

Tar Babies Meet Wolfcubs At Raleigh Today

Carolina Men Are Advanced In Tournament

HOT SPRINGS, Va., Oct. 10. — Few matches of interest took place today as early rounds in the doubles were played. Alex Guerry advanced in both the men's doubles and mixed doubles and tomorrow he will play in the semi-finals of the men's singles and quarter finals of both doubles.

In today's games Carver defeated Minogue of Muhlenberg College and Buchanan of Virginia, while Everett defeated Axelson of Wagner college. Carolina drew a bye in today's doubles.

March Wins First In AAU Pentathlon

Harry March, Iron Horse of the Carolina track team last spring, ran in the National AAU Pentathlon championships at Philadelphia last Sunday and, in defeating Defending Champion John Borican, rolled up 2,981 points, only 23 points short of the American record.

March was far ahead of the Elberon, N. J. Negro who won the AAU title in 1938 and '39, and competed in events which are not among his specialties. The pentathlon is a meet in which all-around track stars compete in five events and are graded according to quality of performance. The pentathlon and decathlon, consisting of ten events, are among the outstanding Olympic track contests.

March's performances were 4:50 in the mile, 146 feet in the javelin, 130 feet 3 inches in the discus, 22.3 seconds in the 220-yard dash, and an unrecorded distance in the broad jump.

March is to go to the Naval air school at Pensacola, Florida, next November 15, accompanied by Bill (Continued on page 4, column 3)

K Takes Dorm Lead By Win Over Ruffin

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS

Tag Football

Kappa Sigma, 19; DKE, 0.
K. No. 1, 20; Ruffin, 13.
ZBT, 6; St. Anthony Hall, 0.
SAE, 30; Phi Kappa Sigma, 0.
Lewis No. 1, 13; H, 0.

The ranks of the unbeaten were once again thinned yesterday afternoon, as previously unbeaten DKE, St. Anthony Hall, and Ruffin were the victims of Kappa Sigma, ZBT, and K No. 1.

The Kappa Sigs, led by Rose, Alexander, and Hambricht, scored three times on the Dekes, to cop the game, 19-0. Alexander, Neese, and Edwards tallied for the winners, and only the fine play of Hand, Hobbs, and Patterson for the losers prevented a larger score.

The highlight game of the dorm league saw a fighting K No. 1 team seize the lead in that league, as it notched its third decision by downing a strong Ruffin aggregation, 20-13. Miller, Morgan, and Flint led the winners in scoring, with Briggs and Shook the mainstays for the losers.

St. Anthony Hall received its first setback of the season as it dropped a 6-0 decision to ZBT. Stein tallied the only score of the game, as the winners received the ball on the St. Anthony one-yard line as the result of a penalty, and scored on the next play. The Torrey boys, Staples, and Harvey played well for the losers, and Edwards and Finkel starred for ZBT.

Turning on its much vaunted power, SAE administered a sound trouncing to Phi Kappa Sigma as it piled up five touchdowns for a 30-0 win. Grainger scored twice for the winners, and was outstanding, as were Glenn and Strange. Byerly and West played well for the losers.

Kickoff This Afternoon At Three O'clock

By Jack Saunders

The answer to an often-asked query will be provided today when Jim Tatum's freshman gridders trot out on the turf of Riddick stadium in Raleigh at 3 o'clock to do battle with the reputedly wonder team of State College frosh. That question is "Do the yearlings have it?" and by dark tonight the story will be told for in the Wolfcubs the Tar Babies face a very formidable and competent foe.

The highly-praised State machine already has one contest in the record books. Presbyterian junior college fell, 53-0, and the Raleigh men weren't even winded.

Although the UNC yearlings have been working out only two weeks and four days, the coaching staff feels confident that the squad has come far and is in good condition. Carolina will be the underdog, but in the words of Coach Tatum, "State'll know that they've been in a ball game."

Final preparations yesterday consisted of a careful check of offensive assignments, and finishing works on defense. Assignments were checked and double-checked, for in the lineup are several men who are playing positions entirely new to them.

The starting list shows, at ends, Jack Hussy, 190-pounder from High Point, and Craven Turner, All-State flankman from Raleigh. Tackles are Thomas Byrum, 185, Porter Prep product, and big Marshall Parker; guards, Jack Begly, 215, and Vance McGirt, another All-State from Hamlet; center, Tom Lytle, from Asheville. ## Clemson-Wake Forest Contest May Decide Conference Champ

Only Two More Loop Teams Will Meet In Conference Games

Although the Southern conference football season is only three weeks old, the outcome of the Clemson-Wake Forest game in Clemson tomorrow may ultimately decide the 1940 conference champion.

Since Wake Forest is the only conference team that meets Clemson, Duke and North Carolina, the only elevens figuring materially in the conference pre-season outlook, either the Deacons or the Tigers will have a good opportunity to take the loop crown.

Both Clemson and Wake Forest are undefeated now and the battle tomorrow will knock one of them from the nation's select list which grows smaller every Saturday. A tie is unlikely.

The Deacons enter the game crippled with the loss of John Jett, towering end, and Pat Preston, 195-pound left tackle. Jett has been confined to the Wake Forest infirmary with the flu and will likely be out for about two games. Preston suffered a bruised leg in the Furman game and has been unable to attend any practice sessions this week.

The Deacons haven't forgotten the 20-7 lacing they took last year at the hands of the Tigers, and will be out to avenge the defeat with the strongest team they have had in years.

Both clubs are well-stocked with backfield stars. Wake Forest has (Continued on page 4, column 1)
