
Urquhart—2;	Sager—0
Footo—0;
Cheshire—0;
Boone—0;
Norfleet—1;
Goddard—0;

senior this year and co-captain of the squad.

In the senior middleweight division, Coach Matty Mathews will use either Jack Lyons or Happy Deas. The latter boxed light heavy last year but was supplanted by Hugh Rogers. He has been making a strong bid for the starting assignment in the 165-lb. class.

A left-handed sophomore will represent the Light Brigade in the welterweight bout. Mac Mitchell, runner-up in the Alabama State Golden Gloves while in school, will be making his first appearance in varsity competition. He was intramural champion in that weight at The Citadel last year.

Todd

Rip Todd will probably get the call in the lightweight berth, making his first appearance in that weight. Winning nine out of 11 bouts, Todd has fought in the welterweight class for the Cadets for two years.

The featherweight choice for the starting assignment Saturday night in the Tin Can is a toss-up. Four boys are determined to get the call: Risher, a senior, Bagnal and Leonard, sophomores, and Peeler, a junior.

There is no doubt about the bantam weight, however. That little assignment will fall to Johnny Hughes, one of the most dependable boxers on The Citadel squad. He has lost but twice in two years of collegiate action and both defeats were at the hands of the same man.

Saturday's meet will be the opener for the Tar Heels and the Bulldogs and both teams are anxious to get the title assault underway. No freshman meet is scheduled.

Wales Made New Dormitory Officer

cussed, no action will be taken until the next meeting.

President Robertson appointed a special committee to investigate the possibilities of securing a first-aid kit for each of the dormitory stores. The committee will report its findings at the next meeting, and, if proved practicable, the plan will be put into effect.

Phantoms Leave Today For Three Contests In Virginia

Games With VPI, VMI,
Washington & Lee
On Schedule

Meet VPI Tonight

Atop the world in general and the Southern conference and Big Five in particular, ten of Carolina's White Phantom basketball players leave from Emerson field at 8:30 this morning for a three-game journey through Virginia. In the course of the journey through the hills and lowlands of the Old Dominion state, the cagers will meet VPI tonight at Blacksburg, VMI at Lexington tomorrow night, and Washington and Lee at Lynchburg Saturday.

Little news has drifted down from Blacksburg about the Gobbler basketball club. Last year the Virginia Tech cagers had a fair team. On the Virginia trip, Carolina downed them 38-26.

Those Elons

VMI along with Washington and Lee was hit by Elon last week when the Christians were tearing through the State of Virginia bent on destroying every basketball team in sight. The Christians downed the Cadets by four points. That is the only news of the Soldiers that has come to Chapel Hill this season. In the game at Lexington last year, the Skidmore aggregation walked all over VMI by a 56-29 count.

Saturday at Lynchburg, the Phantoms meet the Generals in THE early season clash of the Southern conference. If the Ha'ts hope to maintain their advantage at the top of the chase, they must down the Generals. Last season the Generals downed Carolina in one regular season clash and then hopped over them in the Southern conference finals for the championship.

Washington and Lee's club this winter is not as good as that championship outfit. The oft told story of the elimination of the center jump has of course hurt the Generals. Bob Spessard, All-Southern center and a double-figure scoring man in every game last year, has had his efficiency cut in half. Against Elon he could only tally five points. Borries, another one of last year's aces, is out with injuries for the season.

Hank Luisetti, Stanford's basketball ace, hails from the same neighborhood in San Francisco that produced Joe DiMaggio.

Fencing Practice

The Carolina fencers will resume their pre-season practice tonight at 7:30 in Memorial Hall.

Cincinnati Accepts Meet With Foilmen; Maryland Withdraws

Latest Changes In Fencers' Schedule Leave 10-Match Program For Season

Late yesterday afternoon, word was received from the University of Cincinnati that a meet at Chapel Hill on April 9th was satisfactory while the Maryland trip to College Park has been definitely called off. This leaves a complete 10-match schedule for the coming season. This is the reason for the team's strenuous training.

The opener will be on February 19, against Virginia Polytechnic Institute.

Orange County Found Devoid Of Typhoid

Health Report Shows Definite Decrease In Many Diseases

Orange and Person counties went through 1937 without a single reported case of typhoid fever, according to a report issued by the health department. However, there was a definite increase in the number of syphilis cases, 102 being reported in Orange county alone.

Evidence of scarlet fever, diphtheria, and infantile paralysis was very slight, but there was a sharp increase in measles, whooping cough, and chicken pox. The increase in measles was not general, but was due in great measure to a brief epidemic in the Efland community during the month of April.
