A la Laurence Leonard...

I was passing the time of day over coffee and doughnuts with a fellow the other afternoon who knows Milan Zorri, State's extraordinary discus thrower of a couple of years ago. He said that the Stater wanted to come to Chapel Hill this spring to teach the Carolina men how to throw the weights... All he wants his room and board, which is cheap enough if he can guarantee a couple of extra points in those divisions when the track meets start cropping up... Zorri was originally slated for Chapel Hill before he met one Hunk Anderson in wolf's clothing.

I also happened to meet some of the State football players during the holidays... Danny Piloseno, Art Rooney, Tony diYesso, Mickey Sullivan, Joe Schwerdt and a couple of others... Contrary to popular conception, the Staters are charming fellows... chawming. They told me that Doc Newton is going to have two backfields and one line. Davey Clark paid for my lunch.

While I'm on the subject of football... Tom Burnette, picked by Sports Illustrated as the best place-kicker in the whole dawg-gone country, is still very much in the selling game and now has a very banner-ish banner with all the past season's football scores made by Carolina along with a couple of autographs on sale... George Moore, one of the backfield stars on the 1933 team, has returned to school this quarter to complete work for his degree.

Screwiest baseball hit of yesterday was made by Al Mathes, sophomore candidate for Hal Bissett's first base... Radman threw him three balls and two strikes and then a wild one... As Mathes ducked away, the ball hit his bat and pranced down the first base line... Mathes ended up on second base.

The Carolina chapter of the Amalgamated Order of Hair-Tearers and Nail-Biters can go and hide in the corner for a little while longer anyway, for in the past few days both Bud Hudson and George Radman have come through with pitching exhibitions that have indicated that these two chuckers will be very much in evidence on the Carolina baseball front as aids to Daffy Parker, both before and after Parker cures his sore arm. In Tuesday's practice game, Hudson pitched four innings of near-perfect ball, while Radman turned in seven good innings against the second liners yesterday. George kept ramming a fast ball down the Yannigan throats as he fanned six men to win 8-4. In addition to turning in a neat mound job, Radman also hit a home run in the sixth inning with one man on that sent the regulars ahead for keeps in the ball game.

