

A Classified Ad Taker Will Relieve Your Worries. Come by 204 Graham Memorial Between 2:00 and 4:30 P. M.

Health Department To Open Well-Baby Clinics In Town

Two well-baby clinics, one for white and one for colored, will be opened by the local Health department soon to serve the Carrboro and Chapel Hill communities, it was announced yesterday.

The colored clinic, under the direction of Dr. Rena Henry, will be opened tomorrow at the Orange country training school and will be held the third Thursday each month thereafter. The white clinic will be opened March 4.

Services available will be immunizations against diphtheria, typhoid fever, smallpox and other contagious diseases; routine physical examinations; information and advice on diet, clothing, etc. and a limited amount of tonics and medicines such as cod liver oil and vitamin tablets for emergency needs.

Mrs. Holmes To Read At Bull's Head Tea

Mrs. Urban T. Holmes will read selections from Robert Nathan's new novel, "Portrait of Jennie," at the Bull's Head tea this afternoon at 4:15 in the staff room of the library.

Mrs. Holmes played the part of Flora McDonald in the Playmaker production of "The Highland Call" at Fayetteville last fall.

Intramurals

(Continued from page three)

Hambright racked up field goals and Austin added a foul shot while holding Sigma Chi scoreless, to forge ahead by a 12-7 score.

Lineups—Kappa Sigma No. 3 (27): Folger-5; Jeffress-5; Umstead; Edwards; Reynolds-10; Hambright-5; Austin-2. Sigma Chi (21): Lentz-2; Milloway-4; Parker-3; Smith-8; Davis-8; Davis-2; Edwards-2.

ZETA PSI NO. 1

Zeta Psi successfully maintained its undefeated record for the season yesterday as it moved one step nearer the fraternity title by trimming Beta Theta Pi, 28-17.

The Zetas, paced by Wilson and Carr, piled up a lead in the first period and were never in danger of being surpassed. In another center's battle Carr held the Betas' high scoring center, Hall, to only four points while he in turn was leading the winners' offense with 10. Wilson and Mordecai were second in the victors' offense with seven each. Lineups — Zeta Psi No. 1 (28): Wright-4; Wilson-7; Carr-10; Mordecai-7; Hancock. Beta Theta Pi (17): Woodall; Hall-4; Harvey-4; Dalton-3; Grant-2; Reed-4.

SIGMA NU

In the concluding fraternity game of the afternoon Sigma Nu trimmed Pi Kappa Alpha No. 2, 20-13. Robbins with seven points led the Snakes' offensive attack while Bruner starred on the defense. Rogers was high scorer for the losers with seven points. Lineups—Sigma Nu (20): Robbins-7; Chambliss; Grimes-2; Cohoon; Joslin-4; Coughenour-5; Murphy; Bruner; McNaughton-2. Pi Kappa Alpha No. 2 (13): Sloan; Godwin; Ball-2; Duke-2; Rogers-7; Kimrey-2.

VOLLEY BALL

Chi Psi No. 1 successfully defended its volley ball championship yesterday afternoon as it maintained its undefeated record by defeating previously unbeaten SAE, 2-1. After dropping the opening match 15-7 the last year's champions made a dramatic comeback to win the next two by 15-5 and 15-10 scores. The winning team is composed of Brown, Neill, Oavis, Armentrout, Stahler and Cale.

Pi Kappa Alpha No. 2 remained in the field for top honors in the volley ball loop as it gained its fifth consecutive victory with a 2-0 win over Chi Psi No. 2. The team, composed of Hatch, Meserole, Sloan, Ball, Conley, Kimrey, Godwin and DeLoach, won the first game 15-3 and the second 15-4.

ZBT

ZBT, one of the top notch but undefeated teams of the league, took one of the hardest fought battles of the season as they defeated Chi Psi 2-1. Chi Phi, composed of Walker, Willis, Donovan, Sutton, Cooper and Brown won the first game 16-14. The victorious team, made up of Stein, Munves, Levi, Rosenbloom, Finkle, Cohen, B. Rosenbloom, Winklerstein, and Altshull, came back to take the final two 15-5 and 15-13.

