First UNC Swimming Team To Make Debut Tomorrow

IDITORIALS:

The Daily Tar Beel

VOLUME XLVII

EDITORIAL PHONE 4351

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., SUNDAY, JANUARY 22, 1939

NUMBER 89

Amateur Program Tonight Has Been Changed To Hill Hall READY TO MEET

Ivey The Collosal Will Lead Amateurs In Hilarious Hour

At the 11th hour Bob Magill changed the plans.

The amateur program tonight at 8:30 will be at Hill Music hall instead of Graham memorial. So many people have announced their intentions of coming and so many telephone calls about the program have been received that the change was

After consultation with a host of advisors and kibitzers, including representatives from the local union of the S. C. M. P., meaning the Society for Changing Meeting Places, Bob said the show would go on at Hill hall. IVEY, THE MAN

istics:

Pete Ivey, former director of Graham memorial, will be master of ceremonies. Ivey, who writes news and a daily column for the Winston-Salem newspapers, will preside at the program, question the amateurs, de- AlVIVI liver a lecture on the "Disadvantages of a College Education," sing several selections from grand opera and hillbilly compositions, and give the gong to any undeserving contestants.

Pete said that in addition he would offer to "wrestle anybody in the crowd for a small stipend."

A performance, not so surprising as it will be astonishing, will be the appearance of the new-found disciples of Mahatma Ghandi, Henry Nigrelli and Gibson Jackson, who have foresworn food in an attempt to atone for "the sins of mankind and Carl Pugh."

GHANDISTS Nigrelli and Jackson have not eaten since last Thursday night. Yesterday they were pale and wan. Both went to Durham, neither wishing to trust the other out of sight for fear the other might purchase a sandwich, thus violating the spirit of the contract and causing Carl Pugh, the Carolina bad boy, to sink still further towards damnation.

Herbert Park will swing Indian clubs. Park very seldom swings the clubs so that they hit anyone in the (Continued on last page)

Ball Boys Meet

All those who have been asked to work as ball boys and line officials at the Budge-Vines match Wednesday night are to meet Coach Kenfield at 7:30 tomorrow night on the main floor of the gymnasium. Only those present for instructions tomorrow night-will work during the games.

Little Napoleon

Here is Guy (Pete) Ivey, the former Little Wonder of Graham memorial, The first of the season, the variety who will get the greatest amateur be filled. To give added color to the day night the Carolina Political union show and community sing will fea- show since the Ice Age off to a flyture the following salient character- ing start tonight at 8:30 in Hill in the South, dating back more than music hall.

PRESIDENT'S BALL

Birthday Dance To Be Held In Inn January 30

Sponsors from the campus and the village, who will participate in formal figure at the President's Birthday ball in the Carolina inn January 30, were announced yesterday.

Those who will meet at Spencer hall this afternoon at 2 o'clock to have a group picture taken are as follows: Miss Virginia Kibler, Miss Olive Cruikshank, Miss Elizabeth Malone, Miss Gladys Best Tripp, Miss Helen Andrus, Miss Helen Jacobs, Miss Sallie MacNider, Miss Sarah Palmer Moore, Miss Esther Suttonfield, Miss Alice Logan, Miss Lillian Howell, Miss Sarah Cahoon, Miss Lillie Cates and Miss Norris

COMMITTEE HEADS

Professor W. A. Olsen will preside at the round dance. During intermission he will conduct the drawing of prizes and announce the three-part dance, Ravel's "Bolero," which will be given by Miss Hilda Weaver.

The square dance will be held in the lobby and the north parlor of the inn. Two sets of dancers will be able to participate.

COMMITTEE HEADS

Serving with E. Carrington Smith, general chairman, are the following ommittee heads: Mrs. Roland Mc-Clamroch, square dance; Mrs. George (Continued on last page)

Attention, Coeds—

Torch Singer Hutton Has Always Eaten Her Spinach

Story of Marion Hutton, a la Weaver, Sounds Like Fable

BY BILL RHODES WEAVER When Mrs. Hutton's little girl, Marion, was a very small child, her mother made her eat her spinach, wash behind her ears and tie little ribbons on her pig-tails, and she did

"Now," said Mama Hutton, "You must watch your diet, eat plenty of green vegetables and fruit, get plenty of outdoor.

