

EDITORIALS:
 • Theory Into Action
 • Dance Pianos
 • After the Storm

The Daily Tar Heel

WEATHER:
 The Gobblers Got Wet
 Yesterday—Didn't
 Help 'Em Any.

THE ONLY COLLEGE DAILY IN THE SOUTHEAST

VOLUME XLVII

EDITORIAL PHONE 4351

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1938

BUSINESS PHONE 4156

NUMBER 45

Stirnweiss Sparks Tar Heels To Wet Win

ALDENS TO GIVE VIOLIN RECITAL THIS AFTERNOON

Artists' Second Appearance On Memorial Series

Dorothy and Edgar Alden, in their second appearance on a Union program, will give a two-violin recital in the lounge of the Graham Memorial building at 5 o'clock today.

The Aldens both graduated from the Oberlin conservatory of music in 1936. Alden is professor of violin at Meredith College, and Mrs. Alden is teacher of violin at Peace and St. Mary's junior colleges in Raleigh. Both are violinists of the Raleigh String Quartet. Alden was concertmaster of the Mozart Festival orchestra in Asheville this summer. Miss McMillan, the accompanist, is professor of piano at Meredith College.

Bob Magill said yesterday: "We are fortunate to be able to get such talented artists as the Aldens, and I feel sure that the concert will be a great success." This is the fourth of the concerts which are held every other Sunday under the auspices of the Graham Memorial Student Union.

Ward Denies Part In Frosh Mix-Up

In an official statement late yesterday, Bill Ward, defeated candidate for president of the freshman class, declared he "had nothing to do" with any of the present aftermath shots by both freshman parties.

His statement read: "I was defeated for the office of president of the freshman class in the frosh election of some days ago. My opponents in the election did not agree with me politically nor did I agree with them. However, as I stated in the meeting of the freshman committees Friday night, I am not going to try to go against President Shore and his administration. Before the election, I stated that I was behind the freshman class 100 per cent; the same is true now. I want to establish and make known my neutrality in the present proceedings."

Dr. Olsen To Speak At Bull's Head Tea

Dr. W. A. Olsen will be the speaker at the regular Bull's Head tea at 4:15 Wednesday afternoon. He will review Bertrand Russell's book, "Power, A Social Analysis."

Bad Table Manners

Women students of the Greater University of North Carolina at WCUNC are quite loyal to their Chapel Hill brothers, the DAILY TAR HEEL learned yesterday from a WCUNC student who refused to divulge her name.

It is the practice of the girls to sing "Hark the Sound" every evening before dinner.

And This Is The New "Pick"

This interior view of the new Pick theater, open to the public tomorrow, shows the 500-odd seats which are staggered, the ceiling which has been built over, and the walls which have been reconditioned.

Carolina Veterans May Recall—

Old Pickwick Theater Once Only Fit For Respectables

"Great Waltz" Stars Congratulate Smith

E. Carrington Smith, manager of the Carolina theatre and the new "Pick," which will be reopened tomorrow, received a steady stream of congratulatory letters and telegrams today.

Among those sending best wishes were actors who take parts in the opening picture, "The Great Waltz": Beverley Hills, Cal.

GREETINGS AND BEST WISHES TO THE NEW PICK THEATRE. LOUISE RAINER. GOOD LUCK AND CONGRATULATIONS. FERNAND GRAVET.

CONGRATULATIONS UPON YOUR NEW PICK THEATRE OPENING. MILIZA KORJINS.

MOVIE HOUSE TO BE MODERNIZED

Carolina Theater To Close For Week

For the first time in 11 years, the Carolina theatre will close its doors Sunday night for a week to remodel the interior.

During the week, movie-goers will attend the new "Pick" across the street while carpenters, painters and drapers work on the Carolina theatre. Chief among repair items will be the refinishing of the entrance and lobby.

The lounges of the Carolina will be enlarged and redecorated. New acoustical material will be installed in the walls of the hall. The overhead lighting system will be discarded, and new indirect lighting will be placed along the side walls. The structure will be furnished with new drapes.

NEW SOUND EQUIPMENT

Microphonic sound equipment, manufactured in electric research laboratories, and the

(Continued on last page)

Pop Bottles, Popcorn And Peanuts Took Form Of Flying Missiles

By BILL RHODES WEAVER

To hundreds of Carolina alumni the reopening of the old Pickwick theatre should recall a number of very interesting incidents of a past college generation. The theatre will be opened tomorrow under the familiar name of "Pick."

It hasn't been so many years since the respectable villager feared to enter the Pick at the 7 o'clock show. The first show of the evening, it was universally understood, was for college students only. And anything could happen and often did.

Since it was the day of silent films, the students enjoyed "bulling" during the showing of the

(Continued on last page)

University Junior Bob Simmons—

Ringer Of Bells In Memorial Tower Explains Job No Cinch

He Rings Bells

Bob Simmons, University junior, whose job it is to ring the bells in Memorial Tower and who tells us his hardest task is to play "Hark the Sound" properly.

