

Dr. Albert Beaven Will Deliver Baccalaureate Sermon

EDITORIALS:
Good Work
Front Page

The Daily Tar Heel

WEATHER:
Partly cloudy; colder

THE ONLY COLLEGE DAILY IN THE SOUTHEAST

VOLUME XLVIII

Business: 9887; Circulation: 9886

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., SUNDAY, APRIL 14, 1940

Editorial: 4356; News: 4351; Night: 6906

NUMBER 146

Sweet-Singing Visitors From Greensboro

The glee club of the women's division of the University of North Carolina appear here today at 5 o'clock for a concert in the lounge of Graham Memorial. It is the glee club's annual trip to Chapel Hill.

Woman's College Glee Club Sings In Graham Memorial

News Briefs

Admiralty Reports Narvik Liberated After Sea Battle

By United Press

LONDON, April 13.—The British, employing the weapon they know best—sea power—smash powerfully at Germany in Norway today. They claim to have liberated the port of Narvik from the Nazi invaders. The British admiralty sent the battleship "War Spite" and a force of destroyers which sank seven German destroyers in a successful battle for Narvik.

The British also claim to have inflicted heavy damage on Germany in air attacks on troop transports and supply ships in Nazi waters, on a Nazi airbase at Stavenger, Norway, and on ships and ammunition depots at Bergen.

King George assured King Haakon that the Allies were going to Norway's aid with all force and power.

BERLIN — The Germans claimed that the Norwegian invasion is proceeding rapidly and that British attempts to check them have failed utterly and that Nazi landing parties are reaching Norway on schedule and that the Allied mine fields in the Skagerak and North Sea constituted a defensive action necessitated by the British fleet's weakened condition. Nazis claim that since the start of the Norwegian invasion Sunday they have sunk 21 units of the British fleet and downed 34 Allied airplanes at a cost of only two German ships and 13 planes.

STOCKHOLM—Reports from neutral Sweden indicate that Norway is resisting strongly but that the Germans are powerful over the south and southeast now. German troops were said to have occupied Halden, five kilometers from the southeast border without resistance. Nazis were said to have landed reinforcements on the southern coast and had battles along the Glomma and elsewhere. It was reported that 30,000 Norwegian troops were pressing German forces at Narvik while the British "presumably landed or attempted to land."

WESTERN FRONT—Germans attempted surprise raid on an island in the Rhine where heretofore nothing more violent than a few machine gun encounters have occurred. East of the Moselle, according to the French, there were hot patrol fights.

PARIS—Preparing for the possibility of a great offensive in the west, Premier Paul Reynaud convoked his war committee of defense ministers and staff chiefs. Immediately after the committee meeting, Reynaud conferred with the Swedish minister to France and with the Belgian ambassador.

THE HAGUE—The Dutch served notice of their alertness to danger by extending the state of siege declared over part of the country last November to the province of Brabant and to parts of the north and east provinces.

WASHINGTON—President Roosevelt (Continued on page 4, column 8)

CLASS, PARENTS DAY SCHEDULED MONDAY, JUNE 10

Colgate-Rochester President To Open 145th Commencement

Dr. Albert W. Beaven, president of the consolidated Colgate-Rochester Divinity school, New York, will deliver the baccalaureate sermon at the opening of the University of North Carolina's 145th Commencement Sunday, June 9, it was announced here yesterday by Dean of Administration R. B. House.

Class Day and Parents' Day will be observed on Monday, June 10, while Tuesday will be Alumni Day and Graduation Day proper.

Dr. Beaven has been president and professor of practical theology at the Colgate-Rochester Divinity school since 1929. In 1928 the Rochester Theological Seminary of which he is a graduate and the Theological Seminary of Colgate University were consolidated.

A graduate of Shurtleff College, Illinois, and of the Rochester Seminary, Dr. Beaven was pastor for twenty years of the Lake Avenue Baptist Church of Rochester, N. Y., one of the outstanding churches in the country. During his pastorate he specialized on the relation to home and family life, and he is not only the author of books in this field but has spoken frequently on this subject.

He has been honored by the degree of Doctor of Divinity from three educational institutions—Shurtleff, 1919; University of Rochester, 1920, and McMaster University, 1931—and also by the degree of Doctor of Laws from Hillsdale College, 1930.

BAPTIST

Dr. Beaven is widely active in denominational affairs, having twice been first vice-president of the North Baptist Convention, and was president of the Convention in 1930-1931. For three years he was also president of the New York Baptist State Convention. He is a member of the Board of Managers of the Board of Education of the Northern Baptist Convention, chairman of the Board of Managers of the American Baptist Home Mission Society, and first vice-president of the Baptist World Alliance (1934-39). He was a member of the Commission sent by the American Baptist Foreign Mission Society to the Orient in 1927.