In the final match of the day Phi Gamma Delta No. 1 gained an easy 2-0 victory over Kappa Alpha. The victorious outfit of Elliot, Snow, Owens, Brantley, Sugg, and Headles won the first game 15-3 and the second 15-8.

Send the DAILY TAR HEEL home.

Loop Games

(Continued from page three)

tions of more than 250 athletes who want to participate in the annual track and field games.

Much of the interest in the meet will be centered on the returning individual champions. Conference champions in eight indoor events and a like number of outdoor events have signified their intentions of returning for the indoor games. Three of the returning individual champions in the conference won titles in both the indoor and outdoor meets last year. And there's the non-conference division which has four champions planning on returning for the games.

Carolina has Bill Corpening, winner of the high jump and broad jump last year in the indoor games, and winner in the high hurdles in the outdoor games; Jim Davis, who won the outdoor mile; Tom Crockett, who won the outdoor two mile; and Harry March, winner of the outdoor high jump, back this year. Maryland has Joe Murphy, winner of the 60-yard dash in the indoor affair and the 100- and 220-yard dashes outdoors; Mason Chronister and Tommy Fields, winners in the one mile and two mile runs indoors, Alan Miller, indoor quarter mile champion, and Jim Kehoe, half mile champion indoors. Bob Montfort, champion pole vaulter, is Duke's lone returning champion. Washington and Lee's returning champion is Bill Whaley in the 70-yard high hurdles. South Carolina has Dick Little, broad jump champion outdoors, coming back.

University of Virginia has a monopoly on the returning non-conference men with no less than three of the four, including Frank Fuller in the high hurdles, Bill Perry in the high jump and Lee McLaughlin in the shot put. Leon Chabot of Navy is the other champion. He won the 60-yard dash.

MEET OF CHAMPIONS

In fact, so many champions from last year's meet in which five records were broken in the conference division and four in the non-conference, are returning that this year's meet has been termed a "Meet of Champions."

Entries in the four divisions include: Southern conference—North Carolina, defending champions, Maryland, Duke, South Carolina, VMI, Davidson, William and Mary, and Washington and Lee.

Non-conference—Virginia, Navy, Newberry, Georgia, Georgia Tech, and West Chester state teacher's college from Pennsylvania.

Freshman—North Carolina, South Carolina, Duke, Davidson, William and Mary, Virginia, and Newberry.

Scholastic—Charleston high (W. Va.), Morristown high (Tenn.), Georgia Military academy, and R. J. Reynolds high school of Winston-Salem.

Fencing

(Continued from page three)

beat 16-11. W and M has an all-veteran first team, much like Carolina. Both teams have been fencing each other for two years now, pitting the same forces against each other—in dual competition and in tournaments. This year marks the final year and climax for the boys who started as sophomores in the W&M-Carolina rivalry — which includes the leading fencers on both teams and in the South.

In foil, W and M's strong swordsmen are led by three-year men Henry Kibel and Paul Makler, followed by Jim Glassman. The Tar Heels present all three-year veterans in Co-Captains Allan Bloom and Joe Boak and Dave Malone.

FINCH VS. KIBEL

Epee will feature the renewal of the Finch-Kibel rivalry. In dual competition last year, Kibel blanked Finch, the only man to accomplish such a feat; but in the Eastern Intercollegiate later on in the year, Finch defeated Kibel for the title. As in foil, W and M will be missing the services of their No. 1 man, Woodbridge, but Makler and Kibel are as good. Kibel last year won two and tied one in epee. Finch will be undefeated in epee when he takes to the strip tomorrow and is out to stay undefeated—Kibel or no Kibel. Dick Freudenheim, senior epeeist, is also pointing for revenge for his defeat at the hands of Kibel last year.

When a Carolina and a William and Mary sabre team meet on the strips, bystanders had better stand clear, for there's sure to be some hefty swinging and clashing of steel. Carolina will be weaker in sabre than last year, mainly due to the loss of Wayne Williamson who cannot make this trip. In his place, following Bloom, will be Lorne Payne and Bob Tolmach, two pretty dependable sabreists. It will be hard for these three to match last year's 6-3 win, but they have a good chance of doing so.

