Larry Clinton, the old "dipsy-doodler," has been signed to play for the Fall Germans November 15-19, the weekend of the Duke-Carolina football game in Durham. Clinton played for the May Frolics here last year.

TICKETS TO GAME MADE AVAILABLE FOR DANCE DATES

Band Contracts Slated To Arrive Here Today

Larry Clinton and his orchestra will play for the German club fall dances the weekend of the Carolina-Duke game, November 17 and 18, and arrangements have been made to obtain football tickets for dancers' dates, Louis Sutton, secretary-treasurer of the German club, announced last night.

Contracts for the Larry Clinton orchestra are enroute via air mail special delivery and will arrive here today. Clinton, known as "the old Dipsy Doodler," was well received when he played for the May Frolics last spring.

Members of the German club may secure seats for their dates at the game through the cooperation of the Carolina and Duke athletic councils. Temporary bleachers will be erected above the Carolina section.

DUKE GAME $2.50

Tickets, only one of which will be available, to a person, must be reserved and purchased at $2.50 before one o'clock Friday. They may be had from members of the German club executive committee. Money will be refunded to those who find they can not attend the game after buying tickets in the temporary stands.

Arrangement will be made to transport dancers and dates to the game by special buses.

Graham Residents Will Have Private Cheering Section

In order to do their part to insure a Carolina victory over their Violet guests from the North this Saturday, Graham dormitory residents have been undergoing vigorous cheering rehearsals for the past several nights.

When Carolina and NYU take the field at Kenan stadium, they will be greeted by 112 lusty voices cheering with all their might. In addition to the ensemble of 112 voices a special cheer by the four Graham groaners is guaranteed to wither the violent Violets.

Graham dormitory residents will line up at 1:30 in front of the lower quadrangle and will march straight down Hillsboro street to the Raleigh road, past the Bell Tower and thence to the stadium. They will enter the stadium in a body and will be greeted by the University band.

McKie Announces Programs Planned For School Year

The Trapp Family choir, a group of nine Australians who specialize in folk songs, will open the fall student entertainment series October 31, Dr. George McKie of the student entertainment committee said yesterday.

Other entertainments planned this year include: the Graff ballet, a group of young American dancers recently formed in Chicago; a concert by the National Symphony orchestra which is under the direction of Hans Kindler, making its third appearance at Carolina in the winter quarter; a Gilbert and Sullivan opera to be presented by the Carolina Playmakers and the University music department; a violin concert by Ricci, widely acclaimed boy violinist; and the Comedian Harmonists, a group of six European choristers who sing with only piano accompaniment.

CHANCELLOR

The Trapp Family choir was first brought into world-wide prominence by former Chancellor Kurt von Schuschnigg of Austria. His attention was called to their singing when he heard them on the radio soon after they began professional appearances. They have been singing in the United States for the past two years and have appeared in Town Hall in New York. They have been widely publicized in leading theater magazines of the country as presenting an outstanding folk song program.

Dr. McKie, in making the announcement, said that more programs will be added to this list if necessary funds can be obtained.

VIOLETS INVITED TO GRAIL DANCE

Johnson Will Play Saturday Night

New York university students will be guests of the Order of the Grail at the informal dance Woollen gymnasium Saturday night, Richard Worley, exchequer of the Grail, yesterday announced.

Mrs. Irene Lee, Miss Sallie Ray, Mrs. James Coleman and Mrs. Victor Humphreys will serve as chaperones of the affair, for which Freddie Johnson and his orchestra will play.

Out-of-state guests may attend the event by paying the regular admission fee of one dollar. The dance will be the second function sponsored by the Grail which freshmen may attend.

According to a recent report, the last Grail dance of the fall quarter will be given Saturday night, following the Homecoming football game with State college November 4.

Memorial Issues Calendar Of Events

The Graham Memorial calendar, listing all major campus events of the fall quarter as well as the program of Graham Memorial, is being delivered today to all students.

The calendar is in the experimental stage and if it proves helpful, a similar one will be published each quarter, Bob Magill, director of Graham Memorial said yesterday. Besides containing the calendar of entertainment, discussion, musical, dramatic, social, and athletic affairs, the pamphlet lists the facilities of Graham Memorial which are available to all university students.

Soph Committeemen

Sophomore dance committeemen will meet tonight at 7:30 in Graham Memorial, Chairman Lloyd Hollingsworth said yesterday.

Principal Speaker For University Day

Dr. Harry W. Chase, former president of the University, will be the principal speaker this morning in exercises commemorating the 146th anniversary of the laying of the cornerstone of Old East dormitory. He will be introduced by President Frank Graham.

WPTF To Broadcast Rally Tomorrow Evening At 7:30

Huge Torchlight Parade To Preface Spirit Gathering

Tomorrow night's pep rally will be broadcast over station WPTF, Raleigh, from 7:30 to 8 o'clock in Memorial hall, it was announced last night, Grubbs said that the University club.

Although final arrangements for speakers had not been finished last night, Grubbs said that the University band and glee club will definitely take part. Vance Hobbs, head cheerleader, will serve as master of ceremonies.

DRUM CORPS

The rally will be prefaced by a huge torchlight parade, which will be led by the band drum corps. It will form in the lower and upper quadrangles at 7 o'clock and proceed to Memorial hall by way of women's dormitories, Franklin street, and Fraternity court. There will be the usual bell-ringing and light-blinking to rouse lethargic students.

