

Burlington Scores 3-2 Win Over Carolina

Tennis Schedule Lists Duke, Virginia, W&M

Tennis Coach John Kenfield announced yesterday the schedule of court matches that the Carolina team will play this season. The list includes tilts with Virginia, Navy, and William and Mary, as well as the traditional one with Duke.

The certain matches are as follows:

April 9th—Eastern Carolina State Teachers' College, here.

April 12th—William and Mary, here.

April 19th—Virginia at Charlottesville.

April 20th—Navy at Annapolis.

April 22nd—William and Mary at Williamsburg.

May 4th—Virginia, here.

May 11th—Duke at Durham.

Besides these matches there is a tentative clash with Greensboro ORD set for April 13th, and if the Army team accepts, the Tar Heels will play them a second time later in the season at Greensboro. There will also be a return game with Duke that will be played here, but the date is not yet available.

William and Mary, with whom the team opens a home and home series next Friday, is reputed to have one of the best court combinations in the country. The match at Williamsburg will wind up a four day trip for the Carolina team in which they will meet Virginia and Navy as well.

Coach Kenfield has another trip in the making for the team, one to Charleston, South Carolina which will pit them against The Citadel and the Charleston Naval Base sextet. If the two teams accept, the matches will probably be played on the 26th and 27th of this month. He has also written the University of Kentucky, South Carolina University, Georgia Tech, and Wake Forest in an attempt to schedule contests with their tennis teams.

Golf Squad Chosen By Coach Erickson

After a week's qualifying rounds, Coach Chuck Erickson has picked a seven man team out of the 40 golf aspirants and plans to devote most of the next week to weave the team into condition for their opening match with Wayne University of Detroit, Mich., which is making a six-match southern swing.

The golfers chosen to round out the Carolina team includes Gradyon Liles, E. H. Bailey, Daniel Nyimicz, Jim Keiger, Beaudry, Harry Golding and P. J. Pate.

Coach Erickson plans to take the squad to the Hope Valley course Monday for a short practice and divide the team up for an intra-squad meet.

Runners Prep For Meet With Georgia Tech

Return of Several Vets Spark Hope

The 1946 edition of the Carolina track team is rapidly rounding into shape for the first meet of the season on April 13, when the Tar Heel tracksters oppose Georgia Tech.

Under the direction of Coach Dale Ranson, the cindermen have been holding daily workouts for the past several weeks in preparation for the coming season. Coach Ranson expects the team to be at almost top strength for the Tech encounter.

Unknown Quality

The ability of this year's team will be of an unknown quality until after the first meet, due to the presence of so many new men who are untested in varsity competition. The return of several veterans, who formerly competed for Carolina, bolsters the strength of the team to some extent.

Several candidates from the indoor track season will be on hand to compete in the outdoor events. Leading these men will be Floyd "Chunk" Simmons, who was one of the outstanding performers on the indoor track. Simmons, who is also outstanding in football, is expected to be one of the best cindermen of this season.

Ruffing Settles Dispute...

Verne Stephens Rejoins Browns; Bonham Signs

(By United Press)

Right now it looks as if league-hopping Vern Stephens has come to rest, and right back where he started from, with the St. Louis Browns.

But the American League home run king didn't come to earth until Mexico's Jorge Pasquel tossed around pesos by the millions . . . threatened to sue Stephens . . . offered a $5,000 reward for Stephens' return and, as a last resort, said he'd get Mrs. Stephens to talk with hubby.

However, it was not money, but a combination of "six shooters on the hip," Mexico's poorer class of baseball and high altitude that made Stephens decide to jump back to the Browns.

The hard-hitting shortstop—after signing a contract earlier for $25,000 and playing in two Mexican League games, left Mexico last night without notice.

When Pasquel heard of Stephens' move, he did everything to lure him back. Pasquel offered a Houston sports reporter $5,000 just to get Vern to reconsider. Then he called Stephens and offered him $125,000 to sign a five-year contract. Pasquel even agreed to put $50,000 in a New York bank if the diamond star would return.

