

Carolina Whitewashes Ohio University, 3-0

Netmen Open Season Today Against Strong Kalamazoo Team

Hornets Loom As Tough Foes For Tar Heels

By Bob Goldwater

The 1946 edition of Carolina racquet-wielders will taste collegiate competition for the first time this afternoon starting at 2:30 p. m. when they engage a team from Kalamazoo College, Michigan, on the varsity tennis courts.

A stiff battle looms between the untried but talented Tar Heel array and the traveling Hornet netmen, playing their third of six contests on a tour of the Carolinas. Led by Coach Allan Stowe, the visitors annually have a top-flight contender in collegiate tennis circles.

To Harold Maass, veteran of Carolina racquet campaigns in 1942-43, goes the honor of the top singles assignment. The number two slot will be filled by Mel Jordan, in his first season as a Carolina netman. This is the final year for both players, Maass being a senior and Jordan engaged in graduate work.

Three Freshmen on Team

Completing the rest of the starting lineup are three freshmen and one sophomore, a fact which gladdens the heart of Coach John Kenfield since all four will be back in years to come. Jim Nicholson fills the number three position, sophomore Stan Gruner is number four, Don Skakle number five, and Sam Daniels holds the sixth singles post.

Although the doubles assignments are still somewhat undecided, it is likely that the three combinations will be Maass and Gruner, Nicholson and Skakle, and Jordan and Daniels.

Following today's match, the Tar Heels will find themselves strictly on the defensive in their next contest, when a powerful William and Mary net squad invades Chapel Hill next week.

UNC-Aggies Film

E. C. Smith announced late last night that the film taken of the Carolina-Oklahoma basketball game will be shown at the Carolina Theatre today and tomorrow.

Coach John Kenfield is looking forward to today's opening match between Carolina and Kalamazoo. Mentor of many great Tar Heel net teams over the years, Kenfield has a comparatively young squad this spring.

Coed Briefs

With the advent of spring, big plans are being made by the coeds for their intramural season. Volleyball and softball leagues are planned and will start shortly.

Mural Schedule

Wednesday's mural schedule:
4 o'clock: Law School No. 1 vs. Old West (field 1), ROTC 3rd Co. vs. Stacy (field 2), Steele vs. Lewis (field 3), ZBT vs. St. Anthony (field 4), Phi Delta No. 2 vs. TEP (field 5), Kappa Sigma No. 2 vs. ATO (field 6), BVP vs. ROTC 1st Co. (field 7), Alexander vs. Law School No. 2 (field 8).

5 o'clock: Aycock vs. Ruffin (field 1), SAE No. 2 vs. Pi Lambda Phi (field 2), Phi Delta No. 1 vs. PiKA (field 3), KA No. 2 vs. Sigma Nu (field 4), Sigma Chi vs. Beta Theta Pi (field 5), DKE vs. Chi Phi (field 6), Graham No. 2 vs. Grads (field 7), field 8 open for practice.

JOHN DILLON

... All-American Hooker ...

John Dillon Chosen On All-American Five

John "Hook" Dillon has been picked on Jocko Maxwell's All-American basketball team. Dillon also was chosen as guard on the Sporting News selected five.

Maxwell is a popular sportscaster in Long Island, New York and is the author of several popular sports books.

Maxwell praised Dillon's hook shot as the best in the country and tabbed him as one of the best players to perform in Madison Square Garden.

BASEBALL RESULTS

San Antonio, Texas, April 2.
—(UP)—
Pittsburgh (N)—
000 000 100—1 5 1
Chicago (A)—
100 002 00x—3 5 1
Home runs: Wally Moses (Chicago) 1st, none on.
Valdosta, Ga., April 2.—
(UP)—
New York (A) B Team—
015 020 000—8 11 1
Brooklyn (N) B Team—
010 000 000—1 5 0

George Stephens Compiled Athletic Record That Never Will Be Forgotten At Carolina

By Bill Woestendiek

"One of the best college pitchers I have ever seen," was what John McGraw, former manager of the New York Giants, said about the late George G. Stephens, illustrious Carolina alumnus of the class of '96, who is also credited with catching the first forward pass ever thrown in modern day football.

Stephens, who died Monday in Charlotte at the age of 82, was well-known throughout the state. He is spoken of as Charlotte's "master-builder," and his great foresight, energy, and common-sense was primarily responsible for the construction of that city's leading parks and beautiful homes, and led to people referring to the Carolina graduate as the man who never knew failure.

But this is a story about Stephens' brilliance in the field of athletics at the University, a field in which his spirit and intelligence were displayed by the same great leadership and ability that he used so well throughout his lifetime.

out his lifetime.

Stephens attended UNC from 1892-1896, won fame as a great left-handed pitcher, and also became one of the greatest football players in the history of the University, being named on Joel Whitaker's all time Carolina eleven which was first published in 1910 and later reproduced in Kemp Battle's history of North Carolina.

In 1893 Alonzo A. Stagg, athletic director of Chicago university originated a World's Fair Baseball Tournament for college teams. Yale, Harvard, Vanderbilt, Amherst, Vermont, Illinois, Wisconsin, and Virginia entered teams in the tourney. By special permission Stephens was allowed to pitch for the Virginia team, which advanced to the finals before being nipped by Yale.

Caught First Pass

The book, "On Carolina's Grid-irons," an excellent and authentic account of the Tar Heels football history written by Smith Barrier, sports editor of the Greensboro Daily News, contains an excerpt from a Collier's Weekly of Oct. 20, 1928, in which John W. Heisman, national football authority describes what he called the "first pass in football." It was illegal at the time, but Stephens caught it and ran 70 yards for the Blue and White to give them a 6-0 win over Georgia.

