nominated Jim Hall (SP) for presidency of the Athletic association. Jim Woodson was proposed by Marvin Allen and Bob Adam by Bill Stauber for vice-presidency of the athletic group.

Staff selections for publications editors failed to follow last year's precedent and go unopposed this year. Voit Gilmore (SP) was nominated by Ray Howe to oppose Allen Merrill, staff choice and UP candidate for editor of the DAILY TAR HEEL. Merrill was nominated yesterday by Mac Smith, present TAR HEEL editor.

Three candidates filed notice that they were out for editorship of the Carolina Magazine. John Creedy, staff choice, was nominated by Randy Berg; Gordon Burns (UP) was nominated by Bill Robertson; and Thomas Meder (SP) was nominated by Ralph Miller.

John Clark (UP) was nominated by Charles Lynch and Tim Elliot (SP) by Brud Smith for senior representative to the Publications Union board. For member-at-large to the PU board, "Rat" Boykin nominated Tom Stanback (UP) and Clifton Davis nominated John Rankin (SP).

less fortunate politicians will bear. He expressed appreciation yesterday for both parties having looked to him to be the student government silent partner.

Hendrix has divided his time between athletic attainments and class service. He was cross-country track champ this year and is captain-elect of the hill and dale boys next year. He won cross-country and track letters this year and last and ran during his freshman year.

He was executive committeeman and honor council representative in his freshman and sophomore years. This year he is vice-president of the junior class, president of the German club, president of Beta fraternity, and a member of the Grail.

Pugh And Yeates

Yack staff at its nomination meeting Wednesday, which lasted only one minute and 18 seconds.

Although other candidates boast of membership in many campus organizations, Yeates proudly points to an extra-curricula activity record which includes only the Yackety-Yack. Since he started work on it during his freshman year, he has had time for no other job.

His freshman year he was editor of the section on honorary organizations. The sophomore year he served as editor of the photography section, and this past year he has been its managing editor.

Councils Approve Legislature Plan

not a rigid constitution setting forth stated powers or dictating future governmental policies, but rather a flexible document outlining a structure of legislative government.

It will be subject to change by three-fourths vote of its membership, except the clause on limitation of powers. This clause can only be changed by a favorable majority with at least 50 per cent of the student body voting.

Last Monday the plan submitted by Merrill and Joyner, with slight changes was unanimously passed by the committee. Wednesday it was ratified by the Student council.

council, which is the governing body of the Woman's association, who automatically received their elections as a result of their unchallenged nominations are Miss Claire Whitmore as secretary and Miss Eleanor Jackson as treasurer.

Athletic Association

The executive officers for next year's Woman's Athletic association were also put forward by the committee and accepted by the group. These will become Miss Katherine Fleming as president, Miss Nancy Reid Lyon as secretary, and Miss Adele Austin as treasurer. Minor officers will be appointed next fall by Miss Fleming. There are usually about 12 members making up the group, dependent upon current sports and activities.

There is only one post left for which women must vote for next year's major offices. This is the house presidency of Spencer hall, which will be filled at elections to be held at a house meeting Monday night. The nominating board has suggested Miss Mary Louise Greene to fill the position, but at the meeting Monday the floor will be open for nominations.

FACULTY IS ALLOWED TO CAST BALLOTS

Maid Of Honor, Attendants To Be Chosen Also

Polls will be open today in the YMCA from 9 to 1 and 2 to 5 o'clock for the election of the May queen, her maid of honor, and 10 attendants. Every student and member of the faculty is allowed to vote in the election of Carolina's third May court, which is to reign over the festival to be held here May 14.

Ballots today will show two lists and a list of 10 seniors in the group and the other the complete list of all the 22 seniors, juniors and graduates students which have been nominated. Every voter will first check one in the group of seniors, who are the only ones eligible for queen, and then from the complete list of all nominees will select ten for the court. The senior receiving the second highest number of votes for queen will become maid of honor.

Candidates for Queen

Those candidates who are eligible for queen are Misses Elizabeth Keeler, Mary Glover, Betty Redfern, Olivia Root, Virginia Lee, Mary Lillian Speck, Phyllis Hawthorne, Lyla Boice, Sarah Dalton, and Frances Roughton.

The list from which the 10 attendants will be chosen includes Misses Memmie Gary, Elizabeth Keeler, Mary Glover, Olive Cruikshank, Janet Lawrence, Ethel Laidlaw, Mary Taylor Hinnant, Vivian Veech, Maria Tweeder, Betty Redfern, Rosalie Hayes, Olivia Root, Jane Hunter, Virginia Lee, Mary Lillian Speck, Miriam Durrett, Phyllis Hawthorne, Gretchen Coker, Eleanor Jackson, Lyla Boice, Sarah Dalton, and Frances Roughton.

