Ultimatum Is Given Convicts On Alcatraz

Mutineers Attempt 'Deal' with Warden

San Francisco, May 3.—Silence has replaced the sound of explosions and shootings on Alcatraz tonight. The shooting stopped suddenly this afternoon and authorities are reported to have delivered an ultimatum to the besieged convicts trapped in a cell block to surrender or die. A Marine major who went ashore last night says that the mutineers tried to make a "deal" with Warden James Johnston, but they have been served with a demand for unconditional surrender.

For 24 hours the desperadoes have withstood bombs, shells and bullets in their attempt to fight their way beyond the walls of one of the nation's most impregnable prisons. Despite a rain of mortar fire and an attack with fragmentation grenades, about 16 of the men could not be dislodged during the day's battle.

Two are known to have been killed since the trouble began yesterday afternoon, while 14 have been wounded. All of these are guards, and what effect the bombing and shooting has had on the convicts will not be known until they have been cleared out of their stronghold.

Fighting Resumed

San Francisco, May 3.—The besieged convicts at Alcatraz resumed firing at guards at 8:15 p. m. (EST) after a five-hour lull in fighting.

Peace Is Restored Within Palestine

Jerusalem, May 3.—A troubled peace has returned to Palestine tonight after a 12-hour general strike in Jerusalem during which 15,000 Arabs tried to storm the Modern City.

Gen. Hurley To Run For Senate Position

Santa Fe, New Mexico, May 3.—Major General Patrick Hurley, former Ambassador to China, announced tonight he would be a candidate for the U S Senate from New Mexico on the Republican ticket.

Schacht Describes Goering as Criminal

Nuernberg, May 3.—The Nazi finance wizard—Hjalmar Schacht—has described his fellow Nuernberg defendant—Hermann Goering—as an immoral and criminal man who used rouge and wore gaudier clothes than Nero.

The description—contained in a Schacht statement read by American prosecutor Robert Jackson—prompted Goering to thumb his nose at the bespectacled German economist. Everyone in the court laughed at Goering's gesture—except the judges—and Schacht.

Seismographs Report Distant Earthquakes

Boston, May 3.—Two very strong earthquakes, probably centered in the South Pacific off the Island of Java, have been recorded by the Seismograph station at Weston College, Massachusetts. Both tremors still were being felt more than three hours after the original shock. The first started at 6:20 Eastern daylight time and the second at 6:42. The shocks also were recorded by Seismographs at the California Institute of Technology in Pasadena, California.

Pully Nomination Sticks After Stormy Sessions

Student Party Will Present New Candidate For Student Presidency at Next Meeting

Pete Pully, center of one of the bitterest political misunderstandings in recent years, stated last night that he would definitely run for the office of student body president on the University Party ticket. The statement contradicted numerous rumors that Pully planned to withdraw his nomination as a result of pressure applied by Student Party members.

PETE PULLY

Chuck Heath, SP chairman who Thursday charged that Pully's decision to run on the UP slate was "a stab in the back," said yesterday that the Student Party would go ahead and nominate someone else for the office of student body president at their next meeting which will probably be held the first of next week.

Feeling Running High

Feeling ran high yesterday afternoon when wheels of both parties crowded the Daily Tar Heel office and it was after a long session with Heath and later with UP members Alec Davis and Whit Osgood that Pully reaffirmed his decision to run.

Heath claimed that Pully had definitely committed himself to run on the SP ticket alone and that his acceptance of the UP bid was "a violation of a shaken agreement."

Pully, in a lengthy statement printed on the editorial page of today's Daily Tar Heel, stated that his decision to run on the UP slate came only after thorough consultation with his family and that he regretted "most sincerely" any hurt, embarrassment or disgust that his decision had caused.

Di Senate Votes For Constitution

Wednesday night the Dialectic Senate went on record by a vote of ten to one as favoring the adoption of the campus constitution and called for all the campus to vote on this important issue. Furthermore, the Di voted unanimously as favoring the establishment of a Congressional Board to investigate complaints of enlisted men against officers in the armed forces and as opposed to social inequalities between these men. The resolution was introduced by John Giles and amended by Jack Lackey. President Pittman announced that the discussion bill next week will be on the establishment of a minimum wage law.

66.79% Vote To Approve First UNC Constitution

Dormitory Coeds Vote Nearly 2-3 in Favor; Constitution To Go Into Effect May 14

The students of the University of North Carolina ratified the first student government constitution in school history by the narrow margin of 66.79% of the votes cast in the special referendum held yesterday and the day before. A total of 1,879 ballots were cast: 1255 in favor and 624 against ratification of the document.

The outstanding feature of the results of the two days of voting on the ratification was the support given the constitution in the coed dormitories. The total ballots from this area which was thought to be opposed to the document lacked only one vote of meeting the required 2/3 majority.

YMCA 2-1

The YMCA vote was nearly 2 to 1 in favor yesterday, a large increase over the bare majority approval given the proposal in Thursday's balloting. A great deal of support for the constitution also came from the votes cast yesterday in Lenoir Hall and the lower quadrangle.

The constitution will now go into effect after the election on the 14th of May when the student government officers are selected for the coming year, providing, of course, the administration approves of this new plan of student government.
