SP To Complete Nominations Tonight

PARTY TO SUPPORT COED NOMINATION FOR SECRETARY

Tonight's Session Begins At 7:30 In New East Hall

By CHARLES BARRETT

Student party delegates will climax pre-election activity in one full sweep tonight with nomination of all remaining candidates—including the chairman and entire membership of the student legislature, secretary of the senior class, and editor of the Yackety Yack.

Chairman Preston Nisbet last night estimated "well over 100" representatives, possibly the largest political assembly ever held on the campus, would be on hand for tonight's session, beginning at 7:30 in Phi assembly hall. Action will include four precedents in campus politics:

COED GROUP

1 A representative group of six delegates from each coed dormitory will select a candidate for secretary of the senior class, and this candidate will receive full support from the Student party.

2 The student legislature, comparatively new organ of campus government, will make its full debut into general elections.

3 The party will decide its course in an entirely new situation concerning staff nominations—the result of the dual endorsement by the Yackety Yack staff of Byrd Merrill and Bill Broadfoot for editor.

DOZEN CANDIDATES

4 More candidates—a dozen of them—will be tossed into the political arena at one time than ever before by the Student party.

Nisbet last night said this convention probably would conclude general sessions of the party for this year. "We will not meet again unless some unexpected issue develops," he said.

Scheidt Will Meet Accounting Majors

Edward Scheidt of the Federal Bureau of Investigation will meet accounting majors in the commerce school in 103 Bingham at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

He will present opportunities for accountants in this division of the government.

olina precedent by going three sets before defeating Ralph Dawson of Williams. Dawson became inspired or something in the second set, which he won 6-2, but the first and third were Anthony's, 6-1, 6-0.

BIG GALLERY

A full gallery stuck around to witness the doubles. Carrot-topped Co-Captains Rider and Rawlings started inconspicuously by dropping three games of the first set to Shonk and Johnson, but got in the mood at that point and finished with a 6-4 count. The second set was more like old times, and went to Carolina 6-2.

Meserole and Carver teamed in the next doubles, winning over Barnes and Hendrie 6-2, 6-3.

Everett and Robinson completed the whitewash by allowing Collins and Earle only one game in each of two sets. That would be 6-1, 6-1. It was wonderful.

with much power.

In the first extra-inning game of the season Phi Gamma Delta eked out a 6-5 victory over Chi Phi. The winners put on a brilliant rally to overtake a five-run lead and to win the game in the eighth inning on Parsley's single and B. Idol's double.

Town No. 1 opened its season with a hard-fought 5-3 victory over Town No. 2. The victors were forced to overcome a 3-run lead in order to win. Greenbaum, Weber, Katz, Fields, Levine and Goldhaber obtained hits for the winners while G. Perry, Perry, and Ellington obtained the losers' three hits.

In one of the closest battles of the day Phi Delta Theta No. 1 opened its season with a 4-1 victory over Alpha Chi Sigma. The winners capitalized on timely hitting and miscues by their opponents to take the game.

Student Union Presents Banker In First Of Guidance Speeches

Robert deRosset Has Led Active Financial Career

Robert deRosset

Robert deRosset, University alumnus who is now vice-president of the Security National bank in Raleigh, will speak on "Careers in Banking and Finance" tonight at 7:30 in the main lounge of Graham Memorial. Tonight's program will open the student union's spring quarter series of "Vocation for Today," which is designed to help students make a logical choice of occupations for future life.

A native of Wilmington, deRosset has had an active career in banking on two continents. For several years, he was affiliated with banks in South America. After attending the training school held by the National City bank of New York, he worked for Murchison's bank in Wilmington, and the National Security bank in Greensboro. In the last few years, he was transferred to his Raleigh post.

CIVIC LEADER

As a resident of Raleigh, he has been active in civic and University alumni affairs. He is treasurer of the Civic Music association in Raleigh and has been vice-president of the University Alumni association.

While in the University, deRosset was editor of the Yackety Yack, and was tapped by Golden Fleece, campus honorary society. At the end of his senior year, he was voted the most popular man in his class.

Pi Phi Sorority Elects Officers

Peggy Arnold, of Fort Bragg, was chosen president of the Pi Beta Phi sorority at its election meeting last night.

Other officers elected were: Elinor Elliott, of New York City, vice-president; Marjorie Davis, of Binghamton, N. Y., recording secretary; Martha LePevre, of Washington, D. C., corresponding secretary; and Eunice Patton, of Louisburg, and Dollie Erickson, of Waxhaw, S. C., censors.

Chi Omega To Play Dorm Baseball Team

Terrell Everett announced yesterday that Chi Omega sorority baseball team will play an all-dorm team on the coed field today at 4 o'clock. Girl's golf practice will be held at 5 today.

Sick Sniff Spring

Twenty-one patients sniffed spring through the infirmary windows yesterday afternoon. They were: Kenneth Gant, James Kirkpatrick, Hyman Leinwand, Bill Shore, Lenior Shook, Thomas Myers, Chuck Kline, Doris Clark, Virgil Nelson, William Wall, Frieda Bayroff, Hora Crewe, Joseph Shytle, Fleming Stone, Jack Hughes, Donald Patterson, Don Sagel, Frank Taylor, Alton Hamrick, Fred Berdan, John George and Truman Hobbs.

ting slump."

Hermson made his first official varsity appearance Tuesday against Cornell, caught two innings, singled and scored a run his only time at bat. Bob is the smoothest worker behind the bat but he has more pep, more drive than any other fellow on the squad. Jones is a sophomore. He started out as a third baseman, ran into Chollie Rich and Jimmy Howard and so was moved to catcher. Now Hearn is toying with the proposition that perhaps Popeye, who hits a long ball, is an outfielder.

