

State Nine Drops Tar Heels Into Big Four Cellar by 6-4 Score

Jayvees Trim Blue Imp Nine By 9-2 Score

Boseman Hurls, Hits In One-Sided Battle

Durham, May 8—Behind a five-hit pitching performance by Bill Boseman, Carolina's junior varsity trounced the Duke Blue Imp nine by a 9-2 score here today.

While Boseman was limiting the Dukes to two runs, his mates shelled two Blue Imp hurlers with a 14-hit attack. Boseman helped to win his own ball game with two timely bingles. Catcher Sid Varney and right-fielder Bill Webster also garnered two safeties apiece to pace the Tar Baby attack.

Two Big Innings

Carolina staged two big innings to pile up their victory margin. In the seventh inning the Tar Babies picked up four big runs and added three more in the eighth to provide a comfortable lead.

Duke put together three hits in their half of the ninth to score two runs. Outside of the ninth inning Boseman was in complete control of the Imps, allowing only two hits and no runs.

The Tar Babies will stage a return engagement with the Dukes on Friday, when they meet the Imps on Emerson field at 4 p.m.

Riggs Holds Two-Match Lead Over Budge in Tennis Play

Net Troupe to Appear in Woollen Gym Tuesday Night; Tickets Now on Sale

By Bob Goldwater

A gap of only two matches separates Bobby Riggs and Don Budge as their nationwide tour nears its Chapel Hill appearance next Tuesday evening at 7:30 p.m. in Woollen Gym.

Golfers Face Blue Devils In Big Match

North Carolina's golfers face one of their toughest battles of the season when they match strokes with the strong Duke Blue Devils on the Hope Valley Course this afternoon starting at one-thirty.

The Tar Heels are unbeaten in Southern Conference competition, while the Blue Devils have only an upset loss to N. C. State to mar their record. The Wolfpack caught the Methodists off guard to ring up a 17-10 win on the Carolina Country Club Course Monday afternoon in Raleigh.

Garrett Paces Duke

Pacing the Blue Devils will be Frank Garrett of High Point, a pre-war Duke star who recently returned from the service. He has been flirting with old man par on the Hope Valley links of late and promises to Graydon Liles, the Tar Heel ace, plenty of competition.

How well the Tar Heels are able to do in the lower brackets tomorrow afternoon will have a big bearing on the match, since Duke is well fortified in the top positions. Coach Chuck Erickson will probably use Liles and Ed Ashby in the No. 1 foursome, long-driving Ed Bailey and Dan Nyimicz as the No. 2 pair, and Jim Keiger and Bill Woods in the No. 3 position.

Tough Match

"This will be one of our toughest matches of the year," Coach Chuck Erickson said last night. "It should be pretty even and I think we have a fairly good chance of winning."

It all boils down to whether the boys are hot or cold. Two or three shots can win or lose a match, and if the Tar Heels are sharp, the chances are good, and if they aren't—well, it'll be a good battle anyway. That's golf for you.

Student tickets for the event are now on sale in the gymnasium ticket office at $1. All of the 3400 seats will be reserved.

Once losing by a 14-5 count, Budge has captured 11 of the last 15 encounters to pull up into 18-16 deficit. His most recent triumph took place Monday at Smith College, Mass., when the redhead slammed his way to straight 6-4, 6-1 sets. Riggs was victorious in the latest clash at Hartford, Conn., Tuesday. The tour, originally a 40-match affair, has been increased to 50 with the local showing the 39th battle between the two rivals.

Also appearing on the program in preliminary singles and combining with the two stars in doubles are Wayne Sabin and John Faunce. The probable doubles combinations will see Budge and Faunce oppose Riggs and Sabin. All matches will be the best of three sets.

The two headliners are both former national Wimbledon, and Davis Cup stars in their amateur days, and the diminutive Riggs is the present professional titleholder, by virtue of a four-set victory over Budge last December. As an amateur, Sabin was an alternate on the Davis Cup team.