Mermen Take On

(Continued from page three)

sible, the Dolphins are set on making the Florida men break every local pool record to win. They are out to "get the 'Gators.'"

FLORIDA ON TOUR

Florida at present is on a tour through the south, having Kentucky, Georgia Tech, Tennessee, Duke, Carolina and State on schedule this week. Kentucky was toppled, 58-17, with several sophomores beating the famous Rood brothers and Captain Chic Acosta.

If they aren't too tired after the Florida meet Friday, the Dolphins will be favored to whip Washington and Lee Saturday. But the Generals present several men who placed consistently high all last year and may be very dangerous. Farber, second in the 100 and 220 in the conference in 1939, heads the Generals. Other standouts are Schultz, Ohio interscholastic champion in the 220, and Warner in the breaststroke.

Tar Babies

(Continued from page three)

fensive work by both teams, and four minutes and 35 seconds passed before Bean scored for Lees McRae. At the half the Tar Babies were leading 24-13.

With the third team in the game for the Babies, Lees McRae ran the score up to 37-31 and seemed to be unstoppable with three minutes left to play, but Siewert sent in the first team and almost immediately the score jumped to 44-33. Carolina had possession of the ball under its own basket at the end.

Phantoms Take

(Continued from page three)

in 19 games and the second over the Eagles.

Bill Holleman and Paul Royce led the second half scoring for McCrary. Both fouled out before the end of proceedings; Royce with 16 points and Holleman with 14. The Phantoms used 15 men and George Glamack was high man with 13 points.

AT START

Carolina was off with several leaps and bounds at the start. Ben Dilworth opened with two quick field goals and Les Branson added a foul. The score kept mounting moving from 11-2 to 20-4 and so on through the period. The Phantoms were close to perfection and in no way resembled the team that paraded around the second period. Glamack picked up seven points and Dilworth six during the half.

McCrary made only two field goals and two foul shots while the Phantoms were moving at top speed. Bill Lange used two complete teams during the period. The starting club of Dilworth, Glamack, Foy Roberson, Les Branson and Paul Severin moved the count to 22-4. The next outfit kept things moving and it was 28-6 at the half.

Wrestlers

(Continued from page three)

Generals, while the varsity ought to spill the W and L crowd for the first time in eight years.

In the one preliminary trial fight yesterday Gene Devant showed that he was still number one man in the 121-pound division as he threw his leading contender, Picket Hamlin.

All-University Meet

(Continued from page three)

Gloves competition, or who is not on the freshman or varsity boxing teams, is eligible to enter.

SCHEDULED BOUTS

127-pound class—Warren vs. Kessler.

135-pound class—Robinson vs. Leak; Nimmons vs. Jernigan; Conrad vs. Perky.

145-pound class—Oswald vs. Bill Wilson; A. D. Wilson vs. Powers; Jones vs. Mendall; Graham vs. Kelley.

155-pound class—Griffen vs. Sims; Darden vs. Grant.

Playing The Game

(Continued from page three)

Friday Carolina's swimmers meet Florida, for three years champions of the Southeastern conference and winners of 38 consecutive meets. Saturday the Carolina wrestlers meet Washington and Lee, co-champion with VMI of the conference. Wrestling has long been neglected. Few have thought it a spectator sport, but those who try it usually go back for more. Interest here is weak, but at Annapolis 2,000 Midshipmen and their dates watched Navy and Carolina tangle on the mats earlier this winter.

Boxers Practice

(Continued from page three)

contest. Maryland and South Carolina have also beaten Duke. Carolina after losing badly to Virginia during a night of general horrors has licked suc-

Corrected Honor Roll Shows Seven Omitted; Brings Total To 380

Due to error seven University students were left off the honor roll for the fall quarter the Central Records office announced yesterday.

With the addition of these seven the total is brought to 380 and an increase of six is reached over the fall quarter of 1938. When the total was previously printed the honor roll fell one less than the roll of the year before.

The supplementary list of the students making all A's includes S. M. Smith of Pilot Mountain, N. C., H. M. Symmes of Wilmington, and I. A. Zuckerman of Far Rockaway, N. Y. Those left off the "B" honor roll were B. F. Aycock of Fremont, Lloyd Boat of Shelby, Wallace deWitt of Erie, Pennsylvania, and C. R. Williams of Rockingham.