(Continued on last page)

FACULTY MEMBERS TO TAKE PART IN IRC ROUND TABLE

Program Goes On Air Over Station WPTF At 3 Today

The University of North Carolina Round Table will again go on the air this afternoon from 3 to 3:30 over WPTF in Raleigh. This is the fourth in a series of broadcasts which are discussions of timely topics by faculty members and students, alternately. The program is made possible by the International Relations club, and has been modeled after the University of Chicago Round Table, of national fame. Carolina, however, is the only other college conducting a weekly Round Table and the only one featuring continual student discussions on the air.

Dr. Erickson of the English department and recognized philologist; Dr. Buchanan of the Economics department; Dr. Robson of the Political Science department will be featured on the Sunday broadcast. Henry Nigrelli will preside. The topic for discussion will be "Conflict of Powers in the Far East." Both Dr. Erickson and Dr. Buchanan have lived in the Far East.

PARTICIPANTS' PURPOSE

The participants of the broadcast will attempt to clarify some of the misconceptions prevailing among the average people in respect to the Far East and will try to explain Japan's position, showing that the much spoken-of "unprovoked aggression" on the part of Japan is fallacious and to a large extent the actions of the other powers of the world have caused Japanese aggression. Prospects of ultimate solution of the Far

(Continued on last page)

The Runningest Man!

Li'l George Stirnweiss, Carolina quarterback, who took a VPI punt yesterday on the 21-yard line and ran 79 yards to carry the pigskin over the goal. It was called back and the Tar Heels penalized, but previous to this Georgie had already hung up one, the only, Carolina tally.

The Summary

Carolina	Pos.	Virginia Tech
Palmer	le	Pierce
Maronic	lt	Gosney
Woodson	lg	Worthington
Adam	Center	Wood
Desich	rg	Devlin
Kimball	rt	Coleman
Mallory	re	Oliver
Stirnweiss	qb	Fixx
Radman	hb	Thomas
Watson	hb	Ellison
Kraynick	fb	Hudson

Score by periods:

Virginia Tech 0 0 0 0-0

North Carolina 0 0 7 0-7

Scoring: Touchdown—Stirnweiss. Point after touchdown: Maronic. Substitutions: Virginia Tech: End—Henderson. Tackles—Pitts. Guards—Gauger, Graves. Center—Markle. Backs—Miller, Belcher, Warriner, Powers, Rose, Woolwine.

North Carolina: Ends—Severin, Pfeifer, Kline. Tackles—Palanske, Siewers. Guards—Brantley, Megson. Fields. Center—Smith. Backs—Cernugle, Lalanne, Bobbitt, Sadoff, Winborne, Baker, Slotnick.

GOVERNOR CLOSES "MOCK" ASSEMBLY

University Students Get Important Roles

With an address to delegates assembled from 17 North Carolina colleges and universities, Governor Clyde R. Hoey closed the second annual "mock" student legislature in the State Capitol yesterday morning.

The Carolina delegation, led by Sam Hobbs and consisting of John Busby, Ben Dixon, Fred Emory, Harry Gatton, David Howard, Elbert Hutton, Walter Kleeman, Charles Putzell, and Horace Richter, played a prominent part in the proceedings of the body.

At the outset of the meeting, John Bonner was elected by the senate to the position of sergeant-at-arms, while John Busby was chosen for the senate finance and conference committees, and Sam Hobbs for the house finance committee. Walter Kleeman was chosen as acting sergeant-at-arms in the senate when Bonner could not

(Continued on last page)

CAROLINA TEAM COMES THROUGH RAINY DAY, 7-0

VPI Pushed About But Hold Victors To Lone Touchdown

By SHELLEY ROLFE

The Gobblers of Virginia Tech came into Kenan stadium yesterday for a football game with the University of North Carolina and went down in defeat, 7-0 before 18,000 fans most of whom were in on the cuff anyhow, and departed before the end of the game due to wet atmospheric conditions. At a late hour last night Tar Heel followers were still wondering what hit their team, the rain, the Gobblers, or just the after-effects of the Duke game.

Whatever it was, it had a powerful hold on the Wolfmen, who, although they pushed the Gobblers all over the field, statistically speaking, making 11 first downs to three and gaining 218 yards on the ground as against VPI's 96, could only rush across one touchdown. That came when George Stirnweiss culminated a 20-yard putsch after a blocked punt by skirting right end for five yards. Steve Maronic converted

(Continued on Page Three)

Frosh Assembly To Hear Johnson

By ROY POPKIN

"Assembly cut" cards are expected to be few and far between Tuesday because there won't be an empty seat in Memorial hall when Freddie Johnson and his band revolutionize freshman assembly with "An Education in Swing."

Tomorrow's jam session will be the first of the series promised.

(Continued on last page)

Late News Flash!

University political science Professor E. J. Woodhouse last night said that he would call upon at his rally in Graham today the four members of much-discussed sixth district Democratic committee to defend their naming last week of Carl Durham as nominee to the House of Representatives.

University department of journalism head O. J. Coffin, a member of the committee, declined yesterday to take part in a proposed debate with Woodhouse to be sponsored by the Carolina Political union. Other members of the group, O. M. Bundy, Cooper Hall, and Sidney High have not been heard from.

Meanwhile, as Woodhouse made plans for his radio address from 7:00 to 7:30 over WBIG in Greensboro tomorrow night, a woman property owner of Chapel Hill and Durham began soliciting signatures for a petition to Governor Hoey to discharge Woodhouse from the University professorial staff.