NC High School Newsmen Attend Press Institute

Over one hundred students from 20 high schools throughout the state have already signified their intentions of attending the sixth annual North Carolina Scholastic Press Institute to be held at the University tomorrow and Saturday.

Professor Walter Spearman of the Journalism department, director, has just announced the complete program of the Institute, which is sponsored by the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction and the Journalism department and the Extension Division of the University.

Registration will be held in Graham Memorial from 2 until 5 o'clock tomorrow afternoon followed by the opening session presided over by William Turner of Greenville, president of the Institute.

From 7:30 to 8:30 that night in Gerrard hall Fred Kendrick, director of the South Carolina Scholastic Press association, will speak on "Enlivening the School Paper."

The high school journalists will be guests of the University from 8:30 until 10 o'clock at the May Day exercises and Awards Night to be held in Kenan stadium. From 10 until 12 o'clock they will be entertained at a dance in Graham Memorial.

Saturday morning the individual high school newspapers will be criticized in Bynum hall from 10 until 12:30 by the faculty members of the Journalism department, Mr. Kendrick, and campus publication leaders.

Two panel discussions—one for printed and one for mimeographed papers—on the problems of a high school newspaper will take place in Bynum hall from 2:30 until 3:30. These discussions will be led by high school students and faculty advisers. William Turner will act as chairman of the printed division and Ray Strowd of Chapel Hill will preside over the meeting on mimeograph work.

Officers for the Institute will be elected and plans for next year's meeting will be made at a business meeting in Gerrard hall from 4 to 5 o'clock.

The closing session, a supper meeting, will be in Lenoir dining hall. Bucky Harward of Durham, next year's editor of the Daily Tar Heel, will preside.

Professor William Olsen of the English department and William T. Polk, short story writer and associate editor of the Greensboro Daily News, will speak. Entertainment for the program will be furnished by Sound and Fury, campus musical comedy group. The winners in the feature writing contest will be announced.

IRC Applications Due Friday Noon

Applications for ten openings in rosters of the IRC must be in the hands of Tom Gibian, membership chairman, by Friday noon.

Application blanks are available at the YMCA office and from Roger Mann, Mary Jane McCaskill, Gibian, Betsy Ross Howe and Bob Michaels.

FROSH BASEBALL

Bob Parry was the hitting star for the visitors, getting four for four.

The Tar Babies tied the score in their half of the fifth and went ahead to stay in the sixth. With Johnny Colones, who had a single and triple yesterday, on second base, Bill Lee, lined a solid single to center for a run. In the sixth, Gresham opened with a single, went to second on a fielder's choice and raced home on Hackney's one-base knock.

Lee banged home another Carolina run in the seventh with a single over second, scoring Pupa, and the Tar Babies scored the clinching two tallies in the eighth after two were out. Hackney singled and Colones poked a curve ball deep down the right field line for three bases. Stephens wild-pitched the fiery second-sacker home a few seconds later.

Three well-hit singles scored two runs for the Imps in the ninth and threw a scare into the home club, but the local frosh were equal to the task and the game ended with Hackney throwing home to Lee to cut down Carver at the plate in an attempted double steal.

DUE CHIEFLY TO THE ACCELERATED WAR PROGRAM, which places the University on a four-quarter basis, admits freshmen in June as well as September, makes it possible for students to graduate in three instead of four years, and speeds up the program in the professional schools accordingly, the enrollment for the first term of this year's Summer Session is expected to exceed 2300, as compared to 1778 last year.

Dr. A. W. Clevenger of the University of Illinois will teach during the first term; Dr. Rose Lammell, assistant professor of the science of education in Ohio State University, second term; Dr. William H. Kilpatrick, professor emeritus of education of Teachers College, Columbia University, second term.

George H. Ivins, Headmaster of the Oak Lane Country Day School of Temple University, Philadelphia, first term; Dr. Ruth Kotinsky of the University of the State of New York, first term; and Dr. Marian Y. Ostrander, associate professor of education, Adelphi College, Garden City, N. Y., will teach during the second term.

a technique whereby through recalcitrant materials the insight arrested may be brought to painful birth in tone, in rhythm, in color, in sound, or in whatsoever form beauty can be made by discipline to appear.

