Campus Salvage Drive To Start Rolling Today As Town, Dorms, Frats Plan Campaign Setup Legislature Votes Wider Representation To Campus Groups

Members Table Proposal to Give Students Veto

By Bob Levin

After a 90-minute discussion on a three-power bill designed to give more democratic power to students in government, the Student legislative unanimously voted on fuller and more even campus representation but tabled remaining two sections of the bill for further discussion.

Definite action of the body resulted in town students' representation increased by two, fraternity membership augmented by one, woman's representation increased by one and every dormitory given one representative.

Main issue of the evening was the arguments dealing with the proposed amendment giving students power to override any act of the legislature by a simple majority after 10 per cent of the student body signed a petition favoring a referendum vote.

Legislative opinion was split on the issue with one faction desiring to increase the "simple majority" voting plan to a 25 per cent favorable majority. The opposing group demanding a 25 per cent signed petition instead of the proposed 10.

Willie Long, chairman of the ways and means committee, attributed some of the superfluous debating to the fact that the explanations of the changes were not given to the body until last night.

Speaker W. J. Smith was forced to call for a motion of adjournment when it became apparent that the body was debating a question of importance to the general student body and that the sections of the bill should be returned to the ways and means committee for further consideration because it was in direct conflict with section one of the constitution.

Smith urged all members to convene again at 7:45 Thursday for another session in an effort to pass the two sections under question and to present them for student vote.

Section seven of article two giving students power to pass amendments with a simple majority vote after a two-thirds favorable legislative vote was also tabled until the Thursday meeting.

Egyptian Minister Arrives Tomorrow

By Walter Klein

IRC officials rushed preparations yesterday for the arrival of Mahmoud Hassan Bey, Egyptian Minister Plenipotentiary, for his address on the battle of the near east tomorrow night in Memorial hall.

Hassan telegraphed the IRC that he will arrive here tomorrow morning by car with his wife and a staff of aides from the Egyptian legation in Washington.

Dean of Administration Robert B. House has accepted the club's invitation to introduce Egypt's envoy, Grady Morgan, IRC president, announced yesterday. The speech will begin at 8:30.

Members of the organization will dine informally with Hassan at the

Fraternities Pledge 277 As Strenuous Six-Day Rushing Period Ends

Trailing last year's figures by 55, 277 new men pledged Carolina social fraternities yesterday after a strenuous six-day rushing period.

Of the 20 fraternities pledging men, Phi Delta Theta led the group with 30 pledges followed by Phi Gamma Delta and Sigma Alpha Epsilon with 26 and 24 men respectively.

The totals of all fraternities are expected to change somewhat within the

Powell Picked As New Y-Y Business Head

Selection Made To Replace Grey

Bob Powell was selected yesterday by the Publications Union board to replace Bahson Grey as business manager of the Yackety Yack to assume his duties immediately, the board announced.

The new business manager, a transfer from Davidson last January, is a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity. He is a junior and is in the school of commerce.

Powell has not had much experience on either the business or writing ends of school publications. He has served on two publications—one at Davidson and one at Carolina. At Davidson he was a member of the staff of "Quips and Cranks," a school magazine. This summer he was business manager of the TAR HEEL for one session.

Grey was forced to resign early this quarter because the time he must put into the pre-induction course he is taking would not permit him to hold the position of business manager. He said, "The job of business manager of the Yackety Yack requires a lot of time and I can not spare it." He is a member of the Army Enlisted Reserve and expects to be called into active service at the end of this quarter.

The PU board, whose members are Ben Snyder, president, Ernie Frankel, Bill Webb; Professors J. M. Lear, E. H. Hartsell, and W. Wells, the newest member, also took up other matters. They granted an appropriation to ventilate the board's darkroom, used by photographers Tyler Nourse and Carl Bishopric. Also, the financial status of the summer school semi-weekly newspaper, the TAR HEEL, was discussed.

Morgan will announce the name of the IRC's second speaker of its fall series at tomorrow night's address.

Open Discussion
Hassan, it was reported, has agreed to participate in an open debate discussion with the audience immediately after his talk. Students, faculty members, Naval officers and townspeople will be given an extended opportunity to question the minister on any phase of the Egyptian war.