The plays are now in rehearsal with of outdoor exercise and go to bed LITTLE MARION went to school,

After little Marion had grown up RUNAWAY (Continued on last page)

EXPERIMENTAL CASTS SELECTED

Three Plays To Be Given Friday

Casts have been selected for the three experimental plays to be presented in the Playmaker theater Fri-

the following casts: "Swappin' early." And she did all those things. Fever," a comedy of the Missouri Ozarks by Lealon Jones, Girardeau, "Little Marion," Mama Hutton said Mo.; Fred Koch, Jr., Chapel Hill; one day when the child was about Frances Goforth, Kings Mountain; six years old, "today we are going Kalman Sherman, Hendersonville; somewhere. We are going to a great Wieder Siewers, St. Louis, Mo.; and big building to see a nice man, and John Morgan, Roxboro. The play is then, we're going to play some directed by the author and Mary games." And so they did, and Marion Huntington Coley of Chapel Hill acts as technical adviser.

had studied very hard for several a reform school by Dorothy Lewis, 3 and 4 for the German club Mid-Winters. (Continued on last page)

CAROLINA MERMEN VIRGINIA AT 4

Bowman-Gray Pool Is To Be Scene Of Water Battle

By LEONARD LOBRED

North Carolina will make its first appearance in intercollegiate swimming tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock when Coach Dick Jamerson's Tar Heels oppose the invading Virginia mermen in Bowman Gray Memorial pool.

The first swimming meet yet held at this University and the first meet in which an organized Carolina swimming team is to compete, tomorrow's meet will be attended by many visitors and alumni from all over the state, and the 500 bleacher seats erected overlooking the pool are expected to event, the oldest traditional rivalry 40 years, will be renewed between Carolina and Virginia. Several University professors are listed on the program as officials. READY TO GO

Having worked since October 15 with a group of very inexperienced men, most of whom have had no previous competitive swimming expethan to say, "We are out to win." The plenty of competition.

Otho Ross, who was selected by sored address. Coach Jamerson because of his per-

(Continued on page three)

Bound For Carolina Mid-Winter Dances

Trustees Issue New Ruling To Stop Competition Between University, Local Merchants

Pianist

FCC CHAIRMAN TO SPEAK HERE THURSDAY NIGHT

Address To Be Carried Over Five Stations

When Frank Ramsey McNinch, chairman of the Federal Communications commission, steps forth to speak in Memorial hall next Thurs-

CPU Chairman Voit Gilmore wired the DAILY TAR HEEL late yesterday that McNinch will speak on the freedom of speech. Also arrangements have been made by National Broadcasting company to carry the Commissioner's speech over the Blue network of the National Broadcasting system.

rience, Coach Dick Jamerson has will present on its platform another pronounced his men ready to go, but speaker whose career has been studhe would make no predictions, other ded with varied political experiences.

The address, which is scheduled to Cavaliers, victorious over N. C. State | begin at 8 o'clock, will be carried over yesterday by a one-sided 46-to-29 five North Carolina radio stations: score, will bring a strong well-bal- WBT in Charlotte, WBIG in Greensanced team here and give Carolina boro, WSJS in Winston-Salem, WDNC in Durham, and WPTF in Raleigh. The Tar Heels, suffering from a The broadcasts, lasting for one hour, feeling that they as a team are un- will include the open forum discuslucky, will be captained tomorrow by sion which follows each CPU-spon-

A capacity crowd is expected since formances in the team's two inter- McNinch, a native North Carolinian, squad meets and in the AAU meet is the man credited with defeating a at Goldsboro the night of Friday the Democratic presidential nominee in a 13th. This meet, in which Ross took state which, with only this exception, first in the 100-meter breaststroke, has voted for the Jeffersonian party (Continued on page two)

PROFESSORS TO DISCUSS SPAIN ON IRC PROGRAM

> Adams, Woodhouse, Brooks, Mowry, To Broadcast At 3

Everett Stevens, prominent young

American pianist and composer will give a concert of well-known symphonic selections this afternoon at 5 o'clock in the main lounge of Graham

Four prominent University professors will discuss "What Is Ahead in Spain?" as the University of North Carolina Round Table goes on the air at 3 o'clock this afternoon for the first time this quarter.

