Graham Memorial Program To Begin At 5 O'Clock

Emily Richardson and Herbert Bird will present a violin and harp concert this afternoon at 5 o'clock in the main lounge of Graham Memorial. This afternoon's program will include selections from both modern and classical music.

Miss Richardson, who has given numerous concerts throughout the South and in Maine, will play: "Gavotte from 'Iphigenia in Aulis'" by Von Gluck; "Giga" by Carelli; "Gavotte" from "Le Temple de la Gloire" by Rameau; "Le Bon Petit Rai d'Yvetat" by Grandjany; "Night Breeze," "Goldfish," "On Donkey Back," "Behind the Barra," by Salzedo; "May Night" by Palmgren; and "Chanson dans la Nuit" by Salzedo.

Bird, who lives in Raleigh, has directed several music festivals, and will play: Prelude to "The Deluge," by Saint-Saens; "Romanza Andalusia" by Sarasote; "Souvenir de Moscow" by Ernest Bloch.

Playing the violin since the age of eight, Bird has both studied and played under many of the leading musicians of the present day. Among the noted artists with whom he has played are:

NEW POST TACKLED TO PARTY SLATE FOR FIRST TIME

Cochrane Has Had Prominent Career In Campus Affairs

By LOUIS HARRIS

Recording history in the annals of campus politics and student government, the University party last night nominated Bill Cochrane, four-year member of the debate council and second year law student, for the office of speaker of the student legislature.

Created in the new constitution, the speaker's post is considered as the key position to all advancements to be made by the law-making body. With interest in the legislature mounting to a feverish pitch this quarter, the assembly is expected to take its place as a vital part in the student government set-up here next year.

ACTIVE CAREER

Manager of Dormitory H this year, Cochrane has been an active figure in campus government life. In last spring's elections, he smashed all previous records by polling over 1200 votes for the debate council. He had previously been elected to the council for three preceding years. For the past two years on the council, Cochrane has held down the post of executive secretary.

Besides his accomplishments in campus government...

McNutt Cancels Engagement To Speak Here On CPU Bill

Union Opens Drive To Obtain Dewey For Spring Speech

Paul V. McNutt, Federal Security administrator, yesterday wired Harry Garton, chairman of the Carolina Political union, that, due to unforeseen duties in Washington, he would be unable to keep his scheduled appearance on the union's platform here April 2.

The cancellation of the McNutt address left the CPU with a spring quarter slate of speakers that includes New Hampshire's New Deal-blasting Styles Bridges on March 26, Rochester publisher Frank Gannett on either April 11 or 16, and Missouri's crime-busting governor Lloyd C. Stark in May. A drive is now also underway to secure New York's mob-smasher Thomas E. Dewey for an appearance here also in May.

Mentioned prominently for the Democratic nomination for the presidency last fall, handsome, white-haired McNutt has received several sharp reverses from both the conservative and liberal forces within the party. The most telling blow to the former Indiana governor's chances for the nomination next July was the faying Secretary of the Interior Harold Ickies gave him two months ago. Since then, political observers have predicted a continued falling off in popularity for the bronzed Federal Security administrator.

Taking over the number one spot behind the President in the race for the Democratic nomination is Burton K. Wheeler, who last week unofficially received the backing of the CIO and John Lewis. The Montana senator, who

MERMEN ROLL UP 60 POINTS, SET SCORING RECORD

Fleming Stone Gets 'Most Valuable' Cup For Double Victory

By LEONARD LOBRED

From creation to the zenith in two years! That briefly describes the rise in two seasons of Carolina's varsity swimming team from next-to-last to first place in the Southern conference.

The Tar Heel mermen yesterday established an all-time scoring record of 60 points while winning the tenth annual conference championship meet. Duke was second with 34 points. Clemson had 27, State 17, William and Mary 13, Washington and Lee 12, and VMI nine.

Tutored since swimming was inaugurated here last winter by Coach Dick Jamerson, who swam only once in his life in a competitive swimming race, the Carolina mermen blanketed the rest of the field so completely that after the first event there was little doubt that they would win.

While all of the times went in the books as conference records for a 50-meter course, pool records in three events were lowered, the first by Fleming Stone of Carolina in the 100-meter sprint, another by Sid Ingram of State in the backstroke, and a third by Carolina's free style relay team of Buzz Mitchell, Whit Lees, Ed Mueller and Fleming Stone.

