

Sitterson Proud Of New Army Life

J. C. Sitterson, Assistant Professor of History who was recently inducted into the Army, is stationed at Camp Chaffee, Arkansas.

PLAYMAKERS

various experimental plays. As Raymond, he is a combination of Al Capone and Huckleberry Finn. His pranks cause much grief to the other characters but sometimes, quite unintentionally, he stumbles onto the right path.

FOR VICTORY: BUY BONDS

Keep your Spring outfit neat and clean. If you do this your clothes will stand up longer, and that's what we need in this time of emergency.

COMMUNITY CLEANERS

Seniors to Order Class Invitations

Orders for senior class graduation invitations will be taken at the Book Exchange beginning tomorrow from 2 to 5 o'clock every afternoon next week.

TRACK

developing into a real thriller. Bev Tucker of Virginia and Carolina's Frank Hardy took the first six laps of the affair, stride for stride with the Virginian coming in a pace behind Hardy.

Virginia's two-man gang, comprised of brothers Ken and Norm Rathbun, had a good day, placing in five events to score 14 markers.

All told, the Tar Heels, who face their most important test of the season against Duke at Durham next Saturday, looked improved, although the trail to a win over the Methodists is studded with obstacles.

NEWS BRIEFS

Sir Stafford Cripps, diplomats stated. GENERAL MACARTHUR'S HEADQUARTERS, Australia, April 11.—(UP)—Two new victories were tossed up today by United Nations flyers but Air Minister Francis M. Forde warned that even though the Allied positions in the Southwest Pacific were improving rapidly they must continue to organize if they have to meet "a very early full-scale Japanese attack."

Kaltenborn Plans Raleigh Engagement

H. V. Kaltenborn, noted commentator and news analyst, will speak at Raleigh, April 17, in Memorial Auditorium on war and world events.

HENDERSON

bitter denunciations from labor leaders, and Henderson, who purportedly lives in a constant fear of devastating inflation stuck to his guns.

During the boom days of the NRA Henderson defined his policies. He believes, he said, in free enterprise, in free competition. He believes that "we get ahead through more goods, and better goods at lower prices."

FROSH BOX SCORE

hit—Lee. Three base hit—Pupa. Home run—Morris. Hits off—Green 1 in 3 innings; Sparger 5 in 3; Webb 1 in 3; Sutton 5 in 4; Newell 2 in 1 and 1-3; R. Edwards 0 in 1; Booker 0 in 2-3; J. Edwards 4 in 1. Struck out by—Green 4; Sparger 1; Webb 2; Sutton 2. Bases on balls off—Green 2; Sparger 1; Webb 1; Sutton 1; Newell 3; R. Edwards 4; Booker 3. Wild pitch—Green, J. Edwards. Stolen base—Colones. Winning pitcher—Webb. Losing pitcher—J. Edwards. Umpires—Longest and Rabb.

CPU

have given the CPU-Emergency Committee program the unofficial nod through their presidents, but no official approval has yet been made public. Candidates may voluntarily take stands on the Emergency Committee's platform, according to Whitaker.

CPU Application Blanks Available

Application blanks for membership in the CPU will be available in the office of the YMCA until April 17. No previous applications will be accepted it was stated.

HOUSING

tions or may go together with one, two, or three others in making a reservation. The group arrangement, although considered as a single reservation, is charged the usual rate of $6.00 per student.

Deviating from the former practice of merely assigning rooms, students will be assigned spaces in dormitories. Choice of roommates may be made by joining with others in making reservations.

Administrative leaders hasten to state that since the total room charge will be divided among more students per room, it actually will be less for the individual occupant.

FRESHMAN RULING

Freshmen have been provided for in the setting aside of 274 spaces distributed throughout all the residences. The spaces will be combined into "Frosh" rooms and exclusively reserved for freshmen each year for "the duration."

On the basis of a recently made survey of available rooms in town, the housing committee head stated that over 2,000 students could be lodged outside of the dormitories. They survey indicates "excellent cooperation and no rent increases" on the part of the townspeople.

The business department released the following tabulation of room combinations in each of the eight residences; Steele, three occupants in every room; Old East and Old West, three rooms of one occupant each, 12 rooms of two occupants, 17 rooms of three occupants each, and 7 rooms of four occupants each; BVP, four occupants in each suite; Smith, 17 rooms with three occupants each, 13 rooms with two occupants, 9 rooms with 3 occupants, 6 suites with 4 occupants each; Archer house, seven rooms with one occupant each, four rooms with two occupants each, six rooms with three occupants each; and Whitehead, six rooms with one occupant each, 49 rooms with 3 occupants each, and six rooms with 4 occupants each.

On the basis of a recently made survey of available rooms in town, the housing committee head stated that over 2,000 students could be lodged outside of the dormitories.

On the basis of a recently made survey of available rooms in town, the housing committee head stated that over 2,000 students could be lodged outside of the dormitories.

FROSH TENNIS

dropping the initial game to the Duke man, and captured the match, 6-1, 6-0. A potent forehand flip shot with a terrific drive and a short chop shot in the forecourt were the chief weapons used by the No. 1 Carolinian in his win.

Frank Warren dealt out a 7-5, 6-2, win over Duke's Bob Bodle, and Wayne Rittenhouse of the visitors earned a 6-0, 7-5, 6-4 victory over Larry Cahall in the final singles engagement.

SHYTTLE

and is a two-year member of the Inter-dormitory council. Having lived with Gambill in Everett dorm for three years, Shytle stated that "his cooperation in dormitory work, his work as secretary of the University dance committee and assistant exchequer of the Grail makes Gambill well qualified for the position of secretary-treasurer of the student body."

