

Red Benton Hurls 4-1 Victory Over Davidson

Tar Babies Crush Duke Frosh Nine, 11-4

Late Rally by Tatum's Club Produces Nine Runs for Win

By Bill Woestendiek

DURHAM, April 28.—For seven innings here today it looked as if the Duke yearling nine was going to hand the Carolina freshman club its second straight defeat, but the Tar Babies ran wild in the last two innings to score nine times and crush the Blue Imps under an 11-4 count.

It is Joe Green, fast ball right-hander of the Carolina club, to whom goes the laurel wreath for his performance here this afternoon. Joe was at his best today, and with the exception of a bad fourth inning, held the Dukes scoreless. The big Weldon hurler wove a four hit masterpiece, in giving the best frosh pitching demonstration of the season. He walked only four men, three of them in one inning.

Tar Babies Score in 8th

Trailing, 4-2, as they came up for the eighth inning, the Tar Babies opened up and proved their right to be called a hard-hitting ball club. Four hits mixed with two walks and a wild pitch accounted for five big runs. Don Calloway, playing his first game of the year led off the inning with a single to deep short. Don then stole second and Walt Pupa beat out a slow roller to second, Calloway advancing to third. Pupa stole second on the next pitch. Wideman clubbed a long fly to left and Calloway raced home after the catch. Ernie Hackney then beat out a high bouncer to short for the third infield hit of the frame.

Bob Parry replaced Jerry Damren on the hill for the Imps. Damren had been well-nigh untouchable during the first half of the game, but the Tar Babies started hitting him in the late innings. Parry had left his control in the clubhouse, however, and after walking Bill Lee and Grits Gresham to fill the bases, he threw one completely away and another run scored. Parry was immediately yanked and Joe Slotter was put on the hill for the Imps. Pitcher Joe Green, a hero all around today, then made sure of his own game by slugging a ground-ball double just inside the first base line to score two more runners.

Carolina Scores 4 in 9th

The Duke pitching blew sky-high in the ninth and the Tar Babies scored four times without getting a safe blow. Slotter and Frank Rombaugh, fourth Duke twirler, gave up four

The aforementioned Calloway was one of many Tar Babies who played a stellar game. Don tripled to deep left in the sixth inning to drive in Johnny Colones with the first Carolina score. He played a fine game afield, making a couple of difficult running catches.

Walt Pupa was another Carolina man with two hits. Walt singled home Calloway in the sixth and stole home in the second half of a double steal

Netmen Drop Davidson For 64th Straight Win

Wildcats Offer Tough Opposition But Lose, 7-0

By Mark Garner

Advancing a step nearer an undefeated season, the varsity tennis team yesterday handed Davidson's netmen a 7-0 shellacking on the local courts for its 64th straight victory.

The Wildcats exhibited a well-rounded team and turned in a good performance against the potent Tar Heels but it was just a matter of too much power.

The freshman tennis team will meet the State frosh on the local courts this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Vic Seixas, recent winner over Everett in the finals of the Pinehurst North and South tourney, will occupy the No. 1 slot for the Tar Babies.

The only match in which the home team had any trouble was the top doubles engagement when Davidson's Buck Archer and Gene Sutton extended Moyer Hendrix and Ab Cohen to three sets before the Carolina duo could take the match, 6-3, 5-7, 7-5.

The teams started off evenly with each holding service but in the seventh Hendrix and Cohen crashed through and gained a 4-3 advantage then took the set, 6-3. The visitors came back strong in the second series of games for a 7-5 win but the Tar Heel two-some forced the play and won the deciding set, 7-5. Long rallies featured the match as each pair would rush the net, be forced back on high lobs, then throw up a defensive lob from the back court before charging into the forecourt again.

Co-captain Harris Everett experienced considerable trouble in the first set winning from the visitor's top performer, Archer. Everett dropped the Wildcat star with a 8-6, 6-3 win. Archer showed an amazing talent for returning every ball on his side of the net

Everett, Henderson To Play Match For Navy Relief

A special tennis exhibition for the Navy Relief fund has been arranged between Harris Everett, No. 1 player on Carolina's varsity, and Archie Henderson, former Carolina net star. The match will be played tomorrow afternoon on the varsity courts at 3 o'clock.

In an added attraction Carolina's No. 1 doubles team of Everett and Ham Anthony will play Henderson and Vic Seixas, freshman star and recently crowned champion of the North-South amateur tourney at Pinehurst.

Henderson, whose home is here in Chapel Hill, is here on a furlough from the army. Everett, his opponent, is in the Naval Reserve aviation corps and is awaiting active call.

The exhibition is being sponsored and directed by John W. Umstead, head of the Navy Relief fund in Chapel Hill. There will be an admission charge of 35 cents, all funds going to the Navy Relief.

