

Zetes Win Campus Court Title With 31-27 Win

Dolphins Encounter State, Duke Today

Mermen Seek To Stretch Loop String In Triangular Swimming Event Here

Invincible against conference competition, Coach Dick Jamerson's Blue Dolphins set to conquer new fields this afternoon when they face Duke and State in a triangular swim meet in Bowman Gray pool starting at 4:30 p. m.

The Dolphins have taken both the Terrors and the Blue Devils over the hurdles once before this season and shouldn't have too much trouble in taking them both on at the same time. In fact, it would appear that the Blue Devil tank team, after the fearful 56-19 licking they absorbed from the Tar Heels last Saturday, would be hesitant to venture into a Carolina swimming pool.

Rookies To Swim

Coach Jamerson, with an eye to the Southern Conference championships coming up this weekend at Lexington, Virginia, is not planning on using the same powerful outfit that humbled the Blue Devils last Saturday, but will experiment with several of the less experienced but promising first-year men on the squad.

Probable highlight of the big meet will be the sprint events in which Captain Bill Marshall of Duke, Bob Reynolds of State, and Carolina's freshmen aces Ben Ward and Jesse Greenbaum will collide. Ward beat Marshall twice by narrow margins last weekend while Reynolds was triumphant when the Terrors visited Bowman Gray a short while back. Greenbaum will probably take to the lanes in the 50 with Powell Jenkins while Ward will team up with Bill Merr in the 100.

Huse Shines

Highly pleased with the fine performances of late of Henri Huse, yearling middle-distance star, Jamerson is planning on using him in the 220 freestyle today with Co-captain Bill Elmore. Huse swam a leg in the fast 400 relay quartet that nosed out the Blue Devils in one of the best events last Saturday.

The Dolphins' crack medley trio of Denny Hammond, Steve Sokoloff, and Ben Ward will swim the medley relay while Hammond will probably team up with Snooky Proctor or Allen Kauf-

Army Gives Durocher Back To NL Umpires

NEW YORK—March 1—(UP)—The Army lost a fighting man and National league umpires kept an enemy today when Manager Leo Durocher of the Brooklyn Dodgers was rejected from military service because of a perforated eardrum. Durocher was "surprised and disappointed."

Take Me Out, Coach

Struggling in vain to free themselves of the infirmity's grasping tentacles are the following: Aubrey Terry, Lewis Bauman, Thomas Lane, James Lockhart, John Sibley, Richard Shack, Ann Strause, Jack Ullman, William Bell, Daniel Reaves, Richard Phillips, Albert Jacobson, Parke Whedon, Frank Williams, Edwin Bayle, Nicholas Crugar, Barbara Staff, Martha Urquhart, Thomas Weaver, William Kerr, J. S. Rowland, Calvin Warren, Wade Shuford.

Yeshiva college reports a record enrollment in United States history, government and related courses dealing with American ideals and traditions.

man in the 440.

Several Tar Heel campaigners who have seen little service this year will get into some of the other events. Larry Johnson and Goldfarb will start in the backstroke while Pete Hexner and Lou Rubinson will go in the breaststroke. A tentative quartet of Bill Merr, Co-captain Momo Mahoney, Powell Jenkins, and Jesse Greenbaum will take care of the 400 relay duties.

Fetzer, Ranson Rate Orchids For Excellent Track Games

Orchid Dep't—A great big bouquet to Director Bob Fetzer for going ahead after the conference had given the red light to the meet and independently staging the best indoor games in history . . . more of same to Coach Dale Ranson for the swell one-man job he did in grooming a green Tar Heel squad . . . more posies to the Navy in general—to the Annapolis lads for their splendid showing, to the Preflight school for a spirit of cooperation without which it would have been impossible to hold the meet . . . and two hundred orchid boutonieres to each and every competitor for his fine sportsmanship and a hard try.

Highlights—The ever-impressive flag ceremony, a bit more impressive this year . . . the naturally glamorous mile run, won by Creamer of Navy after a true battle of champions . . . a splendid bit of pace work by army-bound Tom Jewett in same . . . Moffat Storer's triumph over a lightning fast sprint field . . . the great work of the Carolina frosh stars—Julian McKenzie, Jimmy Miller, Don Nelson and Ted Schultz, who served notice of great things to come . . . Roy Ca'they's win in the 440, which more than atoned for his heartbreaking performance of last year . . . Tommy Todd's great record-breaking flight of low hurdles . . . and last but not least, Carolina's game mile relay team, which came through with the blue chips down to catch the Navy in the home stretch.