Winners of only two of six meets last year and seventh in the conference out of eight starters, the Tar Heels accomplished the almost unheard-of feat of winning the championship in their second year and in doing so added to their honor by becoming

LAST RITES HELD FOR MRS. WILSON

Registrar's Wife Buried Yesterday

Funeral services for Mrs. Thomas J. Wilson, Jr., 62, wife of the University registrar and dean of admissions, were conducted by Rev. A. S. Lawrence at the Chapel of the Cross yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, with burial following in the village cemetery.

Mrs. Wilson, a social leader of the village, had lived in Chapel Hill 54 years. She moved with her parents from Alamance county family home when she was eight years old. She died following an illness of three weeks in Watts hospital early Friday morning.

Surviving are: her husband, Dr. T. J. Wilson, Jr.; four sons, Thomas J. Wilson, III, of New York, Marvin Wilson of Edenton, Peter P. Wilson of Winston-Salem, and Walter Wilson of Graniteville, S. C.; two sisters, Mrs. Fred Patterson of Chapel Hill and Mrs. E. M. Dewey of Wilmington; two nieces, a nephew and eight grandchildren.

Pallbearers were: Dr. E. M. Hedgepeth, Dr. W. R. Berryhill, Dr. W. B. Abernethy, Paul Eubanks, John Manning, Louis MacMillan, Dougald MacMillan, Sam T. Emory, Ben Husbands, W. S. Jenkins, B. F. Swalin, Shipp Sanders, J. P. Harland, Herbert Ledbetter, Bruce Strowd, A. C. McIntosh, Jr., and Grady Pritchard, all of Chapel Hill; and John Watson and John Latza, both of Durham.

PRESTON NISBET ANNOUNCES MEET OF SP TOMORROW

Party May Pick More Candidates At 7:30 In Phi Hall

Preston Nisbet, chairman of the Student party, announced that a party convention will be held tomorrow night at 7:30 in the Phi hall of New East. He indicated last night that several important nominations may be made at this meeting.

"I am sure any student present at the freshman meeting earlier in the week would have been pleased at the enthusiastic and democratic methods used to name elections for class officers," Nisbet stated in pointing out that nominations were the choice of the class, only ratified by the general party convention.

Nisbet stressed the fact that there is no interference from upperclassmen in class elections and feels certain this method of selection has resulted in naming the best men.

Shedd Will Conclude Supper Forum Series Tomorrow Night At 6

Concluding this quarter's series of weekly supper forums, Dr. Clarence P. Shedd, professor of religion in higher education at Yale university, will speak tomorrow night at 6 o'clock in the small cafeteria on the University dining hall to members of the junior-senior YMCA and the YWCA.

Dr. Shedd will talk about developments and trends of the Student Christian movement in this country. The speaker is visiting several southern colleges on this trip south and is making a study of the organization of religious activities on a number of campuses. He will remain in Chapel Hill tomorrow and Tuesday, meeting with students and faculty members.

All juniors and seniors are invited to hear Dr. Shedd speak. They are to purchase their suppers in the main dining hall and take them into the small cafeteria.

Art Exhibition To Open Today In Person Hall

The third annual North Carolina Artists exhibition to be sponsored by the Person hall art gallery will open at the gallery today, and continue through March 25.

A gallery lecture by Russell T. Smith will be given this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The gallery will be open from 10 to 1 o'clock and from 2 to 5 o'clock on week days and from 2 to 5 o'clock on Sundays.

58 WORKS CHOSEN

Fifty-eight works by 34 artists were chosen from 139 works by 50 artists that were submitted. The jury selection was composed of Russell T. Smith, head of the art department; Francis Speight, noted painter, formerly of Windsor, now instructor at the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts in Philadelphia; and Ethel Williams, director of the Wilmington Museum of Art.

There will be 34 oil paintings, 14 water colors and several drawings, prints and sculptures shown.

BOOTH COMEDY WILL BE REPEATED TOMORROW NIGHT

'Kiss The Boys Goodbye' To Play In Theater Again

As Cindy Lou Bethany became campus talk and students voiced a popular demand to find out what it's all about, the Carolina Playmakers announced a repeat performance of "Kiss the Boys Good-bye" for tomorrow night at 8:30.

