Print To Fit

 Hill just aren't conducive to such low bred goings on.
 But ye know, I have a feeling the alumni of the University are gonna do something about the situation. They usually do when their teams start declining. The various alumni groups in the 100 various counties in the state are gonna start building up scholarship funds and pretty soon big boys from North Carolina, Ohio, and Pennsylvania are gonna start reappearing on our freshmen teams.
 The alumni may not object to getting beat by Duke any too much—but when Wake Forest, State and Davidson start getting ferocious, well the time has come to act. Davidson was gonna adopt an idealistic policy, but this year they'll tell you the Wildcats went out and bid for some pretty good freshmen in the open market.
 It can't happen here—says who? It's gotta happen here or fore long the schedule will list such big games as ECTC, Guilford, Bridgewater, East Stroudsburg Teachers (big intersectional), Roanoke, and Maryville. Then they can retire Kenan stadium, or rent it out for grazing space and debates.
 You don't fill stadiums with poor teams. The subway alumni doesn't follow a loser, they think it's all very fine and good to watch a winning team. But a loser—ah well, the S. A. go to the movies.

 Grant led the playing for the afternoon.
 Steele returned to winning form yesterday afternoon after two straight losses by defeating Everett, 6-0 in the unofficial game. The winners were decidedly outplayed throughout the game, but were able to capitalize on a break to account for the only score of the contest. Everett obtained six first downs, while the winners were unable to make one. Raper, Ziady and Milner starred during the game.

 lar meet between Army, Navy, Columbia and Princeton. Jack Harby, who dropped an early lead in this meet, ranks with Oldfield as the Navy's best. Dudley Adams, Ted Walker, Pat Clancy, Dick Heath and James Smith are the rest of the first team.
 Coach Dale Ranson has ten men from among whom his eight official entries will be chosen tomorrow. These are Captain Bill Hendrix, Tom Crockett, Jim Hall, Fred Hardy, Frank Wakeley, Dave Morrison, Clifton James, Wimpy Lewis, Bob Doty and Clarence Fink.
 Following their meet here tomorrow, the Tar Heel harriers will move over to College Park, where they will run against the University of Maryland. This meet has been planned so that the harriers will finish at Ritchie stadium during the half of the Maryland-VMI grid game.

Run, Boys!

The varsity reserve and freshman cross-country squads will run three miles this afternoon, leaving Fetzer field at 4 o'clock.

500 ATTEND FOOTBALL CLINIC

Carolina-NYU Game Shown On Screen

An estimated 500 persons were present last night at Coach Wolf's football clinic to see the moving pictures of the Carolina-NYU game and hear his blackboard-talk in Graham Memorial lounge last night.
 Over a hundred students were without seats or standing in the halls, and Bob Magill, director of the activities in the building, suggested that future meetings of such size would be, if possible, held in Hill hall. This plan will probably be followed for next week's showing of the pictures of the Carolina-Duke game—which several interested students suggested afterwards should solve some questions as to referee rulings and other hazy points.
 The audience showed its approval of certain plays by applause throughout the 30 minutes that the film showed. After answering the questions of ten or fifteen "hanger-oners" Coach Wolf hurried off allegedly to wash the dishes he had left in the sink.

Carver, Meserole Play Net Finals

 nent 5-1 in the opening set but allowed Carver to creep up to 5-all before Harnden ran through at 7-5. In the other two sets, Carver easily ran up a 3-0 lead which tied up at 3-all and in quick order ended in 6-3 wins for Carver. Both players were considerably off their games resulting in a dull match.
 Walt Meserole had no trouble at all in eliminating Stan Van Cise in the other semi-finals match in straight sets, 6-0, 6-1. The flashy, number one player of the tournament completely outclassed Van Cise in an easy victory.

Douglass Addresses High School Group

Dr. Harl R. Douglass, head of the Department of Education, spoke to a congress of high school student council representatives at Kannapolis last night. His topic for discussion was the "Undemocratic Tendencies in Our Schools."
 Today and tomorrow, Dr. Douglass is leading a series of conferences at a state-wide gathering of high school principals and superintendents at Columbia, S. C.