The professors are Dr. N. B. Adams of the Spanish department, Dr. E. J. Woodhouse of the political science department, Dr. L. M. Brooks of the sociology department, and Dr. G. E. Mowry of the history department. The session will be presided over by Henry Nigrelli, president of the International Relations club.

NBC CONSIDERING

ing a nation-wide hook-up for the program sometime in April.

(Continued on last page)

New Measure, To Be Effective July 1, Will Make Changes

By MORRIS W. ROSENBERG Meeting in Raleigh Friday, the executive committee of the board of trustees of the University passed a ruling prohibiting any employee of the University to sell articles of merchandise in competition with other citizens of the state.

The new measure, effective July 1, reads as follows:

"In the three institutions composing the University of North Carolina, no employee of said institutions shall, on behalf of the institution, in his capacity as an employee, sell to any person, firm, or corporation any article of merchandise in competition with other citizens of the state. Provided this prohibition shall not apply to products produced incident to the operation of an instructional department or incident to educational research, or to articles of merchandise incident to classroom work, meals, books, or to articles of merchandise not exceeding fifteen cents in value when sold to members of the educational staff or staff auxiliary to education or sold to duly enrolled stu-

MEALS, MERCHANDISE

"Provided further, that this prohibition shall not apply to the sale of meals or merchandise at state institutions as invited guests of such institution, and provided further that this prohibition does not apply to the sale of learned journals or books or to the business operation of endowment funds established for the purpose of producing income for educational purposes.

"Any person who willfully or knowingly violates these provisions shall be dismissed from the University."

NOT OVER 15c

Hardest hit by the new rule will be the Book Exchange which will be prohibited from selling jewelry, lamps, pillows, typewriters, pennants, etc. Only articles incident to classroom work and other articles not over 15 cents may be sold. Dormitory stores (Continued on last page)

Soph Committees

"Chunk" Jenkins, chairman of the The National Broadcasting company executive committee of the sophomore in New York is reported to be so im- class, has called a joint meeting of all pressed with the nature of the Uni- the committees of that class to be versity broadcast that it is consider- held tomorrow night at 7:30 in the banquet room of Graham memorial. Plans will be made for the picture This afternoon's program will pre- which will soon be sponsored by the sophomore class.

Straight From Broadway—

Clifford Odets Stops Over Here - - Permits Interview

Youthful Pianist To Give Concert In Student Union

Everett Stevens, prominent young American pianist and composer, will give a concert of well-known sym- is the theme of my plays." phonic selections at 5 o'clock this afternoon in the main lounge of Gra- wright, made this statement yesterham memorial.

years has been a student at the Pea- Lefty," "Golden Boy," and the curbody Conservatory of Music in Bal- rent "Rocket to the Moon," is maktimore, will play a group of scores ing a brief stop in Chapel Hill on his by 18th and 19th century composers, way south from New York. including Beethoven, Liszt and Ravel. AVOIDANCE-OF-PAIN country.

TRAINING Unschuld, former court pianist of can't believe that people can be born

(Continued on page two)

Famed Playwright's Interest Lies In Finding Why So Few People Discover Happiness

By SANFORD STEIN

"I'm interested in discovering why in our great country so few normal people ever find happiness or fulfill themselves. This search for fulfillment Clifford Odets, world-famous playday at the Carolina inn. The author Stevens, who for the past seven of "Awake and Sing," "Waiting for

At the Baltimore institution, he has "But you have to be careful," said studied under some of the better Odets, "not to confuse seeming conknown teacher-composers in this tentment with fulfillment. Many people, upon being constantly pushed down in early life, develop a kind of The young musician, born in Wash- avoidance-of-pain mechanism which ington in 1915, received his early dulls and callouses them. I've seen

(Continued on last page)

Here is the little blonde miss, Marion Hutton by name, who will do her to be a real big girl, and after she The cast for "Runaway," a play of share of the vocal duties for Glenn Miller's band when it plays here February training there under Mme. Marie Von several southern Negroes like this. I