Individual pictures of the 22 candidates are posted in the YMCA so that all voters may have a chance to see each candidate. The pictures were made by Frank Bowne, campus amateur photographer-at-large.

The original list of nominees was selected by a nominating committee composed of representatives from the women's dormitories and the two sororities, and was submitted to Alpha Kappa Gamma, women's honorary fraternity which is sponsoring the fete. A few additions were made to the list by AKG before it was presented to the campus.

Miss Nancy Schallert, president of AKG, is chairman of the May Day committee, which has already laid plans for a gala occasion. The colorful coronation pageant will be staged in the arboretum, and will take place immediately preceding the final tea dance of Junior-Seniors.

Senior Group Supports Creedy

biases have entered too greatly into the choice of party nominees. The qualifications obviously designating John Creedy as the logical candidate have been ignored.

We urge individual voters, regardless of political affiliations, to support John Creedy.

LETTERS To The Editor

type costing 33 cents and being sold at 38 cents. Thus the committee makes a profit of 5 cents on each invitation. This profit is to meet various expenses, such as advertising-committee members salaries, postage, etc. If the profit made will exceed these expenses, the surplus will be placed in the Senior Class treasury. After all orders have been taken there will be a complete financial report made to the Class by the TAR HEEL through the medium of the TAR HEEL.

I might add that the invitations this year are cheaper than they have ever been before. Please aid the committee by getting your orders in now; incidentally, the orders have to be accompanied by a complete cash payment.

Sincerely yours,
JOE PATTERSON.

IN RADIO, TOO, THEY DISCUSS THIS SUBJECT:

BETTY MIDDLETON ASKS RAY WINTERS, THE ANNOUNCER:

"RAY, ARE CAMELS REALLY SO DIFFERENT FROM OTHER CIGARETTES?"

THIS IS RAY WINTERS, FOLKS, WISHING YOU ALL GOOD NIGHT

HAVE A CAMEL, BETTY?

THANKS, RAY. SAY YOU NEVER SMOKE ANYTHING BUT CAMELS. ARE THEY SO DIFFERENT FROM OTHER CIGARETTES?

NO TWO WAYS ABOUT IT, BETTY. I'M REHEARSING OR ON THE AIR FOR 40 HOURS A WEEK. ITS TOUGH ON MY NERVES, DIGESTION, AND ESPECIALLY MY THROAT. MY CIGARETTE MUST AGREE WITH ME. AND CAMELS DO—IN EVERY WAY

WHEN RAY WINTERS SIGNED OFF (above) he had a long, hard day behind him. Ray has thought a lot about which cigarette best fits in with the nerve-and-energy-consuming work he does. "Camels are different from other cig-rettes," is his verdict. "In the ten years I've been enjoying them, I've never known Camels to make my throat feel scratchy, my nerves ragged. That says mildness, doesn't it? There are so many ways in which Camels agree with me!"

And many millions of other smokers find what they want in Camels, too.

MORE and more experienced smokers are concluding: "Camel is the cigarette that agrees with me." If you are not now smoking Camels, try them. Look for the difference between Camels and other cigarettes. Find out what it means to enjoy Camel's costlier tobaccos.

HE'S AFTER A "STRIKE"! Off duty, bowling is one of Ray Winters' pastimes. He's good! "And when I'm tired," Ray says, "I get a 'lift' with a Camel—a feeling of renewed energy."

TOBACCO PLANTERS REPORT

"The favorite with most men who grow tobacco," is what Vault Snowden, veteran planter, calls Camels. "Camel doesn't buy just any tobacco—they get the best. The Camel buyer bought all the choice grade tobacco of my last crop. I've been a steady Camel smoker myself for 19 years."

B. F. Bivins, another experienced tobacco grower, knows what cigarette pays more for the choice leaf tobacco. "The Camel people sure do get the best grades," he says. "Take my own crop last year. Camel bought the best lots. And other planters will tell you the same. You bet, I smoke Camels."

He's been growing tobacco for 10 years. "I'm in a position to know a lot about the quality of the tobacco that goes into various cigarettes," James Graves, another well-known planter, says. "Most of the growers around here—myself included—sold the best leaf tobacco of their last crop to Camels. I know tobacco so I smoke Camels."
