

YMCA HEADS GIVE DETAILS OF MEET

McKee And Bonner Return From Atlanta

Bill McKee, advisor, and John Bonner, president, of the University YMCA have returned from Atlanta, where they attended the Southeastern Regional Council meeting of the YMCA which met there September 29-October 1. McKee acted in the capacity of member-at-large and Bonner as representative from North Carolina.

The meeting, which had its headquarters in the graduate dormitory of the Atlanta university, was attended by 31 people representing 10 states. There were 10 white students and 10 Negro students, one each from the states represented, and 11 members-at-large. Among those present were Rowland Elliott, executive secretary of the national student YMCA, and Herb King and Wiley Critz, regional secretaries.

MEET WITH YWCA

Frid night, the group met jointly with the Southern Regional council of the YWCA at which Miss Eunice King of WCUNC and Miss Wilhelm Rowland, general secretary at the Woman's college, represented North Carolina. At that time summer work was reported by various representatives, Bonner making a report on the President's school and McKee on the World Congress for Christian youth which met at Amsterdam, Holland.

The meetings Saturday were taken up with reports and discussion, and plans for the Blue Ridge and Talledega conferences for next year were discussed.

PEACE COMMISSION

Sunday morning, reports from the sub-committees were given. The peace commission report recommended that the peace commission for the region be set up on the campus of the University, the recommendation to be accepted upon ratification by the YWCA and YMCA executive committees here. Miss Rowland and Bonner were appointed to write a letter to each association in the region asking them to aid the World Student Christian federation during the crisis in Europe.

Co-chairmen for the Blue Ridge and Talledega conferences were nominated and elected, and McKee is to be a member of the Blue Ridge planning committee for the year 1939-40. The session Sunday morning was closed with a worship service led by Miss Rowland.

him into action in his familiar role—as a substitute. Sunday morning the newspapers hailed the Carolina victory, singing the praises of Lalanne, Stirnweiss, Radman, Woodson et. al, and calling White the outstanding sophomore linesman in the state.

Meanwhile, Coach Wolf sat back and smiled, knowing that for another season he had ample tackle protection in White and the veteran Gates Kimball, who will be back next season for another year of superlative effort. Wolf told all questioners White had a great future and was an outstanding ball player, realizing that the big boy from Cleveland, who wears a nose guard, would be a staunch Tar Heel front wall guardian for three brilliant seasons.

Three brilliant seasons, and Slagle meanwhile looked forward to another autumn of bench-warming and another letter.

The Tar Heels take a final workout today before leaving tomorrow night for Norfolk. . . . The team will camp out at the Monticello hotel and leave Norfolk immediately after the game. . . . Wolf ran the team through a passing drill and then lined up the first stringers against Virginia Tech offensive and defensive formations. . . . George Stirnweiss took heat treatments all afternoon and did not get out in uniform. —S. R.

On The Cuff

to every picture. It seems as if a number of the football experts have suddenly discovered Carolina will have a football team this fall. This is very amazing to the experts who passed through earlier in the year and discovered a number of rugged gentlemen playing football at a school 12 miles away from Chapel Hill.

Now this school is known as Duke. It may be remembered that Duke had a fair football team last fall and managed to get an invite to the Rose Bowl. The invite was promptly accepted and Duke went to the Bowl. The results were later censored in North Carolina so no one in the state would learn of the great disgrace that befell Wallace Wade's team.

Anyway, a lot of citizens labored under the misapprehension that this was still '38 so they promptly picked Duke to win the Southern conference championship, forgot about Carolina and let the situation go at that.

However, sleeping dogs will not sleep if too much noise is made. Carolina made the noise. The Tar Heels have scored 86 points in two games at latest reports. Duke had trouble making 26 against Davidson last Saturday. So the experts, reading between the lines and looking at the scores, beat a hasty retreat to the hills and their typewriters and promptly wrote in big enough letters so even the fellows over at Duke could read, that maybe Carolina would beat the Blue Devils.

This is encouraging to everyone except Mr. Wolf. Mr. Wolf refuses to believe Carolina will beat Virginia Tech Saturday. The suggestion that Carolina will have a chance against Duke will make Wolf see red, white, green, blue, purple and other colors in the spectrum.

