

State's Johnson Hurls 5-0 Win Over Carolina

Netmen Crush Deacons For First League Win

Racquetmen Breeze to 9-0 Triumph; Nicholson Extends Streak to Eight

Wake Forest, April 24—Scoring their most decisive triumph of the season, Carolina's netters coasted to a 9-0 victory over Wake Forest here today to register their first Southern Conference win in two loop encounters.

In none of the afternoon's 18 sets were the Deacons successful to the extent of more than three games. In three of the six singles matches, the losers averted a complete love score by only one game.

Singles Tilts

In the feature contest, Harold Maass, the team's recently-elected captain, trimmed Harold Anderson, 6-1, 6-1. Mel Jordan was a 6-3, 6-3 victor over Jack Acree at the second position. Jim Nicholson extended his winning streak for the campaign to eight by trouncing Dan Josey, 6-1, 6-0. Playing number four, Don Skakle crushed Ed Folk by a 6-1, 6-0 margin. Ed Dameron racked up an easy win over Bill Wall, 6-0, 6-1, and Dick Swigart walloped Tom Bland by the same score to round out the complete sweep of the singles tilts.

At doubles, the Tar Heels were equally as potent, with the three combinations holding the opposition to a total of six games. Jordan and Duke Wilder trounced Acree and Josey, 6-0, 6-1. Swigart and Sam Daniels defeated Anderson and Folk in consecutive 6-1 sets. Winding up the day's activities, Dameron and Skakle triumphed over Wall and Bland, 6-2, 6-1.

Football Team To Scrimmage On Kenan Turf

Coach Carl Snavelly's 1946 gridiron hopefuls will hold their first major intra-squad scrimmage this afternoon in Kenan Stadium at 4:15 and the results might be a good indication of what the Tar Heels will field this fall.

Today's affair will climax three weeks of spring drills and a bigger scrimmage is being planned on Saturday, May 4. The event will be under the auspices of the Monogram Club.

Coach Snavelly was not able to give the starting line-ups that he would use for today's tussle, but stated that all the players would see action during the informal contest.

Carolina fans will see such stars in action as Chan Highsmith, John Tandy, Walt Pupa, Joe Wright, Dan Logue, George Sparger and Max Spurlin for the first time since before the war.

Coach Snavelly announced that all students and faculty members are invited to witness the scrap this afternoon. Regular game uniforms will be donned.

Snavelly will devote most of the afternoon in running through plays which the squad has been working on in the three weeks of spring drills.

Duke Jayvees Nip Tar Babies With Last Inning Score, 6-5

Halliday Hurls Win; Boseman Suffers Loss

The Carolina Tar Babies lost a heart-breaker to the Duke Jayvees yesterday by a 6-5 score on Emerson field. Carolina had victory snatched from its grasp in the first half of the ninth when the Little Devils from Durham capitalized on a walk, a passed ball, and two base knocks to bring in the winning runs.

The Tar Babies seemed to have the game sewed up in the fifth inning when they led, 4-1. The game was temporarily stopped by rain in the fifth.

"Skeet" Webb started the game on the mound for Carolina, but was relieved by Boseman in the seventh inning. Boseman went on to become the losing pitcher when the Durham nine rallied in the final frame. Halliday, Duke twirler, allowed but four hits over the route to win the ball game, but loose play afield accounted for most of the Carolina tallies.

Stevenson played a brilliant game at third for the losers, cutting off one run at the plate and robbing several Duke hitters with his fine play around the hot corner.

Kappa Sigs Extend Win Streak to Six; Rain Stops Murals

April showers played havoc with another day's intramural softball play yesterday as the late afternoon rains caused postponement of all but five contests.

In the feature tilt of the day Kappa Sig No. 2 ran their winning streak to six straight as they edged by Pi Lambda Phi, 5-3. Another thrill-packed contest saw ROTC 1st Co. come from behind in the final inning to nose out Alexander, 7-6, while Graham was downing Ruffin, 13-6.

In other games SAE No. 2 had an easy time with the Betas, winning 6-1, and Law School No. 2 took the measure of Lewis, 12-6.

The Phi Delt net team white-washed the Phi Kaps, 4-0 without dropping a set, while the Deke water polo five, led by Griffin, was sinking the Delta Sigs, 14-3.

Tar Heels Battle Winners Again Today in Game Here

Hearmen Shut Out with Two Safeties In Dropping First Big Four Engagement

Raleigh, April 24.—Carolina batsmen looked at the best pitching they've seen this year here today as Ernie Johnson fired a brilliant two-hit shutout for North Carolina State to hand the Tar Heels a 5-0 shellacking in the first Big Four game of the year for the losers.

Coach Bunn Hearn will send either Hamp Coleman or Monk Whiteheart to the mound tomorrow afternoon as the two teams meet again on Emerson field at 4 p.m. State will probably counter with hefty Curt Ramsey.

Johnson faced only 32 hitters

as he limited the visitors to a single by "Rip" Ryan in the fourth and a pinch-hit double to left in the ninth by Bo Hackney. Ryan and Hackney were the only two men to reach second and no one got any farther than second as the State hurler retired man after man. Johnson struck out only one man, but had the Tar Heels popping up most of the afternoon.

DiLorenzo Hurls

Vin DiLorenzo went the distance for Carolina and was touched for 12 safeties by the Red Terror, who bunched their hits into three scoring innings. Two singles and an error by Ryan gave the home club a single tally in the third and Coach

Vic Sorrell's nine added three more in the third on successive hits by Rickus, Edwards, and Wilson. Edwards steal of home on a double steal with Wilson highlighted the inning. The final State score came in the seventh when first-sacker Stanton blasted a triple to right and trotted home on a two-bagger to left by Rickus.

First 10 Retired

Johnson had retired the first 10 men to face him when Ryan singled in the fourth. He then retired every man, with the exception of a walk to Charlie Cole, until Hackney led off the ninth by batting for DiLorenzo and doubling. After Thompson popped out to short, Ryan was safe on Kohler's boot. Cleetwood flew out to Courts, but Cole walked again to load the bases with two out in the Tar Heels' one and only threat of the wet afternoon. John Gregory bounced back to the box and Johnson put the finishing touch to his fine game by throwing the last man out at first.

The Tar Heels' loss today was their first in Southern conference play as well as in Big Four competition. They will be out for their first win in the state loop tomorrow in an attempt to avenge today's shutout.

Alpha Delta Pi Sorority will initiate seven girls Sunday morning.

Trackmen To Compete In Intra-Squad Meet

The Tar Heel cindermen will hold an intra-squad meet in Fetzer field this afternoon. Field events will begin at 3 p.m., with the first running event getting under way at 4 o'clock.

Coach Dale Ranson has been holding the series of intra-squad meets this week in preparation for the two tough dual meets of the season—Duke and the Navy on two successive week-ends.
