Hearn Heads UP Sophomore Class Ticket

Taft Hits Economic Policy Of New Deal

GOP Presidential Aspirant Speaks Before 1,000

Urging a return to freedom of enterprise without government regulation of industry, Senator Robert Alphonso Taft, Ohio's bid for the presidency, last night flayed the economic aspects of the New Deal, before a Memorial hall crowd of over 1,000 people, in a speech sponsored by the Carolina Political union.

"In 1940, we face the problem of whether or not we will continue the New Deal. We have to determine whether we will go down the road with the administration or stick by the principles which have guided the United States for 150 years," the Buckeye senator said.

PREDICTION

After criticizing Congress for delaying action on all vital bills, because of the impending election, Taft predicted that if the present government is reelected, the nation will see a complete abolishment of state and local powers. He then pointed out that the

Complete Class Ticket Announced In Surprise Move

By LOUIS HARRIS

Upsetting political dopesters who looked for class slate announcements later in the quarter, the University Party last night nominated a complete set of rising Sophomore class officers, headed by Johnny Hearn for president and Hobart McKeever for student council representative. The party also named Charlie Hancock for Vice-President; Lem Gibbons for Secretary; and Dan Thomason for Treasurer.

The nominations, which came as a surprise to veteran campus politicians, marked the first complete slate of class officers to be released by either party. The UP last week named Bill Dees, year student councilman, for the presidency of the student body, and Jimmy Howard, star athlete and last year recipient of the Grail Scholarship award for basketball players, for the office of president of the senior class.

All the rising Sophomores named last night have taken prominent roles in both their high school and college student governments. The slate is headed by Johnny Hearn, son of Varsity baseball coach, Bunn Hearn. A graduate of Wilson high school, Hearn played football and baseball, being elected captain of the nine in his senior year. While in high school, he also was a member of the Junior Social Civic club. Before coming to the University, Hearn spent one year at Darlington Prep in Georgia, where he made an outstanding record. He played varsity on the football and baseball teams, was a member of the "Y" club

Your Student Paper Is 47 Years Old Today

Tar Heel Begun In 1893 As Weekly, Has Come Far

By GLADYS BEST TRIPP

The DAILY TAR HEEL has another candle to put on its cake today for February 23, 1940, is its 47th birthday. And the only college daily east of Texas and south of the Potomac is put out by a group of hard-working University students.

Seventy-five college boys and girls devote a fourth of each day to see that 3,800 students have their DAILY TAR HEEL early every morning. Immediately after lunch the routine begins. Fourteen news reporters check with the managing editor Morris Rosenberg in the Graham Memorial offices. Then out they go to cover every building on the campus in a minutely worked out plan. Sports reporters are covering track meets, swimming contests and intramural athletics. Editorial writers and columnists are thumping out their contributions on office typewriters.

THE PECUNIARY SIDE

And in the next office the TAR HEEL business department is sending out advertising managers and assistants to contact merchants, and the office business staff is making layouts.

SALUTATORY.
The growing demands of the University have shown the need of a weekly paper. The University Athletic Association regarding itself as the means by which such a need could be supplied, at a stated meeting elected a board of editors (chief and five subs.) and a business manager.
With this apology only, the first issue of the first volume of the TAR HEEL makes its appearance.
This new venture is necessarily entered upon by the present board with no little trepidation, nevertheless with a determination, to make a success which can only be done through the indulgence and assistance of our faculty and fellow-students. Therefore we invite honest criticism and aid in the advancement of this new project will be thoughtfully appreciated.

THE LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE VISIT THE UNIVERSITY.
The following members of the legislature composing the visitation committee arrived at the University on a special train Friday morning, February 23d:
Messrs. Battle, chairman, Check, Aycock, James, Pou, of the senate; and Messrs. Holt (chairman) Base, Parker, Starnes, Walker, Ward, of the house.
After breakfast, the regular chapel exercises were attended, then visits were made to the reading room, libraries and various lecture rooms where classes were assembled. The numerous laboratories were inspected as well as some of the students' rooms. In the afternoon meetings of both the societies were held and the gentlemen who were not alumni were made honorary members. Just after prayers the boys called repeatedly for speeches from our visitors, a majority of whom responded most felicitously and gave words of encouragement for the future outlook of the university. After a legislative appreciation standpoint. All saw the need of a sufficient appropriation to fully equip this most important of all the State's institutions, and give to a university of whose past brilliant record and whose future prospects are such as would make any State in the union proud to be the possessor of such an heritage to hand to posterity, a sufficient appropriation to put the university on a financial basis equal to its rapid expansion and growth. When some of the committee expressed their deep regret at not having had an opportunity of receiving an education, in their youth, we could not but feel that it was a duty that was owed to future generations, and which has been due to those that have passed away, that the supreme law making power in the State, ought to make tuition at the university free to North Carolinians as is done at the University of Virginia to Virginians and the only way to do this is to appropriate a sufficient amount to keep the university up, until resources from outside States and the technical courses shall make itself sustaining, and too, we could not but think what a shame and loss it was to North Carolina, that it had failed to open the doors of the university, in the past to such sterling men as represented the legislature on the committee. The body of the students were well pleased with our friends, if they are a fair sample of our legislators this year, North Carolina is in good hands. They know the needs of the University.

Shown above is a copy of volume 1, number 1 of the first student newspaper at the University. It was printed weekly, and composes about half of today's paper, printed daily except Sunday. The paper above was issued by the Athletic Association, February 23, 1893.