"New forms of beauty must constantly leaven the lump of old beauty, or ugliness will rear its hideous head through the wilting flowers of yesterday," Dr. Smith stated.

"We take poetry as our best illustration of the ideal of beauty, and Emily Dickinson is allowed to prescribe the discipline for beauty through art as Pasteur has been permitted to speak for truth through the discipline of science:

"To make a prairie it takes a clover and one bee,—
And revery.
The revery alone will do
If bees are few."

The Weil Lecture Fund, established by the families of Sol and Henry Weil of Goldsboro, brings each year to the campus speakers on American citizenship. In the past Dorothy Thompson, Herbert Agar, Charles A. Beard, and other noted speakers have appeared. Dr. Smith spoke in Chapel Hill for the first time in the spring of 1939 when he appeared on the program of the University's Institute of Human Relations.

"I just happen to be able to learn a role rapidly," he explains. "There's just one way. When I find that I must learn a new role on short notice, I simply shut myself up in a room with an accompanist and keep working at the thing until I know it."

During the opera season Cordon spends most of his time at the Metropolitan—usually 10 hours a day.

"And when the time for performance comes you have to go on, whether you feel up to it or not. Sometimes audiences forget this, and blame a singer for a performance not up to par when perhaps the poor devil's too sick to be out of bed.

"But American audiences are the kindest in the world. One thing that has helped me to learn my roles is that I haven't any difficulty with languages."

conduct in these difficult times." Other problems which may arise on the campus will be the "possible militarization of the campus," the "threat of the self-help students," and the fact that "a majority of the student body probably will be living off the campus."

Jap Hordes Slap Fortress Daily; Total Ruin When Men Call Quits

WASHINGTON, May 6—(UP)—Lieutenant General Jonathan M. Wainwright today surrendered Corregidor fortress to save an estimated 10,000 defenders and refugees from outright slaughter at the hands of overwhelming Japanese hordes. The end came after an historic battle which leveled Corregidor's insulation, left its hungry and weary defenders on the verge of physical collapse, and resulted in the sinking of five Naval craft, two of which were scuttled.

LONDON, May 7—(UP)—Bloody street fighting was reported raging in the streets of Diego Suarez today as British besiegers and French defenders battled for mastery of the Madagascar naval base which has been under a bombardment by land, sea and air all day yesterday and far into the night.

CHUNGKING, May 6—(UP)—Japanese spearheads driving ahead in spite of United States Army air attacks that have knocked out 74 of their planes this week, have pushed 50 miles into China's Punnan province along the Burma road, where a major battle now looms before the 3,000 foot banks of the upper Salween river, war dispatches said tonight.

VICHY, May 6—(UP)—Fresh troops landed from gunboats have recaptured several lost provinces in Madagascar and "the most violent fighting still continues on the island," it was announced today.

GENERAL MACARTHUR'S HEADQUARTERS, Melbourne, May 6—(UP)—American and Australian flyers are encountering many Japanese fighter planes in their assault of invasion bases above Australia, a sign that the enemy's air strength is ebbing and that his southward advance may have been halted were evident, dispatches said tonight.

MOSCOW, May 6—(UP)—The government newspaper Nizvestia said today that the war with Germany has entered a new phase, "that of final repulsion of Germans from occupied Soviet territory and that it will be won in 1942 partly because our allies, Britain and the United States, are helping us more and more daily, pumping into the Red army fresh and vital juice."

much improvement in practice and Coach Erickson has decided to enter them in the tourney along with the top six.

The meet with VMI and the conference tourney will be played on the Old Town country club course in Winston-Salem. Only the four top men will count toward the team score.

Carolina's hopes of upsetting Duke lie with Doeschler, Liles, Neese, and Case. If these four are in top form, they may edge out Duke for the title.

make a valid decision.

The legislature enactment, briefly, provides for the abolition of the two present magazines, the establishment of a combination literary-humor magazine, the election of an editor-in-chief, a humor editor and a literary editor in campus elections, with complete authority and finality to lie with the editor-in-chief.

The editor-in-chief and both subordinate editors will be appointed by the Publications Union board this year to avoid "reversal of selections made in recent campus elections."