But the truth is right now that Carolina is close to being the best team in the country. The Tar Heels have done everything required of them and done it in such an efficient fashion that they will probably have to wait until October 21 and the game with Tulane to find out just how good they really are. The suspicion is that the team is positively the best imaginable, and even greater than Mr. Wolf's 1937 team that won the conference championship. After all this year's team has Stirnweiss, Radman, Lalanne, Woodson, Severin, et al.

So it is encouraging to learn the experts have discovered North Carolina. Next thing you know they might even find out there is a fair football team at Chapel Hill.

Speaking of experts, or inept experts, there is this guy Norman Sper. He picked Wake Forest last Saturday claiming among other things. . . . "The Deacs have more reserves. . . . Oh yeah, well, he forgot to say where Wake Forest was hiding its reserves. Sper must feel as if a railroad train hit him.

Hoping you are the same. S.R. P. S.: Whatever did become of Maize?

Yanks Defeat Reds

Cincinnatians in the struggle for the championship of the baseball universe. COSTLESS ERROR

Up until the ninth, Derringer, winner of 25 regular season games, had kept in step with Ruffing, striking out seven of the Yankees and generally tying the Wrecking gang slugs. But he slipped once, and as is often the case, was one slip too many against the greatest team in baseball history.

The Reds will try again tomorrow, starting Bucky Walters, a 27 game winner. Lefty Gomez, not as brilliant as in previous seasons but still an outstanding money player, will have the duty of making it two straight for the Yanks.

LOSE LEAD

The Reds gained a one run lead in the fourth and lost it in the fifth when the Yanks scored a tally of their own in the fifth. A walk, stolen base and single made up the Cincinnati offensive. Goodman walked, stole second and rode home as Buck McCormick unloaded a line blow to right.

The famous New York one-two punch floored Walters in the fifth. Jumping Joe Gordon led off with a single and scored a moment later as Babe Dahlgren, a weak stickler but an outstanding money player, lined a double down the third base line.

teams in years; one with an attack which will be something new for Sleepy James Crowley. So Fordham by a touchdown.

AUBURN-TULANE—Tulane has the kind of ball club that warms up as it goes along. Auburn had trouble beating Birmingham-Howard last week. Tulane by about 14 points.

FLORIDA-MISSISSIPPI STATE—Mississippi State amazed a number of people by defeating Arkansas last week. It will be no surprise when it beats Florida by about 20-6.

GEORGIA TECH-NOTRE DAME—Notre Dame has this one by about 13-0. Nough said.

PANTS DOWN

KENTUCKY - VANDERBILT — Vandy took the pants off Rice last week in the last seven minutes of the game. Kentucky is improving to be sure, but Vandy should win by a touchdown.

LSU-HOLY CROSS—Holy Cross has a new coach in Joe Sheeketski and a powerful team to go along with that. The Crusaders have year after year been close to the best in the country. So Holy Cross by 13-6.

Briefly . . . Tennessee murdering Sewanee and Ole Miss clubbing Southwestern.

THE EAST

COLUMBIA-YALE—Greasey Neale of the Yale coaching staff is reported to have said in August. . . . "If you thought our team was terrible last year wait until you see it this fall. . . ." So Columbia beats the Bulldogs, 13-0.

CARNEGIE TECH-TEMPLE — The tartans by about two touchdowns as they start another big season of Eastern domination.

CORNELL - SYRACUSE — This game was a heart-stopper last year as Syracuse won in the last few minutes. But this is another year and there is no Sidat-Singh to toss life-saving passes for the Orange. Cornell: 19-7.

NAVY-VIRGINIA—The Cavaliers are really powerful this year, but they still seem to lack the spark to beat the big boys. Navy, 13-6.

In short . . . Pitt over West Virginia, Dartmouth over Hampden-Sydney, Harvard over Bates, Brown over Amherst, Penn State over Bucknell, Princeton over Williams and Army over Centre.

THE MIDWEST

IOWA-INDIANA—Iowa has a new coach this year in Holy Cross' Dr. Eddie Anderson. He can work no miracles in two games. So Indiana by two touchdowns.

KANSAS-IOWA STATE — Iowa State has a superior attack and should win about 6-0.

MICHIGAN-MICHIGAN STATE—Another renewal of the battle of Michigan and the Wolverines should win this year, 14-7.