For a student to make the honor roll he must have a "B" average and carry a minimum of 15 hours work. There must be no incompletes in the report and only students who are regularly enrolled are counted.

sively State, VPI and Maryland. Citadel tied the Tar Heels, 4-4, to be named as co-favorites in the Southern conference tournament, which comes up next weekend at Columbia.

Other that Bobbitt's demise, Roman has felt no rude shocks lately. Every man has come through without injuries, and all will be ready for Duke.

The Williams College News is making a special movie of all phases of campus life.

Send the DAILY TAR HEEL home.

Good merchant pack choice apples on bottom, too!

TAKE this week's Post, for instance. "On top" is Richard Sherman's newest story of marriage, "You're As Old As You Feel." But we expect just as many people will like the last story in the issue... a heart-thumping horse-race yarn by Borden Chase. And if any one article is better than our lead article by Stanley High, it's the final one—a dispatch from Rome, "The Balkans Play It Safe," by John T. Whitaker. As Post readers know, "choice apples are found on bottom of basket as well as on top." Such top-to-bottom, bottom-to-top reader interest just naturally causes advertisers to favor the Post. In 1939 the Post was awarded $11,000,000 more advertising revenue than the next magazine.

CAN MARRIED PEOPLE "KEEP YOUNG" BY TRAILING THE YOUNGER SET? What do you think of married people who continuously horn in on young people's parties? Here's the story of a husband and wife who tried to find the fountain of youth that way... and what happened to them. A short story in this week's Post, "You're As Old As You Feel," by RICHARD SHERMAN.

HOW TO CATCH A CROOK WITH ROD AND REEL. Crunch and Desperate put to sea, in this week's Post, on their most dangerous adventure to date. An adventure that started as an innocent big-game fishing trip and ended with guns in their ribs and the "Poseidon" headed for nowhere. An exciting yarn on page 12 of The Saturday Evening Post. "Crunch Goes Haywire," by PHILIP WYLIE.

WHY NO "BLITZKRIEG" IN THE BALKANS? The countries that touched off the last war aren't even in this one. Why? And for all their rich possessions, Stalin and Hitler have so far kept hands off. Why? Meet the Balkans' crafty strong-arm squad—Carol, Boris, Paul, Metaxas and Gen. Ismet Inonu—and you'll know. Don't miss "The Balkans Play It Safe," by JOHN T. WHITAKER.

WALTER D. EDMONDS' NEW CIRCUS NOVEL. The prize-winning author of "Drums Along the Mohawk" re-creates the romance and glamorous adventure of two young runaways with a small-time traveling circus, a hundred years ago in upstate New York. Start reading this colorful new Post novel. Second part of eight.

I NEVER KNEW THAT ABOUT QUAKERS! Do you know how the Quakers can run a world-wide relief organization on an annual budget of only $90,000? How they got the Nazis' permission to enter Germany and to help the Jews? What they did in Spain? ... An eye-opening article about an army that quietly fights for peace, not for war. Read "100,000 Quakers May Be Right," by STANLEY HIGH.

"SHE'S A CHAMP!" "SHE'S A QUITTER!" Queer horse, "The Lady." She was a chestnut darling with the legs of a dancer, and each hoof left a print the size of a teacup's rim. A horn racer—who mysteriously quit every race at the half-way mark... The heart-thumping story of a horse trainer who refused to lose faith, "The Lady Was A Flop," by BORDEN CHASE.

THE MAN WITH 3500 VALENTINES. In a pack-rat's paradise in two rooms on 42nd Street in New York City, Sy Seidman has an amazing collection of 3500 old valentines, a dozen of which appear in color in the Post this week. The unique story of a hobbyist who collects everything from fans and souvenir hankies to banks and presidential songs. See—"Roses are Red."

AND... The exciting solution of Leslie Ford's murder mystery novel; another chapter in "Dime Store," the life of F. W. Woolworth, merchant prince; short stories, editorials, poems, cartoons, and Post Scripts—all in The Saturday Evening Post this week.

THE SATURDAY EVENING POST 5¢