

Patten Announces YMCA Cabinet Program For Fall

"Coffee Hour" To Fete All Foreign Students Monday

Junior and Senior cabinets of the YMCA have an interesting and complete program for the remainder of the quarter according to announcements made yesterday by Brooks Patten, president.

Monday evening the YMCA will entertain the foreign students on the campus and faculty members who have lived a considerable time in foreign countries at a "Coffee Hour" in Graham Memorial. The meeting will start at 7:30 with a program of light entertainment. Later the foreign students will discuss plans for continuing the Cosmopolitan club which has been active here in past years.

"MORNING WATCH"

Tuesday morning the worship committees of the YMCA cabinets will sponsor a "Morning Watch." This is the first of a series of prayer services which will be held every morning at 8:15 in the YMCA room of the YMCA building. All students are requested to attend whenever they wish.

On the following Saturday, the cabinet will travel to the Woman's college in Greensboro to "better the relations within the Greater University." In effect the meeting there is planned to be a little Blue Ridge rally. H. F. Comer, director of the YMCA, will renew discussion of the summer conference topic: "The Inescapable Demands of Christianity Upon Us." A summary of Dr. Henry Nelson Wieman's evening lectures at Blue Ridge on this theme has been prepared and copies are available at the YMCA office for all who are interested.

INFORMAL DANCE

Following this afternoon meeting, the women will entertain the men at a dinner and informal dance. Every junior and senior is invited to attend. Each student who plans to go must see

While on duty Wednesday night, Garland Wright, messenger for the local Western Union office, found a check made out for $89.65.

Having found the check in front of South building, Wright immediately took it to Chief of Police Sloan who sent it to Washington yesterday.

The monetary note was made payable to one Edwin Gill, who was said to be a member of the parole board in Raleigh.

On Friday evening, December 2, the cabinet will meet jointly with the Hillel Foundation and the Catholic students in an "Inter-Faith Meeting" at Graham Memorial at 7:30. R. B. Douglas from Greensboro, Elbert Russell from Duke, and Rabbi Greenberg from Greensboro will present the fundamentals of the Catholic, Protestant, and Jewish religions, respectively. Dean F. F. Bradshaw will lead a discussion of the different faiths.

CHRISTMAS PARTY

The last meeting of the quarter will be a Christmas party. All of the cabinets will participate and the campus as a whole is invited to attend this and all other cabinet programs.

A master calendar of all the YMCA activities is being prepared and will soon be posted in the lobby of the building.

Plans are being completed for a "Community Sing" each Sunday evening. This type of program has achieved remarkable success on the Duke campus and the prospects look very favorable at Carolina.

The YWCA room on the second floor of the building is being converted into an attrac-

UNIVERSITY BAND WILL NOT MAKE NORTHERN TRIP

Athletic Association Not Financially Able; Virginia Trip Planned

"The University band will not accompany the football squad to Yankee stadium in New York on November 12," was a statement issued by Earl A. Slocum, director of the band. When asked for his reason he stated, "We just don't go, that's all."

After questioning further it was learned that the Athletic Association is not financially able to send the band. The decision however, rested on the outcome of the Carolina-Duke and Fordham-Pitt games. The reason for this was that if both teams had won, it would have influenced the gate receipts in New York. Since both teams lost, it did not seem probable to the Athletic Association that the gate receipts would be large enough to pay the expenses for the band. It would cost $2,000 to send the entire 100 pieces.

A trip to Charlottesville, Va., on Thanksgiving day for the Virginia game is now planned. It is promised also that the band will go to Philadelphia next year to encourage the team on to victory when Carolina meets the University of Pennsylvania.

The band has not taken a major trip since the fall of 1936 when it accompanied the team to the first contest Carolina had with New York university.

tive lounge and date room, and will be ready for use soon.

Brooks Patten wishes to remind the students that the YMCA is open to the campus at large. Every student is a member of the organization, and the cabinets hope that as many students as possible will take part in the programs and the fine fellowship that is shared by all. The meetings are held each Monday evening at 7:15, unless announced otherwise, and adjourn promptly at 8 o'clock.

DR. KNIGHT SAYS BUCK IS PASSED

There would be little, if anything, in American education that could not be done properly, if only youth knew better what it needs and if American educators could better advise them.

This is the opinion of Dr. Edgar W. Knight, Kenan professor of education at the University and well known author and educator.

Dr. Knight, in a featured editorial in the current issue of "School Management," discusses the reasons for the large number of failures among college students.

Out of 1,000,000 youth graduated from high schools last spring, he says, approximately one-third entered college this fall, and of this number about 150,000 will receive their degrees in 1942.

"The causes of these failures," Dr. Knight declares, "run all the way in the alphabet from alcohol to zeros."

"And all along the line the 'buck is passed.' Professors in graduate schools complain of the lack of excellence in the colleges. College professors say that the high schools do shoddy work. High school teachers say the work in the elementary schools is poor. Elementary school teachers point to the unsatisfactory home conditions of the children. And the mothers say to the teachers of their problem children: 'Well, what can you expect? Just look at their daddies.'"