Stephens says: "I turned Pasquel down flat! He said he was going to the American embassy to start a suit, but I'm not worried."

The big figures didn't mean a thing to Vernon. As he puts it: "Even though I didn't get the $17,500 a year I asked of the Browns I'm sure glad to be back."

The Brownie star adds—"It was like a concentration camp in Mexico. Everybody was running around with six-shooters on

Dance Class to Meet On Tuesday at 7:15

A recreational dancing class will be held on Tuesday evenings at 7:15 p. m. in the Women's Gym, under the guidance of Mrs. Allbright. All those interested are invited to attend.

Carolina Sports Teams Face Busy Week of Action

The baseballers' three-game swing into Virginia and Maryland, co-starred with the track team's opening meet against Georgia Tech here Saturday, top this week's activities of University of North Carolina spring sports teams.

Every team except the golfers, playing their first schedule since 1942, will be in action. The linksmen meet Wayne University on the Detroiters' Southern tour Monday, April 15.

Coach Bunn Hearn's baseballers, after sticking close to home while trying their pitching wings, meet ORD of Greensboro here Tuesday, then take off on their first long road junket. The Tar Heels meet Virginia at Charlottesville on Thursday, Maryland at College Park on Friday, and the Naval Academy at Annapolis on Saturday.

Georgia Tech's cindermen, with a team Coach Norris Dean calls the equal of last spring's Southeastern Conference kings,

Bees Tally Deciding Run On Sixth-Inning Single

Tar Heel Batsmen Get Five Hits; McElrath, Webb Pitch for Losers

Burlington, April 6—Bunching hits for a run in the sixth inning today, the Burlington Bees edged out the University of North Carolina nine, 3-2 in a fast, well-played ball game at Elon college field.

A single by Wilson scored Parise from second with the winning run. Parise had opened the inning by doubling to left. John McElrath, Tar Heel pitcher then got the next two hitters on easy outs, but Wilson drilled a one-base knock to left to score the deciding tally.

Steve Bysco, manager of the Bees, pitched the first six innings and got credit for the win. Bysco and Coker, who hurled the final three frames, limited the Tar Heels to five safeties. John McElrath and Jim Webb did the Carolina pitching. McElrath pitched the first six innings, with Webb finishing up.

First Blood

The Tar Heels drew first blood by scoring once in the second. John Gregory opened the inning with an infield single, and moved to second on Bob Warren's single to center. Ott Evans sacrificed, moving the runners to second and third. Gregory scored when first-baseman Teal dropped a throw to first on McElrath's grounder. Thompson flew to center to end the inning.

Another score in the top of the third gave the visitors a 2-0 lead. Rip Ryan was safe on Tinner's error, moved to second as Cleetwood was being thrown out, and came home on Harry Beason's safety into centerfield.

Even Things Up

The Bees evened things up in their half of the third after two were out. Tinner doubled to right, Parise singled to right, and Zurnail hit a prodigious two-bagger to deep left to give the Burlington club two quick runs.

The remainder of the game resolved into a tight pitching duel, with the Bees shoving over the winning score in the sixth. Carolina made a bid for a run in the top half of the same inning when Gregory doubled to right field to open the inning. He was caught between second and third on Warren's ground ball to third, however, and tagged out by Baum. That was the last Tar Heel safety as Coker pitched hitless ball for the last three innings.

Two for Gregory

Gregory was the only Carolina player to get two hits, while the power section of the home teams batting order, Tinner, Parise, and Zurnail, each got two hits and accounted for all the run-making.

John Hearn, son of Carolina Coach Bunn Hearn, made his first appearance in several years in the Carolina line-up when he pinch-hit for McElrath in the seventh and flew out to the third baseman.

Both teams played fast, heads-up ball under the threatening skies, with the result that the game was played in just slightly more than 90 minutes.

New Officers

Chi Delta Phi, literary sorority, elected the following officers at a meeting this week: president, Rosemary Cleveland; vice-president, Marcella Haer; secretary, Margaret Whitney; treasurer, Gene Wilkins; and publicity chairman, Eleanor Craig.