George Stirnweiss will probably be catching before long if Hermson does not supply most of the answers behind the bat. Li'l George caught last summer in a Vermont semi-pro league. He began working behind the bat yesterday and Hearn will use him as soon as George gets more experience behind the plate. George is all for catching. His debut may come this weekend.—S. R.

Dr. Robert Dickinson, Marriage Authority, To Be Here April 9-12

Dr. Robert L. Dickinson of New York, internationally known medical authority and author on marriage and the family, will be one of the outstanding lecturers on the program of the sixth annual conference on Conservation of Marriage and the Family to be held here April 9-12. Dr. Ernest R. Groves, director said yesterday.

Although Dr. Dickinson has served on the staffs of many hospitals and is famous in the medical world for his work in obstetrics and gynecology, he is perhaps best known to the general public for his writings.

Editor of the American textbook of obstetrics, Dr. Dickinson is also author of "A Thousand Marriages," "Control of Conception," "Atlas of Human Sex Anatomy," "The Single Woman," and more than 200 published reports on obstetrics, diseases of women, and sex problems. He illustrates his own books.

A native of Jersey City, N. J., Dr. Dickinson graduated from Long Island Medical College in 1882. Following internship in the Long Island College Hospital, he became assistant obstetrician in 1884 and continued in this capacity until 1910. In 1886 he was made lecturer on obstetrics and in 1899 assistant professor of obstetrics. In 1885 he was made surgeon of the Brooklyn Police Department and from 1890 to 1897 was examiner for the Civil Service Commission.

Dr. Dickinson served as obstetrician in the Kings County Hospital from 1894 to 1899 and was made surgeon (gynecologist) by the Brooklyn Hospital in 1897. From 1910 to 1912 he served as gynecologist in that institution and as senior gynecologist-obstetrician from 1912 to 1935. He was also obstetrician in chief from 1905-1911 at the Methodist Episcopal, and is still consulting obstetrician there and at several other hospitals.

School Officials

Washington, who will give special courses in the University Summer Session here, will be the principal speaker on the afternoon program.

BRIEF REPORTS

District chairmen and special committees will give brief reports during the day.

Other features will include the presentation of a legislative program. The association has already adopted a retirement system as one of its legislative aims, and other planks will be considered at the meeting, Prof. Guy B. Phillips, executive secretary, said here today.

Debaters To Vie

versity during the past two quarters. He was speaker of the Phi Assembly last quarter and is now a member of the Student Legislature and the radio studio announcing staff.

A member of the debate squad, Moser debated last quarter and was alternate on the touring squad during the holidays. He is also a member of the Dialectic Senate.

GRAIL TO BEGIN SPRING DANCE SERIES SATURDAY

Dutch McMillan And Ambassadors To Hold Forth

Saturday night's Grail dance to be held in Woollen gym from 9 until 12 o'clock will be the first in a series of three dances to be held by the Order of the Grail during the spring quarter.

Dutch McMillan and his Duke Ambassadors, rated as one of the best college bands in the South along with Dean Hudson, will play for the opening dance. Members of the Grail are handling advance sale of tickets, and admission to the informal dance will be one dollar script.

The Duke Ambassadors have been organized for more than two years, and are originators of several original numbers and arrangements. They have been heard on this campus several times—last year at the Interdormitory dances, and last Saturday night at the Carolina inn where they played for the Kappa Alpha dance at which they were well received.

This weekend was selected for the dance since it figures as such an important one of all weekends in the spring quarter. Friday will see a tennis match with Cornell and a baseball game with Michigan, while Saturday Carolina will play a baseball game with Washington and Lee, have a track meet with Princeton, another tennis match with Cornell, and will be hosts to the South Atlantic fencing tournament.

lina, is also looking good in practice sessions.

All which brings us to the question of the status of Pounding Paul Severin. Paul will be on the course Friday bringing thumps of joy to Coach Chuck Erickson's heart, for the mentor considers him to have the best possibilities of any player in school. "Severin knows the game, has all shots at his command, and could drive with the best of the pros," Erickson said. "While he lacks the keenest touch on his pitching and putting, his long game is excellent, for Paul has excess power."

"THE FIELD GOD", BY PAUL GREEN, TO FEATURE MEET

Fifteen States Are Represented In Southern Meet

By DORIS GOERCH

Nine original plays and Paul Green's "The Field God" will be presented during the next three days in the regional theater festival, "Drama in the South," presented by the Playmakers in celebration of their twenty-first anniversary.

Delegates from 15 Southern states including Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi, North Carolina, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Texas, Tennessee, Virginia, and West Virginia will enter the playwriting and play production contests.

During the sessions this morning Archibald Henderson, Dr. Frank Porter Graham, and Dr. Frederick H. Koch will speak extending greetings to the delegates.

DISCUSSION

At 2:30 "College Theaters in the South" will be discussed by five leading dramatic directors, at leading southern universities.

A play, "Portrait of A Gentleman," will be the first original play presented and will be given by the Virginia Players from the University of Virginia.

At 5 o'clock the festival exhibit will be opened at Person Hall art gallery with an introductory address made by George Freedley curator of the Theater Collection of the New York Public Library.

Beginning at 8 o'clock three plays with backgrounds in Alabama, South Carolina, Oklahoma, and Georgia will be presented by dramatic groups from Alabama college, Dock Street Theater of Charleston, University of Oklahoma, and Mercer University of Georgia.

Wheeler Will Speak At Physics Meeting

Dr. John A. Wheeler of Princeton University, formerly a member of the physics department here, will address the Duke-Carolina Joint Physics colloquium in Phillips hall at 8 o'clock tonight on the topic "Electron Scattering."