Chapel Hill is the fifth college town in which the troupe is to perform. Previously they had visited Michigan State, Illinois, Smith, and Cornell.

Runners Point For Duke Meet Away Saturday

Local Cindermen Rate As Underdogs

By Jim Pharr

The Tar Heel cindermen are pointing for their most important dual meet of the season, to be held in Durham Saturday against the potent Duke Blue Devils.

The meet Saturday is expected to serve as a preview of the Southern Conference meet, that will be run here on May 17-18. The Carolina trackmen rate as underdogs to the Blue Devils, but Coaches Fetzer and Ranson hope to upset the Dukes with a squad that has been strengthened by the addition of several candidates from the football squad.

Carolina's track staff are hoping that several trackmen who have been improving steadily in each meet this season will come through with enough points to turn the tide against the Duke runners. In the dashes, Laddie Terrell, Ted Haigler, Tom Jordan, and Charlie Donnell carry the Carolina hopes.

Vernon Reiser, Charlie Tietjen, Tom Turner, Alex Veazey, and James Briley will be the leading contenders in the 440 and 880, while Mark Burnham, Leonard Briley, Walter Francis, and John Strait lead the candidates in the mile and two-mile events.

The Tar Heel hurdles are expected to be strongly run, with Chunk Simmons leading a field including Dick Taylor, Hunter Heggie, and Ted Haigler.

The track staff has been hoping for improvement in the field events, which have proved to be weak all through the season. The one strong field event on the Carolina team has been the pole vault, with Norman McLeod, Hank Hickman, and Walter Ward have been getting fair height.

Simmons, Terrell, Taylor Thorne, Ward, Paxton, Heggie, and Holt are the leading Tar Heel candidates in the broad jump and high jump, while Klosterman, John Tandy, and Hobbs are the outstanding men in the discus.

In the javelin throw, Simmons paces a field including Tandy, Hickman, and Paxton. Ted Hazlewood, Bob Riddle, Hobbs and Hartig are the Carolina men that the Duke shot putters will have to reckon with.

Two Runs in Seventh Inning Nullifies Rally by Carolina

Johnson Pitches Victory for Wolfpack; Coleman Suffers Loss, Beason Hits Homer

BIG FOUR STANDINGS

	Won	Lost
State	6	1
Duke	3	3
Wake Forest	2	4
Carolina	1	4

By Bill Woestendiek

Carolina baseball fortunes hit bottom here yesterday as the Tar Heels fell into the Big Four cellar by bowing to NC State for the third time this spring on Emerson field. This time the score was 6-4 in favor of the loop leaders, who backed freshman Ernie Johnson's five-hit hurling with a 12-hit attack against Hamp Coleman and Vin DiLorenzo.

Trailing 4-1 in the sixth inning, the Tar Heels put on their only offensive attack of the day to make four hits and score three runs in a rally highlighted by right-fielder Harry Beason's two-run homer, his second in two days.

Winning Runs

State scored the winning runs in the seventh on three hits and an error. Jim Wilson led off with a ground ball double to right center. After PeeWee Gardner fanned, Jim Edwards connected for his third single, sending Wilson to third. Bob Courts then bounced to first-baseman John Gregory who scooped the ball up and threw to second in an attempt to start a double play. However, the throw was low and Wilson scored with Courts going to third. Bill Stanton singled home Courts with the final score of the ball game.

Coleman got off on the wrong foot by walking the first two batters to face him in the first inning. With Mewborn and Richkus on base as a result of the walks, Wilson bounced a ball through the infield for a single, and Mewborn came on to score when the ball was bobbled by Cole in center. Gardner struck out, but Edwards lined a safety to left to give the visitors a two-run margin.

Beason, who has been hitting brilliantly in recent games blasted a line-drive triple to right to open Carolina's second inning. Beason stayed on third until, with two out, Gardner kicked Hayworth's grounder, allowing the run to score.

Twice in Third

State tallied twice more in the third after the first two men had been easy outs. Coleman hit Gardner on the elbow and the latter promptly stole second,