He is also active in interdenominational affairs, having been president of the local Federation of Churches in Rochester, of the New York State Council of Churches, and recently, of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America.

Dr. Beaven has been university preacher at Yale, Cornell, Duke, the University of Chicago, the University of Iowa, the University of Idaho, Wil-

(Continued on page 4, column 5)

CP Completes Slate; Chooses Gene Williams For PU Board

GRUBBS ASSERTS PARTY POLITICS OVER-EMPHASIZED

Candidate Outlines Faults In Current Government Set-Up

Reddy Grubbs, Carolina party candidate for president of the student body, last night released a short declaration, setting forth his reasons for running and enumerating what he believes to be faults in the present system of student government on the campus.

Grubbs declared that this announcement was not in any way a campaign platform, but merely an indication of his feelings.

The statement follows: "Accepting the nomination by a group so sincere in purpose as the Carolina party and its organizers was indeed a pleasure. I am happy to know that there are no political strings or obligations, that there is and would be nothing but capabilities to influence in the selection of important student body committees, such as the Student Advisory committee, the Student Audit board, and the Student Entertainment committee. Few students realize the full importance and authority of these groups and if one would stop to investigate such they would be amazed to find how much they are individually affected by the functions of these committees.

AIMS "The aim of all organizations, such as the student council, the student legislature, the DAILY TAR HEEL, the Interdormitory council, Interfraternity council, University dance committee, etc., should be to perform functions which will directly benefit the campus and not a few selfish individuals who serve on various committees representing these groups, and who are striving for their own betterment. Your student body president exercises no direct control over these groups, but can use his influence to a good advantage.

"At times, to my deepest regret, I have seen decision-rendering groups fall far short of their objectives and completely shatter their self-imposed standards of student government, only because they were controlled by cliquish sets within the group.

PARTY POLITICS

"It is my most sincere desire to see the day at Carolina when party politicians are only a small part of student government, rather than student government a large part of politics."

(Continued on page 2, column 2)

Woman's Association Will Meet Tuesday

The Woman's association will meet in Gerrard hall Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Candidates for the Woman's association offices will be introduced and petitions for further nominations accepted. The date and place of elections will be set. Means for nomination and election of May Queen will be discussed.

Gene Williams

... PU Board ...

FIVE BROADCASTS PLANNED FOR WEEK BY CAMPUS STUDIO

Radio Playmakers Go On National Hook-Up Saturday

The Glee Club of the Women's College will go on the air through the University radio studio this afternoon over the Southern Broadcasting System at 3 o'clock.

Highlighting the week of broadcasts the Carolina Playmakers of the Air will present a radio adaptation by Bob Finch of Loretta Carol Bailey's "Strike Song" over a national network of Mutual Broadcasting stations. North Carolina studios carrying the program are: WRAL, WAIR, WSTP, WFTC, WGTN.

Emanating from the campus studio in Caldwell hall the presentation takes the air at 3:30 Saturday afternoon for half an hour.

DI ON AIR

Tomorrow night at 8:30 the Dialectic Senate will give a program in drama form, as part of the "Know Your University" series, in an effort to show the work of this campus organization. The Tar Heel Network will carry the feature over WSJS and WBIG.

A second "KYU" presentation by the Botany department will be broadcast Tuesday night at 8:30 over the Tar Heel Network with the addition of WDNC to the chain.

Recitals by Jan Philip Schinhan, organist and E. W. Zimmermann, pianist, originally scheduled for April 11, will be broadcast Thursday night at 8:30 over station WPTF in Raleigh.

New Party Leaves Several Vacancies On Election Ticket

By DICK YOUNG

With the announcement of Gene Williams, recently selected editor of the 1940 freshman handbook, as candidate for senior representative to the PU board the Carolina party yesterday completed its entire slate of officers, leaving vacant the office of secretary of the senior class, secretary-treasurer of the student body, chairman of the legislature, and representative-at-large and junior representative to the Publication union board.

Williams, whose home is in Winston-Salem, has been a member of the DAILY TAR HEEL staff for two years, last year serving as night sports editor and this year as reporter. He was last year associate editor of the freshman handbook. He is at present a member of the twenty-five man student committee which is investigating the honor system and student government on the campus. He is a member of Phi Gamma Delta social fraternity, having served as an officer of this group for two years. During his freshman year, he was a member of the friendship council, and during his years at Carolina has had a scholastic average of 94.

McLEMORE SPEAKS

Bob McLemore, chairman of the CP, released the following statement concerning the objectives of the party:

"The Carolina party was organized as a reform party in an attempt to remedy the many evils existing in the present electoral system. It is grati-

(Continued on page 4, column 6)

GRADUATION BID PURCHASING SLOW

Only Six More Days To Buy Invitations

Co-chairman Buddy Nordan and Mac Nesbit of the commencement invitation committee said yesterday that only six more days are left in which graduating students can buy their invitations to commencement.