Comebacks—Mike Mangum's anchor leg on the vital relay after two heartbreaking hurdle races . . . Rich Van Wagoner's great legs in the two relay events, which more than made up for his failure in the mile. Master-mind—Coach Dale Ranson, for saving Larry Holeman, his number two quarter-miler for both relays.

Quote Dep't—The Duke of Wellington: "the battle of Waterloo was won on the playing fields of Eton" . . . McArthur concurring.

In closing—Truly a great spectacle, the indoor games . . . 900 students and cadets plus John Q. Public crowded under the same roof watching 200 more of same displaying stout legs and stout hearts. . . ripples of competition, a current of unity . . . a sight calculated to thrill us of the U. S. A. . . and chill Hitler, Hirohito, et al to the marrow.

Carolina's 1943 Conference Mat Champions

Frank Mordecai

Hobie McKeever

Matmen Pick McKeever, Mordecai As Co-Captains

Undefeated Aces Take Championships As Carolina Nosed Out for Team Title

By Westy Fenhagen

Hobie McKeever and Frank Mordecai, both Southern Conference champions, were elected co-captains of the wrestling team for the current season at a meeting of the squad held after the heartbreaking loss of their team title to VMI this last weekend. McKeever and Mordecai, both seniors, went undefeated during the 1943 campaign and both won three straight matches in the conference tourney Friday and Saturday. For McKeever it was his second loop title in a row and Mordecai was runnerup last year. McKeever took a one-sided 11-3 decision over Blalock of State in the 128-pound championship fight while Mordecai decided Edwards of State, 13-6, in the 165 bout.

The team title wasn't decided until the final consolation bout Saturday night when Grim Hobbs, needing a fall to give the Tar Heels a tie with VMI for team honors, met up with John Maskas, gigantic VPI heavy, and decided the huge Greek. A fall would have given Carolina a 33-33 even split with the Cadets but the decision still left Coach Quinlan's men in the rear, 33-32.

Three Place
Three other Tar Heels, Mose Robinson at 136, Oscar Greene at 145, and Lem Gibbons at 175, went to the finals. Robinson and Gibbons dropped decisions while Greene, who broke his shoulder in the first 30 seconds of his bout with ace Sherrard of VMI, courageously fought on for two more minutes before having to forfeit.

In the consolation matches, Tommy Hearn, who lost in the semi-finals to Stroup of Duke on a one-point time advantage, dropped a 3-2 nod to Spencer of the championship VMI. Ed Hipp took a referee's decision over Stallings of State in the 155 consolation while Grim Hobbs beat Maskas of VPI.

IRC
(Continued from first page)
which brands an entire nation as criminal. Knowledge Needed
Dean R. B. House, a familiar figure on the campus, is expected to view the Japanese situation with the idea of getting a better understanding of the problems confronting the Nipponese. "We cannot hope to make intelligent and lasting plans for the future," the Dean commented, "unless we learn a great deal more about what goes on behind the Japanese mask. This the forum should attempt to do."

Having just completed a paper for the extension division Bulletin on the topic "Conflict of Political Ideas," Dr. Kattsoff locked themselves up even from their most valuable clients. Bye journeyed to England where he met the English master restorer. Fearing no competition from the American, the old-timer took Bye to live with him and schooled him in the slow and oftentimes delicate processes of the art.

Since then Bye has risen through technical advisor for Princeton and principle restorer at Vassar until now he spends his time almost completely on private practice.

The work Bye has done for the University since he came here in early January will be kept hanging in Person hall for the next several weeks, open to the public between 10 a. m. and 6 p. m. week days and 12 to 6 p. m. Sunday.

The Pi Phi's will meet the Alderman team this afternoon at 4 p. m.

Phys Ed Department Requests Coed Suits
The woman's physical education department requests that all coeds check in the equipment in their lockers at the gym before the end of this quarter. If this equipment is not turned in before next week, holders of lockers not checked in will be charged for the equipment.

