NUMBER 41 VOLUME LIV CHAPEL HILL, N. C., -

Doubling of Professors' Salaries Announced President Orders Military Training for All Male Citizens

Di Passes Measure To Abolish Poverty Also Affected

Freedom of Northern Rhodesian Natives Is Assured as Delegates Run Amuck

By Sol I. Tude

A bill to abolish all poverty and crime in the world passed the Di Senate last night by a narrow margin of 2 to 3, the chair voting to break a tie. Dave Pittman, president of the Senate, said,

"The future of humanity seems now secure. Although those who TH Circulation selfish reasons, I ar happy to announce that the world will now be able to live in peace."

Bill Amended

The bill was amended 842 times, 223 of the amendments being substitute resolutions, and the rest being amendments to ArmyandNavy The Students' Choice Governor Cherry Issues Announce Vets

Training Begins Today on Campus

By Helen Highwater In an unprecedented move designed to keep our manpower prepared for any eventuality that may come from the unsettled foreign situation, the President has declared that all male citizens, including veterans of world war II, will participate in three hours of close order drill

The War Department in carrying out the orders of the Commander-in-Chief has assigned Declaring that every student several drill teams to begin train-

This, believe it or not, is Wimmy Jallace who yesterday announced' that in the coming spring elections, he would run not only for editor of the Daily Tar Heel for the sixth time but that to liven up the elections, he would also run for president of the student body, speaker of the legislature, president of the athletic association, and trash collector. The dope boys make him an odds-on favorite for the latter position for which he is undeniably well quali-

Varsity Gets Supply

Of Men's White Shirts

And Women's Nylons

fied.

Special Proclamation

Snake Dance and Conga Line Formed In Y Court Celebrating Announcement

By Sam Whitehall

The announcement from South Building this morning that professor's salaries had been doubled touched off a snake dance and conga line through the Y court and surrounding buildings by over 250 delirious pedagogues. The long awaited arrival in-

OPA Slashes Ceilings on Hill Rentals

the houses in Chapel Hill were outrageous, and consequently, creased salaries for UNC's grossly underpaid instructors came about this week-end in a special proclamation from North Carolina Governor R. Gregg Cherry in the gubernatorial office in Raleigh.

Summing up the event Cherry The OPA declared today that stated, "Hell, I cleaned state the rents charged by many of treasurer Charlie Johnson out of a cool million of state funds in a little 'quorum' last night, so why not brighten the corner, spread joy;-toujours gai, kid!"

Tar Heel Daily

By I. M. Noosman

amendments, or amendments to has a right to receive a copy of ing the men enrolled in the Uni-each week.

the original resolution. Section LLVII of Article 5280 of the Constitution of the Ways and Means Committee of the Dialec- finite action to improve what he tic Senate prohibited any resolution which affected the freedom of those natives living in Northern Rhodesia, but it was felt that the bill was in order, because it did not violate the spirit of the constitution, even though it was argued that the freedom of the natives might in some manner be impaired.

At the next meeting the D will discuss: "Resolved, That the Dialectic Senate discuss the Dialectic Senate." Buddy Glenn, sergeant-at-arms of the Senate, predicted a violent meeting and urged Douglass Hunt and Jimmy Wallace to be present.

Baby Face Editor Dares Readers To Find Any Fault

in store for the readers.

need is sensationalism."

And if there is any suggestion

Is Billed as Biggest amendments to amendments to the Daily Tar Heel, J. M. Lear, adviser to the PU Board, asked the Board yesterday to take denow approaches perfection." Lear recommended that money be appropriated from the $108, 463,729.42 surplus to insure adequate circulation of the daily. A large delegation of student leaders were present at the meeting to petition the Board to ignore Lear. Charlie Vance, leader of the group, said, "Thanks to the PU Board, the circulation of the Daily Tar Heel is now the best it has ever been in history. To improve circulation would be an impossible task. Every student now receives a paper everyday without fail."

Bulldozer Used

Board, said that full credit for the streets of Chapel Hill. the excellent circulation goes to It is expected that there wil Clifford Hemingway, who has be much opposition to this move declared; "If ever a single stu- by the president. The Phi and Di "Baby Face" Morrison called dent should fail to receive his Senates have petitioned their Morrison declared, "What we recommended to the Board that

