Editorials

· Our Better Institutions • CVTC Ushers Out Take This Chance

VOLUME L

Business: 9887; Circulation: 9886

THE OLDEST COLLEGE DAILY IN THE SOUTH

The Daily Tar Beel

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., SATURDAY, JANUARY 10, 1942

Editorial: 4356; News: 4351; Night: 6904

NUMBER 72

Headlines

· PU Board Appoints Hobbs

· Chinese Smash Jap Forces

Plans Complete for Latins

Chinese Deliver Phys Ed Registration To Be Completed Today Smashing Defeat cation registration will be this morning in Woollen Gym 308 between 9 and 1 o'clock. Those failing to report will

To Jap Forces

President Roosevelt Moves to End Civilian Defense Controversies

By United Press

CHUNGKING-Chinese troops pressed with renewed fury into largest city with the same relentless tactics used to rout them at Latin Visitors Changsha, 350 miles to the north, the High Command said.

CHANGSHA-"Tombs of the unknown invaders" were ordered built today to hold the bodies and ashes of some 21,000 Japanese

Journalists To Meet Here

Lippman to Speak Before Association

Walter Lippmann, noted newspaper columnist, lecturer and author, and slaughtered by Chinese forces who sent them reeling back from Changsha in one of the worst Nipponese defeats of the present conflict.

Japanese bodies, 15 to 70 in a pile, strewed the suburbs to the north and east, where farmers said the Japanese had cremated as many as 300 bodies Institute as final arrangements near at a time before their retreat.

WASHINGTON-President Roosevelt today moved to end stormy con- date of arrival, it is hoped by Institute keen analyst of international affairs, troversy over the Office of Civilian and Pan-American officials that the will be the principal speaker at the Defense by dividing its administration boats will dock Monday afternoon. opening session next Thursday night between the present director, Mayor

Plans Settled For Carolina's

of the physical education department announced yesterday.

Officials Hope Guests Will Dock Monday Afternoon

By Bob Levin

sire to insure the success of the second completion for the welcoming of the Latin American delegation.

Although mystery still shrouds the

Leigh Skinner, manager of the Car-

In this manner we will be able to better dents.

accommodate them by serving dishes

of their own choice. From time to time

special foods will be prepared for their

The Law department has not yet

tion of any of the South Americans

worked out definite plans for instruc-

interested in Law but has announced

that all regular lectures and courses

Mr. Roland Parker, assistant dean of students and member of the Institute important meeting this morning in which arrangements will be completed designed to aid them personally.

Headed by Dr. Jose Jimenez Boya, of the annual North Carolina News- Fiorello H. LaGuardia, of New York, Professor of Spanish grammar and lected by the committee on the basis paper Institute to be held at Carolina James M. Landis, dean of Harvard literature at San Marcos University, of a consistent well-groomed and well-Law School, and veteran New Deal Lima, Peru, the West coast delegation dressed appearance.

PU Board Appoints Hunt Hobbs Last opportunity for physical edu-ation registration will be this morn-To Serve as Acting Editor be placed on class probation or dropped from the course with an F, Doc Siewert Of Carolina's Humor Magazine

Sartorial Splendor

With Seeman's Student Committee Named To Pick UNC's 'Best Dressed' FinalProposals

By Billy Webb

Opening the Esquire-supervised contest to select Carolina's sartorial king, the Daily Tar Heel yesterday appointed a representative student body committee with Bill Schwartz, business manager, as chairman to select the first ten candidates for the royal title.

It was explained that individual students might nominate fellow students Campus organizations and depart- for the title, by submitting the permental heads are signifying their de- son's name to the business office of the Daily Tar Heel by 2:30 Monday winter "summer school" by swinging afternoon. Schwartz said that any stubehind leaders of the Inter-American dent who receives 12 nominations will be considered by the committee. "No student who is interested and believes he has a chance should hesitate to enter merely because he was not selected by the committee. We are nominating the ten candidates to start the ball rolling," Schwartz said.

The first ten candidates will be se-

Plans to Unite Campus Magazines Vetoed by Group

BoardComplies

The Publications Union Board, officially accepted Bill Seeman's resignation as editor of the campus humor magazine, Tar An' Feathers yesterday, and following the final recommendations of Seeman and the Editorial Board appointed Hunt Hobbs as acting editor. The appointment does not fall under the jurisdiction of the Student legislature.