NROTC Outfit Downed In Two Overtime Periods

Wright Drops in Two Field Goals In Extra Session To End Thriller

By George Mitchell

After having things their own way in the fraternity league playoffs, a fighting Zeta Psi outfit found that the NROTC wins over Lenoir Dining hall and the "BB" boys were definitely not freaks and only after two overtime periods and with the aid of some beautiful shooting by Ike Wright were the frat champions able to eke out the determined sailors, 31-27.

The Zetes, after holding a commanding 13-8 lead at halftime, actually had to come from behind in the closing minutes to tie the score at 23 all at the end of the regulation game.

Dick Elliot, roving sailor center, who did everything but bring down the Tin Can's roof in yesterday's tilt, tapped in a beauty after forty-five seconds of the first overtime to give the Town-

Dorm champs a temporary lead, but it was short lived, as Phil Taylor, brilliant Zete forward, hooked a beauty from mid-court a minute later to deadlock the count. This same Taylor put the winners ahead with another two pointer after 2:30 and it looked like the fraternity team had coped the title right then and there, until Dick Bennett tallied on a beautiful set shot to tie the contest at 27-27.

Take A Bow, Zetes
ZETA PSI	fg	ft	tp	pf
Wright	4	0	8	1
Taylor	3	1	7	0
Peel	3	1	7	3
White	1	3	5	3
Gilliam	1	0	2	1
Shook	1	0	2	1
TOTALS	13	5	31	9
NROTC
Bennet	fg	ft	tp	pf
Bennet	2	3	7	1
Rouse	1	1	3	1
Elliot	7	0	14	0
Scully	1	1	3	4
Williams	0	0	0	0
Dokmanovich	0	0	0	1
TOTALS	11	5	27	6

Referees—Jamerson (Rice) and Mullis (Carolina).

In the third overtime event it was all Zeta Psi as Ike Wright made sure his fraternity's name would be inscribed upon the beautiful intramural cup by scoring two field goals in a span of less than a minute to put the game on ice that finished with a final score of 31-27.

Elliot, who is making a strong bid for the all-campus team, led both teams with fourteen points. Wright was top man for Zeta Psi with eight.

Harvie Sparks Coeds Of Spencer To 37-33
By Phyllis Yates
Spencer dormitory yesterday nosed ahead of the Chi O basketball team to take their final game of the coed season, 37 to 33.

From the opening minutes of play scoring was close with one team chalking up a basket only to have the other squad even matters in the next play.

Finally at the half the winners went ahead, 18 to 16, and managed to retain their hold on victory for the rest of the game.

Harvie, of Chi O who showed up as one of the finest forwards in the tourney in her first game, again took the scoring spotlight and with Umstead and Oldham, kept the Chi Omega side of the ledger moving up.

Flanagan and McCormic played their usual clever game at forward for Spencer, and with the help of Searles, an accurate shot, but unsteady player, held the lead for their team.

Yesterday saw some of the finest guarding of the season with James and Ferrier for the winning team, and Porcher showing marked improvement for the sorority.

The Pi Phi's will meet the Alderman team this afternoon at 4 p. m.

ART

(Continued from first page)

locked themselves up even from their most valuable clients. Bye journeyed to England where he met the English master restorer. Fearing no competition from the American, the old-timer took Bye to live with him and schooled him in the slow and oftentimes delicate processes of the art.

Since then Bye has risen through technical advisor for Princeton and principle restorer at Vassar until now he spends his time almost completely on private practice.

The work Bye has done for the University since he came here in early January will be kept hanging in Person hall for the next several weeks, open to the public between 10 a. m. and 6 p. m. week days and 12 to 6 p. m. Sunday.

Unless you are a maestro, the best idea is to cut it off!

Come By and See Us Today

TAR HEEL BARBER SHOP

Volleyball Slate

6:00—NROTC No. 1 vs NROTC No. 2; Kappa Alpha vs Phi Gam No. 1; Chi Phi vs. DKE; Zeta Psi No. 1 vs. Phi Alpha.
6:45—Zeta Psi No. 2 vs. Sigma Chi; Phi Gam No. 2 vs. ATO; Pika No. 1 vs TEP.