In talking about the play later, Stephens referred to it as an end-around play in which the quarterback gave the ball to the left end Ed Gregory. He said:

"Soon after Gregory received the ball, I remember looking up just as he tossed the ball to me, but I did not know it was a forward pass and not lateral. I merely grabbed the ball and ran through a clear field for a touchdown."

With Stephens starring at left-halfback, the Carolina club of '95 lost but one game in nine, dropping a close 6-0 game to Virginia. The club played five games in eight days that year and Stephens, who stood 5 feet, 8½ inches tall and weighed only 170 pounds took plenty of battering. The teams played two 35-minute halves, and since a man once replaced could not return to the game, the players were only replaced when broken bones or battered bodies made it impossible for them to continue.

Born near Summerfield, Guilford county, he attended Oak Ridge Institute from 1888-1892 where he showed ability as a left-handed pitcher and a great interest in physical education.

Physical Instructor

Entering Carolina in 1892, Stephens was appointed an instructor in physical training, by means of which he was able to earn his way through four years of college. As a varsity pitcher for four seasons, he compiled

See STEPHENS, page 4

Fordham University SCHOOL OF LAW NEW YORK

Three-Year Day Course
Four-Year Evening Course
CO-EDUCATIONAL

Member Assn. of American Law Schools Accredited College Degree Required for Admission

Veterans of World War II applying within one year of honorable discharge admitted on completion of two years of college work toward accredited degree.

Full transcript of record required in every case

FIRST YEAR CLASS BEGINS September 30th, 1946

For further information address Registrar Fordham Univ. School of Law 302 Broadway, New York, 7, N. Y.

Coleman's Fine Pitching Subdues Visiting Hitters

Tar Heels Score Twice in Second; Beason Drives Triple in Eighth

By Bill Woestendiek

Brilliant pitching by Hamp Coleman keynoted Carolina's first win of the youthful baseball campaign as Coleman combined with fellow freshman Vin DiLorenzo to weave a masterful five-hit, 3-0 victory over Ohio University on Emerson field yesterday.

The Tar Heels got two runs for the young righthander from Red Springs in the second inning, and he proceeded to keep the swinging Ohioans under his thumb throughout his seven-innings on the hill. DiLorenzo, southpaw from Bergenfield, N. J., finished and kept up the string of goose-eggs for the visitors, although Ohio almost tallied in the ninth.

Two Tallies

An infield single by John Gregory and a walk to Ott Evans set the stage for the two Carolina tallies in the second. Fred Ryan, who handled the shortstop spot well in his first game, sacrificed them along. Gregory tallied when Rollo Frazier literally hit a line drive off of Ohio hurler Charlie Burdette's body that rolled over to first base in time for first-sacker Brooks to make the putout. Coleman then added to his own lead by hitting a hard ground single to right center, scoring Evans.

Ohio put on what was its strongest scoring threat of the day in the first half of the second frame. After Coleman walked Russkowski, big Ohio catcher, Brooks hit a double off Cleetwood's glove in left, putting men on second and third with none out.

Whereupon Coleman proceeded to bear down and get Horn to lift to Warren, Singerman to fly out to short right, and Barbis to ground out easily, second to first. Harry Beason made a nice catch and quick throw on Singerman's fly to disperse any thoughts of scoring after the catch that Russkowski might have had.

Burdette and his successor, Andrews, held the Tar Heels scoreless until the eighth, when

See BASEBALL, page 4

O for Ohio

Ohio	AB	R	H
Turk, 2b	4	0	1
Brady, rf	3	0	0
Sayre, rf	1	0	0
Treager, cf	4	0	0
Russkowski, c	2	0	1
Biskup, c	1	0	1
Brooks, 1b	3	0	1
Thompson, rf	1	0	0
Horn, ss	3	0	0
Singerman, 2b	3	0	0
Barbis, lf	2	0	0
Madden, lf, 1b	2	0	1
Burdette, p	2	0	0
Andrews, p	1	0	0
aMah	1	0	0
Totals	33	0	5

aBatted for Horn in ninth.

Carolina	AB	R	H
Thompson, 2b	4	0	0
Beason, rf	3	1	2
Cleetwood, lf	4	0	1
Warren, 3b	3	0	0
Gregory, 1b	4	1	2
Evans, cf	3	1	0
Ryan, ss	2	0	1
Frazier, c	3	0	0
Coleman, p	3	0	1
DiLorenzo, p	0	0	0
Totals	29	3	7

Score by innings:

Ohio	000	000	000	—0
UNC	020	000	01x	—3

Errors: Horn, Thompson, Cleetwood, Frazier. Runs batted in: Frazier, Coleman, Cleetwood. Two base hit: Brooks. Three base hit: Beason. Sacrifice hits: Ryan, Warren. Stolen base: Beason. Double plays: Horn to Singerman to Brooks, DiLorenzo to Thompson to Gregory to Frazier. Men left on base: Ohio 8, Carolina 5. Runs: off Burdette 2 in 5 innings; off Andrews 1 in

See BOXSCORE, page 4

PRESCRIPTIONS FILLED

GLASSES REPAIRED

Durham Optical Co.
215 W. Main St.
Phone F-2141 Durham

TYPEWRITERS -- ADDING MACHINES

SALES and SERVICE

UNDERWOOD CORPORATION

C. P. ROWE, Representative
118 Morgan Street Phone J-2373
Durham, N. C.

For The Pause that Re-"Fleshes"

HARRY'S

Meals

Beer

Sandwiches

IT COULDN'T BE SWELLA

The story of the fella who fell for

CINDERELLA JONES

JOAN LESLIE ROBERT ALDA

STARRING

WARNER PICTURE!

OTHER FEATURES
Spotlight "Running the Team"
Lulu Cartoon "Man's Pest Friend"
TODAY AND THURSDAY

CAROLINA