Hobbs will act as Editor for the remainder of the year in place of Seeman, who left school to serve as a CAA instructor at the local Horace Williams airport. A junior, majoring in South American affairs, Hobbs worked on "The Buccaneer" for one year and until his appointment had been literary editor of the new Tar an' Feathers. Two Mags Will Not Combine TheT&F will definitely not be combined with the Carolina Mag, main literary publication this year, G. I. Kimball, president of the PU Board, announced yesterday, thus squelching rumors to that effect. Kimball said it would be impractical because of the advertising commitments of the two magazines. However, the PU Board will investigate the facts of the case, but will See HUNT HOBBS, page 4 and Duke through Saturday morning.

The complete program was announced yesterday for the first time.

Other prominent headliners include Josephus Daniels, publisher of the Raleigh News and Observer and former Ambassador to Mexico; Paul Patterson, publisher of the Baltimore Sun Papers; Raymond B. Howard, President of the National Editorial Association; and William L. Daley, Washington representative of the National Editorial Association.

The first session is scheduled for 7:30 o'clock in Hill Music hall Thursday night, with President Frank P. Graham giving the address of welcome, and President Ed Anderson responding. Dr. Julian Miller, Editor of the Charlotte Observer, will introduce Lippmann.

A breakfast for Association presidents, honoring Daniels, who was the eighth president of the body, is scheduled for Friday morning, after which clinics for dailies and weeklies will be conducted with Carl Jeffress, Greensboro, and Harvey Laffoon, Elkin, and Clarence Griffin, Forest City, presiding.

Talbot Patrick of Goldsboro will tell See JOURNALISTS, page 4

316

troubleshooter.

WASHINGTON-The zero hour in the battle of the Philippines appeared War Department prohibits announce- of the total votes." ment of arrival. at hand tonight as hordes of Japanese troops paused for a grand scale assault against General Douglas Mac- olina Inn, official hostelry for the sum-Arthur's brave but outnumbered de- mer school students, said that all is in fenders in mountain-studded Pataan readiness for their arrival. "We plan peninsula and Corregidor fortress. to feed them on an individual basis this year instead of the regular group plan.

CAIRO-British mobile columns, See NEWS BRIEFS, page 4

Esquire Art Exhibit Features Fashion Show

E. Simms Campbell's flimsily-clad harem girls and other Esquire cartoons, principally concerned with college life and authentic university fashions, will be shown in a selected exhibition of current drawings in the lounge of Graham Memorial beginning Sunday.

The exhibit is a feature of the contest conducted by Esquire and the Daily Tar Heel to choose Carolina's best-dressed undergraduate.

enjoyment."

Fred Broad, president of the YMCA announced that the Y is going to work men who have changed residence or telin connection with other campus groups in order "to better acquaint the visitors with the Carolina way of life" and that more definite plans would be com- lows: pleted during the first of next week. Interest is varied among the Latins. Two are studying Public Health, three are majoring in Education, two are lawyers, one is a history student and See SUMMER SCHOOL, page 4

Humor Mag Office Has All the Comforts

"It is cold as hell outdoors these days. The Tar an' Feathers office is warm. It has all the comforts of home: one window, one radiator, one telephone, an ashtray, a spitoon, and gobs of beautiful coeds perched around at interesting angles. There are even magazines lying around, full of dirty jokes, the kind that Tar an' Feathers doesn't print. Doesn't this sound enticing? Writers are especially welcome. If you have the courage to write a thank you note to your Aunt Minnie for that Christmas present you returned, you can write for Tar an' Feathers. If you have talent, ideas, or just hopes, a cautious knock at the door will find the editor in any afternoon this week. Drop in. And bring your own cigarettes," Hunt Hobbs, newlyappointed editor of the humor mag, quoth yesterday.

Although coeds are not in the comset sail two weeks ago on a Grace Steamship Liner with five other mem- petition, Schwartz stated, "it is exbers of the Peruvian group but the pected that they will cast a large share

> Other members of the committee include Bill McKinnon, president of the senior class; John Thorpe, president of the Interfraternity council; Mary Caldwell, president of the Woman's Government association; Mel

BILL SCHWARTZ, DTH business manager who was selected as chairman of the committee to select Carolina's best dressed man.

Playmakers Jordan, president of the town stu-On Air Today Mann Announces Group Will Present Students Accepted

For CAA Training "The Lost Colony," Paul Green's great American pageant, will be broad-W. R. Mann, airport manager, ancast by the Carolina Playmakers of the will be open and full use of the library nounced yesterday that the following Air from the campus studios in Caldwill be emphasized. General consensus students have been considered as favorwell hall over the Mutual Broadcasting is to wait until they arrive and then able CAA flight candidates. Minimum System this afternoon at 3:30.

