

Legislature To Discuss Proposed Constitution Tomorrow

EDITORIALS:
Kline Bill
Thieving

The Daily Tar Heel

WEATHER:
Occasional rain;
colder

THE ONLY COLLEGE DAILY IN THE SOUTHEAST

VOLUME XLVIII Business: 9837; Circulation: 9836 CHAPEL HILL, N. C., SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 1940 Editorial: 4356; News: 4351; Night: 6906 NUMBER 105

Third Political Party May Be Established White Phantoms Lose To Little Blues, 50-44

ACTION REPORTED
PENDING OUTCOME OF PRIMARY BILL

News Briefs

By United Press

ALBANY, Ga., Feb. 10 — Death toll of the tornado that virtually destroyed the center of this South Georgia city increased to 19 tonight as public agencies and state militia seek to ease suffering of about 450 injured persons and uncounted multitudes of homeless.

HELSINKI — Messages from the Mannerheim line report that the Finns are holding despite the greatest Red army offensive of war and that in some Karelian isthmus sectors Russian forces are driven back in disorder after heavy losses.

WASHINGTON — William Dudley Pelley, chief of the Silver Shirts, completes his testimony before the Dies committee late today and is arrested as he steps from the witness stand.

LONDON — European belligerent and neutral capitals, surprised and confused by a series of trip-hammer diplomatic blows, believe that the attitude of the United States might bolster proposals for united front against Soviet Russia.

PRAGUE, Bohemia — Baron Von Neurath, the Reich protector for Bohemia and Moravia, announces tonight drastic new measures aimed at ultimate elimination of Jews from the economic life of the protectorate. The
(Continued on page 4, column 6)

MAYOR DECLARES AMERICANISM WEEK FOR TOWN

Foushee Sets Aside February 12-22 For Observance

John M. Foushee, mayor of Chapel Hill, yesterday issued the following statement declaring February 12-22 as "Americanism Week":

To all to whom these presents shall come:

Whereas, the Durham Junior Chamber of Commerce, in accord with the program of the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce in the interest of developing a greater appreciation of the benefits of the American form of government, has undertaken sponsorship of an observance in this community of National Americanism Week; and

Whereas, the people of this community, proud of the heritage of our forefathers who established this nation as a sterling example of the principles of Democratic government by, for, and of the people are desirous of exalting the spirit of true Americanism;

Now, therefore, I, John M. Foushee, Mayor of the Town of Chapel Hill, believing the aim to be a worthy one, do hereby proclaim the interim between the dates of Lincoln's and Washington's birthdays, February 12 to 22, 1940, as

"AMERICANISM WEEK" and urge that every citizen, young and old, give due consideration to his duties and privileges as such and renew his pledge of Allegiance to the principles set forth in the Constitution of the United States of America.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed hereto the Seal of the Town of Chapel Hill, this 10th day of February, 1940.

Alpha Kappa Delta To Meet Tomorrow

Alpha Kappa Delta, sociological fraternity, will meet tomorrow night at 8 o'clock in 407 Alumni building. William H. Leavitt, state supervisor of the WPA housing survey, will speak on "WPA Research."

TIE IS BROKEN; DUKE TAKES LEAD IN CONFERENCE

Devils Trail, 31-19, At Half, Drive Through To Win

By SHELLEY ROLFE

Leading off in the first half at an amazing rate of speed, the White Phantoms closely resembled something the cat would not drag in respectable company the second and dropped a 50-44 decision to Duke at Woollen gym last night before 5,500 customers. The result dropped Carolina out of a first class place Southern conference tie, putting the Blue Devils in front with nine wins and one loss.

The defeat caused much consternation among the Carolina faithful and left many in a profound "can such things be" feeling. Such things can be and were. Duke, behind 31-19 at the start of the second period and apparently in as much danger of winning as it was overthrowing the government, suddenly came to life. The Phantoms dropped dead during the period, collected 13 points while Duke was making 31 and could do nothing while the Devils were staging a finish drive that saw matters settled once and for all in the last two minutes of the game with a seven point rush.

What made it worse from the local point of view was that Duke won without the services of Glen Price, Chick Holley and Cy Vasalek. Mr. Price, outstanding performer in the Duke cast, had a bad foot and played no more than several minutes. Holley, who made life miserable for Glamack the second period, fouled out with 12 minutes left. Vasalek was hurt fouling Severin and had to leave the game midway during the half.