WISCONSIN - TEXAS — The Beavers are tough this year and may very well win the Big Ten title. . . . Wisconsin, 19-0.

NORTHWESTERN - OKLAHOMA — This is a humdinger, but Northwestern, boasting one of the best teams in the country, should win if only by a touchdown.

MINNESOTA-NEBRASKA — Nebraska is not the team it used to be. The Gophers by, 20-0.

OHIO STATE-MISSOURI — Ohio State anyway they want. Approximate count: 27-0.

SOUTHWEST

TCU-ARKANSAS — The Horned Frogs received a jolt from Oklahoma last week. The same should not happen Saturday. TCU by two touchdowns.

Bailey And Thigpen Enter Washington Secretary School

Misses Aidelaide Bailey and Cornelia Lee Thigpen, graduates of the University have entered the Washington School for Secretaries in Washington, D. C. for the fall term. As a student at this school they will be at the center of American affairs connected with the war and will have an unusual opportunity to study the actions of this government in preserving neutrality.

Miss Bailey, daughter of R. L. Bailey of Bluefield, West Virginia, received her A. B. degree here and was a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority. Miss Thigpen, daughter of P. L. Thigpen of Rocky Mount, also received her A. B. degree here and was a member of the Glee club, the Altar guild, and Pi Beta Phi sorority.

With the government service in the national capital rapidly increasing its staff to meet the emergency situation in Europe, possibilities for trained men and women to receive employment in this field are expanding. Mrs. Adria C. Beaver, director of studies at the Washington school, told the fall class.

University Band

With Mark Altwater as the new drum major for the University band, Director Earl Slocum has added 40 new members, transfers and freshmen, to the blue and white band of the University.

Griffin Thinks

impossible to foresee the outcome of an irrational situation."

CHANGE OF EVENTS

Whether the U. S. is drawn into the war depends on change of events and the emotional balance we maintain, Griffin believes. "There is a moral obligation for our intervention on the side of right. It behooves a nation to oppose both individual and international criminals, but using force is not the best or most effective method," he explained.

Griffin is not in favor of the U. S. selling arms to belligerent nations. He believes that this would be a form of intervention and participation. "We can't keep out and sell arms," he stated.

He gives two interpretations to Russia's entrance into the Ukraine. He feels that it was either an imperialistic attitude or an attempt to extend Russia's ideology to the White Russians in the Ukraine. If Russia and Germany combine forces in Poland, England and France cannot win the war, he believes.

TEXAS A & M-SANTA CLARA—Santa Clara is tops on the coast year after year, but not being in the Pacific coast conference, never gets proper recognition. Santa Clara should win this one by two touchdowns.

RICE-CENTENARY—The Rice fellows must have lost their faith in human nature last week when Vandy beat 'em in the last few minutes of play. Rice should bounce back this week and win, say, by 14-6.

THE WEST

CALIFORNIA-ST. MARY'S—California, friends, had an unfortunate experience last week-end, losing to Pacific, 6-0. It was terrible. It should be worse this week-end. St. Mary's, 13-0.

OREGON-STANFORD — Look's like Oregon in this one. The Webfoots are steadier and have more offensive power. Should win by two touchdowns.

OREGON STATE-IDAHO—Oregon State mates, and how do games like this get by?

ULCA-WASHINGTON—Washington should win this one in spite of that Pittsburgh incident.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA-WASHINGTON STATE—Southern Cal is after that coast title and another Rose Bowl shot. This game should go for the Trojans, 19-0.

a possible exodus of four fraternities. Magill's complete statement follows:

"There seems to be some misunderstanding on the campus about the exact nature of the loan from Graham Memorial to the German Club.

NO ALTERNATIVE

"The loan was made last summer as an extreme emergency measure by the Board of Directors of Graham Memorial. The German Club had incurred debts amounting to $900 which it was unable to pay. Although the Board is reluctant to make loans of any kind, it saw no alternative to making this one in consideration of the fact that the German Club was a related campus organization and had no other possible resources. The loan was in no way an approval of past German club policy or management.

"Being unable to offer any security for the loan, the Club agreed to allow a member of the Graham Memorial Board to sit on its executive committee with power to veto. This over was obviously granted to enable its holder to correct any financial policy which might endanger the loan. It was not meant to be used as a stick for governing the social and political policies of the Club."