$23,473.02 could be saved each In a press release, Morrison quarter if the Board did not recontinued with a statement of quire him to employ bulldozers editorial responsibility. "I was and dog sleds to deliver Lear's elected by the student body to copy to his home, several miles anyone that doesn't like what's to furnish other housing for Other routine business conunknown, although it is suspect-By Junior Morrisplan in this paper, tell them to see me. Chapel Hill. Several Horse ducted by the Board was the ed that Carolina students had According to a report from the Board of Trustees, the Moredrawn street cars were discoverpurchase of $378,461.83 in compoured gasoline in the well, anhead Planetarium and Art Gallery which is to be erected here as of libel suits, well, that's my mon stock in a gold mine which ed in Durham and they will be the result of a million dollar gift by John Motley Morehead, will ticipating vandalism from the meat, send them to me." brought to Chapel Hill. Tobacis soon to be opened in New Zeainclude two pool rooms and a beer parlor in the basement. neighboring college. Investigaco barrels have been released by land. Flagler announced that in tion is still being conducted by The revelation of these plan-Pick Program Today the American tobacco company accordance with the regular ned additions was made known dents desiring instruction wil state and city officials. to relieve the shortage. Johnny policy of the Board a meeting after a call meeting last night sign up Phys. Ed. 97. Coeds will The Old Well, which was once Weismuller has been contracted will be held next year, at which by President Frank P. Graham, also be accepted in the afternoon Floperoo in History the sole source of water supply time Lear will present statistics to give instructions in tree sitwho stated, "If our students classes. for the campus, was a wellfrom the New York Stock Exting. The fare shown at the Pick The beer parlor, which has the must drink beer, then it is up known university symbol. For Theatre during the past few change. to the University to provide a backing of most of the trustees, centuries it had been a gatherpleasant location for such im- is sponsored by Skipper Coffin. Students Give Pain months was thought to be absoing place for students and visi-Cocktail Bar Opens lutely the oldest class "B" and Mr. Coffin states, "The constant tors, and a harbor of memories bibing." Title "Most Popular" "C" pictures available. With his Referring to the pool rooms, stream of beer flowing from the Blackie Black announced tofor alumni. A memorial service present show, however, E. Car- day that the Vets Club on Ral-President Graham and Chancel- planetarium's basement will not Dr. O. U. Pain of the English for the faithful servant of Caroington Smith has surpassed all eigh Road had installed a cocklor House said that recreational cease as long as Carolina redepartment was named the most lina will be held next Sunday his previous efforts. "The Good tail bar with table for ladies. Refacilities would fill a long need mains a liberal university." popular professor in the Uni- afternoon in Hill hall. Old Days" is the oldest reissued cent entertainment has been of Ashes from the remains have on the Carolina campus. Dr. A special contract with Schlitz versity in a pool taken recently. class "C" movie yet shown. "The the "parlor" variety, but the Graham and Chancellor House and Budweiser companies will Runnerup for the honor was been collected and a certain pro-Sign of the Cross" was old new policy of the club is to bring will coach new players every guarantee a constant supply of genial Dr. Cecil Monsoon of the portion will be sent to Duke for Social Science department. services of the pranksters. something new to the campus. afternoon from 2 to 5 p. m. Stu- brew for the University. See PROGRAM Page 4 versity.

Major Mishap, officer in charge of the drill teams, has outlined his plan to university officials and it has been decidtermed "circulation which even ed that drills will be conducted every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday at 11:00 a.m. No classes will be scheduled for men students during that hour on the days mentioned. ROTC students will be exempt from the drills. Today, at 11:00 a.m. the first drill period will begin. The Freshman class will form on Cameron avenue in front of South building. The Sophomore class will form in front of Memorial Hall. The Junior class in front of Peabody hall. The Seniors will be assistants to the members of the drill teams.

As an added feature, all coeds will be dismissed from classes and furnished with flags to wave Fred Flagler, president of the at the boys as they march around ed conditions. Students wishing to make the staff of the Tar Heel to- paper, I will not accept the congressmen. The CPU has al- purchases are asked to come by cleared for the residents of gether yesterday and announced check for $00.02 which King ready charged the administra- the following schedule. Those Chapel Hill. Many of the houses that beginning April 1, 1946, a Lear so graciously writes as my tion with "red baiting." The UV with last names begining with that rent for $50 a month in new type of journalism will be weekly salary. I am sure, how- A announced that they have A-F, from 9 to 11 a.m.; F-M, 11 pre-war standards have been ever, that I shall never have to secured Drew Pearson, famed a.m.-1p.m.; M-R, 1-3 p.m.; R-Z, converted in four one-room "Things are just too quiet," refuse this sum." Hemingway columnist, to record their gripes. 3-6 p.m.

> Pool Rooms and Beer Parlors Will Be Planetarium Features

Graham Says New Facilities Will Fill

had declared that no room shall rent for less than $50 per month unfurnished and $75 per month furnished.

It was noted by those people who had raised rents during the housing shortage that the cost of living had increased to such an extent that these rents were necessary. While several of the local renters had kept their rents at the pre-war level the OPA charged that this led to bad feeling in the town and that such a thing could not be allowed as it was bad publicity for the OPA In bringing the rent situation

The Varsity announces that a before the OPA, the veterans, large supply of white shirts will who receive $75 a month if single arrive this week and will be on and $90 if married, maintained sale Wednesday and Thursday that they would not be a party from 9 a.m. until 6 p.m. A small shipment of nylons are also expected by Wednesday, but will Hill, and that if it meant giving politicians in Raleigh rememnot be on sale until Friday and their all to paying rent they had ber I've got a growing business Saturday due to expected crowd- rather do that than see the people starve.

> A new trailer camp has been apartments and now bring as much as $200 a month. But the owners of these houses have had to move out. All government facilities have been used to furnish these people with low cost housing.

run this paper and, by gum, I'm south of Morgan's Creek. The OPA also announced today prits. Long Awaited Need: Coffin Backs Plan going to do it. If you hear of Gold Stock Bought that material had been released The cause of the explosion is

Makes Sacrifice

"Billy Carmichael has been telling me about the boys over at Carolina, and I just decided to sacrifice my proposed hacienda up near Murphy this year and give those hard-working guys over on the Hill a cut of the gravy," further expounded the governor, while stealthily giving a hot-foot to an unwary Daily Tar Heel reporter.

The glad tidings were spread to the faculty by Asst. Claude 'Happy Boy" Teague in a special session held in number 9, South building early this morning. Upon hearing the news, Athletic Director, Coach Bob Fetzer was heard to disgustedly mutter, "Damn, there goes my new $2,000,000 ping-pong arena. to starving the people of Chapel Why the hell don't those rube See GOVERNOR Page 4

> Well Eliminated By Duke Students As Practical Joke

Duke pranksters last night played their trick on the Carolina Campus when they set fire to the Old Well, historic landmark. The well exploded upon ignition; a set of false teeth and two Duke rings were the only proof that Dukesters were the guilty cul-