SPONSORS

Mary Bohannon of Asheville with J. G. Carden; Miss Mary Lloyd Glidewell of Reidsville with Tom Smith; Miss June Mournie of Tarboro with Wiley Long; Miss Mildred Lee of Goldsboro with Sonny Boney; Miss Sally Orr of Monroe with Hill Wolfe; Miss Peeny Bernhardt of Lexington with Bobby Stockton; Miss Allie Bell of Pittsboro with Dewey Dorsett; Miss Patsy Miller of Augusta, Ga. with Bud Evans; Miss Mollie Ellis of Henderson with Hugh Cox.

MINCE MATTERS

and several other former trackmen were interested spectators at yesterday's Carolina-Virginia cinder meet. Fred was especially interested in the two-mile run—his specialty as a trackman. His brother—Frank—did a swell job until the final lap when Virginia's Tucker ran away from him.

Varsity Box Score

Table with columns for CAROLINA, HANES, Sizemore, B. Carter, H. Waggoner, Stone, Phelps, G. Carter, Stevenson, Poe, Boles, Owens, Crouch, Swain, xNelson, xxW. Waggoner. Rows show ab, r, h, o, a, e statistics.

x—batted for Crouch in 7th. xx—batted for Sizemore in 7th.

Score by innings: Carolina 200 010 000—3 Hanes 100 000 30x—4 Runs batted in—Johnson 2, G. Carter, Hussey, Nelson, H. Waggoner 2. Home run—Johnson. Two base hits—Hayworth, Hussey 2. Stolen base—Phelps. Double plays—Morris to Hayworth to Johnson; Honan, Hayworth, Gersten to Johnson. Bases on balls—off Crouch 3; off Whiteheart 5; off Benton 1. Struck out—by Crouch 4; by Whiteheart 4; by Swain 2. Hits off Crouch 6 in 7; off Whiteheart 5 in 7; off Benton 0 in 1; off Swain 2 in 2. Left on bases—Carolina 9; Hanes 6. Wild pitch—Whiteheart. Winning pitcher Crouch. Losing pitcher Whiteheart. Umpires—Walker and Richard. Time—1:35.

it happens here . . .

SUNDAY 3:00—WRAL, WAIR, WBBB. "The American People versus Martin Dies" will be the topic for discussion at the University Round Table. 7:30—Karl Marx club meets on second floor of Graham Memorial. 8:10—Men's Glee club meets on stage of Memorial hall. MONDAY 10:30—Dr. Frank Graham will speak at Memorial hall. 2:30—WDNC, WBIG. News of the week at Carolina. 2:45—Same stations. Dr. Keener C. Frazier speaks on "The Role of the United States in the New World Order After the War." 3:00—UNC-Catawba tennis matches. 4:00—UNC-South Carolina baseball game at Emerson field. 7:15—UNC Symphony orchestra rehearsal at Hill hall. 9:00—Free stump given candidates in Memorial hall.

CONFERENCE

lanta, in 1896, a position he has filled ever since. Dr. Marx has written many religious articles and school textbooks. He has spoken at universities and colleges all over the South. Conference Purpose The purpose of the conference, announced by Frank Williams and Cornelia Clark, co-chairmen, is to give the students and faculty an opportunity to think and talk about the function of religion today and the relationship between the individual's religion and his daily life.

The main part of the conference is the forums to be held in the men's and women's dorms and all fraternities. The forums, to be led by persons expert in the religious field, will give the students a chance to discuss their religious problems with competent persons.

The women's dorms are inviting two men's dorms each to join in the forum. The men's dorm house committees will conduct their fellow dorm members to the proper women's dorm. All fraternities will carry on as planned, with each fraternity inviting a guest leader, not yet announced. The program of the first two days this morning, 11 o'clock, local ministers will give sermons using text "Everyday Religion;" tonight, 8:30, Union service, Dr. Marx speaking on "A Religion that Works." Tomorrow morning, 10:30, University convocation, President Graham on "Everyman's Religion;" tomorrow night, 7:30, meeting in Memorial hall, Rev. Cowan, speaker on "The Wine of Astonishment;" 9 o'clock, forums in six women's dorms, for women only.

FROSH BASEBALL

smashed a long home run to left field in the sixth for the longest blow of the game. The work of the three Tar Baby pitchers was also notable. The trio gave up but seven hits, and with the exception of the lack of coordination in the infield in the fourth inning, none of the men were ever in serious trouble. Green retired four men via the strike-out route in his short sojourn on the hill.

BUY COAL NOW SUMMER CASH PRICES FITCH LUMBER CO. PHONE 7291

"George Washington Slept Here" OPENS WEDNESDAY, APRIL 15th BE SURE TO SEE IT CURTAIN 8:30 PLAYMAKERS THEATER Tickets Available Now At Ledbetter-Pickard and Swain Hall

PICK THEATRE SUNDAY

OCEANS OF FUN GOBS OF GIRLS SHIPLOADS OF STARS! THE FLEETS IN! LAMOUR HOLDEN BRACKEN JIMMY DORSEY and his ORCHESTRA featuring BOB EBERLY and HELEN O'CONNELL

Monday—LIONEL ATWILL MONA BARRIE in "THE STRANGE CASE OF DOCTOR RX" Tuesday—JOHN LITEL MARIE MONTEZ in "THE MYSTERY OF MARIE ROGET" Wednesday—JOEL MCCREA LARAINÉ DAY in "Foreign Correspondent" Thursday—GENE TIERNEY GEORGE SANDERS in "SUNDOWN" Friday—JOAN BLONDELL JOHN WAYNE in "LADY FOR A NIGHT" Saturday—FRANCES LANGFORD KENT TAYLOR in "MISSISSIPPI GAMBLER" Coming—JACK BENNY in "TO BE OR NOT TO BE"

Also—LATEST ISSUE OF "MARCH OF TIME" PARAMOUNT NEWS