Statuary To Be On Display Here

To Be On View Here Tomorrow

"Speedy, an Old Greyhound Courses," a bronze by Anna Hyatt Huntington, internationally famous American sculptor. The work is included in an exhibition of 70 sculptures by Mrs. Huntington opening at Person hall art gallery at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

First Major Exhibit Of Sculpture To Be Shown In State

The first major exhibit of sculpture to be shown in North Carolina will open tomorrow in Person Hall Art Gallery. The exhibition consists of 70 pieces of bronze and aluminum statuary by Anna Hyatt Huntington, one of America's foremost sculptors.

The statuary has been on display in New York, San Diego, San Francisco, and several other large cities. Chapel Hill and Charlottesville, Va., are the only small towns in which the exhibit has appeared.

EXHIBIT INCLUDES

The exhibition includes a full-size statue of "Diana", and small size models of her equestrian statues of "Joan of Arc" and "El Cid." Also, included in the exhibit are her works in bronze and aluminum of such wild creatures as lions, tigers, bears, deers, foxes, and monkeys, as well as horses, dogs, donkeys, sheep, and other domestic animals.

The statue of "Diana" is so large that it requires eight men to move it. The shipment was the largest ever to be sent from the Charlottesville station.

The exhibition will continue until November 25. Person Hall Art Gallery is open on weekdays from 10 to 1 and from 2 to 5 and on Sundays from 2 to 8.

Russell T. Smith, head of the University art department, will give a gallery lecture at 4 o'clock on tomorrow afternoon on the statuary. Ten water color paintings of Professor Smith will be shown simultaneously with the Huntington sculptures.

HERE'S A HINT FOR YOU BOYS

"Good students make better housekeepers," declared Mrs. Estelle Boyd, supervisor of dormitories at WCUNC. "If you would see someone truly, stand in the doorway of her own room, for therein lies the reflection."

Mrs. Boyd pointed out that campus leaders and honor-roll students have the highest room-grade averages. Those doing dining-room work to help pay their expenses also rate at the top. Freshman girls, with their home teaching still fresh in their minds, average better than upper classmen. The girls with the lowest housekeeping grades are usually students who are most uncooperative in study habits and social programs.

So boys, take a hint! Always ASK a girl what kind of grades she makes before you ASK her to marry you.

If laid end to end the number of students studying each night in the library would be a long one, perhaps.

Raleigh Violinists To Make Second Concert Appearance

HUMAN RELATIONS INSTITUTE WILL FEATURE SOUTH

Committee Picks Topic Of Increasing National Interest

By JIMMY DUMBELL

Varying somewhat from their usual procedure of presenting discussions on inter-racial relations, the Human Relations Institute is this year featuring the South as the main part of their discussions which are to be held here in the Spring.

It was decided yesterday at a meeting of a sub-committee of the institute that this topic, which is exciting national interest and is expected to be brought up for Legislature at the next meeting of Congress, would receive emphasis in the speeches and debates which will be given by nationally prominent men.

DR. ODUM DIRECTS

This meeting, which was under the direction of Dr. Howard W. Odum, a well known author on the subject of sociology, resulted in the decision of inviting as speakers, the following: Herbert Agar, noted author, W. W. Alexander, farm security administrator, and Jonathan Daniels, well known southern author and editor.

It was also decided that the four main divisions of the speeches will be: National Relations, or the World Outlook, Human Relations in Business and Industry, Education, and the South Today and Tomorrow. It is definitely known that Dr. Odum will lead the discussions and take part in the plans and preparations for the event.

FOUR DIVISIONS

The divisions under the topic of the South will be: Agricultural Development and Conservation, Economic Development and Labor Relations, Race and Racial Relations and Public Administration and Politics.

This, the sixth annual convention of the institute, is under the direction of John Kendrick, who is the chairman of the committee composed of 15 students and 15 members of the faculty. The dissertations will be given during the week of April 2 to 9 and it has been said that some classes may be dismissed in favor of the speakers.

Aldens Will Give Recital Tomorrow

Dorothy and Edgar Alden will appear for the second time on a Graham Memorial concert tomorrow in a two-violin recital. Although as usual the concert will be in the lounge the time has been changed to 5 o'clock.

The Aldens will be accompanied at the piano by Aileen McMillan. The program is as follows:

- Concerto in A Minor Vivaldi-Nachez
- Allegro
- Larghetto
- Allegro moderato
- Sonatine (for two violins alone) Honnegar
- Allegro no tante
- Andantino
- Allegro moderato
- Song of Spring Burch
- Allegretto, Adagio (from Serenade Op. 92) Siding
- Fete Champetre Severn

The Aldens both graduated from the Oberlin conservatory of music in 1936. Alden is professor of violin at Meredith College, and Mrs. Alden is teacher of violin at Peace and St. Mary's junior colleges in Raleigh. Both are violinists of the Raleigh string quartet. Alden was concertmaster of the Mozart Festival orchestra in Asheville this summer. Miss McMillan is professor of piano at Meredith College.

Attention, Frosh

Freshmen planning to go with the Freshmen friendship council to Greensboro on November 12 must attend the meeting at 7:15 in Di Hall next Monday night.