"In spite of the fact that invitations are cheaper this year and are made of a much better quality, the fact remains that only less than one percent of the senior class have purchased invitations," Nordan stated yesterday.

Bids will be on sale between 10 and 11 in the mornings and from 2 to 5 in the afternoon at the Book Exchange.

Wiley Will Speak At Bull's Head Tea

Professor W. L. Wiley of the department of Romance languages will speak at the Bull's Head tea Wednesday afternoon at 4:15 o'clock in the staff room of the library. He will review "Verdum" by Jules Romains and will discuss the series, "Men of Good Will."

Congressmen Will Be Present For Burton Wheeler's Speech

Plans Progress For CPU Birthday Here On April 23

With a complete Congressional delegation on hand to hear Senator Burton K. Wheeler's speech, the Carolina Political Union is rapidly completing arrangements for its fourth anniversary celebration April 23, Chairman Harry Gatton announced yesterday. The Montana Senator's address is scheduled to be carried over a nationwide coast-to-coast hook-up of the Columbia Broadcasting system.

The birthday party is slated to begin at 6:30, when Julian Price, president of Jefferson Standard Life Insurance company, will give a dinner in the Carolina Inn for the visiting representatives and senators and the members of the union. The program

(Continued on page 4, column 2)

Graham Memorial Will Give Social For Town Students

Town students will have a social tomorrow night at 9 o'clock in Graham Memorial with a program of skits, music and women as the feature attractions with refreshments in the union concluding the festivities.

Pat Winston will give a short skit and Bob Berbert and crew will satirize electioneering with a violent picturization of poll propaganda.

Nominees to the student legislature from among the town boys will be introduced after which refreshments will be served in Graham Memorial. All town resident students and their friends have been extended invitations to attend.

Concert To Include Work Of Classical, Modern Composers

The Woman's College Glee club will present its second annual concert here this afternoon at 5 o'clock in the main lounge of Graham Memorial. The program will be a regular concert on the student union's Sunday afternoon series.

This afternoon's presentation will include a variety of selections by both classical and modern composers. Among the composers whose works will be sung by the Greensboro girls are Mendelssohn, Byrd, Cruger-Mueller, Brahms, Marquis of Blandford, Biersak, Schubert-Saar, Lvoffsky, and Copland.

Paul Oncley, who is director of the Glee club, will sing a baritone solo of "To Music" by Schubert-Saar, while Madelyn Schultz will give a rendition of "Prayer of the Norwegian Child" by Kountz-A Oncley. Emogene Clark

(Continued on page 2, column 2)

AMATEUR SHOW SET FOR TUESDAY

Bowles Orchestra To Furnish Music

With Skipper Bowles and his orchestra furnishing the musical background, the final amateur show of the year will be presented in the main lounge of Graham Memorial Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, impresario Vance Hobbs announced yesterday.

Hobbs said yesterday that he was still seeking talent to complete the bill, but added that he had already obtained "Gibson Jackson, the Savannah Squire, who will give his interpretation of Fu Manchu on the piano, and a key-board tickler who is sponsored by Doris Goerch and Mary Ann Koonce." "I will give a two beer reward to the man who can locate a ventriloquist who was last seen wandering through the lower

(Continued on page 2, column 6)

Sound And Fury Musical Show Will Be Presented On May 7, 8

Entertainment Series Sponsors "One More Spring"

The Sound and Fury musical comedy, "One More Spring," will be presented to the campus May 7 and 8 as the third student entertainment of the spring quarter. Parts in the show were assigned last week and rehearsals have been under way for the past few days.

Although the important roles have already been cast, Director Carroll McGaughey announced that there are still several smaller speaking parts left and an ample opportunity for anyone interested in chorus work, either singing or dancing, or the technical side of production such as scenery construction and lighting.

Unlike the Student-Faculty Jamboree, which McGaughey also directed, "One More Spring" will have a definite plot, locale and characters, with the songs and dances as an integral part of the story. The setting of the show is a college in a small southern town and the action involves the complications arising from a combination of campus politics and a dance weekend. One of the scenes is a ballet, similar to the Grail Dance ballet in the Jamboree, which will satirize collegiate politicking and voting.

FEMININE LEAD

Instead of the traditional solitary feminine lead, "One More Spring" has four—Marjorie Johnston, Jane Rumsey, Virginia Worth and Frances Gibson. Jack Page, Jim Byrd and Sanford Stein wrote the music and words for 12 original songs, each of which will be sung by one of the leads, either solo or with a chorus background. Marjorie Johnston and Bob Smith, who play the heroine and hero, sing

(Continued on page 4, column 3)