Announces Candidacy As Member at Large

Eddie "Blackie" Black announced yesterday that he was running independently for the Student Council as a member at large.

"I have never run for office before," said Blackie, "but when I looked at the nominees put up by the two parties I realized the Student Council posts are being used as political rewards for faithful party members and I do not believe that this should be done."

"Blackie" is well known on the campus for his efforts for providing entertainment for the campus. He started the Candlelight Room and was active in beginning the open-house practice of the veterans.

He is on the board of governors of the University Veterans' Association, Sergeant-at-Arms of the Dialectic Senate, and a former member of the Dance Committee.

He has been a columnist for the Tar Heel and has worked on the Carolina Mag and the Yackety Yack.

club. State, victorious in the first three games against Carolina, handed DiLorenzo a 5-0 beating in the first meeting of the year between the two clubs when Ernie Johnson pitched a two-hitter against the local nine.

In pasting Wake Forest Wednesday, Coach Bunn Hearn's club showed some power at the plate for the first time this spring. Carolina batsmen accounted for 12 hits, three of which were for extra bases. Johnny Colones and Jim Hayworth, hitting in the lower half of the lineup, accounted for five safeties between them.

One-Hitter

State, as a result of a 1-0 one-hit loss to Duke's Lee Griffith Wednesday is but one and one-half games ahead of the driving Devils and a defeat tomorrow would be a severe blow to the Wolfpack. At the same time, Carolina by winning can possibly pass the Deacons of Wake Forest and go into third place if the Deacs bow to Duke.

Hamp Coleman's win over Wake Forest Wednesday was the tall righthander's first Big Four victory of the campaign. It was the first time this spring that he has received such fine support both afield and at the plate.

It is plausible that the Tar Heels may have all of their bad baseball out of their system, in which case they can be plenty tough for all of their remaining opposition this spring.

Polls Placed Only In Gerrard Hall In Coming Election

After considerable discussion last night the student legislature voted against a motion introduced by Babs Saunders which would create three separate polling places for next Tuesday's general campus election. All voting will be done at the one polling place in Gerrard Hall according to the bill passed at last week's meeting of the legislature.

At the request of elections committee Chairman Fred Bauder, the legislature clarified several provisions in the elections rules. The committee was given authority to decide what groups were political parties and therefore entitled to the extra $100 in expense money for the campaign.

The committee was also given permission to hold a general mass meeting of the students, to introduce the principal candidates, on next Monday, instead of having it two days before the elections as is stated in the rules.

A motion by Jack Lackey was also passed which permits the members for the Men's Council from the Schools of Pharmacy, Law, and Medicine, to be elected by those groups alone instead of being voted on by the campus at large.

Camera Club Holds First Meet Tonight

The Camera Club will hold its first study meeting tonight at 7:30 in the Wootten-Moulton Studio. Mr. Frank Johnson will be in charge of the program which will be "The Fundamentals of Photography." All members are urged to attend. Others interested in photography may attend.

At the last meeting of the club the following officers were elected: president, Frank Johnson; vice-president, Lane Atkinson; secretary-treasurer, Reggie Kachigian.

Scuttlebutt Opened In Former Armory In Lower Quadrangle

In answer to a multitude of student request, a second Scuttlebutt was opened Wednesday night in the Pre-Flight Armory in the lower quadrangle, under management of H. R. Ritchie, director of the Book Exchange.

Mr. Ritchie has announced that the store will be open until 11 o'clock every night.

hold themselves ready for further calls to the executive mansion. And he has indicated how serious he believes the situation to be by cancelling his plans for a flying visit to Kansas City this week-end. The failure of President Truman's ace card appears to leave him no other resource but to take the mines if he is to prevent their closing again on May 25th.

Truman Asks Russians To Share More Food

Washington, May 16—President Truman has revealed that he's been in touch with Generalissimo Stalin on the world food crisis. Presumably, the President has appealed to Stalin for a bigger contribution from the Russians to the famine stricken peoples of the world. Although the President gave no details. He says he expects an answer soon from Stalin.

The President told his news conference that the United States was doing all it possibly could in the world food emergency he added sharply that this country was doing more than anyone else to alleviate the situation.

Fail to Make Major Agreements in Paris

Paris, May 16—The Big Four Foreign Ministers have adjourned their Paris conference until June 15th without reaching one major agreement. In their last session late today, the revised Italian armistice was signed. But Russia still refused to make any commitment on calling a peace conference on Germany for November 12th as advocated by Secretary of State Byrnes.

Twice as many Americans died from cancer during the war than were killed in battle.
