THOUSANDS Brave Rainstorm To Hear New University Alumni

President Franklin Delano Roosevelt, at top, is shown addressing the University student body, thousands of students and her bow, the Carolina political union in the Wasson gymnasium last year. Upper picture, from left to right, the nation's chief executive, Governor Clyde H. Hay and President Frank G. Hammond after they had taken seats in the mezzanine car of the procession which led from the presidential train to the campus.

CLOTHES BUNDLES TO BE COLLECTED

Phi Gams Prepare For Bundle Day

Tonight at 7 o'clock Phi Gamma Delta will collect all the clothes which have been discarded by the students for Bundle Day. Members of the fraternity and their pledges will carry every room in the dormitory and fraternities to collect the bundle, which the students are requested, have new.

UNIVERSITY GIVE-A-WAY

To aid in the collection of the clothes, the university will supply a truck and a truck in which the boxes are to be taken. The truck will be taken to the distributing points of the King's Daughters Chapel Hill charity organization, at the homes of Mrs. E. R. Lawson on East Franklin street, and will be delivered from them.

The object of the drive is to help the underprivileged students of the university, and particular attention is being given to the students of education and to family members of the community.

Chapel Hill May Be Location Of Four-Year Medical School

Meyer To Address Club Tonight At 7

Dr. Harold D. Meyer will address the Education Club at its monthly session tonight at 7 o'clock in chapel. After the meeting oaths for the new year will be administered, and other business matters will also be transacted. Among those who will speak will be the president of the club, the president of the university, the president of the club, the president of the university, and the president of the university, and the president of the club, the president of the university, the president of the club, the president of the university, and the president of the club, the president of the university.

The club, which is composed of all undergraduate and graduate students of the university, has been organized for the last school year, and has brought to the campus the leading students in the university.

President of the club, Dr. Meyer, has been away from campus during the past year, spending his time in Europe and in good health, and is well qualified to speak to prospective members. He is responsible for the membership of the club.

This club is an organization for the promotion of educational activities and is open to all students. The members are requested to be present at the meeting.

The object of the drive is to help the underprivileged students of the university, and particular attention is being given to the students of education and to family members of the community.