sidered to be the biggest days with the attendance dropping off considerably on Friday and Saturday. The decrease on these days was laid to the fact that there are no freshman physical education classes then.

EQUIPMENT

The 1,000 students estimated to use the gym daily have access to almost any type and kind of athletic equipment that they may desire. Nine basketballs, sixteen pairs of boxing gloves, two ping pong tables, five volleyball balls, five soccer balls, medicine balls, handballs, and footballs are available for use. Badminton rackets and balls can be secured during the fall quarter, and baseball equipment in the spring quarter.

The five handball courts appear to be the most popular as they are quite frequently reserved a day or two in advance. Three 45 minute periods, starting at 4 o'clock, are set aside each day for use of the handball courts.

ON DUTY

One thousand lockers and 3,000 baskets are available for the men students, and fourteen boys, working in shifts of four, are kept on duty in the men's locker room giving out the baskets. Three hundred and fifty lockers are in the faculty locker room, and 250 in the women's room.

For the protection of those who wish to use the swimming pool four competent life guards are on duty at all times. Before a student is allowed the privilege of the pool he must undergo and pass a strict medical examination. This examination is given to prevent foot or other kinds of infection from spreading in the pool.

A look in the gym most any day will reveal that it is playing a vital part in the Carolina student's life.

was used to break the glass in one of the window panes. With this done, the intruders proceeded to unlatch the window and enter the store.
The local police were summoned immediately upon the opening of the store at 8 o'clock yesterday morning. Officials have also notified the Book Exchange, the local bank and the two banks upon which the stolen checks were written.

SOCIETIES SEEK MORE PRESTIGE

Rankin Speaks In Di For Proposal

Representative John Rankin, former speaker of the Phi assembly, appeared before the Di senate Tuesday night and suggested that the Di and Phi make plans to regain their former prestige on the campus.

Rankin said that if the two organizations were given legislative powers, the Di acting as the senate and the Phi as the assembly, that the opinion regarding the two societies would be greatly changed.

COMMITTEE

President Walter Kleeman appointed the following committee to consider proposals to better the campus prestige of the two societies: Senators Charles Putzel, Sidney Rittenberg, and Smith.

The Di defeated one bill brought up for discussion and passed the second. The bill, Resolved: That the DAILY TAR HEEL is guilty of suppressing liberalism on the campus was defeated by a vote of 15 to 5. The bill, Resolved: That the University administration repeal the ruling on Swain Hall meal tickets, and that the tickets be returned to their former standing as campus script was passed by a vote of 16 to 8.

New members will be initiated before the executive session next week in order that they may participate in the meeting.

Joe Boak started Carolina off on the right foot as he annexed his first two bouts, in foil, but VPI kept up in line by taking the next three. The foil division throughout saw-sawed back and forth until the final match, when, with the count at 4-all, Captain Bloom brilliantly topped Dmetri Gagarine, 5-2 to begin a Tar Heel lead that was never beheaded.

In epee, once again the brilliant and flashy work of Carolina's epeeists was dominant as it had been all season. Now already famous in Conference circles, the Tar Heel epeeists lost only one bout and tied one in their four contests. Finch dropped but one point in his two encounters while Dick Freudenheim garnered the tie and loss.

Sabre, was the closest the home team came to gaining any sort of an advantage. Leading in the meet 7 1-2—5 1-2 at the start of sabre, VPI took the first bout to pull up within one point of a tie but Harrington came through with a win which assured Carolina of at least a tie and then followed it up with another victory to cinch the meet for the invaders. Wayne Williamson, previous number one sabreman who has been out due to illness, was put in for the last sabre match against Gagarine.

plus co-captain George Nethercutt who'll do all the catching this year.

In addition to the batterymen, co-captain Hal Bissett, a first baseman, and Li'l George Stirnweiss, shortstop last spring and likely second baseman this year, took workouts. Hearn does not intend to make a general infield-outfield call until the team moves outdoors.

Practice begins at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Student Government Room Refurnished

The student government room on the second floor of Graham Memorial has recently been equipped with new furnishings which have improved the appearances of the council room to a large extent.

The heretofore much needed furnishings include a new desk, a new carpet, a typewriter and typewriter desk and two new indirect lamps. Also included are new curtains and new drapes and several pictures have been added to the walls. The room was quite bare prior to the recent renovation.

Funds for the new equipment came from a special appropriation set aside for student council expenses.

UNC Debate Squad To Meet Six Foes On Southern Tour

Six colleges and universities have accepted the University debate squad's invitation to debate with the University group on its southern tour, debate secretary Bill Cochrane announced at the squad's meeting Monday night.

Winthrop, Furman, Brenau, Auburn, the University of Miami, and the University of Alabama are the schools which have accepted. The University of Miami has also asked the Carolina team for a debate on February 25 when the Miamians make their tour northward. The query for the Miami debate has not yet been selected.

The girl's team of William and Mary will debate here on March fifth, but has not replied to the Carolina squad's request that the query be Resolved, That emancipated woman is a menace.

The discussion of the group centered around armament question, up-

PHI MAKES PLANS FOR DEBATING DI

Assembly Approves Magazine Attitude

Challenged by the Di senate to a debate to be held the second week in the spring quarter, the Phi assembly Tuesday night appointed Representatives Rosen, Nance, and Dixon as a committee of three to work out details of the meet.

The nomination by both parties of Jim Davis for the presidency of the student body, was upheld when the representatives voted down a bill disapproving the action.

FAVOR

A resolution favoring the State legislature's plan to raise the compulsory school attendance age limit from 14 to 16 years was passed.

Representatives also voted in favor of a bill approving the Carolina Magazine's attitude toward liberalism.

Tom Royster was appointed as the Phi assembly representative to the Debate council. Members also voted to amend the constitution to require representatives to attend at least half of the meetings to be eligible to vote in the assembly elections.

on which the squad has several debates tentatively scheduled, and facts and figures were exchanged with equal vehemence for propaganda and idealism. Tryouts for membership on the team debating the query will be held at the squad's next meeting Wednesday.

the year when he bashed terribly tough Morel for three rounds. Smiling through a bloody pan, Sanders slung his long right and jabbed with a stiff left occasionally. Hermson then gave his defensive exhibition, the referee gave it to the Devils. Palanske followed, hit about five blows, and the Dukes went home to play Tinker Toys.

Varsity Mitt Summary

120-pound: Winstead (C) decisioned Fracher; 127: Gennett (C) decisioned Jordan; 135: Kasik (D) decisioned McFalls; 145: Dickerson (C) decisioned Little; 155: Sapp and Gardener drew; 165: Sanders (C) decisioned Morel; 175: Kirkland (D) decisioned Hermson; Heavy: Palanske (TKO) over Brooks. Final score Carolina 5 1-2, Duke 2 1-2.

Carolina's freshmen, favored over the previously unwinning Dukes, had their hopes for a neophyte state championship dispelled when the Baby Devils plastered them 5-3.

Unbeaten Red Dameron won on a forfeit, and similarly unbeaten Rose, co-captain with Dameron, won the 127-pound division with a clean exhibition of clever boxing which got him a TKO in 1:56 of the last round. Sid Johnston decisioned Maultsby by leading the entire fight—but from that point on the referee pointed to Duke.

Wilson, Senhauser, and Murphy, took their respective weights, close matches with Gover, Jones, and White. West outslugged Williamson, and McFarlane TKO'ed Funderburk in 1:58 of the first.