Officially labelled the most qualified man now in the United States to analyze progress of the Allied strategy against Rommel's army of the near east, Hassan is expected to give Chapel Hill its clearest picture of the newest offensive of Britain's army of the Nile and the part being played by American troops and equipment.

The Egyptian Minister Plenipotentiary and Envoy Extraordinary will be the IRC's first of its fall series of guest ambassadors and international affairs analysts. The club is also finishing preparations for several round table forums, one of its original activities, and informal bull-session discussions of front page topics.

Members received final directions for the reception of Judge and Madame Hassan at last night's meeting at the Institute of Government building.

BOB SPENCE, named chief of the student salvage drive to aid town and state campaigns for scrap metal.

Bob Spence Named Chief Of Student Organization

University Club Promises All-Out Cooperation; Salvage Committee Members Announced

By Jimmy Wallace

A campus initiated salvage drive, designed to work in cooperation with local and national salvage committees, will get under way today as student agencies begin probing in all corners of the campus for scrap metal to feed the nation's war industries.

Plans for the campaign were completed yesterday with the announcement that Bob Spence had been chosen as campus salvage committee chairman by Bert Bennett, student body president. Scrap gathering organization is divided into four parts, a committee for the town under Larry Berluti, a coed committee headed by Betty Sterchi, a dormitory committee under the direction of Jack Jarvis, and a fraternity committee headed by Floyd Cohoon.

Student salvaging for the town proper has been divided into four districts. Head of district one is Lee Adams; district two, George Whitley; district three, Walter Klein; and district four, Bill Thompson. All the student salvage committees will have as their primary job the execution of the drive. Then they will see that the scrap metal is removed to the salvage depots.

Heading the drive for the Delta Sigma Pi house is Lloyd Bost; Kappa Psi, Harry Allen; Phi Delta Chi, C. L. Shields; Carolina Co-op, Fred Crowder; Tar Heel Co-op, Gene Reilly; and the town girls, Margaret Pickard.

The coed salvaging organization under the direction of Betty Sterchi includes: Spencer, Daisy Dean Tart; Alderman, Mary Louise Rhodes and Rachel Dalton; McIver, Helen Murphy; Chi Omega, Bebe Davis; ADPI, Ruth Nottingham; Dotson Palmer, Old West; Don Henson, Steele; Deane Bell, BVP; Ike Manly, Carr; Mike Carr, Smith; and Charles Johnson for Whitehead.

In all the 22 fraternities under the direction of Floyd Cohoon, the junior member to the Interfraternity council from each fraternity will serve as salvage chairman for his respective fraternity.

Until further arrangements are made, possibly today, all scrap metal collected by the student agencies will be dumped into the Chapel Hill salvage bin opposite the city hall.

The student sponsored drive is acting as a part of the national salvage drive recently inaugurated by WPB chairman Donald Nelson. In discussing his appointment, Spence said, "As the war grows on all great battlefronts, it is necessary now, more than ever before, to do our part for the boys who are fighting for us." He emphasized that while previous scrap campaigns have been conducted, the ever-growing needs for the fighting forces make it necessary to obtain larger amounts of materials.

"What we want in this drive," said Spence, "is iron and steel scrap of all kinds, brass door-knobs that are useless, worn out pumps, wheels rims, and non-ferrous metals of almost any kind. The prime dependence we are putting in the fraternities is that they will see that we get all the tin cans they can find. All cans in order to serve best must have the label taken off, the can washed, and then flattened after the bottom has been cut out. In this way we are able to save the reclaiming factories a lot of time and conserve shipping space."

According to the WPB, "the American steel industry this year hopes to produce a record-breaking 85,000,000 tons of steel—as much as all foreign countries combined. Our country alone this year is going to produce three tons of steel for every two tons that the Axis can turn out."

"To bring steel production up to the industry's full capacity of 90,000,000 tons in 1942, however, our steel industry needs an extra 6,000,000 tons of scrap metal for its furnaces. Every ton of scrap we can send them will swell our national production of tanks, ships, planes, and guns."

Each student committee will keep a daily tabulation on the incoming scrap and reports on the progress of the drive will be printed in the DAILY TAR HEEL.