Even with these handicaps, the Lit
(Continued on page 3, column 6)

SELDEN TO READ SAROYAN PLAY

"Time Of Your Life" Is Fourth In Series

The fourth in a series of Sunday night play readings will be held tonight at 8:30 in the Playmaker theater with Sam Selden's reading of "The Time Of Your Life."

The play to be read tonight was written by William Saroyan and is a current success on Broadway. This is the second play written by Saroyan to be produced in New York within a year. The play centers around the bar which holds the characters and action together. The play abounds in humor with its consuming champagne and contemplating life.

The reading is open to the public without charge.

Alpha Delta Pi Initiates Pledges

Beta Epsilon chapter of Alpha Delta Pi initiated 21 pledges last Saturday following "Courtesy Week" which culminated in a party Friday night at which the pledges entertained.

The new initiates are: Betty Brown of Raleigh; Bobbie Burroughs of Hockley, N. J.; Frances Bucklew of Lancaster, S. C.; Blanche Cook of Marion, Va.; Martha Clappitt of St. Petersburg, Fla.; Sis Clinard of High Point; Hallie Chandler of Sumpter, S. C.; Carolina Dalton of Lexington, Mass.; Frances Dyckman of Short Hill, N. J.; Diana Foote of Chapel Hill; Virginia Mary of Troy, Ala.; Julia Porter of Covington, Ga.; Georgiana Pentlarge of Montclair, N. J.; Sarah Ruark of Raleigh; Haydn Sanford of Mocksville; Laura Maie Shaver of Albermarle; Alice Wells of Parkersburg, W. Va.; Kitty Williams of Warrenton; Virginia Worth of Elizabeth City; Betty Moore of Talledega, Ala.; and Dot Pratt of Sumter, S. C.

Glen Gray, Leader Of The Casa Loma Band

... takes care of the boys' troubles ...

Gray To Open Mid-Winters Set With Public Concert

Bandleader Goes To Gym Regularly, Swims, Takes Care Of Boys' Troubles

Glen Gray and the Casa Loma orchestra, which will arrive Friday for a two-day engagement with the Mid-Winter Germans, will open the schedule with a public concert Friday afternoon.

Glen Gray, known all over as "Spike" ... big build, dimples, heart ... takes care of the boys' troubles ... goes to gym regularly and plays golf irregularly. Danny D'Andrea, first saxophone and violinist, took Gray's sax place when the latter became conductor.

Pat Davis, an Arkansas product, plays the second sax, and Clarence Hutchinrider, a Texan, follows with third. Fourth sax man, an expert
(Continued on page 4, column 5)

Youth Conference To Be Subject Of Terlin At Forum

Miss Rose Terlin, head of the economics division of the National Intercollegiate Christian council, will speak about the American Youth conference and its importance to Christian students at the weekly YW-YMCA supper forum tomorrow night at 6 o'clock at the Presbyterian church.

Miss Terlin was one of the leaders at the American Youth conference held in Washington, D. C., during the past weekend. She has recently returned from several months of study and work in Southeastern Europe and in China.

SUMMER PROJECTS

Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, those students who are interested in such summer projects as Quaker work camps, peace caravans, the College Summer Service group of New York, and the Boston Social Work laboratory will be given a chance to confer with Miss Terlin. These groups are some of the finest opportunities available for students to work in communities where they can put into practice what they have learned in class.

Members of the Freshman Friendship council will meet with the juniors and seniors tomorrow night, and all
(Continued on page 2, column 2)

GROUP MAY CALL PRIMARY BILL FROM COMMITTEE

Changes Expected In Final Draft Of Constitution

Two topics, the newly proposed Student legislature constitution and an attempt to bring a bill calling for campus primaries to the floor of the body, will share the limelight tomorrow night in Gerrard hall at 9 o'clock at a special meeting of the legislature.

The proposed constitution was introduced to the legislature last week by a specially appointed committee, but because of lack of sufficient time to discuss it, and also because there was a controversy concerning the clause in the constitution which requires a two-thirds majority of the body's entire membership instead of the required quorum now in force in order to ratify it.

Discussion by the entire body will continue through the entire constitution. Last week several changes were made in the first draft, the most important of which was one changing the representation from 48 to 50 members—the editor of the DAILY TAR HEEL and an additional town student increasing the number. Mitchell Britt suggested that the "Powers" division of the document be referred to the ways and means committee for deliberation, but the matter was killed, and thus many changes are yet to be discussed by the legislature as additional points are taken up.