John W. Parker, director of the show and Playmakers business manager, said the extra showing was decided upon as requests for tickets kept pouring in after every seat had been sold for the Saturday night performance.

The sparkling Clara Boothe comedy was played from Wednesday through Saturday nights to packed houses. All seats for Friday night had been sold in advance and crowds were turned away at the boxoffice.

BEST OF SEASON

Yesterday's DAILY TAR HEEL proclaimed "Kiss the Boys Good-bye" the best major Playmaker production of the current season. It makes a bid for that distinction with smart dialogue, swift pacing, accomplished acting, and brilliant sets and costumes.

In the leading roles of "Kiss the Boys" are Miss Catherine Mallory, as Cindy Lou, a daughter of the old South; Weider Sievers, as a Hollywood producer; Miss Elizabeth Carr, as a motion picture queen; Bobby Hedgecock, as the editor of a sophisticated magazine; George Wilson, as a newspaper publisher; and Adrian Spies, as a left of center columnist.

Tickets for the show will be on sale tomorrow at 316 South building or at Ledbetter-Pickard stationery store.

News Briefs

By United Press

BERLIN, March 2 — German high command admits loss of 20 naval vessels in six months of warfare, but in a special communique joins with the official press in emphasizing that German armed forces are ready to strike a crushing blow at the Allied powers. The Nazi press states that Germany is ready to strike for victory whenever the Fuehrer gives the signal.

WASHINGTON—President Roosevelt returns to the capital tonight with plans for practical participation by several Latin-American governments in the military and naval defense of the Panama Canal and part of a program for western hemispherical security. The president indicates the need of a long range canal defense program to include the establishment of several outlying naval and air operating bases from which sea and air patrols could be maintained to intercept attacks against the canal.

WASHINGTON—President Roosevelt says the measure doubling the fund of the export-import bank opens the way for an immediate 20 million dollar loan to Finland for non-military purposes.

HELSINKI — A war communique reports that Finnish troops have thrown back Red army attacks in Denmark.

Lange Captures Crown In First Year At Helm

By SHELLEY ROLFE

MEMORIAL AUDITORIUM, Raleigh, March 2.—Turning on all its power, both offensively and defensively,

Carolina crushed and humiliated a Duke team that was never in the game, 39-23, tonight to win the Southern conference basketball championship. It was the first Phantom title since 1936 when they beat W&L in the finals and the third since the Southern conference split up and the tournament was moved to Raleigh in 1933.

George Glamack pitched the Phantoms to triumph in the final game of the season and tournament just as he had done in every battle leading up to this big one during the tourney and the regular season. The man who has captivated the crowds as few cage performers in past tournaments, pitched in 18 points and there was nothing Duke could do to stop this machine who keeps making marker after marker, game after game. Eddie Cameron, seeing the championship fleeing away before his eyes, tried Chuck Holley on George; he used Clyde Allen—and still there was no way of halting Glamack.

Coach Bill Lange of the Phantoms supplied the answer. He removed Glamack from the game through most of the second half. The game had been won by then and the Tar Heel boss-

SPRING QUARTER REGISTRATION TO BEGIN MARCH 8

March 16 Set As Closing Date For Enrollment

Registration for the Spring quarter will begin Friday March 8 and continue through March 16, I. C. Griffin, director of the Central records office, announced yesterday.

The regular hours for registration will be from 9 to 5 o'clock, but registration will close at 1 o'clock on Saturdays. Depending on the length of the registration lines, the tally desk may on some days be closed before 5 o'clock.

Registration for new students will begin on March 25, following the holidays, and will continue until April 1. During this time changes may be made in the schedules, but after the first of April, no changes will be allowed.

It was announced by the graduate school yesterday that the graduate students will not begin their registration until March 11.

C. P. Spruill, dean of the General College, reported that all freshmen and sophomores who had one unsatisfactory and a failing grade on the midterm reports and those who at the last minute receive notice that a grade might be a failing one are requested not to register until after the holidays.

All student accounts with the library, infirmary, and cashier must be paid in full before registration. Students who have accounts with any of the departments of the University are urged to attend to the matter as soon as possible so that there will be no delayed registration.