Standing by to aid in the salvage campaign is the University club. Denny Hammond, president of the club said, "The University club will act as a subsidiary to the regular committees and will see that all the campus has a thorough coverage."

Men to serve on the fraternity salvage committees were announced late last night by Floyd Cohoon, chairman of all the fraternity committees.

Head of the ATO committee is Terrell Webster; Beta chairman, Bob Stockton; Chi Phi, John Lindsay; Chi Psi, Sam Nicholson; DKE, Sonny Boney; Delta Psi, Frank Pilling; KA, Ed Tisdale; Kappa Sigma, Jimmy Johnson; Phi Alpha, Stuart Cahm; Phi Delta Theta, Mac Lane; Phi Gamma, Paul Simmons; Phi Kappa Sigma, Ed Council; Pi Kappa Alpha, John Council; Pi Lambda Phi, Sylvan Shapiro; SAE, Paul Huber; Sigma Chi, Wade Denning; Sigma Nu, Chuck Clark; TEP, Ernie Frankel; ZBT, Jim Loeb; and Zeta Psi, Junie Peel.

In addition to the coed chairman named before, it was learned that Genevieve Schultz would represent Archer House.

Phi to Discuss Banning Student Cars on Campus

Tonight for the first time students will bring into the open an organized discussion on "one of the most timely and controversial issues on the campus." The Philanthropic Assembly holds its first open meeting of the year tonight at 7:30 at Phi hall on the fourth floor of New East to air the question, "Resolved: That student cars should be banned from the campus."

Two faculty members, both current affairs experts, will introduce the opposing sides of the bill. Dr. M. S. Breckenridge of the law school faculty will express his ideas as to why students should not have cars on the campus this year, while Dr. E. J. Woodhouse of the political science department will defend student car

Di Debates Co-op Housing in Frats To Stop Crowding

The Dialectic Senate will discuss "what promises to be one of its most important bills in recent years" at 7:30 tonight in the Di Senate hall on the third floor of New West.

The bill is "Resolved: That all fraternities at the University be petitioned to convert themselves into cooperative houses or dormitories for the duration as a means of relieving the critical eating and housing situation."

A committee consisting of Walter Klein, Paul Rubenstein, and Aaron Johnson has been appointed to investigate and secure data on the housing and eating situation, the success of cooperatives at the University and the possibilities of fraternities relieving the situation.

Car Signing Ends Friday

Council Sets Deadline On Auto Registration

Deadline for registration of all student cars has been definitely set for this Friday, announced student safety council chairman H. D. Webb yesterday.

Failure to register by that date will result in the council prohibiting the student to use his car for the remainder of the quarter. Students placed under this restriction will be allowed to re-register at the start of the winter quarter.

All dormitory, fraternity, and sorority leaders have been asked by Webb to contact car owners and warn them of the necessity of registering with the council before the deadline. Boys must see Webb at the Phi Gamma Delta house for blanks and girls are requested to see Kitty Flanagan at 216 Spencer.

Students bringing in cars after this Friday will be given an extension for registering. Safety committee members are completing student safety rules which will be enforced by local authorities, if found necessary, Webb stated.

Webb estimated that there are approximately 85 cars on campus which will have to go through the registration process before this Friday and urged all owners to finish early to reduce last minute mistakes.

MBS to Broadcast Student Sunday Night Session

The Sunday Night Session will get a nationwide airing because of great student support and novelty of a college program, it was announced by Hobart McKeever, chairman of the Social committee, sponsor of the program.

"If listener support is as good as student support, let's go to work," said Fred Fletcher, WRAL's program director and Mutual's representative at the program.

Starting off with a spontaneous singing by the students, the program got under way officially with the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner." The University quartet did two numbers which were enthusiastically received by the students.

The surprise, which had leaked out over the weekend, began when Johnny Satterfield's orchestra fronted by Bub Montgomery took over the spotlight and held it for over 30 minutes. The vocalizing of Ann Russell and the trumpet playing of George Davis and Wade Denning apparently pleased the crowd.

Salvage Leaders Convene Today

Larry Berluti, Betty Sterchi, Jack Jarvis, and Floyd Cohoon will meet with Bob Spence today at 3 o'clock, Spence announced yesterday, to discuss the progress of the salvage drive.