The other important topic to come up will be action to be brought up by Chuck Kline. Last week Kline introduced a bill, and according to legislature rules it was referred to the ways and means committee for deliberation. Friday the committee voted down the bill by a vote of 3 to 2. This action automatically keeps
(Continued on page 2, column 3)

GROUP TO FORM ENTERTAINMENT CLUB TODAY

Name To Be Chosen At 2 O'clock Meet In Graham Memorial

Students interested in forming a campus entertainment club will meet this afternoon at 2 o'clock on the second floor of Graham Memorial for a brief organizational meeting at which the name of the new club will be selected, and plans for a spring show will be discussed. Carroll McGaughey, director of the recent Student-Faculty day jamboree, announced yesterday.

McGaughey yesterday was enthusiastic about the new club. "A lot of us here on the campus have wanted some sort of organization that would be equipped to produce regular shows using only campus talent. We got off to a good start with our jamboree program, and now we want to take advantage of it by forming a permanent club," he said.

PLANS

Already planned for production is a spring musical comedy to be presented in early May. McGaughey urged everyone interested in any phase of show production to attend this afternoon's meeting.

"We'll need everything from script writers to stage hands," he said, "and students needn't be afraid to come out because they haven't had experience. At least three quarters of the cast in the jamboree show had never been on a stage before, but they had a darn good time and are among the most enthusiastic boosters of the new group."

Frosh And Sophs Must See Advisers

All freshmen and sophomores who have not yet received their mid-term reports are asked to call on their advisers at the earliest possible time in order to do so, it was announced yesterday by the office of the General college.

Move Might Split Dorm Vote; U.P., S.P. Leaders Disapprove

By CHARLES BARRETT

A third campus party is looming on Carolina's political horizon, statements from Preston Nisbet, chairman of the Student party, and Bob Sumner, chairman of the University party, indicated yesterday.

Nisbet said he had heard reliable reports that such a party would be organized if the campus primary bill is not forced from the ways and means committee and passed at tomorrow night's session of the student legislature.

He said he believed the third party would use the elections bill, introduced by Chuck Kline, as the basis of its program, but that in reality it would be a movement to split Student party support among the dormitories.

"The Student party has always been recognized as an organization aimed at giving dormitory men a proportionate voice in campus affairs," he said. "It is highly possible that realization of this fact could lead to an effort to split Student party support among the dormitories."

"This is even more likely since passage last quarter of an elections precinct bill will place ballot boxes in one of the quadrangle dormitories."

SUMNER

Sumner said he had heard "very indefinite" reports of a third party but that he saw absolutely no need for one. He expressed satisfaction that the present two-party method has given the
(Continued on page 4, column 2)

TAR HEEL EDITOR WILL SPEAK HERE

Jonathan Daniels To Appear Tuesday

Jonathan Daniels, noted North Carolina author and editor, will speak on "New England in Passing," at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening in Gerrard hall under the auspices of the Carolina Arts group, chairman Simons Roof, announced yesterday.

Chairman Roof also announced the election of Bob Koch to secretary of the group, and the acceptance of three new members, Edgar Thorne, Charles Farrell, and Charles Giduz.

Jothanan Daniels, who recently appeared here at the newspaper institute, is the author of a new book on New England, patterned somewhat after his popular "A Southerner Discovers the South." Daniels is at present editor of the Raleigh News and Observer, and is one of the South's most prominent progressive editors. His talk Tuesday night will be the projection of an idea from his new book on New England.

Too Bad, Boys, Paula Kelly, Donahue Singer, Is Married

Vocalist Constantly Has To Make Excuses For Not Giving Dates To Admiring Listeners

By SANFORD STEIN

Paula Kelly is married.

Outside of that, there wasn't a single flaw in either the looks, personality or voice of Al Donahue's vocalist to mar the excellent impression she made with the band at the Interdormitory-Grail dances yesterday. Her husband, incidentally, is named Harold Nicholson—she became his wife exactly one year, one month and 11 days ago—and he is one of the Modernaries in Paul Whiteman's orchestra, which at present makes Paula a grass widow.

"It's a little awkward," she revealed, "when college boys ask me for a date after the dance. I have to either make up some excuse or simply tell them
(Continued on page 4, column 3)

Paula Kelly

... grass widow ...