Arrangements for the broadcast were made by the University club in cooperation with Bob DuFour, former prominent Carolina student now connected with WPTF.

To the 350 juniors and seniors who have not yet had their pictures made for the Yackety Yack, Editor Jack Lynch yesterday issued a warning that the deadline for the photographs will probably fall within the next three weeks.

"We have not set a definite deadline yet," Lynch said, "but once set—and that should be within this week—it will not be changed."

"WE DON'T CARE"

"I can't understand students not having their pictures made when they have already paid four or five dollars for them," Lynch added. "They can go to Wooten-Moulton any day between 8 o'clock in the morning and 6 o'clock at night, but we are not going to beg them to do so. We don't particularly care whether they get pictures or not, now that they are already paid for."

Ceremonies In Memorial Hall Will Commemorate Laying Old East Cornerstone In 1793

No Classes Today At 11 And 12; Winston To Talk

By JIMMY DUMBELL

An impressive program today will commemorate the 146th anniversary of the laying of the cornerstone of Old East, oldest state university building in the country. Dr. Harry Woodburn Chase, former president of the University will be the main speaker. All 11 and 12 o'clock classes will be dismissed.

Forming at the south side of South building at 10:40, the academic procession will march to Memorial hall. The University band will lead with the processional march. Dean R. B. House will preside over the ceremonies and introduce Dr. Frank Graham who in turn will introduce Dr. Chase.

The second part of the University Day exercises will be begun with a ten-minute talk by Judge Robert W. Winston on "Memorial Hall—Its Tablets and Memories." This will be a formal dedication of the three new tablets recently set in Memorial hall in memory of Matt Whitaker Ransom, Robert Bingham and Robert Worth Bingham, late distinguished alumni of the University.

Dr. Donald Stewart will lead the invocation and the benediction.

REVERENCE

After Judge Winston's address, Dean House will lead the assembly in a responsive reading. One minute of silence will be observed following this in reverence for those alumni who have died since last University Day. A male ensemble will then render "Integer Vitae" and the entire assembly will then sing the Alma Mater song.

Dr. Chase, who served as president of the University from 1919 until 1930, left here to accept the presidency of the University of Illinois and served in that capacity until 1933, at which time he resigned to go to New York University.

He received his A. B. and A. M. degrees at Dartmouth college in 1904 and 1908. He obtained his Ph. D. degree at Clark University in 1910. Honorary degrees of L. L. D. have been conferred upon him by Lenoir college and Wake Forest college, the University of North Carolina, the University of Michigan, Lafayette University the University of Georgia and Dartmouth college. Rollins college conferred upon him the degree of Doctor of Humanities in 1931, and Columbia university awarded him the Litt. D. in 1934.

PU Board Gives Credit To Fleece For Annual Page

A motion to extend credit to the Golden Fleece for a $30 page in the Yackety Yack if the organization will first pay $15 on last year's debt and promise to pay the remainder of the total debt this coming spring was passed by the Publications Union board yesterday.

Bert Halperin, business manager of the yearbook, was given a $50 advance in salary by the board and the Yackety Yack office was given one typewriter formerly used by the DAILY TAR HEEL office. The board also gave the Yackety Yack permission to have another typewriter repaired.

The motion to put a range-finder on the publications' camera was tabled until permission is given by the business managers of the various publications whose budgets would be involved.

Business Staff

All members of the TAR HEEL business staff report at 10:30 this morning. The office will be closed this afternoon.

To Dedicate Tablets

Judge Robert W. Winston will begin the second portion of this morning's University Day exercises in Memorial hall with a dedication of three new tablets in memory of Matt Whitaker Ransom, Robert Bingham and Robert Worth Bingham, late distinguished alumni.

PLAYMAKERS GIVE FIRST PRODUCTION NEXT WEDNESDAY

'No More Peace' To Be Presented By Drama Group

Date for the Carolina Playmakers' first presentation of the year, Ernest Toller's "No More Peace," yesterday was advanced to next Wednesday through Saturday as those in charge of production found the play would be ready for opening a week earlier than originally scheduled.

The timely play tells of a bogus war inspired by the bet of a bored Napoleon as he sits on Olympus and tries to puncture the child-like faith of St. Francis of Assisi.

SET

A novel set has been planned to shift the audience in space from the heights of Heaven to the city hall of Dunklestein, an imaginary country between France and Spain.

Dunklestein residents will offer songs throughout the play as they celebrate first peace and then war. Theme of the plot is a love story of a boy and a girl caught in the maelstrom of war.

Samuel Selden, associate director of the Playmakers, is director of the production; Elmer Hall, technical director of the Playmakers, is executing the sets; and Jack Toms, of the University music department, is in charge of music in the play.

Holzman To Speak To ASU Tonight

Frank Holzman will report on "Violations of Civil Liberties in America" at the regular weekly meeting of the American Student Union tonight at 7:30 in room 212 of Graham Memorial.

The Union will also discuss tentative plans for a district meeting of the four ASU chapters in this state at Greensboro Sunday.

Institute Visitors

Approximately 300 visitors will be in town from October 23 until October 27 for a meeting of the Public Welfare institute. All townspeople who wish to rent rooms during this period are requested to phone 3216, the Extension division.