Gobblers Invade Hill Tomorrow

 season and Saturday is expected to be in its top form of the year. With a set of fast offensive backs and an excellent defensive line, the Gobblers threaten once more to begin the reign of terror which Virginia teams at one time held over Tar Heel teams.
SLASHIN' AL MILLER
 Al Miller, sensational back, hacked out a place in the football hall of fame for himself when his driving legs piled up more yardage rushing than did the entire State team. Miller has offensive talent to spare; his broken field running is the principal gaining thrust Tech possesses. George Warriner, fullback, is one of the best defensive men in the conference, as Duke university found out when the two elevens clashed at the opening of the season. Warriner manages to get in on nearly every tackle. Phil DeMuro is the kicking and passing expert, and is capable of carrying on a one-man war with his opposition.
 In a short explanatory talk yesterday, Coach Wolf gave his team advance notice of what to expect from the up and coming Gobblers. Then, with some of the old-time pep and fire, the squad settled down to seriously consider the business of winning a football game. Freshmen were busy with their own troubles, so reserves handled the VPI offense and defense against the regulars.
 Set back with two losses out of six games and with three yet to be played, Ray Wolf has definitely decided that none of the remaining contests will go down as defeats if he can possibly do anything to prevent it. Even mighty Fordham, when played at New York one week hence, will find itself up against a spirited team that has determination in addition to eleven real ball players.

Library Group Will Hear Miss Kelling

Miss Lucile Kelling, assistant professor of library science of the University, will speak to the school library section of the North Carolina Education association at its district meeting in Durham this afternoon at 3:45. She will discuss "Reference."

 Send the DAILY TAR HEEL home.

RECITAL GIVEN BY SANDIFUR

Program Held Wednesday Night

Dale Sandifur presented a piano recital featuring pieces composed by four of the world's greatest composers Wednesday evening in Hill Music hall, the second in a series of recitals for the fall quarter sponsored by the department of music.
 Approximately 150 townspeople and students turned out to see the display of Sandifur's talent. Every measure of each piece was followed closely by the eyes and ears of those present as they seemingly were aware that they were observing and listening to some of the most famous piano selections being played by a noted musician.
 Much applause was given Sandifur as he walked to the piano to play his first selection, "Chromatic Fantasy and Fugue" by J. S. Bach. Characteristics of Bach were brought out very distinctly in this number.

AED Will Hold Smoker Tuesday

At the regular meeting Tuesday night the Beta Chapter of Alpha Epsilon Delta, honorary pre-medical fraternity, discussed and laid plans for their regular fall quarter social event to be held this year as a smoker at 7:30, November 10, in the Grail Room of Graham Memorial.
 The smoker is not restricted to members of the fraternity, but will be open to all medical and pre-medical students in the University. Two movies, "Emergency Operations" and "Appendectomy", have been obtained and should be of special interest to both medical students and pre-medical students.
 Dr. R. W. Bost, professor of organic chemistry, will speak to the group on the subject, "The Relation of the Study of Chemistry to the Pre-Medical Student."
 Following the movies and speech there will be refreshments and a social period.

Your tired nerves need frequent relief

SCOTTIE

Known variously in early Scottish history as Skye terrier, Highland, Cairn, and Scots terrier, although that dog bore no resemblance to Skyes and Cairns of today. Nicknamed the "die-hard" for stout heart and unquenchable love for sport. Extremely independent.

HE'S GIVING HIS NERVES A REST...

AND SO IS HE

LIKE humans, dogs have a complicated set of nerves. But dogs are kinder to their nerves than we. They rest when they need rest...we plunge ahead with hurry and worry—straining our nerves to keep up the fast pace. We can't turn back to the natural paces of life like an animal, but we can protect, soothe, and calm our nerves. Smoking a Camel can be your pleasant method for breaking nerve tension. Camels are mild, with the flavor of a matchless blend of costlier tobaccos. Smokers find Camel's mild tobaccos delightfully soothing—soothing—to the nerves.