Green's 'Lost Colony'

work out a special series of courses scholastic requirements are 30 semest-Initiating the series of Carolina er hours or 45 quarter hours, he said. Physical examinations will be given Playmakers of the Air coast-to-coast Saturday afternoon broadcasts entitled at the infirmary Monday night at 7 Functioning committee, scheduled an o'clock. However, preliminary checks "Men In Action," Josephine Niggli's will be made between now and then and radio adaptation of the famous drama will be heard in North Carolina over men listed below should stop by infirm-Mutual's affiliates WBBB and WRAL, > Classes will start Monday, January and throughout the nation on 190 Mu-12, at 1 o'clock in 108 Bingham. Any tual stations.

The eight plays to be broadcast on the "Men In Action" series have been written by such established literary

Students listed by Mann are as fol-Struthers Burt, and William Saroyan, John Beresford Emack, Jr., Winston by rising young playwrights Betty discussion of some particular historical Bangs Gunnels, John Dancy Richard- Smith, Noel Houston, and Josephina school of art.

son, Frederick Leroy Swindal, Benja-Niggli, and by campus playwrights min Loyall Taylor, John Denley Wal-Marion Gleason and Frank Brink. The ker, Bradly Cromer Wyrick, William series has as its theme the founding Caldwell Young, Harold William Lloyd, and growth of American freedom and

See PLAYMAKERS, page 4

New Section Opened In Military Science

Due to an unusually large number Ashby, Jr., Dickson McLean Regan, of registrations for Military Science John Price Kerr, Daniel Carlyle Willis; 41, a new section at 12 o'clock Mon-Lindsey D. Campbell, Ken Robert day, Wednesday and Friday has been opened.

Dr. Glen Haydon Reelected Head Of Music Group

Dr. Glen Haydon of the University Music department has been reelected president of the Music Teachers' National Association, which concluded its six-day convention in Minneapolis re-

Art Program Features Weekly Lecture Series

A new series of lectures on art appreciation, conducted by Dr. Clemens Sommer of the Art department, will be given every Tuesday from 7 to 8 o'clock in the evening through May.

Planned especially for an interested public, these lectures will consider art as an important part of the development of civilized man. Beginning with early Christian times and continuing chronologically, Dr. Sommer will include contemporary works of art towards the end of the series, illustratmen as Paul Green, James Boyd, ing each lecture with photographic slides. Every lecture will consist of a

> These lectures were begun mainly to satisfy public demand, through the efforts of Mrs. Paul White and Mrs. W. Caldwell. If possible, the course will become a permanent part of the curriculum.

Esquire Writer to Do DTH Fashion Column

William Bree, Jr., editorial representative of Esquire who is now in Chapel Hill supervising the bestdressed, best-groomed undergraduate competition, will write a column, "Backstage With Esquire," beginning next week, giving his first impressions of local scenes and fashion plates, to appear in the Tar Hell.

This feature of talking shop with Esquire will run in several issues.

Bree will be instrumental in reporting the complete story of the nation-wide contest which Esquire will present in a forthcoming college issue.

John Tillet, Jr., Dan Richardson Thomason, Townsend Stanley Holland, Jr., Patrick Calhoun, William Wallace Pearson, Franklin Dickinson Blanton, William Holladay Thornton, Roy Burgwyn Brown, William Franklin Brown, Percy Rudolph Ashby, Robert Edward

airport.

See CAA STUDENTS, page 4

ephone should report change to the

THE UNKNOWN CAROLINA MAN strolling with "Esky" will lose his blank appearance when he dons the $110 worth of clothes given in the Esquire-Daily Tar Heel best-dressed man contest by the following Durham merchants-Pritchard-Bright, Miller-Bishop, and Van Straaten. The clothes will be displayed beginning tomorrow at Foister's Photo Shop.

Directories Available

New students and transfers who have not received their directories may do so by going to the YMCA. "There is still an ample supply," Tempe Newsome said yesterday.

Dr. Glen Haydon

cently. Two Talks Scheduled The National Association of Schools For Mitchell Society of Music and the American Musicological Society met with the Association,

"Epidemiology of Schistosome Derand the combined event drew more than a thousand teachers and musicians matitis" by Sterling Brackett and "Methods of Study in North Carolina from all sections of the country. The theme of this year's convention Archaeology" by Joeffre L. Coe will be addresses given at the January was "American Unity Through Music," and Dr. Haydon sounded the keynote meeting of the Elisha Mitchell Scienin the featured president's address. tific Society.

"Music is a golden key to American See DR. HAYDON, page 4

The meeting will be held in Phillips hall, room 206, Tuesday night at 7:30.