Team Opens Tuesday

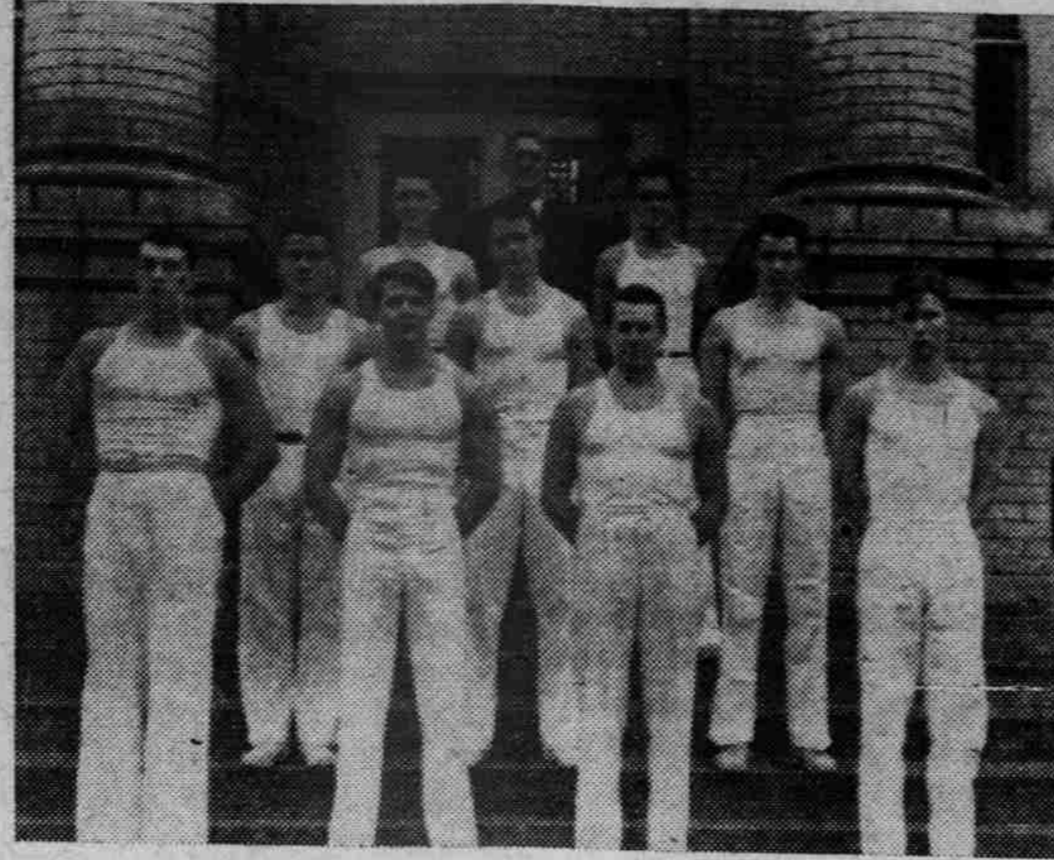

After watching Hudson and Radman go to town, Bunn Hearn said the starter in the season opener against Richmond Tuesday would be one of the two. His starting second baseman is still to be drawn out of the hat, while five fly-chasers are battling for the right to play on either side of Tom Burnett in the season's opener.

When George Ralston fanned Harry LeGrande during the course of yesterday's battle everybody almost fell off the bench... It was the first time LeGrande has fanned since he started playing baseball here... George Stirnweiss continues to hit the ball hard... Yesterday he got three for four, hitting the ball hard every time... Hal Bissett, who last season

Mural Bowling

Intramural bowling was resumed yesterday afternoon and was featured by the biggest upset of the tournament. This was the defeat of Lambda Chi Alpha No. 1 by AE Pi No. 1. Lambda Chi Alpha was last year's champion and, until this defeat, appeared well on its way to another championship. The score of this match was AE Pi No. 1 366; Lambda Chi Alpha No. 1 305. Other winners of the day were Chi Psi No. 1 over ATO, 350 to 345; and Ruffin No. 4 over Graham, 380 to 365.

The Champs

Winstead And Trotman Take
Firsts To Help Dr. Lawson's
Team Take First Title

By BILL LINDAU

Led by Ed Winstead, the Carolina gym team defeated Duke's acrobats to take the senior men's gymnastic championship and the trophy in the first Carolinas AAU gymnastic tournament in the Duke gymnasium March 2.

In effecting the victory, Doc Lawson's boys captured four first places of the six available. Of these, Winstead took three, in the side horse competition, horizontal bar, and all around. Frank Trotman took first in the flying rings for the other. Duke's Monk Lewis and Paul Peters took the parallel bar and tumbling championships to keep Duke in the race.

Daring Young Man

Trotman's victory on the flying rings was clean cut. His reverse to a handstand is something which few amateurs in the country can do, Dr. Lawson stated—and Lawson has seen plenty of them.

Jim Kirkpatrick's taking second place in the tumbling was the surprise of the meet. An indifferent performer during the practice sessions preceding the meet, he showed a complete change of form under pressure.

The horizontal bar was all Carolina, though only two were officially representing the team. Winstead took first; Jimmy Verner, second, and Kirkpatrick, third. Winstead and Verner were competing under Carolina colors in this event, Kirkpatrick listed as unattached.

First One

About 100 spectators saw the competition, the first of its kind to be held in this section in 15 years. The tournament resolved itself into a duel between Duke and Carolina, when South Carolina and Davidson announced

Council Meets

The intramural sports council will hold its first meeting of the spring quarter tonight at 7:15 in 214 Graham Memorial. At this meeting the intramural managers will be requested to make their entries for playground ball and tennis. Entries for the other intramural sports will be taken later in the quarter.

FRESHMAN BALL

Strayhorn Will Call His Pupils For Work On Frosh Field

The freshman baseball team goes into its first practice session of the year this afternoon at 3:30 on the freshman field. Ham Strayhorn, who led the Tar Babies last year, will again be in charge of the proceedings.

Strayhorn asked all candidates to bring their own equipment for the first couple of workouts. The freshmen will waste no time in getting under steam this spring, for they play their first game of the season Tuesday afternoon against Wardlaw school on the freshman field. The complete yearling schedule lists 14 games. All the home games will be played on Emerson field except the first battle which will have to be played on the freshman field since the varsity will also be home Tuesday. Both the freshman and varsity games are scheduled for 4 o'clock. So far, nobody has suggested that a double header be played on Emerson field, with the freshman tussle preceding the varsity struggle.

The first air mail route in the world was established May 15, 1918, linking Washington, Philadelphia, and New York.