Golfers Meet Duke Today

Carolina's golfers will try for the second time this year to stop the onrush of the powerful Duke golf team this afternoon on the Hope Valley Country club course in Durham.

The Tar Heel linksman tried hard in the first meeting of the two clubs, but dropped a 16-11 decision to the Blue Devils. Coach Chuck Erickson's proteges are out to upset the mighty Duke golfers this afternoon. They came close the first time, but the Tar Heel athletes mean to come home with the bacon today.

The loss to Duke is the only defeat sustained by the Carolina linksmen this season. They have won four matches including the first defeat handed the Virginia team on its home course in three years.

Duke boasts several outstanding performers led by Grover Poole. Poole was the winner of the Southern Intercollegiate golf tourney in Athens, Ga. recently. Another Blue Devil golfer who was a star performer in the Southern was Bill Goldthorpe.

Leading the Carolina club is Dick Doeschler, the star sophomore. Doeschler has been the top performer for the Tar Heels in nearly every meet and in the Southern he went to the semi-finals before losing to Grover Poole, 2-1. Graydon Liles was also a victim of Poole in the Athens tourney losing 2-1 in the first round.

Alderman-Kenan Nosed Out, 5-4 By McIver-Archer

Taking an early lead in the first inning, the McIver-Archer softball team yesterday afternoon scored a 5-4 victory over Alderman-Kenan.

The winners collected four runs on three hits and three errors in their half of the first and then the game settled down to steady defensive playing.

Alderman-Kenan brought in Fauster in the first of the second inning, put two men on base, and then bowed out on a succession of pitcher to first put-outs. McIver-Archer came up to bat, scored one runner, Raney, for its final score.

Town and Chi O meet this afternoon at 5:00 on the coed field.

Fast Double Play Squelches Wildcat Rally in Seventh

By Harry Hollingsworth

A seven-hit pitching masterpiece by Red Benton, who notched his fifth victory of the year, and a beautifully-executed double play were the big factors in Carolina's 4-1 triumph over Davidson here yesterday on Emerson field. It was the Tar Heels' eighth conference win against one loss and kept them in the lead in the conference and Big Five.

Benton, pitching probably his best game of the season, was in trouble only once, scattering the seven hits in five innings.

Tar Heel Double Play

The turning point in the game came in the first half of the seventh inning when the Wildcats filled the bases with no outs only to have the Tar Heels execute an unusual double play—Myers to Johnson to Myers to Hayworth.

Dave Maloney singled and went to second when Johnny Hearn booted Red Bethea's ground ball to short. Both men moved around when Red Burke singled.

The Tar Heels at the time were leading 2-1. The double play started when Chubby Myers called for a pitch out and pegged to Dub Johnson on first base to catch Burke napping. Johnson chased Burke almost to second base and then wheeled and threw to Myers who tagged out Maloney attempting to score from third. Myers completed the play by throwing to Hayworth, nabbing Bethea attempting to reach third on the play. Benton fanned Johnny Frederick for the third out, and the only threat which Davidson was able to materialize was killed.

Middie Track Team to Offer Tar Heels Tough Competition

When Carolina and Navy track and field forces square off at one another on Fetzer field this Saturday afternoon, an undefeated record, as well as supremacy in a long-standing rivalry will be at stake.

The spotless record, of course, belongs to Bob Fetzer's Tar Heels who need but one more victory to close the Coach Dale Ranson would like to see at Fetzer field this afternoon any student who would consider renting his car to the University this week-end for the purpose of transporting a portion of the freshman track and field team to Annapolis. The rates are good and it is an excellent chance for an individual to serve Carolina and his own financial interests at the same time.

books on a completely successful dual meet season, and the supremacy in a long standing rivalry pertains to the Middie-Tar Heel track competition which has gone on intermittently over a period of ten years. Six dual meets have gone by the boards since 1930, three of which have been won by Navy, three of which have been won by Carolina. Contest No. 7 promises to be just about the closest of the lot.

On paper, the visiting Annapolis squad appears to have power to spare and will, by all odds, be the best balanced team that Carolina has met in years. The Midshipmen, as indicated by a long and unbroken string of plebe triumphs over Tar Baby track units, have quantity as well as quality and there will not be a single event in which one team has a crushing, conclusive superiority. In battling Duke's Blue Devils, Carolina could count on a sweep in the pole vault and a nearly similar showing in the high hurdles. Unfortunately, the Navy isn't forced to make concessions of that sort.

Navy Strong in Pole Vault

In the pole vault for example, Carolina's Jim Lloyd and Truitt Bennett, who have been piling up valuable points for the Tar Heels like clockwork since the season began, will be extended by a pair of equally proficient Navy men. Daimler and Miller are both capable
